ODIS DANSBY JR.

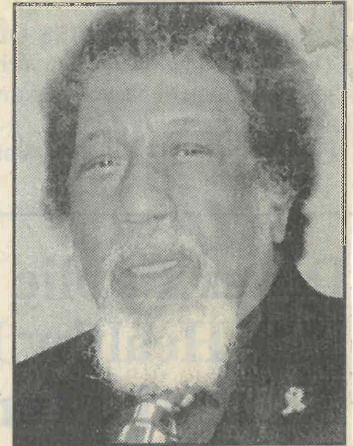

1933-2012

Odis "Odie" Dansby, Jr., 79, Newcomerstown, passed away at his Newcomerstown residence late Sunday morning, Dec. 30, 2012.

Odis was born in Newcomerstown, on Oct. 4, 1933, a son of the late Odis Dansby Sr., Newcomerstown, who died in 1977, and the late Frances F. Clayton Dansby, Newcomerstown, who died in 1994.

He was a graduate of Newcomerstown High School, Class of 1952. Odis then served a tour of duty in the Army. He was a member of the 20th Infantry Regiment and was stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., during the Korean War. He returned to civilian life in Newcomerstown in 1956 and was employed as a custodian with the former Heller Brothers Tool Company, Newcomerstown, for over 43 years before his retirement in 1997. He was a member of the Trinity Baptist Church, Newcomerstown, and a life member of both the Thomas Montgomery Post 431, Newcomerstown American Legion, and the AMVETS Post 36, Coshocton. He also belonged to the LOOM 1337, Newcomerstown Moose Lodge.

Odie had a colorful sense of humor. He was a loving man with many funny stories and comments that made a lasting impression on everyone. Odie was a man full of compassion for others, always seeming to make others laugh and smile. He made each person he met feel special. The Newcomerstown American Legion became his second home, as he enjoyed his daily coffee and friends at the post. At the Legion, he enjoyed watching sports and engaging in conversations with his many friends. Odie was known for his collection of unique smoking pipes and his willingness to "gab" about anything. With his unique personality, no one was ever a stranger to Odie. A died in 1993; and a granddaughter, Ashley K. Dansby, Newcomerstown, who died in 1984.

He leaves to cherish his memories his daughter, Peggy Dansby, Newcomerstown; his two sons, Michael (Alyse) Dansby of St. Paul, Minn., and Brent (Claudia) Dansby of Wadsworth; several grandchildren, Nicole Dansby of Newcomerstown, Alicia, Autumn, Chris, and Margaret Dansby, all of St. Paul, Minn., Will Dansby, Concord, Calif., Nathan Ash of Dublin, Alicia Ash Bousquet of Orlando, Fla., and Natalie Ash Murphy, Long Grove, Iowa; five great-grandchildren; his sister-in-law, Carol A. Dansby of Newcomerstown; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

To honor his wishes, his remains are to be cremated.

Memorial services will take place in the Ourant Funeral Home, Newcomerstown, on Saturday, Jan. 12 at 1 p.m. The Rev. Robert Sherrell will conduct the services. Friends will also be received in the funeral home on Saturday, Jan. 12 starting at 11 a.m. until the 1 p.m. memorial services.

Burial will follow in the West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown, where military graveside services will be conducted by the man with a big heart for others, he was a wonderful friend, father, and grandfather who will be greatly missed in the Newcomerstown community.

In addition to his parents, Odis was preceded in death by his brother, Larry R. Dansby, Newcomerstown, who Newcomerstown Veterans' Honor Guard.

The family is requesting that memorials be made in Odis's name to the Trinity Baptist Church, c/o The Huntington National Bank, 100 W. Main St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832.

CHARLES E. MARLATT

1924-2013

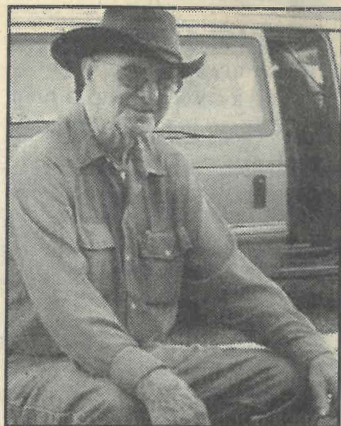

Charles Edward Marlatt Sr. (Charlie/Eddie), 88, of Newcomerstown, passed away late Sunday morning, Jan. 6, 2013, in Union Hospital, Dover.

Charles was born in Linton Township, Coshocton County, on March 14, 1924, a son of the late Denver and Ethel Marlatt.

