Obituary apparently published Methodist (Protestant) Recorder

Tunis Henry Wiggins was born in Linton Township, Coshocton County Ohio, October 26, 1841 and died at Mount Carmel Hospital, Columbus Ohio, February 19, 1908.

Mr. Wiggins was twice married. February 25, 1863 he was united in marriage with Harriet Newal Larntz, and of this union were born three children, 2 daughters and 1 son, who survive him.

His first wife dying July 11, 1889, he married December 23, 1897 Ella Adams Fisher, who is left to mourn his death.

In early manhood, Mr. Wiggins became a member of the Methodist Protestant church at Union Chapel, Otsego Circuit, and was a devout Christian through all the years of his active life. He loved his church and was liberal in supporting it. He was the pastor's friend. The Bible and the Recorder were his solice in days of suffering; and when the call came he was ready. At the time of his death he was one of the most valued members of the church at Coshocton. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor.

S. S. Fisher

Tunis H. Wiggins, also spelled Tonas H., Thomas H. drafted June 1863 Coshocton County Ohio, examined and accepted for service 22 Sep 1864 for one year. He joined Company "F", 41st Ohio Infantry 07 Oct 1864 at Newark Ohio as a private.

He was described as: blue eyes, dark complexion and hair, 5 feet 11 inches, aged 22 years, born in Coshocton Ohio and a farmer. He saw active service around Knoxville Tennessee.

Hello, Doris, Going through stored items, I ran across your letter of Dec .12,1999. To up-date a bit--- I'm still living in Wooster (or rather, I'm back in my home in Wooster after spending most of my time for the past couple of years with an Alzheimer's friend in Canton.) While I was in Salt Lake City in January, she fell on the ice in her driveway and broke her hip, resulting in a move to a nursing home. Now that I have time to think about genealogy again, I'm resurrecting some prior interests . Of course my paternal line of WHEATON is still dangling at the point of immigration from England in 1653.as no one seems to have any idea where in England our ancestor, Thomas WHEADON, was born or who his parents were. I'm enrolled in an intensive-study Elderhostel in Salt Lake City in May,2001. Our classes will be on early British family history. I wonder if I'll learn anything that will lead to identification of those ancestors. We have several past experiences in common, as well as genealogical interests. I.too. was a public school teacher who converted to librarian after I completed my master's degree in librarian science at Kent State. I taught in Millersburg and began my work there as a librarian. In 1963 I moved to Wooster City Schools for twenty years as a librarian. At one time I was active in the Ohio Educational Library Media Association. I wonder if I ever came in contact with you through activities of that organization. In any case, I think we should try to get together some time to review possible common interests, genealogical and otherwise. Please keep in touch as time permits. There is still the thread of William Lewis and Nancy Crawford and Brooke County, VA (WVA), as I recall. Should we try to go over there some time? I hope for the best for you and your husband. Ever, Mary Elizabeth Leppla, Wooster, OH

Hello, Cousin,

Thank you for establishing the connection between our Crawford ancestors! I don't get to Harrison County often, but I would welcome the opportunity to meet you "in person" whenever that can be arranged.

Before I get into our genealogy interests, allow me to explain a bit about myself. My research efforts have been limited largely to my own family lines. I am not a professional. I do go to Salt Lake City two or three times a year for a couple of weeks' time at the Family History Library. Are you familiar with that facility or with any of the Ohio centers maintained by the Mormons (North Canton is closest) If you use their computers, I want a copy of what is available there. I am guilty of being the kind of genealogist who thought I was supposed to locate what I could find about my direct lines. Consequently, I don't have all the records you want. I am fairly familiar with the line of William Lewis and Nancy Crawford (and their twelve children). I'll be glad to fill in your family with others who had no centers yet. I keep planning Family Tree Maker on my pc sends me a disc I have a on Lewis and Nancy Crawford. let you know I received your y to send a short message on action Co., Belmont Co., and ocess books for Tusc. Co. hen I leave him alone for ago last July and has ms in years back with panic storn. I had the school is accomplished but don't. l lines but time is just too

g I'll let you know. We are o put my research on hold for erials to catch up on reading.

years later the young couple came to Carroll County, Ohio, and purchased a farm in Brown Township, and commenced life's work in earnest, and by careful husbandry have succeeded each year in adding to their possessions, until they now own a farm of 270 acres, in a fine state of cultivation. The dwelling is conveniently arranged and spacious, and furnished in a style seldom equaled even in cities; the farm buildings are commodious and models of neatness, and all the surroundings indicate wealth and refinement, all the result of the labor of the family. The children are Robert L., Belle H., Martha A., John S., William C., Jennie, James C., Alexander and Anna B.

For many years the family have been among the leading members of the Presbyterian Church, and are also well known in the social circles of the county. Identifying himself with the Democratic party, Mr. Caldwell has ever supported it by earnest work, but has never yielded to any solicitation to accept political preferment.

JAMES CRAWFORD (deceased) was born in what is now Augusta Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, in the year 1818, and was prominent as a citizen and fruitman until his death, which occurred April 7, 1877. His father, James Crawford, Sr., was a native of County Donegal, Ireland, who, when a young man, came to this country and first located in Washington County, Penn., where he was married to Margaret Allender, a native of County Derry, Ireland, who came to Penn Valley, Penn., in 1785, and soon after this event they came to the then Far West and settled in the township and county named above, formerly known as the territory northwest of the Ohio and above the mouth of the Kentucky rivers, which were then swarming with bears, deer, wolves, and, not unfrequently, panthers. In this wilderness Mr. Crawford entered 160 acres of land, directed by an act of Congress to be sold at the Steubenville general land office, and erected a log cabin, where after a long life of hardships, yet of usefulness, he passed away.

James Crawford, whose name opens this sketch, was born on the tract of land just alluded to, and on it grew to manhood, after reaching which estate he married Miss Anne Crawford, who was born in Beaver County, Penn., May 7, 1824, a daughter of George and Jane McRoney Crawford, former born in Ireland, latter a native of Lancaster County, Penn. After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Crawford settled on the old homestead in Augusta Township, where there were born to them seven children, of whom four only are now living, named as follows: James M., Johnson B., John T. and Lowman I. Mrs. Crawford still resides on the old homestead with three of her sons, who are practical farmers. The soil is fertile, and the farm is now improved with a fine brick dwelling and spacious barns. The farm, under the management of the sons, is kept in most excellent condition, and is devoted to fruit, grain-growing and stock-raising. The young men stand out prominently as successful and representative farmers, and are growing up in the habits of their respected father—those of industry and integrity. In politics they are Democratic; their religion is that of the United Presbyterian Church, of the session of which at Glade Run Mr. Crawford (deceased) had been a member for many years.

