Owner Dudley Sulzener stands amid supplies available in Petz Place at New Philadelphia.

TR/Jim Cummings

Petz Place looks to fill void for area pet supplies store

By LEE MORRISON

T-R Business Editor

Seeing a need for a pet supply store without driving to Canton, Dudley Sulzener decided to open Petz Place.

The new business at 545 W. High Ave., New Philadelphia, has its grand opening scheduled for Saturday with a ribbon cutting at 10 a.m.

The business with six employees is owned by Dudley and Melissa Sulzener of New Philadelphia and offers pet feed, bagged and bulk, and supplies for dogs, cats, small animals, domestic and wild birds and aquatic supplies.

Dudley Sulzener is the former manager of Quality Farm and Fleet at Dover and New Philadelphia with 27 years of experience. He said that during those years, Farm and Fleet always did well in the pets supply and pet feed areas. Also, with Ames closing in New Towne Mall at New Philadelphia, and the subsequently true rumors of Super Kmart at New Philadelphia closing, he planned to open Petz Place.

"I felt that there was going to be a void in the market," he said. "A lot of people have been traveling to Canton specifically to get pet feed and supplies. I thought that all of us living in area like to support this area as much as we can by buying locally, and with the store closings there wasn't going to be much of an opportunity for people to buy these things locally."

He said he's already heard many comments from people who are glad they no longer have to travel so far to get specific items.

"Everyone feels pressure for best use of their time and if you can avoid having to waste that time in travel that helps," he said.

Also popular with customers is that there's not a great walking distance from the parking lot or inside the slightly more than 3,000-square foot store.

"They're happy they can walk right in and get what they want and that we have carryout service - a lot of the older people have been commenting about that," he said.

Part of the dog bone logo is "The Place to Bring Your Pet to Shop!"

"We encourage customers to bring their pet into the store," he said. "It's mostly been dogs, of course, but we've had a few others. We've had comments about how clean the store is and that's partly that it's new and well-lighted, but also we're committed to keeping it a clean shopping environment."

Sulzener said he's also a pet owner, with two hunting dogs. That's prompted him to make sure that there are items for bird hunting, retrieving and training supplies, as well as electronic training and electronic yard fence items.

The store also offers a frequent shopper club program, rewarding customers with a $10 gift certificate after they spend $200. No card is required, the sales are tracked by computer.

VANDALS MAKE MUD MESS

June 7, 1995

Steve Lower, Park Board member, and Dick Huston, Cy Young Park manager, look over some of the mud mess created by some area youths recently. The Park Board is asking that youths stay off the field when it is wet because it takes time and effort to get the infield back into playing shape. Lower said he planned to make a police report on the incident.

Family histories are possible only when many people cooperate and contribute. I had many willing helpers to compile these pages.

Hopefully, I made few mistakes. If you find mistakes, please let me know. There are several blanks. If you know the missing information, fill it in and also let me know.

I suggest you add newsclips when you see them. They make a family history so much more interesting. They portray the interests and activities of the individuals.

Feel free to make copies of any or all these pages. They were compiled for the enjoyment of anyone who is interested.

P. S. I marked some of the sources deceased if I knew.

Dear Betty,

Juanita Snyder gave me your address. She said you had worked on the Lehman family history. I am not related but had quite a lot of info compiled and wondered what all you have. Do you have your info on a computer? I have not put this family on my "Family Tree Maker" program yet. Juanita and Sara Mizer gave me names on the Sulzener family except for Mary Carol's family. Do you have them? I don't have any birth dates or death dates, etc. Do you?

I would like to trade/share info with you if you are willing.

Hoping to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Doris Baker

Dear Doris:

Yes, I am still working on the Lehman family tree. I am a great, great, granddaughter of Rev. John Lehman born 23 Feb 1845. I have the family from this point on... That is John's family, I have some information on the sons of Jacob and Peter. This is from old newspapers and the County Historical Atlas of Paulding County, Ohio 1892. I am interested in going back further to the area where they came into Somerset County, Pa. Would be interested if you have any or references to someone to contact.

I am enclosing copies that may answer some of your questions.

born in 1887, was born at Adrian, Seneca county, Ohio, May 24, 1849, son of William and Nancy (Cline) Johnson, natives of Pennsylvania and Ohio, respectively — the former of Scotch-Irish and the latter of German parentage. The grandfather, Archibald Johnson, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and in 1821 located on Black river, near Cleveland. Subsequently located in Seneca county, locating in the forest on land inherited by his father, and here reared a large family. The father of our subject grew to manhood in this county, and became a well-to-do farmer, and here he yet lives and enjoys the fruits of his earlier life. He is a staunch democrat, and Mrs. Johnson is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Our subject was reared to manhood a farmer's boy, availing himself of the advantages of the common schools, and before he was seven years of age was a teacher in the public schools, which he followed successfully, spending his vacations upon the farm; subsequently attended two terms at Heidelberg college, after which he resumed teaching; then took a scientific course at Ada, where he graduated in the spring of 1879 with honors. In the spring following he located at Green Springs, Ohio, where he edited the Green Springs Times, and while there he taught school a portion of his time in connection with his newspaper work. Later he was associate editor of the Tiffin News for a time, and then he again located at Green Springs, and engaged as civil engineer on the N. Y. & O. railroad; then as proprietor and editor of the Green Springs Times, after which he established the Holgate Times, which he edited for five years. In 1887 he removed to Payne, Ohio, and edited the Payne Review, which he has conducted since, it being a well-edited, newsy paper. Mr. Johnson has devoted a portion of his time to writing along with his newspaper work. He is a staunch democrat, and is the party nominee for county surveyor, and if elected will make an efficient officer. Mr. Johnson is a member of the I. O. O. F., K. of P., K. of L. He was married, March 12, 1871, to Miss Nettie Hahn, of Seneca county, born August 22, 1852, of German parentage, her father being Frederick Hahn. Two children were born to this marriage — Annie and Marion, born October 7, 1884.