He was raised by his grandparents, David and Jenny Marlatt. After attending school in Plainfield he joined the Army. He was a Tec-5 specialist with the 1395th Engineering Construction Battalion as a telephone and telegraph line repairman. During World War II, Charles served in the Asiatic-Pacific theater with stops in Guadalcanal, Tarawa, and Okinawa. He returned to civilian life in 1946 and began a long employment career. He retired in 1989 as a stationary engineer with General Tire Company, Newcomerstown, where he was employed for 13 years. Prior to this, he was employed at the former Heller Brothers Tool Company for many years, also as a stationary engineer. Before that, he worked at the former Pretty Products Company, Coshocton, and was employed with the railroads when he left the Army. He was a life member of both the Thomas Montgomery Post 431, Newcomerstown American Legion and the Darrell Beiter Post 3303, VFW, Newcomerstown. Charlie was also a model air plane enthusiast and belonged to the Coshocton County Cloud Climbers. He also enjoyed reading the Bible, creating home video tapes, reading and watching all things related to the railroads, and doing electrical work and rewiring houses. He also enjoyed traveling and visiting many lighthouses on the coast and on lakes.

In addition to his parents and grandparents, he was preceded in death by a sister, June Grindstaff of Newcomerstown.

Charlie is survived by his wife of 24 years, D. Jean Johnson Sweitzer Marlatt, Newcomerstown, whom he married on July 20, 1988. Also surviving are two sons, J.D. (Shannon) Marlatt and J. R. Marlatt, all of Newcomerstown. He also leaves to cherish his memory many members of Jean Sweitzer's family; brother, Robert Marlatt of Newcomerstown; a sister, Sarah (Donald) Schworm of St. Clairsville; sisters, Blanche of Missouri, Evelyn of Medina, Jean of Coshocton, Helen Wilson, Shirley; the mother of his two sons, Barbara Loretta Marlatt, Newcomerstown; and two special cousins with whom Charles was raised, Pat (Mrs. Willard) McCrone and Betty Little, both of Newcomerstown.

To honor his wishes, his family is requesting that his remains be cremated. No visiting hours or funeral services are to be held at this time.

Graveside services, military graveside services, and the burial of his ashes will be held later this year at Earley's Cemetery, Wheeling Township, Guernsey County. These arrangements will be announced at that time by the Ourant Funeral Home of Newcomerstown, who is assisting the family with all the arrangements.

The family is requesting that memorials be made in Charlie's name to an individual's favorite charity.

He was exceptionally close to the Savitz family in Brentwood, Tenn., where the family congregated for holidays and special occasions.

Preceding Edward in death was his father, James E. Gallion.

The family requests that memorials be made to ChildFund at www.childfund.org or to your local no-kill animal rescue organization.

MARY J. GREWELL

1930-2013

Mary Jane Grewell, 82, Newcomerstown, answered the call to rejoin her husband, A. Wayne Grewell, who died on March 20, 2008, in her eternal home on Jan. 13, 2013, where she had been a patient at the Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus for four days. Death came as a repose to the exhausting illness she endured so long and patiently. Loving hands of family and skilled physicians did all they could to provide comfort until her spirit departed her failing body.

Together Again
Wayne and Mary Jane Grewell

Mary Jane Clough was born March 5, 1930, in Newcomerstown, into the bosom of the Christian faith and raised in the fear, nurture, and admonition of the Lord. She was the daughter of the late Freddie Thomas and Mary Iowa (Harper) Clough. Entering the world in an abnormally small size (2 ½ pounds), she was brought to the home of her parents in a shoebox and never anticipated an extended life on this earth but defied all odds and expectations, living a lengthy life of kindness and reverence, grateful for the gift bestowed by her Saviour, time.

Mary Jane married Wayne Grewell on Nov. 6, 1953, in Richmond, Ind., and was the mother of four, Thomas (Tina) Grewell, Sunbury, John (Patti) Grewell, Newcomerstown, and Keith (Pamela) Grewell, Caldwell; and a daughter, was born prematurely in April 1954. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren, Dawn Hicks, Marengo, April Simmons, Newcomerstown, Bryan Grewell, Newcomerstown, Nicole Peoples, Coshocton, Candi Houston, Newcomerstown, Johnna and Jenna Grewell, both of Newcomerstown, Pfc. Shane Grewell, Alaska, Alex and Keiden Grewell, Caldwell, Jennifer McClure, Delaware, and Brandy McLaughlin, Marengo; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Mary Jane was preceded in death by an infant sister, Margaret Irene Clough; and a brother-in-law, Robert Casteel.