JUDGE C. C. ADAMS, one of the most prominent, prosperous and successful farmers and stock-raisers of Fox Township, Carroll County, was born in Ohio, January 26, 1826, a son of John and Betsy (Kimins) Adams, the former a native of London, England, latter of Pennsylvania, born of Irish descent. The father, when a young man (about the year 1815), set sail from England for America, but was shipwrecked on one of the West India Islands, losing all that he had. However, he found his way ultimately to these shores, and in course of time located in Wash-an early day, settling in Maryland, and his great-grandfather Lane enlisted himself on the side of the patriot colonists in the war for independence. John Lane, grandfather of our subject, on account of his holding strong anti-slavery sentiments, and his parents being slave holders, left the parental home in Maryland while yet a young man, and took up his residence in Pennsylvania, where he was married to a Miss Baker. They both died in the Keystone State, the parents of four children, viz.: three sons, John (who went to Indiana), Daniel (who died in Washington County, Penn.), and Joseph (who came to Ohio in 1837), and one daughter, all now deceased. The father of this family served in the War of 1812, and was a Whig.

Joseph Lane, the second son of John Lane, was a tradesman and farmer, which latter occupation he followed after coming, in 1837, to Carroll County, Ohio, and settling in what is now Centre Township. Prior to this he had married, in Pennsylvania, Miss Anna, daughter of Jacob Dager, by which union were born two children: Jacob D., the subject of this sketch, and John E., living in Centre Township on the old homestead. The parents died in that township, the mother in December, 1833, when aged seventy-six years, and the father in March, 1834, at the age of seventy-eight years; they were members of the Reformed Church, and in politics Mr. Lane was first a Whig, and afterward became a Republican, on the organization of that party.

Jacob D. Lane, as will be seen, was about five years old when his parents brought him to Ohio. They settled on a piece of wild, unimproved land, their first dwelling being a primitive log cabin, and here our subject was reared a pioneer farmer boy, his primary education being naturally very limited. In early manhood he taught school some five years, and then attended select school at Carrollton. He was a diligent student and apt scholar, making rapid progress in the various branches of his education. He then commenced studying surveying, readily perfecting himself in the profession, and this he followed in connection with farming. In 1835 he was elected county surveyor of Carroll County, serving four three-year terms consecutively, and was afterward, in 1839, appointed to his present position of deputy surveyor. In 1857 Mr. Lane was married to Miss Keziah Jane, daughter of Mahlon Healy, of Carroll County, and she died December 11, 1880, leaving two children: Ida M., now the wife of J. P. Kennedy, of Carrollton; and Ed C., a civil engineer and draughtsman, in Canton, Ohio. On June 8, 1887, Mr. Lane took, for his second wife, Mrs. Anna Fouts, a native of Carrollton, and daughter of John R. and Mary Arbuckle, old settlers of that town. During the spring Mr. Lane rented his farm, and moved to Carrollton, where he and his wife have since made their home. Politically, he is a Republican, and in religion is a member of the Reformed Church, Mrs. Lane being a member of the Presbyterian Church.

JOHAN H. STEPHENSON, M. D., for years one of the most prominent and successful physicians of this section, was born at Burgettstown, Washington Co., Penn., July 22, 1817, and died at his home, at Leesville, Carroll Co., Ohio, November 23, 1890.

His great-grandfather, Richard Stephenson, came from England to Virginia in the early history of that colony. Here Col. James Stephenson, grandfather of the subject of this sketch, was born. He and two brothers were officers in the Revolutionary Army, and were, in boyhood and manhood, friends and associates of Washington; their half brother was Col. William Crawford, who commanded "Crawford's Expedition" against the Sandusky Indians, and was captured and burned at the stake at Upper Sandusky, in 1782. In 1783 James Stephenson removed with his family to western Pennsylvania, where he resided until his death. One of his sons, Joseph, the father of Dr. Stephenson, removed with his family to Ohio, and, after a few years' residence on Island Creek, in Jefferson thorough knowledge of the English branches and quite an acquaintance with the higher studies. Since old enough to vote Mr. Belknap has supported the Republican ticket, as it best coincides with his ideas. Since the death of his father he has had the management of the home place, which he has carried on in a highly satisfactory manner. December 30, 1880, he married Edith Barrick, daughter of Henry Barrick, whose sketch appears elsewhere. One child, John, has blessed their union. Mr. Belknap is one of the rising and intelligent young men of his section.

WILLIAM B. CRAWFORD. Among the respected families of Augusta Township, Carroll County, prominent for honesty and straightforwardness, as well as for success in business affairs, none are more conspicuous than the Crawfords. They can trace their ancestors as far back as William Crawford, Sr., grandfather of the subject of this biographical sketch; he was a farmer in Ireland, but immigrated to America in 1800, where he and his little family found a home in Washington County, Penn., where he followed farming as a means of support until he died. William Crawford, the father of William B., was born in County Down, Ireland, in 1794, and when six years of age came with his parents to America. In Pennsylvania he received his education; at the same time he was obliged to help his father on the farm. On reaching maturity he married Miss Isabell Orr, who was a native of Washington County, Penn. In 1840 Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left their home in Pennsylvania for one in East Township, Carroll Co., Ohio. After a long life of hardships, interspersed with golden moments of sunshine, Mr. Crawford quietly passed away in 1872. Mrs. Crawford still lives to mourn her husband's death. Mr. Crawford was a leading man of his time, was elected trustee and to other offices by his fellow-citizens, and was a man respected by all.