Henry King, a member of one of the prominent pioneer families of Perry county, and one of the old and highly respected citizens of Benton township, was born in Perry county, May 8, 1831. His parents were Christian Margaret (Bashore) King, the former a native of Germany, who came to this country with his parents and settled in Pennsylvania. Subsequently they removed to Perry county, where our subject was raised and received a common education. He was early employed as a farm hand and inherited forty acres of land, where he lived until 1864, when he came to Paulding and bought his present farm of eighty acres. His marriage was to Miss Margaret, the daughter of William Clum, of Perry county, consummated in 1855, and of the thirteen children born to them but five are now living: William A., David L., Jacob A., Mary E., wife of Barnhill, of Benton township, and Sarah M. Mr. King, who is a democrat, has filled the office of township trustee for three terms. He is a member of the Reformed church, in which he has been an elder for many years. William King, the eldest son of Henry, was born in Perry county on the 23d of October, 1857. He has lived in Benton township since childhood, receiving his schooling there. He chose farming as his profession and in 1883 commenced work upon his father-in-law's farm. He then bought his present place of forty acres which he cleared and upon which he erected fine buildings. His marriage occurred in 1879, at which time Miss Samantha Stabler became his wife. Their children are Ephraim H., Addie M., Arvillia C., John M. and William F. Mr. King, who is a democrat, is one of the progressive men of his township, and his wife and children are members of the Reformed church at Payne.

John Lehman was born in Somerset county, Penn., October 8, 1809, son of Jacob and Mary (Berutreager) Lehman, of French and German extraction. At the age of ten years, Jacob was taken by his father to Seneca county, where the latter died in 1825, his wife departing five years later. Our subject learned the carpenter's trade and followed on this business in connection with mill-wrighting for many years, both in his native and Paulding counties. October 24, 1851, he located in Benton township, upon his present farm, which consists of one hundred and twenty acres of land, entered June 6, 1839. This farm was in the wilderness at the time of Mr. Lehman's purchase, but by hard work he has accomplished the clearing process, and now it is considered one of the finest in the county. In 1880 he retired from active work, and is spending his declining years in the midst of peace and plenty. In his early life Mr. Lehman was a democrat, but later he voted the republican ticket, and has since been a supporter of that party. In 1836 he married Susannah Lavengood, of Pennsylvania, who died January 26,

1856, leaving seven children, as follows: Mary A., wife of W. T. Cress, of Benton township; Catherine, wife of Ephraim Stabler; Hannah (deceased), who married John Wilderson; Peter, John, Susannah (deceased), who married George Frederickson, and Samantha, who was twice married, first to Julian Vendeley, and then to John Foreny. Mr. Lehman's second marriage was to Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wiley, the daughter of O. Woodcock, of Knox county. He is a member of the German Baptist church, and has been deacon in the organization for years. He is a representative citizen, the embodiment of those qualities which go to make up honorable manhood, and by his energy, probity, tact and good nature, has become one of the popular as well as progressive citizens of his township. [Peter Lehman, the eldest son, is a native of Tuscarawas county, born September 16, 1843. His education was received in the common schools of Benton township, where, with his parents, he located in boyhood. In 1861 he enlisted in the Sixty-eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, company C, and re-enlisted December 10, 1863, serving until July 20, 1865. He served his country faithfully, and participated in the following engagements: Fort Donelson, Thompson Hill, Champion Hills, Vicksburg, Black River, Kenesaw Plains, Brush Mountain and Atlanta, Ga. His regiment then followed Hood to Tennessee, and was with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. Mr. Lehman was at the siege of Savannah, Ga., and was one of eight in the first boat that crossed Broad river to drive the rebels out of the intrenchment. At the close of the war he returned to Benton township, and, locating upon the homestead farm, remained there until he purchased a home in Harrison township. In 1876 he returned to Benton, and in 1884 bought his present place, which he has improved. He married Miss Mary E. Stabler, who died, leaving John A., Elizabeth M., Samantha, Samuel and William. Mr. Lehman has filled the offices of town trustee and supervisor, and in the discharge of his official duties he manifested business qualifications of a high order. Rev. John Lehman was born February 24, 1845, was reared upon the homestead farm in Benton township, and received his education in the common schools. In the spring of 1864 he enlisted in company C, Sixty-eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, and served loyally until July 10, 1865, participating with his regiment in the engagements around Atlanta, and Sherman's march to the sea. Returning home after the close of hostilities, he in 1879 located upon his present farm, and is the possessor of one hundred and twenty-seven acres in section 18. In 1883 Mr. Lehman was appointed by the elders of the German Baptist church to the pastorate of the Flat Rock congregation, and he has since presided in that position. He has filled the positions of trustee, constable and supervisor, and in his politics he is of the republican belief. His marriage occurred May 24, 1866, at which time Miss Samantha J., the daughter of William P. Schock, became his wife. They are the parents of Delbert, William E., Jannette E., Jacob E. and Samuel H., and enjoy general popularity in the community in which they reside.]

