Life Begins at Eighty

I don't know why it seems so long,
It's only sixty years
Since you and I sat on that stage
With questions, hopes and fears.

Depression cast a gloomy spell
And jobs were hard to find,
But you and I strode out that door
And left the school behind.

Off we went, as green as grass
About the life ahead;
But us...we thought we had it made
No matter what folks said.

For after all, we'd had twelve years,
And wasn't that enough?
We'd read the books and passed the tests
And learned a lot of stuff.

But now I think about that night;
It seems so long ago.
I know how little we knew then,
How much we had to grow.

But off we went, and grow we did,
And turned out pretty well;
Some sixty years have come and gone,
We have so much to tell.

Each one of us has filled a niche,
No matter large or small;
Whatever it was that we chose to do,
The good Lord needed it all.

Some taught, some doctored, most raised up some kids
Some went to seek fields anew;
But whatever we did, wherever we went,
It started in thirty-two.

Now we who are left, after such a long time,
With our aches and our pains and some tears,
Have not really changed down under the skin,
We still question, we hope and we fear.

But we've made it to 60, let's try for 10 more;
Look forward to two thousand and two;
Let hope spring eternal, don't question or fear!
There still is some living to do!

MY HOME TOWN?

I went back to my home town
To see if I could find or recall,
Things and places of childhood renown,
But found very little of childhood at all.

No blacksmith sounds are heard any more,
In the alley beside the gone furniture store,
The Ritz is gone - - no Cooley Hotel,
No longer heard is the old school bell.

Gone is the clanking pipe from J. B. Clow
Where Abe Davis was - a bank stands now,
Trains no longer stop at my home town
And many "old hang-outs" could not be found.

Gone were Scott's Lunch and McCleary confectionary,
And that dismal climb to a second floor library.
Gone were hitching posts and parallel parking
And places where we did our sparkin'.

The funeral parlor was gone from the old Main Street
So was the Saturday night gospel retreat,
I couldn't find Portz's Lumber yard
I couldn't find our time - - I tried very hard.

I went back to my home town to have a look around,
Not many of our places were there to be found,
But the mind has pictures and remembers when -
It was my home town - back then.

We are survivors!! Consider the changes we have witnessed:

We were born before television, before penicillin, before polio shots, frozen foods, Xerox, plastic, contact lenses, Frisbees, and the PILL.

We were before radar, credit cards, split atoms, lazer beams and ballpoint pens; before panty hose, dishwashers, clothes dryers, electric blankets, air conditioners, drip-dry clothes--and before man walked on the moon.

We got married first and then lived together. Quaint.

In our time, closets were for clothes, not for "coming out of." Bunnies were small rabbits and rabbits were not Volkswagons. Designer Jeans were scheming girls named Jean or Jeanne, and having a meaningful relationship meant getting along well with our cousins.

We thought fast food was what you ate during Lent, and Outer Space was the back of the Bexley Theater.

We were before house-husbands, gay rights, computer dating, dual careers and commuter marriages. We were before day-care centers, group therapy and nursing homes. We never heard of FM radio, tape decks, electric typewriters, artificial hearts, word processors, yogurt, and guys wearing earrings. For us, time-sharing meant togetherness--not computers or condominiums; a "chip" meant a piece of wood; hardware meant hardware, and software wasn't even a word.

In 1940, "Made in Japan" meant junk and the term "making out" referred to how you did on your exam. Pizzas, McDonald's, and instant coffee were unheard of.

We hit the scene when there were 5 & 10¢ stores, where you bought things for five and ten cents. Sanders or Wilsons sold ice cream cones for a nickel or a dime. For one nickel you could ride a street car, make a phone call, buy a Pepsi or enough stamps to mail one letter and two postcards. You could buy a new Chevy Coupe for $600, but who could afford one? ...a pity, too, because gas was 11¢ a gallon!

In our day, cigarette smoking was fashionable, grass was mowed, COKE was a cold drink, and POT was something you cooked in. Rock music was a grandma's lullaby, and AIDS were helpers in the principal's office.