William B. Crawford, the gentleman whose name heads this article, is the eldest of the ten children born to his parents, and first saw the light in East Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, August 8, 1843. There, in the vicinity of his home, he received his earliest instruction by attending the district school; but, not being contented with this amount of education, he attended the academy at New Hagerstown, Ohio, two terms. Mr. Crawford then taught school for a number of terms, and thus perfected his own education by instructing others. At the age of twenty-five he married Miss Harriet Elvinah Rinehart, who was reared in Washington Township, Carroll Co., Ohio. The Rinehart family are of German descent, as the name plainly signifies. To this union were born six children, two of whom are now deceased. Soon after marriage Mr. and Mrs. Crawford moved to East Township, Carroll County, where they lived three years, after which Mr. Crawford bought his present farm, and has been a resident of Augusta Township ever since. Mr. Crawford has a well-improved farm of 146 acres. He is a grain-producer and stock-raiser, taking much pride in raising blooded stock, such as Short-horn cattle, Spanish Merino sheep, etc. In politics Mr. Crawford is a Republican, and has held the offices of township trustee, treasurer, etc., and once was nominated for member of the board of equalization in this district. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford are members of the United Presbyterian Church, and have a large circle of friends, who are unanimous in expressing their high regard and esteem.

JOHN C. FORBES, who is one of the most extensive farmers of Orange Township, Carroll County, was born August 26, 1833, in New Hagerstown, Carroll Co., Ohio, a son of James and Elizabeth (Johnston) Forbes, former a native of Ireland, and latter of Pennsylvania. The father came from his native country at an early day, and when eighteen years old located in Pennsylvania; but concluding to try his fortune farther west he moved to Ohio, and in 1823 settled in what afterward

Roudebush, of Augusta Township; William A., residing in Minerva; Jesse H., deceased. Mr. Leyda and his wife settled on a farm of 124 acres in Augusta Township, Carroll County, Ohio, where he resided till his death, March 2, 1879. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and politically was a Democrat. Mrs. Leyda remained on the farm for five years after her husband's death, and has since resided in the town of Augusta, where she is an active member of the Presbyterian Church, and enjoys the respect of all who know her.

THOMAS P. CRAWFORD, M. D., of Augusta, Carroll County, was born in East Township, that county, August 25, 1849. He was reared to manhood on the farm, and received his education at the district schools and the New Wilmington College of Pennsylvania. He then spent about four years in teaching in the district schools, and in 1872 commenced to read medicine with Dr. James Westfall, of Minerva. In 1874 he entered the Wooster Medical College, of Cleveland, from which he graduated in 1877. When he returned from college he entered upon practice at Mechanicstown, Carroll Co., Ohio, where he remained three years and then removed to Malvern, and in 1883 came to Augusta, where he has since been in active and most successful practice. On May 28, 1874, he married Miss Sadilla M. Milbourn, who was born May 31, 1853, a daughter of Samuel and Agnes J. (Myers) Milbourn. To this union was born one son, Samuel Milbourn Crawford. Mrs. Crawford died December 3, 1881, an active and devout member of the Disciples Church. Dr. Crawford is a member of the United Presbyterian Church. Politically he is a Republican, and is one of the leading and most influential men of Augusta Township. Samuel Milbourn was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, March 1, 1826. His father, Samuel, was born in Virginia, and was a son of Andrew, also a native of Virginia. Samuel, Sr., grew to manhood in his native State, and married Jane Craig. Their children were as follows: Andrew, Lydia and David and Absalom (twins) are residing in Columbiana County, Ohio; Jacob is deceased; Jonathan and Samuel are in Augusta, Ohio, and Isaac is in Alliance, Ohio. Samuel Milbourn in a very early day came to Ohio and entered a tract of land in Columbiana County, near Hanover, where he resided all his life. Politically he was a Whig. His son, Samuel, Jr., resided on the farm till he was grown to manhood, or till he was eighteen years old, when he commenced to learn the carpenter's trade, which he has continually worked at, his field of labor being mostly in Carroll County, Ohio. On May 1, 1851, he married Miss Agnes J. Myers, who was born in 1829, a daughter of John and Rachel (Wolfkail) Myers. To this union was born one daughter, Sadilla, deceased wife of Dr. Thomas P. Crawford, our subject. Politically Mr. Milbourn is a Republican, and he and his wife are members of the Disciples Church.

ROBERT WOODS, a highly respected farmer of Brown Township, Carroll County, was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, July 31, 1817. The Woods family is of English origin, and those of its members who first came to America settled in Virginia before the Revolutionary War. The father of our subject, William Woods, was born in that State August 20, 1788, and was one of the early settlers of Jefferson County, Ohio. In 1817 he came to Carroll County, entered a farm in Harrison Township when the country was new and set to work to develop a farm, for many years making his home in the primitive log cabin. While a resident of Jefferson County he married Mary Pugh, daughter of Aaron Pugh, an early settler of the county, and to this union were born Elizabeth, Isaac, George, John, Robert, Jane, Mary, Margaret, Nancy Ann and Thomas. Mr. Woods was an active Democrat, and held many positions of trust in his township. He was an earnest worker in the Method-of the Mississippi, and participated in all the movements and engagements of the regiment; was on the march to the sea, and, at Iuka, he was promoted to be first lieutenant for gallant conduct on the field, and later, at the battle of Corinth, was again promoted, his rank being that of captain. He was discharged with his regiment at Columbus, Ohio, and returned home and took up his business, which he had relinquished to take part in the battles for the Union. From the casting of his first vote, Mr. Wallace was a Whig, but, on the organization of the Republican party, joined it, and has since been one of its most enthusiastic members. He and family are members of the Presbyterian Church in New Hagerstown, and take an active part in the management of its spiritual as well as financial success. On April 13, 1847, Mr. Wallace was united in marriage with Jane, daughter of Alexander Brann. The family of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are Rebecca (Mrs. William H. Weyandt, whose husband was killed by the cars on the P., C. & St. L. Railroad, January 28, 1891), Mary (Mrs. Samuel Crawford), Thomas, Ann E. (Mrs. Marion Tucker), Charles, Mattie and James. Mr. Wallace has ever taken a leading part in the religious and educational advancement of his township, and is one of its well-known and respected citizens. He has been for some years jurymen of the United States Court at Cleveland, Ohio.