His first settlement was made in Crawford county, Ohio, where he remained for a time, and then purchased 100 acres of land in section 7, of Benton township. In company with his family he began the process of clearing his tract and built the little log cabin so familiar to every pioneer. Subsequently, Mr. Lothammer added to his previous purchase until he possessed nearly 300 acres, and when his sons left their home to begin life for themselves, he presented each one with a farm of forty acres. He had married, early in life (1832), Mary M., daughter of Joseph Gamber, of France, and the issue of this union was ten children, as follows: Theobald (deceased), Joseph, of Indiana; Anthony (deceased), Mary M., wife of Henry Stillsemberg; Teressa, wife of Peter Brady, of Benton township; Ignatius, of Benton; Maurice, of Benton; Agatha, the wife of Frank Quince, and two who died in infancy. APPENDIX

As noted in the preface to this volume, after the compilation of the main text of this book, the editor decided to go back through those papers which were still available for his use, in order to compile a list of obituaries which although not meeting the requirements for inclusion in the main text, were felt nonetheless to be of interest to some researchers. This included persons with marginal ties to the area, such as persons who had never lived here but had relatives living here; prominent county political figures; persons who had moved away in their childhood; and transients who happened to die in town. Stillborn infants were not included.

In some, but not all, years, golden wedding anniversary notices were indexed; in the 1940's these announcements were included in the "Society" column, and very rarely included a photo. In the 1950's these announcements will often include a nice photo. Be aware that not all years were indexed. If the couple you are looking for lived in the area and was married for 50 years the chances are excellent that an article was published; you will have to look this up yourself.

Years gone through for inclusion in this appendix were- 1943; 1944 through Aug. 10; 1945; 1947; 1948; and 1949 through 1959 inclusive. The other years are available on microfilm for the interested researcher.

Following each name in the appendix is the person's age, followed by the date of publication, not the date of death. Please note that during this period the Newcomerstown News always published on Thursday.

Shanesville Disaster:—We reproduce the account of this disaster as given in the History of Tuscarawas County, published by Warner, Beers & Co., of Chicago, in 1881. "One of the most appalling disasters that ever befell a community occurred at Shanesville on New Year's Eve, December 31, 1881, at which time a lodge of Knights of Pythias gave a festival for its benefit on the second floor of the Goeler Building, south-west corner of the square. Over two hundred persons were in attendance, and the small hall was packed. Supper had been announced in the adjoining room, but the crowd lingered to listen to the enlivening strains of the village band, while a number of boys beat time to the music with their feet. Suddenly the floor parted in the center, and the mass of human beings, stove, lamps and furniture were precipitated in a heap into the store-room below. Fire was soon communicated to the clothes of the struggling victims, and for a time it seemed as if all must perish. The doors of the store-room could not be opened for the fallen floor, which hung by its sides above, securely barred it. The doors were finally broken down by men from the outside, and by great effort the throng was released and the flames extinguished, but not until ten had received their death wounds from the devouring element, and many more severely burned. There was scarcely a house in the village which did not have a struggling sufferer extricated from that terrible trap.—Miss Mary Neff was instantly killed, and the following died from injuries received: Mrs. Catherine Yoder and her son, Melta Yoder; Miss Anna Orin; Mrs. Allen Goeler; Frederick Schlarb, the village clothier; Frederick Weimer, a blacksmith; George Froelich, farmer; Miss Amanda Troyer and Miss Annie Groff.

The Story of Johnny Apple Seed:—No doubt many of the older inhabitants of our county are yet familiar with the story of an eccentric character who was famous throughout Ohio in earlier times, and who was generally known as Johnny Apple seed. He was one of those individuals whom the present generation looks upon as having been mythical. His name was John Chapman, and he came originally from New England.

He had imbibed a remarkable passion for

S. F. BOYD KILLED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Relatives in this city received a telegram last Thursday announcing the accidental death of Conductor S. F. Boyd, son of Mrs. George Boyd of Chestnut st. this city.

No additional information has been received as to the manner in which Conductor Boyd met his death, but the accident occurred while he was acting in his capacity as conductor on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad.

Samuel Finley Boyd was born near Milnersville. He is survived by his wife, also by his mother, one brother, George I. Boyd of Belmont county, and two sisters, Mrs. W. T. Collins and Mrs. Frank Wilson, both of this city.

He left Ohio for the west about twenty years ago, settling in Montana where he remained until about a year ago when he moved to Smithers, British Columbia.

Conductor Boyd was a member of the B. of R. T. and the O. of R. C.

A recent message from the wife indicates that she is returning to Ohio with the body. Owing to the unusual storms which have practically paralyzed railroad travel it is not thought that the funeral party will reach here before next Sunday.

No arrangements for the funeral have been made other than the announcement that the services will be conducted by Rev. F. F. Brown and Rev. A. E. Black at the home of Mrs. Geo. Boyd on Chestnut st. upon the arrival of the body.

give that night, making the grand total received in the Dedication Day offerings about $8,000.00. The "extra dollars" enabled us to purchase a complete set of silver and china for fellowship events, and a Ford car for the congregation, so the pastor could make more speed in calling on the people scattered over the countryside, perhaps not at the 80 m.p.h. of our 1964 President Lyndon B. Johnson on his "L.B.J. Ranch" in Texas, but certainly faster than the horse and buggy used by your 1916 pastor. As a matter of fact, I recall many Sundays when the frozen ground was so rough I walked the 18 miles to Barrs Mills and Ragersville to conduct Sunday school and worship services, rather than risk injury to the horse. And yet, "the work of the congregation and parish prospered." Synod minutes show that in 1915 the communing membership at Shanesville was 110, and in 1917 it was 151.