We were certainly not before the difference between the sexes was discovered but we were surely before the sex change (we made do with what we had.) And we were the last generation that was so dumb as to think you needed a husband to have a baby!

No wonder we are so confused and there is such a generation gap today!

But we survived! What better reason to celebrate? Happy ~~Reunion~~

'Class of 36' holds 50th year reunion

The Newcomerstown High School Class of 1936 held its 50-year anniversary reunion recently at the Delphian Inn in New Philadelphia with 29 class members and 25 guests joining in a social hour and steak dinner.

Mrs. Aaron (Helen Schumacher) Arth, 1936 class president now residing in Redlands, Calif., gave a short talk and read letters from Donald Callentine of Fox Island, Wash.; Harry Bower, Park Ridge, Ill.; and a former teacher, Miss Brenda Conn of Zanesville.

Two other former teachers, Mrs. Alfred Marshall and Claude Hinds, gave talks.

A gold theme was used for the reunion by the table committee of Mrs. Porcher and Mrs. Robert (Corle McAllister) Hagan. The centerpiece was awarded to Mrs. Boyd (Bessie Cunningham) Wolverton of New Philadelphia. Program books made by Mrs. Russell (Aileen Murphy) Glazer and coffee mugs inscribed in gold marked each place.

Mrs. Gene (Jean Rogers) Stewart, Mrs. Lewis (Evelyn Angle) Craig, Mrs. Glazer, Carl Lenzo, and Vernon Dreher were in charge of arrangements.

The next reunion will be held in 1989, with the time and place to be announced.

Class of 1939 celebrates 50th anniversary reunion

The 50th reunion for the Newcomerstown High School Class of 1939 was "a heart-warming affair, a huge success," according to Bertha Ellen Neighbor Shiel, a class member.

The reunion was held June 17 at the Delphian Motor Inn at New Philadelphia. The reunion started with a hospitality room in the afternoon, continued with a dinner that evening and concluded with a breakfast on Sunday morning.

The dining room was decorated with gold balloons and streams, orange and black (school colors) were used for cups and program covers. Class members from as far away as Florida, Michigan, Arizona, Minnesota, Illinois and Georgia attended the 50th reunion.

The reunion committee consisted of Robert Bender, William Hootman, Willard McCrone, Paul Paks, Gwen Osler, Gladys Mason and Beverly Wilkin.

Class of '40 has reunion

The Newcomerstown High School class of 1954 held its 40th-year reunion at the Old Warehouse Restaurant, Roscoe Village, Aug. 27. Fifty persons attended including 32 class members, spouses, teachers Mrs. E.D. Swigert and Gene Riffle, and band director John Crumley.

Floral centerpieces were made by Nancy Mulvane Gadd and were given away as prizes. Winning the centerpieces were: Sally Russell, Baltimore, MD, and Reuben Etter, Howell, NJ, for coming the farthest; Raymond Heston, most great-grandchildren; Bill Huffman, most grandchildren; Doris Ann Tedrick Wilson, first classmate to retire; Carol Stocker Beiter, first reservation sent in, and Tom Hart, last reservation returned.

A short business meeting was conducted by class vice president, Ron Bonnell. Class members agreed to have a 45-year reunion and the present committee of Nancy and Gary Gadd, Tom and Evelyn Hart, Ed Johnson, and Alan and Naundice Hart were "volunteered" to be in charge.

On Sunday morning, Aug. 28 several classmates met at Cy Young Park for coffee and doughnuts and reminisced about the "good old times."

'42 seniors again to roam West Main Street

By PACKY McFARLAND

Fifty years ago, Newcomerstown High School conducted commencement for members of the Class of 1942, and this week many of that gang of 29 boys and 39 girls will visit West Main Street in Newcomerstown again.

Why West Main Street? Because five decades ago the stretch of West Main Street from the C&M Railroad tracks to River Street was common ground for the citizens of Newcomerstown and nearby townships.

In this short distance was located the major retail center of their collective world, an important setting of social interaction for persons of all ages.