THOMAS R. TAYLOR, one of the leading merchants in Harlem Springs, Ohio, is a native of County Fermanagh, Ireland, born August 3, 1845. His grandfather, William Taylor, had a family of seven children: Richard, Jonathan, Thomas, Catherine, Bessie, Jane and William, and died in Ireland at the patriarchal age of one hundred and three years. He and his family were members of the Episcopal Church. Of his children, Richard, born in the Emerald Isle in 1798, spent his early life in the land of his birth, and received his education there, being brought up to agricultural pursuits. He married, in Ireland, Alice Reynolds, and by her had the following named children: Elizabeth, Mrs. William Taylor, in Harlem Springs, Ohio; William, a resident of Turney's Station, Clinton Co., Mo.; Joseph, in Kansas; Mary Ann, Mrs. Elisha Chase, and Richard W., both in Kansas; Catherine died in 1857, at the age of sixteen; Alicia D., Mrs. John Patton, in Madison, Monroe Co., Mo., and Thomas R., in Harlem Springs. In 1852 Richard Taylor came to America with his family, landing in New York City, where they remained about a year, and then came to Loudon Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, and here he purchased a farm, on which he remained till 1866, in which year he bought another farm in Lee Township, whither they removed, settling thereon. The parents died, the father February 6, 1884, the mother December 1, 1863, and are buried in the cemetery at Simmonds Ridge. Mr. Taylor was a member and liberal supporter of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Harlem Springs, and in politics he was a Democrat, always evincing great interest in the working of his party.

Thomas R. Taylor was seven years old when he came with his parents to American soil, and received his primary education in Carroll County, Ohio, which was supplemented by a few terms at the college in Harlem Springs. On June 11, 1873, he was married to Emma E., daughter of John and Elizabeth (Fawcett) Riley (the former came to this country with her parents in the year 1816, being eight years old, and died in 1889 in her eighty-first year), and the young couple immediately located on a farm in Lee Township, where they remained till 1885, in which year they came to Harlem Springs, where he engaged in mercantile business, which he still continues in. In 1868 Mr. Taylor commenced teaching, a profession he followed five successive winters in Carroll County. The record of the children born to him and his wife is as follows: Alice H., born November 1, 1874, and died June 16, 1875; John Riley, born April 7, 1876; Mary Edna, born June 5, was a native of Pennsylvania, and seven children were born to them, named as follows: Emma, Jason, Frank S., Maggie A., John, Belle and Mary. G. L. Moore has been a farmer all his life, and has always been identified with the progress of the county. Mrs. G. L. Moore died February 14, 1881.

Jason Moore spent his early days on his father's farm, where he grew to manhood. After attending the district school in the neighborhood, he attended Hopedale College. At the age of twenty-three, March 15, 1883, he married Miss Maggie Smith, who was reared in Jefferson County, her parents being of Scotch descent. Soon after marriage Mr. and Mrs. Moore moved to their present farm in Fox Township, and two children were born to bless their home, viz.: Lister S., born March 14, 1884, and Bessie M., born August 9, 1888. Mr. Moore has a well-improved farm of 186 acres, which is provided with a large barn, 56x36 feet in length and breadth, and twenty feet high—the highest barn in Fox Township—and which was constructed in the summer of 1890. Mr. Moore is a stock-raiser, and takes much interest in the raising of Shorthorn cattle. In religion Mr. and Mrs. Moore are Presbyterians, and attend the Cornith Church at Mechanicstown; in politics he is a Democrat "to the backbone." Mr. and Mrs. Moore have many friends who wish them many years of happiness and success.

E A. THOMPSON, a well-known farmer of Brown Township, Carroll County, was born in Stark County, Ohio, September 5, 1836. He traces his paternal ancestry to Thomas Thompson, a native of Scotland, who married Rachel Van Fossen, a native of Ireland, and came to America soon after the close of the Revolutionary War, settling in Pennsylvania on a farm near Mt. Pleasant. One of his descendants, also named Thomas Thompson, was the father of our subject, and was born in Fayette County, Penn., March 20, 1796, and in 1816 was united in marriage with Margery McKinley. In 1817 Thomas and his bride came to Ohio and entered a farm in Lawrence Township, Stark County. The children born to this union are as follows: John and Hugh. In 1821 Margery Thompson died, after which Thomas Thompson returned to Pennsylvania, and on December 24, 1822, he was united in marriage with Margaret Smitley, daughter of Caspar Smitley, of Westmoreland County, Penn. During the same year they removed to the farm formerly occupied by Thomas Thompson, in Lawrence Township, Stark Co., Ohio, upon which they resided, and he continued to improve until 1830, when they moved to Sandy Township, whence, in 1840, they came to Brown Township, Carroll County, and purchased the farm now occupied by our subject. They were parents of the following named children: Amanda (Mrs. W. A. Nichol), Thomas, Israel, Mathew and Andrew (twins), Mary L. (Mrs. J. W. Crawford), Caroline (Mrs. Frances Haughton), E. A. and Emma (Mrs. John Crisman). The father of this family in early life learned the trade of shoemaking, which he followed in conjunction with farming. In politics he was a Whig, and while a resident of Stark County aided in organizing that party. He was a great friend of all educational movements and was invariably a liberal contributor, financially, to all beneficial objects. He died September 24, 1844, after which event his widow made her home with our subjects until her decease, which occurred February 5, 1881.

E. A. Thompson, with whose life this sketch chiefly concerns, passed his youthful days in Brown Township where he continues to reside, and where he has followed his father's calling, meeting with abundant success. His school attendance, like that of other boys of that day, was limited to a brief period of each winter season until he was eighteen years of age, when the farm claimed all his attention and time. On December 25, 1862, he was united in the bonds of matrimony with Miss Susan, daughter of Frederick Roose. Mr. Roose was a native of Maryland, and in that State married Eliza-

Miss Mattie M. Nile, by whom were born two children: Frank L. and Belle Vernon, both now living. Mr. McCoy moved, in 1876, to his present farm, which contains 195 acres of improved land, is well watered, and is provided with two young orchards. Mr. McCoy is a stock raiser, and pays special attention to the keeping up of the standard of high grades. Politically he is a Prohibitionist, and he stands high in the estimation of his neighbors as an honest man and a gentleman. He and his wife are members of the Presbyterian Church, and have been actively connected with the same for a number of years.

WILLIAM CRAWFORD (deceased) was born in County Donegal, Ireland, in 1796. His father, William Crawford, was also born in County Donegal, and was a son of Matthew Crawford. In 1803 Matthew, his son William, and their families emigrated to the United States and settled in Washington County, Penn. In 1820 Matthew, in company with his three sons, Matthew, John and James, came to Augusta Township, Carroll County, Ohio, where the three sons entered 160 acres each, part of the land being now owned by the heirs. Matthew spent his last days on this land.