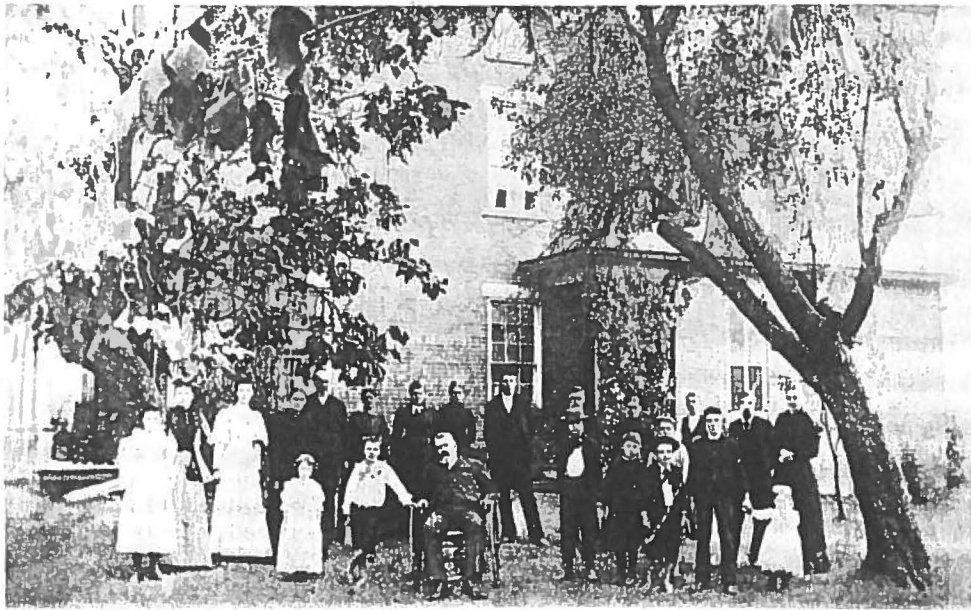

In April, 1918, we moved to Dayton to take over a mission. Since then I've served in Louisville, Kentucky; Indianapolis, Indiana; Detroit, Michigan; and for the past six years back in Louisville again where I was pastor 25 years before moving to Michigan in 1947. I've served churches large and small, I have been president of two synods - Indiana and Kentucky-Tennessee; as Michigan Mission developer organized and set up what are now two fine congregations in Detroit; served on the Social Mission and the Foreign Mission Boards of the U.L.C.A. - but there is still a warm feeling of affection for the parish and people of Shanesville where my ministry began. Now, I've come almost full circle. The year 1965 will be my "Golden Jubilee" - the 50th Anniversary of my ordination, Oct. 20, 1915. However, my preaching ministry actually began May 10, 1914, as it is written on page 37 in "The Centennial History of Shanesville".

Therefore, as the pastor who served you in that Centennial Year, I'm happy to send Sesqui-Centennial congratulations and good wishes to Pastor Weber and all who with him will "carry on into the second half of your second centenary. New cars and super highways make difficult the work of the Church in rural areas; but Shanesville has long held high the Banner of Christ up there in the hills. By His Grace may you go proudly on . . . to your "second Centennial in the year 2014!"

In His Service - your 28th pastor, 1914-1918

Hanni honored as 'Favorite Daughter'

Audrey Hanni was honored as the "Favorite Daughter" of the 1999 Frontier Apple Festival with a dinner at Christ United Methodist Church on Thursday evening.

Denny Belle, master of ceremonies, is often called the "busiest man in Newcomerstown," and he passed part of the title on to Mrs. Hanni, calling her "the busiest woman in Newcomerstown. If you have something that needs done, you ask Audrey and she'll get it done."

Mrs. Hanni is co-founder of Newcomerstown Tourism Unlimited and has served as chairman of the Christmas Committee since 1974. She has also been active in coordinating Fourth of July activities in the village. She was secretary of the village's Bicentennial Commission back in 1975 and has served as secretary and chairman of the Republican Women's Club. She spearheaded establishing "Memory Park" on Bridge Street in Newcomerstown and was secretary for the Newcomerstown 100 Club, performing in the Newcomerstown Sweet Heart Follies.

She is a member of Christ United Methodist Church and sings in the choir. She served on council for six years and while on council helped in obtaining $12 million in grants. She was awarded the "Distinguished Citizen's Award" from Newcomerstown Emergency Rescue Squad Inc. and was a member of the Business Women's Club for 18 years.

One of the highlights of the banquet was a presentation by Tuscarawas Co. commissioners Steve Smith and Darrell Pancher. They said they had left a plaque in New Philadelphia and then, with Pancher holding an imaginary placque, Smith acted as if he were reading and recited a poem in Mrs. Hanni's honor.

Also speaking on behalf of Mrs. Hanni was her sister, Marjorie Groff; Jim Carr, council member; Vane Scott, a former "Favorite Son"; Sharon Shaw, a trustee for Newcomerstown Tourism Unlimited; Mrs. Pancher; Marvin Lawyer; and Norazella Gunn. Letters were read from Violet Myers and Bill Thompson.