Saturday was West Main

Street's busiest day. It was crowded with people and automobiles with the latter parked at an angle to the curb. Every merchant, financial institution and office was open for business and for greeting and conversing with friends, neighbors and relatives. The longer you talked and listened, the more information you collected and spread.

Every Saturday, except for a Christmas or New Year's Day, there were more people than automobiles on West Main Street. Many families did not have a car, but they could — and would — walk uptown or downtown or crosstown to West Main Street. Some retailers kept their doors open until 11 p.m. or later if the possibility of one more sale existed.

Almost without exception a sale involved cash, either in full or as the initial payment of a layaway plan. "Grown-ups," as "school kids" perceived their parents and other members of the older generation, believed strongly in the consumer policy: Save up, then buy. Today's magic plastic, the credit card, was unknown to them.

The Class of 1942 had a typical senior year until Monday, Dec. 8. The football team, dominated by seniors, set a new school record for wins in a single season by winning one more game than the great 7-0-0 team of these seniors' freshmen year. The home games were played on Fridays, under lights first used the previous season.

The marching band, resplendent in complete uniforms, performed at halftime for the second year in a row. Evastine Rice, a senior, was leader of the eight drum majorettes. During timeouts, seniors Doris Wilkin and Suzanne Gairnor led the cheerleading corps of seven girls. At the Oct. 31 game, senior Norma Miller reigned as homecoming queen.

Unquestionably, the superstar of these Friday nights was senior Wib "Lightning" Little. Running from the tailback position in the single wing, Little contributed spectacularly to the Trojans' first-ever league championship. After the season, he received one of the halfback positions on the United Press All-Ohio High School team.

The other seniors on this team were Wally Curtiss (C), Don Harrison (RG), Charlie Cunningham (RT), Chet Hanson (RE), Fred Snyder (LT), Packy McFarland (QB), Bob Gaynor (HB) and Don Wolff (FB).

In this bygone era, football was important partly because it was the only varsity sport offered in the autumn and there was no television to keep people at home on Friday nights.

Other facets of life were different, too. For example, the local paper reached Bob Duncan's newsstand on Mondays and

"Confined to her home with scarlet fever, Miss Virginia Laughlin, 17, underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday morning (Feb. 15, 1942) at 2 o'clock, at her home on River Street.

"Miss Laughlin, quarantined over a week ago, was stricken with acute appendicitis Friday.

"As a result of the quarantine, local physicians had to perform the operation at home, using facilities at hand. The operation was performed on a dining room table."

On Tuesday night, Feb. 24, the Trojan basketball team hosted Cadiz in what, today, in the middle school auditorium. This contest was the last regular season game for six seniors: Lee Hootman (F), Bob Gaynor (G), Packy McFarland (G), Chet Hanson (C), Lloyd Craigo (G) and Don Wolff (F).

The final score was 48-27 in favor of the hosts. Hootman, the team's leading scorer, was high-point man with 19. This victory, the 13th of the year, established a new school record for most victories in a single season, replacing the varsity record of 12 wins set senior know how many days remained in the school year.

On May 5, "Spring Fever," a comedy in three acts, was presented to parents and friends by 10 members of the English and speech. Cost of admission was 40 cents, adults, and 30 cents, children.

Baccalaureate was conducted May 24. Senior Ann Russell presented the scripture reading and the Rev. W.W. Ralph delivered the address.

At Commencement on May 27, the titles of the three speeches reminded listeners that the United States was at war. Senior Betty

Budd spoke on "War's Challenge to Womanhood," senior Bob McFadden outlines "A War Police for Schools," and Judge Fred G. Bale's address was titled "The Supreme Line of Defense."

This week, 601 months after graduating, many of the seniors at Commencement in 1942 will again walk West Main Street.

What they will "see" as they walk from east to west will involve both present and past. A hint of what they will see is contained in the accompanying graphic of West Main Street organizations, 1992 and 1942.

dex. Charles Phillips was the editor and each issue was composed and printed in the same building now occupied by Newcomerstown News editor Ray Booth and his colleagues.