William Crawford, the son of Matthew, was reared to manhood in Ireland, and married Nancy Monon, a native of that country, the fruits of the union being twelve children, viz.: George, Matthew (1), William (1), (Matthew (1) and William (1) died in infancy in Ireland), William (2), Margaret and Matthew (2) (they were born in Ireland), and John, James, Oliver (an M. D.), Thomas, Lettie and Robert were born in the United States. Matthew (2) still resides in Washington County, Penn., the only one of the twelve children now living; Margaret married Thomas Forsythe, and both are now deceased; Lettie died in infancy; William (father of subject) remained all his life in Pennsylvania, on the land where they first settled in 1803, and died in 1847, aged seventy-seven years. His wife, Nancy, died in 1848, aged seventy-seven.

William Crawford, our subject, was seven years old when his parents settled in Pennsylvania, where he was reared to manhood and educated at the subscription schools. On May 4, 1831, he married Miss Elizabeth Slator, who was born in Washington County, Penn., December 30, 1803, and the fruits of this union were two children, viz.: One daughter that died in infancy, and one son, John T., who now resides in East Township, Carroll Co., Ohio. Elizabeth (Slator) Crawford died January 18, 1840, aged thirty six years eighteen days. Our subject and his son, John T., moved to Ohio in April, 1840, to his farm in East Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, which contains 160 acres, and which he had purchased in 1827. On May 7, 1841, he married Miss Isabella Orr, who was born in Washington County, Penn., February 19, 1810, a daughter of Joshua and Mary (Colwell) Orr, natives of County Tyrone, Ireland, and who, in 1811, came to the United States and settled in Washington County, Penn., where they remained till their death, Mr. Orr dying in 1872, aged eighty-two years; his wife, Mary, having died in 1870, aged seventy-nine years. They were parents of four children, viz.: Isabella, Elenor, James and Eliza.

Our subject purchased fifty-five acres adjoining his farm on the east, and the farm is at present owned by his son-in-law, James Patterson. Mr. William Crawford remained on his farm till his death, which occurred in 1873, when he was seventy-seven years old. He was well known and highly esteemed, and had been a ruling elder in the United Presbyterian Church for many years. Mrs. Isabella Crawford still resides on the farm. They were parents of eight children, viz.: William B., a resident of Augusta Township, Carroll Co., Ohio; Nancy L., wife of J. Patterson, of East Township; Joshua H., in Pueblo, Colo.; Thomas P., an M. D., in Augusta, Ohio; James F., hardware merchant at Malvern, Ohio; George R., Robert O. and Mary J. (deceased).

years. On May 20, 1869, he married Rebecca J. Shaw, who was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, June 27, 1847, a daughter of Thomas and Emily (Robbins) Shaw. Thomas Shaw was born in County Down, Ireland, in 1807, and in 1817 came to the United States and settled in what is now Augusta Township, Carroll County, where he grew to manhood and received a common-school education. He married Miss Emily Robbins, who was born in 1807, a daughter of Abram and Hannah (Free) Robbins, and by their union there were born eight children, viz.: Abram, a farmer in Iowa; John R., resident of East Township, Carroll County; Elizabeth Faloon, deceased; Hannah Crawford, in East Township, Carroll County; Mary Cavanaugh, deceased; Davis H., residing in Columbiana County, Ohio; Rebecca J., Mrs. James Faloon, a resident of Carroll County, and Susan Faloon, a resident of Columbiana County. Mr. Shaw resided in Augusta Township and in Harrison Township, Columbiana County, till 1851, when he came to East Township, Carroll County, and purchased the farm now owned by Uriah Thomas, where he remained till 1874, in which year he sold his farm and returned to Columbiana County, and there purchased a farm, only remaining thereon, however, a short time, when he removed to Salineville, Ohio. Here he died September 8, 1882; his wife died in 1865.

Mr. and Mrs. James Faloon are parents of four children, viz.: Joseph O., born April 16, 1870; Thomas W., born July 29, 1873; James H., born December 25, 1880, and Samuel L., born December 13, 1882. Mr. Faloon, after his marriage, engaged in the milling business in Salineville in company with his brothers, William and Isaac, and in 1872 he removed to Wellsville, Ohio, where he remained but a short time, however, and then removed to East Liverpool, Ohio, where he and his brothers took a contract to erect the Methodist Episcopal Church building, which took them over one year to complete, for which they received sixteen thousand dollars. He then returned to Salineville and went into the milling business again. In 1877 Mr. Faloon purchased the farm he now owns, which contains 160 acres, situated in Section 21, East Township, and on which he has made many improvements. In politics he is a Democrat, and in religion he and his wife are members of the Presbyterian Church.

FRANCIS WESTON, one of the most popular wide-awake business men of Minerva, Brown Township, Carroll County, a prosperous dealer in produce of all kinds, including grain, lumber, wool, etc., is a native of Augusta Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, born on the old homestead of his parents June 17, 1828. He attended the primitive subscription schools of his day, but when he was nine years of age he lost his father, and consequently, being the eldest son, he had to remain pretty closely at home in order to help his mother in the many chores to be done about the place. At the age of seventeen he went to Wheeling, W. Va., where he worked in the Anchor Iron Works, thence moved to St. Louis, at which place he assisted in the erection of the St. Louis Rolling Mill, afterward becoming manager of the manufacturing department, in which capacity he served about two and one-half years. He then returned to Wheeling and formed the firm of Weston & Co., proprietors of the Clinton Blast Furnace in Monongahela County. This firm became very successful, turning out a high grade of iron, and doing a large business, but at the end of two and one-half years Mr. Weston decided to retire. He then entered college at Mt. Union, and about 1855, his mother, having returned to Augusta Township, and located on the old homestead, he joined her, and they together carried on the farm several years. In 1870 Mr. Weston came to Minerva and carried on business about one year, then went to East Rochester, Columbiana County, where he remained seven years, at the end of which time, in 1878, he returned to Minerva, since when he has been successfully engaged in his present business. In 1862 Mr.

supporter of the Republican party, since its organization, having previously been a Whig. He is in disposition kind, generous and enterprising, by his amiability and courtesy has won for himself a place in the affections of the people.