The following brothers and sisters also survive to mourn their loss, Joy Lou (Lester) Marlatt, Gerry Ann Casteel, Charles H. (Viola) Clough, and Fred T. (Colleen) Clough Jr.; and several nieces and nephews.

Mary was a member of the Newcomerstown Church of the Nazarene since 1946. She had dedicated more than 30 years to lovingly nurturing God's children to know her Lord in the church nursery and through babysitting at home. She was a member of the VIP Sunday School Class. Deprived of church attendance for two years previous to her death, she put her trust in Jesus Christ and was ready to depart this world to be with him. Mary Jane enjoyed embroidering, solving word search puzzles, playing UNO, playing dominoes with her sisters, making turkey noodles, and going out for dinner.

Funeral services to celebrate Mary Jane's life were Friday, Jan. 18, 2013, in the Ourant Funeral Home, Newcomerstown. The Rev. R. Gene Whyde and Pastor R. Wayne Baker conducted the services. Burial follow in the West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown.

The family is requesting that memorials be made in Mary Jane's name to the Newcomerstown Church of the Nazarene, 363 Neighbor St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832; or to Health Services of Coshocton County (Coshocton County Hospice), P.O. Box 1284, Coshocton, OH 43812.

JAMES B. 'TOAD' TEDROW

1970-2013

BELLVILLE — A good friend helps get you out of trouble, a great friend helps get you out of trouble and takes the blame. Toad Tedrow was a good and a great friend to many. A friendly face in the community, Toad's friendship could have been considered a full time occupation. Always happy, many were drawn to his big heart and fun personality.

On Sunday, Jan. 27, 2013, the Clear Fork Valley lost a great friend. Toad passed away in Riverside Methodist Hospital following a brief illness. He was 42.

Toad was born Nov. 10, 1970, in Columbus, the son of John and Linda (Goettge) Tedrow. After graduating from Clear Fork High School in 1989, Toad continued his education at The Ohio State University. He graduated in 1995 earning a Bachelors of Science in Political Science.

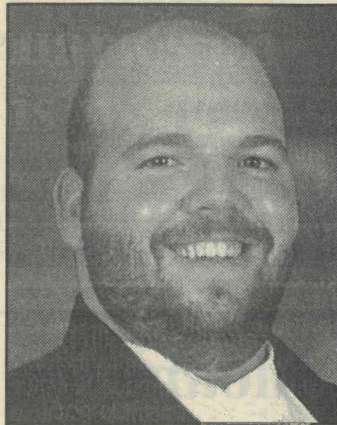

Since high school, Toad worked alongside his father operating Digital Telephone and Electronics. Toad worked both in sales and satellite installation.

Toad was a huge Ohio State Buckeyes and Dallas Cowboys fan. He enjoyed golfing at local courses. Fun and excitement seemed to follow Toad. Whether at home, work, or on vacation, Toad just had a way of "turning lemons into lemonade." He enjoyed vacationing in Mexico, Florida, and taking Caribbean cruises.

Supporting "The Valley," Toad sponsored children showing livestock during the Bellville Street Fair and also held spaghetti dinners for many Clear Fork athletic programs.

A loving husband, father and son, Toad is survived by his wife, Angie Tedrow; sons, Jackson and Cooper Tedrow; and parents, John and Linda Tedrow, all of Bellville.

Toad is also survived by his brother, Greg (Linda) Tedrow of Bellville; aunts, Lori Goettge of Port Washington, Hazel (Arthur) Koschny of Worthington, and Mary Jurin of Marietta; uncle, Harold Tedrow of Port Washington; great-aunt, Shirley Melville of New Philadelphia; mother-in-law, Suzanne (Robert) Sorquist of Butler; father-in-law, William Bebout of Butler; sisters-in-law, Elizabeth Speckert (Jim Townsend) of Bellville, Jennifer (John) Inman of Lexington, and Christy Bebout of Colorado; brother-in-law, Jonathan Bebout of Butler; grandfather, Robert Calhoon of Butler; uncle, Joe Calhoon of Butler; and nieces and nephew, Shelby and Brady Tedrow, Lauren and Layne Speckert, Ashlyn and Brooklyn Inman and Jacquelyn Bebout-Vidaurri.

Toad was preceded in death by maternal and paternal grandparents, Jim and Audrey Goettge and Clarence and Mabel Tedrow; grandmother, Shirley Calhoon; and Maggie, the Lab.

The Tedrow family received friends Friday, Feb. 1, 2013, in the Bellville Snyder Funeral Home, 81 Mill Road, Bellville, where funeral services were Saturday, Jan. 2, 2013.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be made to benefit Toad's children's education. Contributions may be made through the funeral home, make checks payable: Tedrow Family.