The Dec. 8 issue of the News and Index reported that five Trojan footballers had been named to the Eastern Ohio League's All-Star team. In addition to Little, those honored were Curtiss, Snyder, McFarland and Wolff.

This joyful news, however, was the last article written about the Class of 1942 during peacetime, for that morning, Congress voted to go to war against Japan. Jeannette Rankin of Montana cast the only dissenting vote.

A typical senior year was no longer possible.

Immediately following this entry into World War II, the Heller Brothers Co. announced an increase in plant security to insure the protection of its work force of approximately 1,300, who had been busy filling defense orders for a number of months.

At the same time, superintendent of schools, C.L. McMahan, announced cancellation of the varsity basketball team's trip to West Virginia and North Carolina planned for the Christmas holiday period.

And the question on everyone's mind was: Where will the Japs strike next?

Enemy armed forces never reached Newcomerstown, but in February there was an unexpected invasion. The specific strain of hemolytic streptococcus which causes scarlet fever arrived and by Feb. 10, Mayor Earl Treasurer and Dr. C.A. Hanson, president of the board of education, ordered the schools closed.

Two junior high school teachers, Miss Rachel Barnett and Mr. Donald Pickering, were under quarantine with the illness. Four other teachers were under quarantine observation.

Trojan basketball practice was suspended and the public library, located on the second floor of 143 W. Main Street, was shut down. Churches cancelled Sunday services.

The most dramatic medical episode of this quarantine period involved a popular member of the senior class. The News and Index reported her case thusly:

eight grade playing junior high basketball for coach Gene Riffle.

The most cherished of these 13 victories was a 44-38 upset of the New Philadelphia Quakers.

In March, the American Legion sponsored a patriotic essay contest for high schools in Tuscarawas County. Three of the eight prizes were won by Newcomerstown students. Senior girl winner was Jo Ann Trees. The assigned subject for the 348 students who volunteered was: "The system of checks and balances in the federal constitution and its relationship to the individual citizen."

On Wednesday, March 16, volunteers from the American Legion, Elks, Lions Club and Veterans of Foreign Wars launched a series of monthly salvage drives: rags, old rubber, paper and metals were needed for the war effort. Otto J. Beiter, a member of the board of education, served as general chairman.

Late in March, the W.M. Brode Co. was awarded a defense contract to build two grade-separation underpasses at the Ravenna arsenal. Their low bid was for $277,623.

Other local activities in March included civilian defense classes in firefighting, home nursing and first aid; the sale of approximately 1,820 state licenses plates for motor vehicles; and an announcement by senior Gloria Norris, the current Newcosean sales manager, that the price of a 1942 yearbook would be $1.75.

In April, the News and Index continued to publish twice a week. The April 9 issue revealed that clothing store owner Norman Lerenman, who planned to join the Army in the near future, had appointed Elmer Sneary as store manager for the duration of the war. Lerenman's business was located at 130 W. Main St., today the location of Bowman Sportswear.

The April 13 issue reported that 90 local residents had been certified in first aid, an air warden's group had been formed in Newcomerstown, and 21 men were drafted into the Army.

At the high school, coach Phil Bickle was conducting spring football practice and the senior class play was in rehearsal. Every

Lead on, ye Seniors, and ye Juniors, ahead
Like classes of thrift and courage,
Placing reliance, shouting defiance

Amid the broad green fields that nourish our land
For honest labor and courage we stand
For unto thee we pledge our heart and hand,

Welcome

I have been given the honor of extending to you a word of welcome on this homecoming occasion. It is very gratifying to know that a fine spirit of friendly cooperation exists among the boys of the team. This makes for a happy and successful football season, whether we win or lose. We are interested in winning, but the most important factor in every contest is, "how did you play the game."

Dads, we welcome you to this game. Your presence here is a great encouragement to us. We know that you are interested in these boys, otherwise you would not be here. You have undoubtedly made many sacrifices and contributed much to the success of the school by permitting your boy to play on the team.