The dinner was catered by Thompson's IGA, with the Rev. Steve Sparling of Christ United Methodist Church providing the invocation and benediction.

There have been many activities and committees on which she has served. Such as: Christmas Tree Committee since 1974. When the Chamber stopped giving threats and having the Christmas Parade these were incorporated into the community Christmas Committee which is still active today.

In 1975, the Newcomerstown Bicentennial Commission was formed. Hanni was secretary and the history and landmarks sub-committee chairman. The history and landmarks committee wrote a Newcomerstown History book for the 1976 Bicentennial. During the same time period 1975 through 1984, she chaired the Frontier Days Committee. She has served as secretary and president of the Newcomerstown Republican Women, secretary of County Republican Women for nine years, Central Committee for 15 years, Precinct Chairman and Presiding Judge for 14 years. Three nieces, one nephew and their spouses: Michelle and Bob Pell, Elizabeth and Scott Ballentine, Amy and Andrew Bosson, and Robert and Melissa Groff. The family is completed with 11 great nieces and nephews: Jessica, Matthew, Kaitlyn, and Emilee Pell; Miles and Ashley Ballentine" Megan, Tyler, and Sarah Bosson; and Jarhett and Leighanna Groff.

She gives Paul the credit for her being able to do everything she has been active in because he helped her so much at home. Also to all the people who have worked with her on the committees.

A PERSON OF MANY TALENTS

By KATHY TYRITY
Tribune City Editor

A poet. A writer. A dancer, singer, impressionist, comedian, basketball player and gymnast. And, according to her mother, most compassionate and caring.

Eleven-year-old Jessica Lynne Pell of Coshocton wrote a poem and her teacher entered it in a contest. It won and she will be published in the Anthology of Poetry by Young Americans.

Here's how it went:

✓ "If there was no God, we would not be able to see the ocean tides, or go on horseback rides. If there was no God, we would not be able to smell the fresh air, or feel our hair. Thank you God for being there! If there was no God, there would not be these wonderful colors for us to see. If there was no God, there would not be such things as we."

She plays the keyboard and can hear a song on the radio then go play it. And she writes and sings her own. She does a wonderful imitation of Michael Jackson and has an incredible voice.

A fifth-grader at Lincoln Elementary, she wants to be many things: a stand-up comedian, a writer, a poet, a gymnast and a teacher.

In school she likes math, "but I'm not very good at it." She likes reading mysteries and "scary books." A Wrinkle in Time is one of her favorites.

"I write, play basketball, keyboard, gymnastics and draw," she says.

She has a big family: mother and father, Michelle and Bob Pell, brother, Mathew, 7, sister, Kaitlyn, 5, and baby sister Emilee, four months. And she has to share a bunk beds with her 5-year-old sister.

She's kind of a tomboy and her friends nicknamed her "Stretch." She sees a lot of movies and likes Tim Allen, Jonathan Taylor Thomas, Blossom and Fresh Prince.

"Jessica is very compassionate and caring," her mother says. "When her father was out of work, she asked if we'd like her money. And she always buys everybody gifts. She thinks about others a lot of times before she thinks about herself."

She likes going to church camp and vacations at Atlantic Beach, N.C. She also loves theme parks like Wyandot Lake and Geauga Lake.

Jessica Pell

Mar. 19, 1995 - Cosh. Tribune Kathy Tyrity/Tribune

being caring and compassionate. "As a baby she never slept much and she still doesn't. She has always been very good at so many things," her mother says.

"I'm weird," Jessica says. She wears jeans shorts over tight pants, and she says she dresses "weird."

She makes the honor roll at school and says she "likes to make up weird dances. And I'm weird because I like potato chips and ketchup. I like to wear boy's basketball shoes so I'm really weird," she says.

She wants to grow up and move into an apartment with a friend. Then she'd like to get married "and have five kids, so I guess that makes me weird, too."

She likes "weird" animals, monkeys, mice and fish. And likes "purple-pink Geo Trackers." She also loves turquoise.

"I like to go out and the woods and explore, too," she says. "I like to look for something scary." She has lots of crystals and rocks.

Asked if she had a role model, she said, "I don't like copying people. I am very independent, and I don't like to be bossed around. If someone makes fun of me, I get mad."

Miskimen-Burt

The marriage of Shirley Miskimen and Jeff Burt took place at the Firestone Road Baptist Church, North Canton, July 2. Rev. Larry Wynn and Dr. Robert Baker officiated the 3 p.m. ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Tom and Donna Miskimen, North Canton, and her grandparents are Mrs. Betty Sweitzer, Newcomerstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Miskimen, Guernsey.

MR. and MRS. JEFF BURT

The groom is the son of Ted and Lynn Burt, Auburn.

The bride's grandfather, Ellis Miskimen, presented a prayer of blessing during the double-ring ceremony which included the lighting of a unity candle. Musicians Sandra Hazelton and Laura Bloom accompanied vocalists Sheila Miskimen and Kimberly Moore.

When the bride was given in marriage by her parents, she wore a gown of man-made silk with puff sleeves and beaded bodice. She made her veil of tulle and rosettes. Her bouquet was of roses, irises, snapdragons and tulips.

Sheila Miskimen, the bride's twin sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Susanne Cammell and Kimberly Moore, both of Canton and Susan Allison and Heather Harrison, both of Lynchburg, Va. The attendants wore peach princess-style dresses and carried multi-colored floral bouquets.