The Bellville Snyder Funeral Home is honored to serve the Tedrow family and online condolences to them may be made by visiting, www.snyderfuneralhomes.com.

1939-2013

JoLinda L. Bundy, 73, of Newcomerstown, passed away early Wednesday morning, Feb. 13, 2013, in the Richard M. Ross Heart Hospital of the Ohio State University Medical Center.

JoLinda was born in Bellaire, Belmont County, on May 5, 1939, a daughter of the late Robert A. "Pap" and Stella Margaret Steed Glasgow.

She attended Tiltonsville schools, Jefferson County, and was a homemaker for all her adult life. JoLinda was employed as a grinder at the former Simonds Industries, Newcomerstown, for several years before a disability retirement in 1978. She was also employed at Kurz-Kasch, Newcomerstown, as an assembler for a few years. JoLinda enjoyed bowling and belonged to the Monday Night Bowlerettes League at Cy Young Lanes, Newcomerstown, for many years. She was also a former member of the Red Hat Society, Belmont County. One of JoLinda's favorite activities was fishing; she must have learned her fishing skills from her father-in-law, the late Bill Bundy, as she became quite good at this sport for many years. She also enjoyed camping with her daughter and son-in-law, Kathy and Tom. JoLinda also enjoyed attending the Mountaineer Track and Gaming Casino, W.Va. She especially enjoyed her overnight stays at the Casino complex and dining on her favorite meal, haddock. She was always there for her family and friends and would freely give her time and comfort so that others would benefit. Also, JoLinda enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, JoLinda was preceded in death by a son, David Bundy, Newcomerstown, who died in 1963; two brothers, James married Jan. 5, 1957. She also leaves to cherish her memories three daughters, Karen (Terry) Stahl, Karole (Tim) Kees, and Kathy (Tom) Lindell, all of Newcomerstown. She always considered her son-in-law, Tom, as her own son. JoLinda is also survived by four grandsons and two granddaughters, Christopher Kyle and companion Carey Rice, Newcomerstown, Gary (Melissa) Stahl, Gnadenhutten, Andrew (Katie) Stahl, Newcomerstown, and Bryan Stahl and companion Ashley Decker, Newcomerstown, Jessica Kyle and companion Randy Emig, Newcomerstown, and Monique Robinson and companion Quenton Coe, New Philadelphia. There are also two step-granddaughters, Stacie Lindell and companion Tony Roe, New Philadelphia, and Tiffany (Ross) Swaldo, Tuscarawas; seven great-grandchildren, Joseph Kyle, Newcomerstown, Haley Stahl, Ty Stahl, and Traye Stahl, all of Gnadenhutten, Bryson Stahl and Braxton Stahl, both of Newcomerstown, and Trenton Wright, New Philadelphia; a step-great-grandson, Rylan Swaldo, Tuscarawas; a brother, Robert (Patricia) Glasgow, Mt. Pleasant; and two sisters-in-law, Donna Glasgow, Dillonvale, and Mary Alice Glasgow, Houston, Texas.

Private family funeral services and burial will take place in the West Lawn Cemetery, Glasgow, Houston, Texas, and Phillip "Butch" Glasgow, Dillonvale; a sister, Roberta Starkey, Salem, Mo.; two step brothers, David Carson, Kankakee, Ill., and Tom Carson, Diles' Bottom; and a step sister, Katherine Carson Robinson, St. Clairsville.

JoLinda is survived by her husband, Everett L. Bundy, Newcomerstown, whom she Newcomerstown, on Monday, Feb. 18, 2013, at the convenience of the family. Mr. James Tufford will conduct these services. The Ourant Funeral Home in Newcomerstown is assisting the family with arrangements. The family is requesting that memorials be made in JoLinda's name to the Newcomerstown Church of the Nazarene, 363 Neighbor St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832.

NANCY L. McVEY

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Nancy L. McVey, 69, a longtime resident of Newcomerstown, Ohio, passed away peacefully at home Saturday night, Jan. 26, 2013, in Pensacola, Fla., following a short battle with cancer.

Nancy was born in Newcomerstown, Ohio, on Aug. 18, 1943, a daughter to the late James Howard and Mildred Irene Shaffer. Nancy spent her childhood in Newcomerstown and was a member of the Newcomerstown High School, Class of 1961.

Following high school, Nancy married Samuel K. McVey on June 10, 1961, who was enlisted in the Navy at the time. Nancy spent the next 26 years as a proud and strong Navy wife, especially during the long separations from Sam due to five deployments during the Vietnam War. All the while, raising her daughter and two sons and managing to try enjoying gardening, baking, numerous types of arts and crafts and traveling with Sam and the children wherever the Navy transferred them when possible.

