Newcomerstown Couple To Celebrate Golden Wedding

Bright Photo
MR. AND MRS. PERCY O. ORT

Mr. and Mrs. Percy O. Ort of Newcomerstown will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary on Friday evening, December 24th, when open house will be held at their home, 150 River street, from six until nine o'clock.

The couple was married on December 24th, 1904 by the late Rev. S. A. Corl of Dennison. Mrs. Ort is the former May McClelland of Dennison.

Mr. Ort, a retired minister of the Gospel, now is working for the Newcomerstown Police Department as telephone operator and desk man. He attended the old Central High School in New Philadelphia until his junior year when he moved from the city with his parents, the late George and Anna Wlandt Ort, on November 3rd, 1896.

The Rev. Mr. Ort received his training for the ministry at Denison University and Otterbein College and was graduated from Old Bethel College with the degree of D. D.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ort are in good health. They have four children, George Edward of Columbus, Roy and Ruth who live in Newcomerstown, and Helyn who is with the Air Force at Limestone, Maine, where she is employed as manager of the Service Club. There are nine grandchildren.