Amy Sprankle, Lynchburg, was flower girl. She wore a white dress and carried a white crocheted basket of rose petals.

The groom's father served as best man. Groomsmen were Wayne Burt Marietta, brother of the groom; David Johnson, Richmond, Va., the groom's brother-in-law; Kevin Etheridge, Dacula, and Keith Etheridge, Rome.

Evan Sprankle was ringbearer. He carried a pillow made by the groom's sister, Donna Burt.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Crystal Scott and Amanda Sexton attended the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Marco Island, Fla., the couple resides in New Orleans, La. The bride is employed by New Orleans Board of Education and the groom is to attend New Orleans Baptist Seminary. They are 1993 graduates of Liberty University, Lynchburg.

Roger Sigsbee Vansickle, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Vansickle, died at the family home in this city Sunday night.

For years the young man had been afflicted with a serious lung trouble which failed to yield to the combined efforts of skilled physicians and the tender loving care of parents and friends. His condition grew steadily worse year by year until the end came. Despite his delicate constitution which denied him many of the usual sports and pleasures of youth, Roger was an enthusiastic musician, devoting much of his time to band instruments. He was a member of the Newcomerstown Boy Scout Band and was the first one of the organization to secure an instrument and master its use. He was also a member of the Baptist Sunday school orchestra.

As a student in the public schools Roger was ever faithful to his duties, and although handicapped by continued ill health he steadily persevered where many would have given up in despair. It will be remembered that on the occasion of his graduation from the local high school, public recognition was made of his brave fight to finish the course.

He was employed for several years at the Factory Store where his courteous manner and efficient services were matters of satisfaction to both management and the public in general.

In the hope that a change of climate might be of benefit, Mrs. Vansickle accompanied her son to Fitzgerald, Ga. last December but he was too weak to stand the change of atmosphere and after remaining two weeks was brought home.

Roger Vansickle was born in this vicinity Sept. 10, 1898. He was a member of the Baptist church from early youth and was faithful in his church duties.

McCall of near Columbus and Rev. R. L. Willson of Wellington both former pastors of the local charge. Interment will be made in the local cemetery.

We want to thank You for the dad and mom. We miss them very much and not a day goes by that we don't think of them, and the things we would say and do if they were still here.

Lord, if we had just a few sec-

CABBAGE PATCH 'MUNCHIE'

Kelsey Bush, daughter of Steve and Janet Bush of Newcomerstown, has no fear of her own Cabbage Patch "Munchie" doll, which is being recalled because of its "eating" hair of some of its young owners. Mrs. Bush said they have no plans to return the doll. Photograph by Ray Booth.

Steve Bush offers Rosemary the camel a sip of Coke.

2 camels, monkey call Nc'town home

BY LISA L. SHORT

If rains should force the Bush family on Lick Run Road to seek shelter, they may consider building an ark similar to Noah's.

Steve and Janet Bush own two camels, two dogs, two cats and have two children, and a slew of other unusual pets.

The children, Jason, 12½, and Kelsey, 6, have grown accustomed to their barnyard friends and Janet said her son and daughter's playmates seem more interested in the menagerie than they are.

"It's no big deal to the kids," she said.

The newest addition to the Bush family is Leslie, a 3-month-old Old World monkey.

Am-Bush Farm is also home to a llama, 11 miniature donkeys, a quarterhorse and several pigmy goats.

Cabot, 1½, and Rosemary, 2 — dromedary (one-humped) Arabian camels — came to live with the Bushes in September and November.

"These are big pets," said Janet. Rosemary weighs about 1,500 pounds.

The newest addition to the Bush family is Leslie, a 3-month-old Old World monkey.

Please see CAMELS page 20

Farm also features 11 miniature donkeys

Steve purchased Rosemary from a breeder in Indiana and Cabot in Arizona.

Are camels more expensive than llamas?

"Oh yes. Llamas don't even enter into the ballpark. And we're talking, for an adult camel, an [economical] compact car," said Janet.

She said banks will finance this kind of project because "there's a market out there."

"You're doubling your price if you try to find a Bactrian (camel with two humps). They're very expensive," she said.

Janet said according to breeders, a female dromedary bred with a bull Bactrian could produce an offspring having one hump. If the offspring were bred with a Bactrian, its offspring would have two humps.

"We're not going to do that," she noted.

The camels are set up on a warming schedule like in zoos.

The Bushes said they rely a lot on their veterinarian, Dr. Cathrine Darr, whose extensive training and connections with the Columbus Zoo, help.

Camel facts

Some facts about Steve and Janet Bush's dromedary camels:

- They receive no immunizations.
- They eat a mixture of horse feed and grass hay.
- They "wool up" in winter, and their coats feel like carpet.
- Camels spit, but only when very agitated.
- A hose and bucket full of suds is used to bathe them.
- They don't look down when they walk.
- A chain leash — placed around their nose, which is their only pressure point — is used for handling purposes.
- Camels could live 30 years.

Leslie the monkey licks a Dum-Dum sucker while being held by Janet Bush.

“She’s real receptive on everything you do with them. When we brought the camels home, that was neat. That was something more for her to research,” Janet said.

Steve said he enjoys raising “exotic” animals and learning about them is based on “trial and error.” “It’s something different that breaks up the monotony,” he said.

He said he wants to get some additional camels and a zebra.