After their Naval career, Nancy and Sam lived in Sumter, S.C.; Orlando, Fla.; Pensacola, Fla.; West Lafayette, Guernsey, and Newcomerstown, Ohio, where Nancy was a homemaker, nursing home employee, housekeeping employee for various hotel chains, and self-employed house keeper. She was also a proud member of the Port Washington Order of the Eastern Star. Nancy moved to Pensacola, Fla., living with her son, Kevin and his family, following the death of her husband after 48 years of marriage. Nancy enjoyed the sunny summers and warm winters of Pensacola, working in her flower gardens and walking the family dog while visiting and chatting with the neighbors, staying in touch with her daughter, Debbie, and sister, Shirley, on the phone and spending time playing cards with her granddaughter Hannah, grandson Justin, and daughter-in-law Lisa.

In addition to Sam and her parents, Nancy was preceded in death by her brother, James Shaffer.

Nancy is survived by her two sons, Kevin K. (Lisa Norman) McVey and Shawn P. McVey; one daughter, Debra L. (Luke) Gaumer; three brothers, Glenn (Margret Ellen) Shaffer; Ronald (Phylliss) Shaffer and Charles (Vera) Shaffer; a very special sister, Shirley (Ernie) Landis; four grandchildren, Logan Gaumer, Justin McVey, Cole McVey, and Hannah McVey; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Nancy will sadly be missed by relatives and friends who knew her.

To honor Nancy's wishes and requests, her remains are to be cremated.

Trahan Family Funeral Home, Pensacola, Fla., is in charge of arrangements.

BERNARD 'BERNIE' BOOTH

1933-2013

Bernard E. "Bernie" Booth, 80, of Newcomerstown, passed away Thursday, March 7, 2013, at Riverside Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Newcomerstown, with his family at his side, following a period of declining health.

Bernie was born Feb. 15, 1933, the only child of the late Forest (Taylor) Booth and Earl M. Booth at Tallmadge.

The family moved to Newcomerstown area when Bernie was two years old and he grew up on their family farm near Guernsey. He graduated from Newcomerstown High School in 1951, and worked as a brick and stone mason (the trade he learned as a teenager from his father) until inducted into United States Army in 1953. Bernie served as a Military Police officer in the Panama Canal Zone, during the Korean Conflict and left the service in March of 1955.

On June 26, 1955, he married his loving and devoted wife of 57 years, the former Linda Von Smith. The young entrepreneur and his wife worked side by side in various business endeavors including Booth Construction Company, Heritage Hill Apartments, Echo Pointe Hardwoods, American Heritage Furniture and Oak Pointe Stair Systems Inc. Together, they laid out and started Booth Acres, allotment east of Newcomerstown, where they built their home and raised their children. Bernie loved the challenges and satisfaction of seeing a project to completion.

In 1978, he and his partner purchased the L.J. Smith Stair Inc. located in Bowerston. They were successful in turning the company into a major manufacturer in the industry of hardwood stair parts and custom stairways. Bernie served as president and CEO of the company. He sold his share of ber of Christ United Methodist Church, a former member of BPOE 1555, Newcomerstown Chamber of Commerce, Ohio Gun Collectors Association, and Newcomerstown Community Improvement Corporation.

Bernie is survived by his wife, Linda; a son, Dr. David M. (Lisa) Booth of Newcomerstown; a daughter, Brenda B. (Rick) Casteel of Newcomerstown; beloved grandchildren, Lindsay (Dr. Richard Limperos) of Medina, Kristen (Cory) Meeks of Newcomerstown, and Derek Booth of Columbus; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Duane and Alice Smith; and two nephews and several cousins.

He taught his family and his employees the value of hard work, humility, and the passion to achieve their goals. The family would like to express their sincere gratitude to all nursing staff and employees of Riverside Manor for their loving care and concern during the time Bernie made his home with them.

Services were Sunday, March 10, 2013, in the Addy Funeral Home, Newcomerstown, with Pastor Daniel Eggen officiating.

Entombment followed in the West Lawn Cemetery with the Newcomerstown Honor Guard conducting military graveside services.

JOSEPH JOHN SHEMENSKI

1911-2013

MARTINS FERRY — Joseph John Shemenski, 102, formerly of N. 9th Street, Martins Ferry, passed away peacefully Saturday, April 20, 2013, while in the company of family members in Orrville.

He was born in Martins Ferry on March 9, 1911, a son of the late Frank and Agatha (Sharek) Shemenski.