We hope that you will enter into the spirit of this Dad's Day occasion, the one day in the year which is set aside to honor the dads. This is your day; enjoy it: this is your school; support it: this is your America; help defend it.

It takes a little courage
And a little self-control
And some grim determination
If you want to reach the goal,
It takes a deal of striving,
And a stern and firm-set chin,
No matter what the battle,
If you really want to win.

You must take a blow and give one,
You must risk and you must lose,
And expect that in the struggle
You will suffer from the bruise.
But you musn't wince or falter,
If a fight you once begin;
Be a man and face the battle—
That's the only way to win.

Ohio Clipper
Enroute from Newcomerstown to Pittsburgh

Dear Melba,

We, your old friends, Alice VanVoorhis and Dale Twyman, are writing to you as we fly back to Pittsburgh after attending a reunion of our high school class in Newcomerstown. Since we live in the same apartment building in Pittsburgh we traveled to our old home town together.

This is the invitation we each had received:

*Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Coutts and
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fletcher, Jr.
request your presence at a reunion of the Class of 1948
at the Ritz Hotel, Newcomerstown, Ohio
June 12 - 14, 1963*

On reaching Newcomerstown, we went immediately to the hotel. We were pleased to find it owned and operated by Harry King and Harry Little. We had a hearty greeting from Bob Nugen, who was at the hotel desk.

As we were crossing the lobby we saw a man whom we recognized immediately as Dean Milburn, the famous Ohio publisher. He was accompanied by his efficient secretary, Martha Casteel. Dean told us that he was on his way to a style show in the grand ballroom and invited us to join him. We gladly accepted his invitation. Upon entering the ballroom we saw a huge sign which told us that this show was sponsored by "The Three Mc Shoppe". After being seated, Martha told us that "The Three Mc Shoppe" was owned by our classmates Vera McGee, Evelyn McKean, and Edith McPherson. We also learned from Martha that the gowns were designed by the famous New York designer, Mary Lower. The creations were beautifully modeled by Norma Ford, Martha Woodard, and Jeanne Tilton. Dean mentioned that the murals of this room had been painted by Duane Russell, world-famed artist.

Later on, in looking over the hotel building, we found that it had been designed by Donald Kopes of the Kopes Kunstruction Cumpny and that the electrical wiring had been planned by Bob Glazer

On entering the dining room we were met by the hostess, Evelyn Arcore, and were served by Anna Mae Rufer. They told us that the Wiandt Beauty Shop was in the hotel building, and that Mary Baker and Ruby Belt were telephone operators in the hotel. They also told us that Bessie Wells, renowned pianist, was vacationing in Newcomerstown this month.

The next day was the first day of the reunion. Many of the guests arrived at the hotel in cabs owned by Weary-Walt Cab Company.

At the first session of the reunion, after much animated conversation about our school days, we were led in singing of old N. H. S. songs by Jean Baker, Supervisor of Music at Bowling Green University. Donna Mizer, Instructor of Piano at the same university, played for us, just like old times.

The program that followed was headed by Sonny Williams, the comedian who succeeded Red Skelton. After Sonny's hilarious performance, we enjoyed many musical numbers. The first of these was music by the Jim "Spike" Brown band which features Betty Zeiner as violinist, Gene Baker as drummer, and Richard Blackwell as saxophone player. Joanne Farrar, singer at the "Orange and Black Grove", owned by Art Lenzo, sang several popular numbers and Jack Schlarb gave his famous imitation of Al Jolson.

Elizabeth Anne Snode of the Speech Department of O. S. U. and Richard Sharrock, star of the radio drama "Mosquito Trap", gave a very entertaining impromptu skit. David Sarchet, news commentator over WTNS (Waller, Temple, Newby, and Sanders) concluded the program by giving an enlightening talk on the preparation of a radio program.

The next day a lunch was scheduled for the class at the Four-aker Ranch, fifteen miles north of Newcomerstown.