In the barn, Cinderella, a pregnant pygmy goat, was due to deliver her first baby anytime; Baby Girl Bush, a week-old miniature donkey, and her 4-year-old mother, Tootsie Roll, were led out of their stall.

Leslie the monkey was born Jan. 9. The Bushes have had her for six weeks. She could live 30 to 40 years.

“I’d like to breed them [monk-eyes], but I want to see how they act when they’re mature,” said Steve.

Leslie eats canned baby food and wears diapers.

The family’s Australian shepherd, Labrador retriever, and two cats, Tom and Country Cat, seem to enjoy their wild companions.

But another cat, “City Kitty,” took a ride to town on one of their trucks and never came back, quipped Janet.

Speed, alcohol blamed for wreck

By LEE MORRISON
T-R Staff Writer

NEWCOMERSTOWN - Speed and alcohol are being blamed in an accident that killed two people and seriously injured two others Wednesday, according to Coshocton County sheriff deputies.

Sheriff's Sgt. Tim Rogers said Friday that investigation shows driver Heath A. Wilkin, 20, of 60030 Coshocton County Rd. 9, Newcomerstown, was left of center at the point of impact in the 9 p.m. crash.

Wilkin's westbound 1992 Ford Mustang was traveling at least 80 mph when it collided head-on with an oncoming 1983 Ford pickup truck driven by Mark Albaugh, 24, of Port Washington. The crash occurred on a straight stretch, and in the center of a large bridge, Rogers said.

Wilkin was pronounced dead at the scene, but a blood test revealed he was above the .10 legal limit for driving under the influence, and well above the .02 legal limit for drivers under age 21, Rogers said.

Also pronounced dead at the scene was Robert Rennard Jr., 6, of 3391 Wolf Rd., Port Washington. He was a passenger in Albaugh's pickup. The boy was a kindergarten student at Port Washington Elementary, and lived nearby the village's volunteer fire department and reportedly enjoyed helping the firefighters, including washing the fire trucks. He also played T-ball.

Albaugh and Robert Rennard Sr., 25, of Port Washington, were in serious condition in the intensive care unit of Grant Medical Center at Columbus Friday.

Rogers said the Jaws of Life device was used on both vehicles in "a very lengthy extrication" to remove those involved.

He said there's no indication yet where Wilkin was coming from or why he was driving so fast.

None of the occupants were wearing their safety belts, he said.

The accident remains under investigation, but no charges are expected, Rogers said.

TWO BROTHERS DIE WITHIN 36 HOURS

Henry Schwab, 78 years of age, father of Frank W. Schwab of this city, died at his home in New Philadelphia, Wednesday, Feb. 15, of paralysis, after being confined to his bed for a period of ten weeks.

Mr. Schwab, the youngest of eight children was born April 14, 1850, in Jefferson township, a son of Bernhart and Kathryn Lambright Schwab, and moved to New Philadelphia about 50 years ago. He was a retired saddler and harness maker, and was prominent in business, being engaged in this one line for a period of over 45 years prior to his retirement 8 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Caroline Torgler Schwab, and one son, Frank W. Schwab of this city. Was a member of the First Reformed church, and the Odd Fellows lodge. Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 2 p. m. last Saturday, Rev. W. W. Foust officiating. Burial was made in East Avenue cemetery, New Philadelphia, the Odd Fellows having charge of the services at the cemetery.

Friday morning just 36 hours after Henry Schwab passed away, his brother, John Schwab, aged 84, a native of Stonecreek valley, was found dead in his room in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Sandusky, death being due evidently to heart trouble as he had not been ill. His body was removed to the home of a son, O. W. Schwab, Port Washington, where funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

John Schwab was born in Stonecreek Valley and lived in Tuscarawas Co. for many years.

He is survived by four sons, Grant Schwab, Strasburg; O. W. and Fred Schwab, Port Washington; John Schwab, Glasgow, and one step daughter.

Mrs. Eli Miller, wife of Stonecreek's postmaster, is a sister.

BOY DIES FROM FRACTURED SKULL

Raymond Frederick Lehman, aged 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lehman of this city, died Monday evening at about 8:30 o'clock from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile driven by Eugene Welch of Port Washington.

GEORGE W. PACE DIES OF PARALYSIS

George W. Pace, 63, retired harness and hardware dealer, died at his home on West Main street, Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, following an illness resulting from creeping paralysis which first made its appearance about three years ago. Although he had not been feeling as well as usual during the past week, his death came almost without warning, and occurred as he sat in a chair at his home.

Mr. Pace was born Oct. 6, 1864, near Newcomerstown, and with the exception of three years spent in the west, has lived all his life in this vicinity. He was engaged in the harness and hardware business in Newcomerstown for over 20 years, later in the grocery business in this city, and for some time was connected with his brothers William and Samuel in the paving construction business. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Newcomerstown cemeteries, and was affiliated with the M. E. church of this city.

Surviving are his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Cecil Siegrist of Coshocton, Miss Eva Pace of the home, Miss Mary Pace, teacher in the Niles schools; three brothers, William of Chicago, David of Columbus, Samuel of Canton; three sisters Mrs. Anna Rice of Mansfield, Mrs. Harry Rownd of Steubenville, Mrs. Curtiss Ruch of Mt. Eaton.

It is understood that his brother William is now in Florida and Samuel is in Cuba, which will prevent them from attending the funeral.

Funeral services will be held at the late home Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. T. I. Hanson. Interment will be made in the local cemetery.