He lived 89 years in Martins Ferry happily raising four children. In his later years, he divided his time between his son's homes in Newcomerstown, Orrville and Doylestown, Pa. For the last year, he has lived at Orrvilla Maple Terrace in Orrville.

He was a retired employee of the former Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel, Martins Ferry plant, for 40 years, and he also had a television repair shop. In his retirement years, he purchased his own saw mill and established a lumbering business; loving every minute of the process. He loved to garden and always liked to share his fruits and vegetables with friends and neighbors. Music was very important to Joe. He loved to entertain folks with his guitar, key board and harmonica. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Martins Ferry; past president of the SOAR (Retired Steelworkers); founding member of the Mackey Community Center of Martins Ferry; member of Doylestown Senior Center of Doylestown, Pa.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Mary E. (Bazar) Shemenski; five brothers, Stanley, Frank, Andrew, John and Walter; and five sisters, Nell Rees, Frances Migdal, Theresa Vickers, Mary Klus and Ann Casshie. Sadly, he is preceded in death by his first born grandchild, Scott of Rhode Island.

He was a loving father to Joseph (Patricia) Shemenski of Doylestown, Pa., James (Carol) Shemenski of Orrville, Kenneth (Johanna) Shemenski of Newcomerstown, and Mary Kay (Kenneth) Hayward of Palm Coast, Fla. He liked to boast with pride that he had four children, 13 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren; and a 1-year old great-great granddaughter.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Keller Funeral Home, 615 Hanover St., Martins Ferry.

Funeral Liturgy with Mass took place at St. Mary's Catholic Church on Wednesday, April 24, 2013, with the Rev. Tomas Marut as the Celebrant.

Entombment followed in St. Mary's Cemetery, Martins Ferry.

A prayer service took place in the funeral home Tuesday, April 23, 2013.

FRED BALUCH SERVICES

FREEPORT — Memorial services for Fred Baluch, 88, of Greenbelt, Md., formerly of Freeport, Ohio, will be Sunday, May 26 from 2 to 4 p.m. at 17916 Newtown Road (Route 258), Freeport. Call 498-8074 for directions, if needed. Mr. Baluch passed away Nov. 18, 2012.

CHARLES R. LEECH JR.

GAMBIER — Charles R. Leech Jr., 82, of Gambier, passed away May 17, 2013, at OSU Hospital East.

An attorney for many years and a partner in the Toledo, law firm of Fuller & Henry Ltd., Mr. Leech was a native of Newcomerstown.

As a graduate of Newcomerstown High School, he knew Cy Young, who lived on a nearby farm and who was a close friend to Mr. Leech's father.

In 1952, he received his undergraduate degree cum laude from Kenyon College. He was a member of the collegian staff, the International Relations Club, the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, the football team, and the athletic association. In 1974, he was awarded the college's Gregg Cup. This award is given annually to a Kenyon graduate who has done the most for the college in the preceding year. From 1974 to 1980, he served as a trustee to the college.

In 1955, he received his law degree from The Ohio State University. At Ohio State, he was a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity, managing editor of the Ohio State Law Journal, and vice-president of the student bar association. He was a life member of the Ohio State Alumni Association. He was also an avid Buckeye football fan, especially during those many years when Woody Hayes was the Buckeye coach. Coach Hayes, of course, was an earlier graduate of Newcomerstown High School.

In 1955, he was admitted to the Ohio Bar, and also began military service in the Far East with the U.S. Navy.

In 1957, he became associated with the Toledo, law firm of Fuller, Harrington, Seney & Henry; a predecessor of Fuller & Henry Ltd. He later became a partner in the firm. He was a special counsel for the Ohio attorney general in the late 1960s. Over the years, he represented many clients in Toledo and elsewhere. In addition to being admitted to practice before the courts of the state of Ohio, he was also admitted to practice before several federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

In 1997, he and his wife moved to Gambier. They attended the Church of the Holy Spirit on the campus of Kenyon College where they were members of Harcourt Parish. Until 2000, he continued to serve as counsel to the Toledo law firm where he actively practiced law for almost 40 years. After his retirement as counsel, he was able to publish two books relating to his family's history: 'A Leech Family of Newcomerstown (2002) and Three John Brothers in the Civil War (2005).

Surviving Mr. Leech is his wife of almost 60 years, Patricia Ann (Tubaugh) formerly of Cleveland; son, Charles R. Leech III and daughter-in-law, Monica of Logan; and daughter, Wendy Leech Wolfe, and son-in-law, Michael L. Wolfe of Gambier. He is also survived by two grandchildren, Elizabeth Harper Johnson and Maxwell Leech Wolfe.