GEORGE GANS. Among the successful business men of eastern Ohio, the above named gentleman justly holds a prominent place. The town of Augusta, Carroll County, in which Mr. Gans has an extensive mercantile business, twenty years ago was a small hamlet, but through the energy and push of a few progressive men like our subject it has become an active, live town. The paternal ancestors of George Gans (as the name Gans indicates) were Germans, while on the maternal side the ancestry were Irish. John Gans, father of our subject, was born in Fayette County, Penn., November 7, 1794, the son of a farmer. At the age of twenty-one, in 1815, he came west and settled in what is now Harrison Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, where he entered a farm of 160 acres, and in the wilderness built a log house. Soon thereafter he married Miss Downs, by whom he had two children, Harriet and Elizabeth, but the angel of death ere long entered the little circle and took from the midst the faithful wife and good mother. The father found a new companion in the person of Miss Elizabeth Cook, a native of Columbiana County, Ohio, where she grew to womanhood on her father's farm; Mr. Cook was of German descent, and was one of the early pioneers of Columbiana County. A large family was the result of this union, of which our subject is the sixth in order of birth. After a long life of activity the father died in the fall of 1866, being about seventy-two years old.

George Gans, the subject proper of this biographical sketch, was born in Harrison Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, March 18, 1837. There he grew to manhood on his father's farm, attending the district school, and was inoculated with those principles which to a great extent led to the degree of success which he achieved. On March 19, 1861, he married Miss Jane Cameron, who was born in Washington Township, Carroll Co., Ohio, December 15, 1837. Mrs. Gans is of Scotch-Irish descent, and her parents were among the earliest pioneers who came to this part of the county. After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Gans settled on a farm in Washington Township, whence, after a residence there of five years, they moved to another farm; but desiring a change Mr. Gans, in 1869, came to Augusta, where he has ever since been actively connected with the mercantile business. In 1869 Mr. Gans formed a partnership for the transaction of a general business, and the firm was styled Crawford, Heston & Gans. In 1873 Mr. Crawford and Mr. Gans bought Mr. Heston's interest in the firm, the style of the firm becoming Crawford & Gans. In 1889 this firm was in possession of three stores, one room containing dry goods, groceries, notions, etc.; another room containing ready-made clothing, piece goods, gents' furnishing goods, etc., and yet another room containing a general stock of hardware. This partnership had a quiet, peaceable reign of twenty years, at the end of which time it was mutually agreed that they would divide—Mr. Crawford taking the dry-goods stock and building, and Mr. Gans the other two stores and buildings. In connection with this business Mr. Gans is also an extensive wool-buyer, and his success in life is due mainly to his close attendance to business. Starting as he did with a small capital, he certainly can claim to be called a "self-made man." Mr. and Mrs. Gans are members of the Presbyterian Church, being among the most active workers of that society, and in politics he is a Republican.

JESSE W. SHAW. At an early day Nathan Shaw, grandfather of this gentleman, came from Jefferson County, Ohio, to Carroll County, and took up his residence in what is now Washington Township, Carroll Co., Ohio. He was a native of Fay-

Alexander Lawther married Christian Murchland, who was a daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Murchland (nee Crawford). The counties of Down, Derry and Antrim were Protestant, and the Lawther family were noted for their loyalty to Calvinism. Alexander and Christian Lawther and Mrs. Murchland came to Baltimore, Md., in 1790, the voyage to America being made in the brig "Brothers," and taking seven weeks and three days. They remained near the Atlantic coast for three months, when Robert Murchland, who was a brother-in-law of Alexander Lawther, came from his home in Washington County, Penn., with a train of pack-horses, and brought the entire family and their goods across the Alleghany Mountains to his Western home. The children of Alexander and Christian (Murchland) Lawther were, John, who was a member of the Enneskillen Dragoons, famous in English history. (Each member was over six feet in height, and mounted upon a black horse; he was honorably discharged with a pension and lived in Manchester, England; in 1804 he was ordered to Gibraltar, and died of the plague in 1814, leaving one son, who was in the Thirty-ninth Regiment, and two daughters, who married and lived in Manchester, England); James, born March 15, 1769, and married Jennette Shaw in Kalela, a noted city in that part of the country for fairs, horse-racing and games of skill, County Antrim, Ireland, in 1790 (on the day of their marriage they left for America); Nancy (who never married); Robert (who never married); Elizabeth (who married Gawin Lawther, a second cousin (they lived in Washington County, Penn., until 1808, when they moved to Cross Creek Township, Jefferson County, Ohio; they are buried at Two Ridge (Presbyterian) Church); Alexander (who never married); Christian (married to William Patterson).

The children of James and Jennette (Shaw) Lawther were Eleanor, who was born in a fort, or block-house, during an Indian siege (it was on the Wells farm in Virginia and near Eldersville, Penn.) and who married William Leeper;

Christian, who married Charles Long; Nancy, who married Samuel Wright; John, who married Mary Stein; Jane, who never married; Gawin Lawther, who was one of the early teachers in the frontier schools, learned the trade of blacksmithing with William Leeper, and read medicine, in which profession he enjoyed an honorable practice (he married Anna Price); Alexander, who married Nancy Smith; Catherine, who never married; and Jane, who never married.

The children of William and Eleanor (Lawther) Leeper were James L., Mary A., John, William A., and Martha J., of whom Mary A., Jane and John died in early youth. James L. Leeper, the eldest of the family, was reared a farmer, learned the trade of blacksmithing in the shop of Gawin Lawther, and soon afterward read medicine with Dr. Thomas Abbot, of Massillon, Ohio. On July 10, 1837, Dr. James L. Leeper and Miss Sophia M. Dickey were married at Steubenville, Ohio. Dr. Leeper began the practice of his profession in Navarre, Stark Co., Ohio, in May, 1840, and achieved a high place among his fellow physicians. He conducted a drug store for fifteen years and was appointed postmaster by William Henry Harrison. In 1866 he retired to his farm three and one-half miles northeast of Navarre. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and Patrons of Husbandry. He died at his home of paralysis December 27, 1887. Dr. J. L. and Sophia M. Leeper have one child, George C., who resides on the home farm with his mother.