Henry King, 74 years of age, was found dead in bed, Monday morning, at his home at Evans Creek, seven miles northwest of Newcomerstown. Heart trouble, of which he had been suffering for some time being the cause of his death.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Lucretia Loose, West Lafayette, Ester and Dorothy of the home, and four sons, George of Canton, William, Roy and Virgil of Newcomerstown; and one brother, John King of near Newcomerstown.

He was also a brother of the late Charles King.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock at the Orange M. E. church, and burial will be made in the West Lafayette cemetery.

CHARLES PORCHER BURIED AT PORT

Charles Porcher, 74, retired blacksmith, died Tuesday evening, Feb. 14 at his home in Uhrichsville following a lingering illness.

The deceased was born in Germany, October 25, 1853, a son of Charles and Catherine Porcher. When he was nine months of age his parents emigrated to the United States, settling in Salem township near Port Washington. On December 13, 1877 he was united in marriage to Catherine Pfeiffer of Port Washington. She preceeded him in death a little more than two years ago. Four children were born to them, two of whom survive. They are Howard and Grover, both of Uhrichsville.

Mr. Porcher had been a life-long resident of Tuscarawas county. For 50 years he conducted a blacksmith shop of his own, 25 years of that time being located in Port Washington and the remaining 25 years in Uhrichsville.

Funeral services were held at the residence, Friday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. F. Weinland of the Moravian church. Interment in Port Washington cemetery.

Resident for how long: 73 years, except three years in the Marine Corp.

If you could change one thing about the community: To see a prosperous Main Street and see more industry, to keep our young people at home.

If you could make more people appreciate one thing about the community, it would be: To take PRIDE in our schools, support the young people, clean up some of our run-down properties, be proud of our town and wish that visitors would appreciate it like we do.

Best time of your life: When I married Mary Ann and the enjoyment that we had with our three sons through their local school and college years, and the present time, watching my grandchildren enjoy life.

Worst time of your life: When my wife Mary Ann passed away.

What is your greatest accomplishment and what would you yet like to accomplish: To try and treat others as I would like to be treated, to continue to follow this pattern and hope that it is good enough to greet my maker and loved ones.

One last comment: As my good friend A.P. Yanai says, "I tried."

Stocker

Stocker achieved strong season under tough circumstances

By ROGER METZGER

T-R Sports Writer

STRASBURG - Jonathan Stocker had a lot on mind last season, but it didn't deter him from leading the Newcomerstown High defense on the gridiron.

Stocker racked up 103 tackles with 10 sacks last season and 15 more for a loss at inside linebacker as the Trojans posted the school's fourth undefeated campaign with a 10-0 mark.

The 6-foot-1, 200 pound son of Dan and Janice Stocker accomplished the above feats with his father battling lymphoma.

Stocker will play his last high school game next Friday night when his West team takes on the East in the 25th annual Times-Reporter Charities All-Star Football Game at Crater Stadium in Dover.

Two weeks before Newcomerstown's regular season started, Stocker's father was diagnosed with lymphoma.

"He had cancer in the lymph nodes in his neck and thank God they caught it before it got too bad," said Stocker, a special mention All-Ohioan and an Eastern District first team selection.

"It was devastating news," recalled Stocker. "The first thing we thought of was that he not be here to watch me, but we all pulled together and he came back from Minnesota

(the Mayo Clinic) the second game of the year. He made sure he was there to see me play."

Stocker said that Coach Jeff Cook played a big factor in keeping the Trojan linebacker's head in the game.

"He's really there if you ever need him," said Stocker. "It's really nice having a coach like that."

"He (Cook) said keep him in your mind, but make sure that you are focused," said Stocker. "It was hard, but the winning made things better."

Dan Stocker is treasurer of the Newcomerstown Schools.

"He's been through radiation therapy and chemotherapy," said the younger Stocker. "All that good stuff."

"He had a checkup about a month ago," added Stocker. "The doctors said he's doing real well and they don't want to see him again, so that's great news."

Stocker said that playing inside linebacker takes a pair of good eyes and legs.

"You have to have good reaction and be able to read and run," said Stocker.

Stocker

In addition to his defensive prowess, Stocker, who had a grade point average of 3.0 during his senior season, caught 12 passes for 105 yards and three touchdowns from his tight end position.

Despite finishing the season with a spotless record, the Trojans were denied a shot at participating in the postseason as they did not have enough computer points to make the top eight in their region.

"It was disappointing that we didn't make the playoffs, but it was nice that we went out with a win," said Stocker. "I was able to finish my high school career with 10 wins in a row."

Stocker said the Trojans kept focusing on winning week by week.

"During the season our coaches stressed winning one game at a time and then let the points fall where they may," recalled Stocker. "We were more worried about going 10-0. I think there were only two teams in school history that ever did that."

Stocker said he's pleased to represent Newcomerstown along with teammates Andrew Branch, Chris Bryant, Josh Dunlop, Kyle Girton and Ben Marlatt.

"I'm really excited to play in this game," said Stocker. "I've looked forward to it all summer."

After Friday night's game, Stocker will play collegiately at Muskingum College with a possible major in psychology.

How high can you go?

Cory Stocker tries to see how high he can build with 10 Velcro-tipped sticks of different sizes. He and other students at Newcomerstown West Elementary were learning about balance and building through a visit from the Ohio Center of Science and Industry. Also building with the sticks are Christopher Kehl, Mike Sauerbrey and Amanda Pepping.