Another son, Timothy David Leech, preceded Mr. Leech in death on Sept. 3, 1969.

There will be a private burial at Quarry Chapel in Gambier. Memorial services will be announced at a later date. The Dilley-Lasater Funeral Home is handling the funeral services for the Leech family.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, any tributes be in the form of contributions to the Timothy David Leech Scholarship Fund at Kenyon College or a charity of the donor's choice.

To express a condolence or share a memory with the Charles R. Leech Jr. family, visit www.dilleylasater.com.

CHARLES E. MARLATT SERVICES

Charles Edward Marlatt, Sr. (also known as "Charlie" and "Eddie"), 88, of Newcomerstown, passed away on Sunday, Jan. 6, 2013, in Union Hospital, Dover.

He is survived by his wife, D. Jean Sweitzer Marlatt, Newcomerstown; and two sons, J.D. (Shannon) Marlatt and J.R. Marlatt, all of Newcomerstown.

Charles was also a World War II Army veteran, serving in the Pacific theatre.

To honor his wishes, cremation of his remains was done in January.

Public memorial services and burial of his ashes will be held this Saturday, June 8, 2013, at 10:30 a.m. at Earley's Cemetery, Wheeling Township, Guernsey County.

The Newcomerstown Veterans' Honor Guard will provide military graveside services.

Memorials may be made in Charles' name to an individual's favorite charity.

The Ourant Funeral Home in Newcomerstown is assisting the family with all arrangements.

MARGARET E. PALMER

Margaret E. Palmer, 92, of Newcomerstown, is peacefully in Heaven. Margaret passed away quietly in her sleep early Sunday morning, June 30, 2013, at New Dawn Nursing Home in Dover. Margaret fought a courageous three-year battle with cancer.

Born Dec. 26, 1920, in Guernsey County, she was the daughter of the late Frank Tufford and Matilda Miller Tufford. A life-long resident of Newcomerstown, she enjoyed living life with her beloved husband Robert G. Palmer. They married on Feb. 22, 1941, and were together until his passing in 1992. May we find comfort to know they are together again.

Margaret was a wonderful homemaker, loving wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. She attended Christ United Methodist Church in her neighborhood and once was a custodian there. She enjoyed friends and activities at the Newcomerstown Senior Center and had a special bond with her neighbors. She proudly shared that during World War II, she supported our troops working in a shell factory.

She enjoyed her family, living life, making everyone feel special, Ohio State Buckeyes, bells, angels and butterflies.

Surviving is a family who will sadly miss her and cherish her memory.

They include her daughter,

Trina Palmer of Bucyrus, along with her sons and families, Jamie and Amy, Ryan and Amber, great-grandchildren, Brittany and Tyler; and daughter, Pam Wagnitz of New Philadelphia, along with her sons, daughter and families, Justin and Amber, Ashley and Mike, Aaron and Nikole and great grandchildren Makenna, Ethan, Gavin, and Kelby. Favorite nieces and nephews are Trish Burke of Florida, Diane Hayes of Oregon, Sandy Musselman of Apple Creek, and Jerry Tufford of Florida. Her special friends and wonderful neighbors completed her family.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by son, Bobby; sisters, Mabel Baker and Eva Tufford; and brothers, Max and Paul Tufford.

Services were Wednesday, July 3, 2013, at the Addy Funeral Home, Newcomerstown, with the Rev Larry Hukill officiating.

Burial followed in the East State Street Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to: Christ United Methodist Church, 648 Oak St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832.

There will be a meal following where friends may gather at Christ Untied Methodist Church.

Online condolences may be made at www.addyfuneral-home.com.

ANNA BUTTERMORE

1928-2013

Anna (Anne) Louise Patrick Snyder Buttermore, 85, went home to be with Jesus on Oct. 30, 2013, surrounded by her family at her home in Newcomerstown.

She was born on Aug. 22, 1928, to Samuel Herschel Patrick and Mayme Lee Combs Patrick of Leander, Ky.

Schooled in a one-room schoolhouse around the bend from her home, Anne was awarded a scholarship to attend Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky. After graduating from college, she taught high school for one year, then was hired as Asbury College's dean of women, a position she served until she met and married, Rohland Ray Snyder, a musician and seminarian. Ray and Anne began their ministry as evangelists, traveling throughout the central and southern United States, after which they served for 36 years in local churches in Ohio: in Bowerstown, New Alexandria, Steubenville, and Newcomerstown.

