OTHER CAVES IN OHIO

There were other Cave families in Ohio in the early days whose relationship, if any, to Elder Benjamin Cave has not been established. These families lived in Ross, Fairfield and Champaign counties.

There was a Sinclair Cave, who married Elizabeth Hacker in Ross County March 16, 1830. Their children were: Aquilla (1835-1880), Jane (b. 1838), Keziah (b. 1840) and Susan Ellen (b. 1844). Sinclair Cave died between 1844 and 1850 for in 1850 his widow married Andrew Williams of Green Township, Ross County, Ohio. Both Andrew Williams and his wife, Elizabeth were born in Virginia, he in 1801 and she in 1805. Jane Cave married Andrew Kness in 1855, Keziah Cave married Abraham Rice in 1858 and Susan Ellen Cave married William E. Mahoney in 1859, all in Ross County, Ohio. Aquilla Cave died at Chillicothe on December 6, 1880.

It is interesting to note that a Sinclair Cave married Sary Anderson in Orange County, Virginia March 13, 1814, sixteen years before the above marriage of Sinclair Cave and Elizabeth Hacker.

In Harrison Township, Ross County, Ohio, living near Elder Benjamin Cave's widow, Keziah Cave, there were in 1850 Thomas and Elizabeth Cave. He was born in Virginia in 1797 and she in Pennsylvania in 1802. Their children listed in the census of 1850 were: Thomas (b. 1827), Alvanis (b. 1829), Rachel (b. 1832), Ieba (b. 1835), Mary (b. 1837), and Martivel (b. 1842). Also in Harrison Township, Ross County, Ohio there were John and Jane Cave, he born in 1821 and she in 1826, both in Ohio. In 1850 they had daughters Elizabeth (b. 1847) and Deborah (b. 1849).

In Fairfield County, Ohio there was a Thomas H. Cave, who was born in Salisbury, North Carolina between 1805 and 1812 (the later date is the one given in census). He married Margaret Dern in Hocking County, Ohio September 22, 1836. Their children were: Willamatha (b. 1838), Silvester (b. 1839), Malinda (b. 1841), Allen (b. 1843), Rufus (b. 1815), Mary (b. 1847), Clark and Jane. Thomas H. Cave moved to Ohio from Cavetown, Maryland and settled near Rockbridge, Ohio. He died at Rock Mill in Fairfield County in 1855.

With the above exceptions, all other Cave families listed in the U. S. census of 1850 living in Fairfield, Hocking, Pickaway and Ross counties have been identified as descendants of Elder Benjamin Cave (1760-1842). The identifications were made with the use of microfilm and through the living memories of the following people: Evaline (Cave) McClelland (1840-1934) Laurelville, Ohio, Jasper Cave (1849-1939) South Perry Ohio, Byron Cave (1870-1954) Lancaster, Ohio, Josephine (Cave) Harper (1870-) Evart, Michigan.

Dear Mrs. Swayer,

My connection with the Marburgers of Fairfield Co., while it ought to be very clear-cut, is in fact very tenuous. My grandmother was Mary Etta Marburger/Marbarger; she was supposed to have been the daughter of Samuel M., one of the sons of the Georg Ludwig M., from whom all the people you met are descended. My problem is that I can't prove this. My grandmother said he was her father, and I'm sure she actually believed this, but there is no direct proof of the fact and much circumstantial evidence that contradicts it. But that's my problem. On to yours.

You mention parenthetically that your husband is descended from a Mary Ann M. Since you give no further data, there's no way I can be sure, but I must at least mention that one of the daughters of Georg Ludwig (1798-1900) was indeed a Mary Ann. The only thing I have on her is that she was born ca. 1833. If she looks like a reasonable possibility for your research, more data (marriage, etc.) should be sought first in Fairfield Co. If nothing pans out there, try Pickaway, and then Franklin and Licking in that order. If she turns out to be the one you're looking for, I can give you some additional information on her family. I'm not going to list everything I know now; I'd rather wait until I'm sure it's applicable to you. If you're looking for someone of a different time period, there are plenty of possibilities in this same family: all of them were quite proliferative.

I've never heard of the "Marburger Castle." While the chances that it is connected with this family are virtually nil to begin with, it's being located in or near Hamburg decreases the probability even more. The tradition of this family is that they originated in Elsoff, Kreis Wittgenstein, in Nord-Rhein-Westfalen. While the records of the church in this town failed to yield a Georg Ludwig (grandfather of the one above) as having been baptised there in the correct time frame, Elsoff is still much more likely the correct area (at least) than Hamburg. This emigrant arrived in 1752, and emigration during that time period was almost exclusively from central and southwestern Germany, not from the north. The main exodus from northern and eastern areas occurred during the 1800s. I should also point out that the "Marburger" in the castle name is much more likely to refer to the city of Marburg (or the ruling house thereof). The German would be: marburger Schloss or Burg marburger, with the marburger being simply an adjective with the -er masculine ending. I'd also be less than shocked to find out that the castle in question is actually in Marburg and not in Hamburg.

If I can help you any more with the Mary Ann problem, I'll be glad to. I'll need more specific information in terms of dates, etc., but maybe I've got something in my files. You can write me or call me at 239-9536.