Martha J., the youngest of the family, was married September 3, 1856, to William Adair, an attorney at law, and who was a member of the Ohio Legislature two terms, and a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1873-74. He is the author of the "Adair Law," the original Civil Damage Liquor Law. Mr. Adair is at present practicing his profession in Leesburg, Carroll Co., Ohio. They have one son, Emmet M., who was born February 8, 1864, and taught school for several years; he read law

22, 1888, and Myrta Bell, March 8, 1886, all those living being yet at home except Samuel E., who is married and resides in New Philadelphia, Ohio. Mr. Sparks moved to his present place in 1876, and has a comfortable, well appointed home. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in politics he is a Prohibitionist.

ABRAMHAM ROUDEBUSH, for seventy years a resident of that part of Ohio which, January 1, 1833, became Carroll County, is one of the representative successful farmers of Washington Township. He is a native of Pennsylvania, born in Washington County, July 26, 1819. His grandfather, Jacob Roudebush, came from Germany, the land of his birth, to the United States in an early day, settling in Washington County, Penn., where he reared the following named children: Tobias, Abraham, Jacob, Jesse, Lydia and Susan. In 1821 he came to Ohio, where he entered the farm now owned by Thomas Buxon, in Washington Township, Carroll County. On this farm Mr. Roudebush put up a rude log cabin, the first building of any kind on the property. Here he resided all his life, dying in 1837, at the age of eighty-five years. He was a member of the Disciples Church; in politics a Whig.

Jesse Roudebush, son of Jacob, was also born in Washington County, Penn., where he was trained to agricultural pursuits, attending in winter season the common schools of the neighborhood. About the year 1816 he was married to Miss Hulda Ray, a native of the same county as her husband, which union was blessed with nine children, as follows: Annie, wife of Jacob Stearn, a resident of Indiana; Abraham, whose name opens this sketch; James, deceased; Samuel, a resident of Washington Township, Carroll County; John, deceased; Jesse, in Indiana; Tobias, in Washington Township; John, deceased, and Sarah (Mrs. Eli Marshall), a resident of Washington Township. In 1820 the parents moved to Ohio, where Mr.

Roudebush purchased sixty acres of land of his brother, Tobias, in what afterward became Washington Township, Carroll County, and soon thereafter entered eighty acres, now owned by W. S. Crawford, also in Washington Township, and adjoining the sixty-acre purchase. Here he lived several years, and then removed to Hanover, Columbiana County, where he purchased a farm of eighty acres, on which he resided about two years, at the end of which time he went to live in Carrollton, where he died in 1868, his wife having preceded him to the grave in 1860. They were members of the Disciples Church, and in politics he was a prominent Republican.

Abraham Roudebush, the subject proper of these lines, as will be seen was about two years old when brought by his parents to Ohio. He was reared to farm life, and educated at the district schools. On September 17, 1840, he was married to Miss Margaret Easterday, who was born in Carroll County, Ohio, July 31, 1822, a daughter of Christian and Barbara (Strayer) Easterday, which union has been blessed with nine children, viz.: Sarah J. (wife of Jonathan Myers), born April 25, 1842; Louisa M. (wife of William V. Figley, of Canton, Ohio), born March 13, 1845; Christian E., born July 24, 1848, living in Indiana; William R., born September 17, 1850; John J., born July 10, 1853; Jehu, born June 29, 1856; Jesse, born December 4, 1858, resides in Indiana; Solomon E., born July 18, 1861, and Leander, born November 10, 1863, living on the homestead, all being residents of Washington Township, except where otherwise stated.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Roudebush went to live on a farm of eighty acres (to which he has since added, till he has now 265 acres), which he purchased in Washington Township, their dwelling being a rude cabin until 1860, when he erected his present elegant and comfortable brick house. In 1868 he put up a commodious barn, 36x60 feet in size. On November 23, 1864, Mrs. Roudebush was called from earth, and February 2^d. 1866, Mr. Roude-

Hello, Cousin,

Thank you for establishing the connection between our Crawford ancestors! I don't get to Harrison County often, but I would welcome the opportunity to meet you "in person" whenever that can be arranged.

Before I get into our genealogy interests, allow me to explain a bit about myself. My research efforts have been limited largely to my own family lines. I am not a professional. I do go to Salt Lake City two or three times a year for a couple of weeks' time at the Family History Library. Are you familiar with that facility or with any of the Ohio centers maintained by the Mormons? (North Canton is closest.)

If you use their computers, I want copy what is available there. I am guilty of being the kind of genealogist who thought I was supposed to locate what I could find about my direct lines. Consequently, I don't have all the records you want. I am fairly familiar with the line of William Lewis and Nancy Crawford (and their twelve children.) I'll be glad to fill in your family group sheet for that couple. How many generations of their descendants do you want? Their daughter Mary was my great-grandmother Boyd.

As you can see, I don't not have my records on a computer. Sorry about that. I do have a web to to make myself E-mail accessible.

Because I'm not actually living in my own home most of the time, I don't use my web to much. To explain my living arrangements: I'm a retired librarian (Wroster City Schools), widowed in 1985, childless, with no siblings. At present I spend about six nights a week in Canton with a friend from graduate school days - another retired school librarian. She is an early Alzheimer's patient who needs a companion, but isn't ready for an institution. She has a cat so we necessarily are at her house most of the time. Result: One evening a week is just about enough time for me to catch up on the mail and other messages, with little time for genealogical research or internet.

I expect to return to Salt Lake City in February for two weeks and should get back to the Wiggins - Preble - Crawford families. I think I have reached dead ends with some of those lines, but I'll see what I can do about finding their Irish (Scottish?) roots. I haven't completed my DAR supplementals in their direction. In fact, I haven't even added those ancestors to my First Families of Ohio (or Harrison County). Are you involved in any heritage societies, attending state and have enjoyed my research for several years.

As I suggested earlier, I will be going back to Salt Lake City and I'll be happy to copy material you may want or pursue leads in our mutual ancestral lines. I hope you will feel free to make suggestions.

I'm sorry to bore you with my personal ramblings, but I felt you needed an overview of my potential as a source of information for your research efforts. I'm sure you've covered everything available in the collections of the public library and the historical society in Cadiz.

When have you found background material on Brooke County? I've been in the county seat there and in the Washington, PA, library.

Please don't give up on me. I'll get out my Lewis records and help you fill out that F&S (and related pages) as you wish. Our Lewis relatives had an annual reunion for over 50 years, so I have lots of names you would probably not want me to copy. Sorry I can't just click the right keys for neat and tidy copies for you. Let me know what limits you have established.