Over the years, Anne worked in various positions, as a part-time psychology teacher at a technical institute (one year), as a counselor for a school of nursing at Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville (one year), and as a counselor and coordinator for a mental health center (the "Community Professional Services") in Newcomerstown and Dover.

Anne most loved times when her family was all together under one roof. She loved teaching Sunday school, speaking in churches and women's events.

Poetry, writing, sewing, cooking, and reading were among the hobbies she enjoyed.

For many summers, she served as the youth minister at two 10-day camp meetings — at Hollowrock (Ohio) and Bentleyville (Pennsylvania), and felt honored that God would use her, a girl from the hills of Eastern Kentucky, to serve in ministry in any capacity.

She credits Bishop Cyrus (an ancestor of musician Billy Ray Cyrus) for helping to mark her life. She writes, "After I was saved, I went to hear Bishop Cyrus one night (in Poplar Chapel log church) when he preached on the infilling of the Holy Spirit. I went forward and opened my heart for all God had

1947-2013

MOUNT GILEAD — Charles R. "Chuck" Popadak, of Marengo, went to be with the Lord, Tuesday morning, Nov. 19, 2013, following a courageous three-year battle with cancer. He just celebrated his 66th birthday with his family and friends.

Popadak

On Nov. 16, 1947, Chuck was born in Cambridge, the oldest of five children of the late Michael and Betty (Cowgill) Popadak. He was raised in West Lafayette, where he graduated from Ridgewood High School, class of 1966.

Shortly following graduation, Chuck enlisted to serve in the U.S. Marine Corp, during the Vietnam War. He served as a heavy equipment operator and tank commander, and was stationed in both Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and Vietnam from 1967 to 1969. He earned a Purple Heart for his sacrifices for his beloved country.

Upon his honorable discharge, Chuck returned to Newcomerstown, where he lived for several years, until moving to Columbus in 1978. Soon after moving there, Chuck met a young lady, Linda Joy, at a card game with mutual friends, and he quickly knew she was the gal for him. Three months later, Chuck and Linda were married, on Aug. 25, 1979, and they have cherished every moment of their 34 years together.

For over 28 years, Chuck was a dedicated member of the Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT), serving on the sign and signal crew on Route Marker 2, helping to paint they made each camping trip a "party" to remember with countless stories to tell about each other.

An avid hunter, Chuck loved to be out in the woods, hunting everything from deer, squirrel, and rabbit, to possum and fox.

He also loved to bowl at Morrow Lanes in Cardington, bowling three nights a week for over 20 years and participating in many leagues. He came so close to bowling a "300," coming up only three pins short.

A thrill seeker, Chuck enjoyed participating in demolition derbies with a close family friend, Paul Castle. He also enjoyed coaching Pee Wee baseball for his grandson's, and only had to be thrown out once.

A kind and thoughtful man, Chuck will forever be dearly missed by his wife, Linda Popadak of Marengo; five children: Cheri Van Dyke of Marengo, Shannon (Melissa) Thompson of Pickerington, Christopher Popadak of Dayton, Shawn Wilson-Murdock of Sunbury, and Melissa (Ken) Dendinger of Marengo; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; four siblings, lines, etc.

Most of his time, he served in District 6, Delaware, where he was best known as "Linda's husband" as she too worked with ODOT. He retired from ODOT in December of 2006.

Proud of his service to his country, Chuck was a life member of the VFW Post 8054, where served as post commander for over 15 years, and was a life member of the AmVets Post 87.

He also served on the Color Guard with the veterans of Morrow County, and helped transport veterans for over three years with Morrow County Veterans Services.

A man of faith, Chuck was a member of the Cardington Baptist Temple.

Always looking for an adventure, Chuck and his family have loved camping together for years.

They started by roughing it in tents and sleeping in the back of pickup trucks, to moving up to very accommodating campers. No matter where they went or what the weather was,

Pamela "Sue" (Bob) Courtwright of New Philadelphia, Linda (Ray) Myers, Andy (Rhonda) Popadak, and Richard (Joanna) Popadak, all three of Newcomerstown; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services celebrating his life were Saturday, Nov. 23, 2013, at the Snyder Funeral Home, Craven Chapel, 67 N. Main St., Mount Gilead, with Pastor Gary Stevens officiating.

Burial with military honors provided by the VFW Post 8054 and AmVets Post 87 followed in Marengo Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: Hospice of Morrow County, 228 South St., Mount Gilead, OH 43338; and Morrow County Veteran Services, 143 S. Main St., Mount Gilead, OH 43338.

Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead is honored to have been chosen to serve Chuck's family and your private condolences may be expressed to them by visiting www.snyderfuneralhomes.com.