On our way to the ranch we stopped at the C & B Club (Caldwell and Brewer) where two nurses joined us, Joanne Atkinson and Ruth Hammersley, Public Health nurses for Tuscarawas County. With them were two high school teachers from Fresno, California, Evelyn and Mildred Gray.

Before the lunch we talked with some of the sportsmen of our illustrious class. Allen Stewart, sports writer, was there as well as Eddie Carr, boxing champion; Flip Walters, Eddie's manager; Captain Don Warren of Eglin Field, Florida; and Dick Jurin, coach at Michigan. They were all discussing the results Dick was getting from having his boys drink milk from the Cappel Dairy Corporation.

We were happy to meet Luella Jones, manager of the Jones Independent Basketball Team. With her were her star player, Lillie Rector, and her mascot, Betty Hickenbottom.

We enjoyed a delicious lunch that had been planned by Gloria Ross and Helen Stahl, nutrition experts and home demonstration agents. The soup was from the well-known (Charles) Campbell Soup Kitchens. Other items on the menu had come from the M-K store that is operated by Tom Pollock. The dessert was the famous (Jim) Daniel Boone Ice Cream.

After the lunch we rode back to the hotel with Charles Leech, president of Dodge-Leech, Incorporated. He told us that his legal advice comes from Attorney Charlotte Coulter, and that Grace Walkenspaw is his beautiful and efficient secretary. He also mentioned that he has secured the services of the expert accountants Marjorie Nolan and Gloria Meeks, and that he was installing on his new cars the (Thelma) Foggin Fog Lites.

Altho we did not see them, we learned that the following were at the reunion: Bob Denham, chemical engineer; Jane Chaney, owner of the Chaney Small Change stores; Bill Jacobs and Frank John, inventors of the J. J. Tractor; and Bernard McKay, owner of the "Say it with McKay Flowers" nurseries.

Five other class members who were unable to attend were: David Mizer, of the Ohio Conservation Bureau; Bob Hartsine, of the Federal Agriculture Department; Joe Jaynes and Lloyd Hunter, pitcher and short stop, respectively, of the Cleveland Indians; and Jim Worthington, manager of the J. C. Worthington Clothiers, Peoli, Ohio.

It was fun seeing the old gang. We are already looking forward to our next reunion.

Sincerely,

ALICE and DALE

P. S. Alice is doing fine work as Superintendent of Nurses at Memorial Hospital, Pittsburgh.

Dale

P. S. All the singers in Pittsburgh are wanting to take lessons from Dale. He has a beautiful studio in the city.

Alice

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

From THE RED SKELTON HOUR, January 14, 1969

I remember this one teacher. To me, he was the greatest teacher, a real sage of my time. He had such wisdom. We were all reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, and he walked over. Mr. Lasswell was his name . . . He said:

"I've been listening to you boys and girls recite the Pledge of Allegiance all semester and it seems as though it is becoming monotonous to you. If I may, may I recite it and try to explain to you the meaning of each word:

I-- me, an individual, a committee of one.

Pledge - dedicate all of my worldly goods to give without self-pity.

Allegiance - my love and my devotion.

To the Flag - our standard, Old Glory, a symbol of freedom. Wherever she waves, there is respect because your loyalty has given her a dignity that shouts freedom is everybody's job.

Of the United - that means that we have all come together.

States - individual communities that have united into 48 great states. 48 individual communities with pride and dignity and purpose, all divided with imaginary boundaries, yet united to a common purpose, and that's love for country.

Of America.

And to the Republic - a state in which sovereign power is invested in representatives chosen by the people to govern. And government is the people and it's from the people to the leaders, not from the leaders to the people.

For which it stands.

One nation -- meaning, so blessed by God.

Indivisible -- incapable of being divided.

With liberty - which is freedom and the right of power to live one's own life without threats or fear or some sort of retaliation.

And justice - The principle or quality of dealing fairly with others.

For all - which means it's as much your country as it is mine."

Since I was a small boy, two states have been added to our country and two words have been added to the Pledge of Allegiance - "under God."