Thank you for sharing our ancestors.

RESIDENCE: Pennsylvania & West Virginia

RELIGION: Presbyterian

OCCUPATION: Farmer

MILITARY: 2nd Class 8th Co 4th Battalion Rev. War. DAR Patriot Index, he is listed as Pvt PA. 1781-1783

From LDS Film #962534 item #2- His records are: Served as Private under Captain Edmund Baxter, 8th Co., of 4th Battalion, under Lt. Colonel J. Marshall as shown in Penns. Archives 5th series, Vol. 5 page 681, Pa. State Library. Also: Photostat showing Edward Wiggins as 2nd class under Lt. DAR Patriot Index, Diamond Jubilee Administration, c1966, p. 742; See also National #562889, Alice Maude Hagerty Schweitzer and #553110, Sarah Alice Elder Nagler

BIOGRAPHY: Edward was apparently an only child.

BIOGRAPHY: In 1759 he emigrated to America, apparently with his father Alexander, and was in the Yohogania PA area by 1775 when he received a land grant. In 1787 he received two land grants on a 400 acre tract of land at Cross Creek, Brook County, Virginia. The area subsequently became a part of West Virginia. The original deed was written on sheepskin and signed by John Randolph, then Governor of Virginia. Edward resided there until his death. The deed was in the original homestead at the time the "History of the Wiggins Family" was written, apparently in the early 1900's.

Edward was a private in the Revolutionary War, serving with Capt. Edmund Baxter's Company of the Chester County (PA) militia. His service is documented in: "DAR Patriot Index", Pt. 3, p3207 (Flagstaff library 929.373 D238d)

Edward and Charity are buried northeast of the homestead.

Much of the foregoing is taken from "A History of the Wiggins Family" sent by Zee Johnson, Atlanta, GA.

(Received from David R. Groves)

He was appointed appraiser of the estate of Samuel Richardson in Yohogania County, PA with Richard Elson. Richard and Edward were members of the same company in the American Revolution.

Edward's will was written in 1796, probated in 1799.

Notes on the Wiggins Families by Wilbur C. Lane, Marion, Ohio

From Pennsylvania the Wiggins groups scattered in two directions: southward through Virginia to the Carolinas, and westward through the Virginia Panhandle to Ohio and Indiana. In Ohio there were at least three groups in early days. One settled in Carroll County, another paused in Knox county before going to Indiana; the third group with which we are most interested settled in Coshocton county, Ohio.

The ancestor of the Coshocton county group was Edward Wiggins, who was born in Ireland, being the son of Alexander Wiggins. He speaks of Edward Wiggins as of the first generation. There are so many by the name of Edward that we may speak of this one as Panhandle Edward, since he settled in what is now the Panhandle of West Virginia, where he reared his family.

About the year 1797, or earlier, two sons of Panhandle Edward went on a surveying expedition in the wilds of eastern Ohio. Doubtless they were spying out the land and blazing trails. After being out of touch with civilization for two years, they returned to get their families. The two brothers were Thomas who settled at West Lafayette, and Edward who settled at old Plainfield.

BURIAL: Cemetery is near Homestead at Cross Creek District, of West Virginia.

Name, date of birth and yr of death from Susan Lentz

BIOGRAPHY: Emigrated from Brooke Co., West Virginia to Ohio in 1804/7, settling near West Lafayette, Ohio. His younger brother (by 15 years), Edward, emigrated with him. They came on horseback, leading a cow or two. Thomas settled in Lafayette Twp. while Edward went to Will Creek, Linton Twp.

During Thomas' youth in West Virginia, Indians were still a threat. A man by the name of John Decker was on his way from West Liberty to Holliday's Cove to consult a doctor in 1793, and was near the Wiggins' farm when he was fired upon by Indians and one of his horse's legs was broken. He became easy prey to the Indians and was soon overtaken and scalped. The Wiggins family was at dinner when they heard the guns. Young Thomas jumped up, took down his rifle and started in the direction of the shots. He soon found Decker's body at the foot of a big oak tree. The savages were followed to the Ohio River but escaped in their canoes across the river. Decker was the last white man killed by Indians in Brooke County. He is buried in the same area as Edward and Charity.

Wal Cherryholmes, for many years a well known citizen of Washington, who was in the horse-buying business here, was found dead in his bed at Winfield this morning. Heart trouble from which he had suffered at times, was probably the cause of death.

He was about 60 or 65 years of age. The Cherryholmes family formerly lived in the Crawfordsville community, but Mr. and Mrs. Cherryholmes spent most of their married life in this community. He leaves the widow and two sons and three daughters. Mrs. Cherryholmes is visiting with relatives in Moline, ILL., and arrangements _____ the funeral service will not be made until after her arrival this evening.

BIOGRAPHY: History of Washington County Iowa by Howard A. Burrell. Vol. II, p433.

Reared in the usual manner of farm lads, acquired his education in the district schools of Crawford township and when not busy with his text-books largely gave his attention to the work of the fields, assisting his father in operating the home farm for six years after his marriage. It was in 1888 that he wedded Miss Jennie Crooks, a resident of Crawfordsville, and unto them have been born eight children: Mamie, the wife of Jean Fletcher, a farmer residing near Columbia City, Louisa County, Iowa; Glen; Ross; Lawrence; Maggie; Helen; Chester; and Kenneth.

As previously stated, following his marriage Mr. Cherryholms remained a farmer in Crawford township for about six years and then took up his abode in the village of Crawfordsville, where he resided two years. On expiration of that period he removed to Wayne, Henry County, where he lived for three years. He next came to his present location and has lived on this farm for six years. It is a well improved property and in its neat and thrifty appearance indicates the practical and enterprising spirit of the owner. Eighteen years ago Mr. Cherryholms began to buy and ship live stock and has been the only regular buyer at Crawfordsville for six or eight years. He does a good business in this connection and also meets with success in the cultivation of his farm of one hundred and thirty acres, situated on section 17, Crawford Township. He has here erected a fine house, commodious and substantial barns and sheds and has well kept grounds. In fact, his place is one of the attractive features of the landscape and his work is bringing to him substantial and gratifying results. His political allegiance is given to the republican party and he holds membership in the United Presbyterian church, while his wife is a member of the Presbyterian Church.
