Dear Eric,

I believe we may be cousins. While researching my great great grandmother – Margaret Wolfe Engel and her daughter Elizabeth Engel Simpson, I ran across your family tree in Tuscarawas Co. Connections III. As the Engels, Eckerts and Simpsons are all buried in a plot together at Fair Ave cemetery in New Phila, I knew I had hit gold.

A lot of my information came from the Moravian church records at the Tusc. Co. Geneology Society in Dennison. Some of the names I have found I am not sure they are our Engels but your tree helped.

My mother who is still living (89) has the picture of Margaret Wolfe Engel which I have enclosed. Also I have a picture of Elizabeth Engel Simpson which I have also enclosed. The three girls with her are my great aunts and my grandmother.

If you would like to share information I would appreciate that very much. I don't always get to things right away but then a lot of people have that problem too. I am especially interested in finding out how you knew they came from Hessen, Germany.

I look forward to hearing from you.

My e-mail is ~~elaineprn@tuseo.net.~~

Sincerely,

Elaine Mayenschein

Greetings,

Talk about surprises! I can't begin to thank you for your unexpected envelope with the Engel material in it. It is greatly appreciated. Your information fills in some of my gaps and solves a few mysteries. You will surely appreciate the information that I have enclosed. I have done a lot more research since my chart was first published in the TC Connections III.

First, the family surname is Engel, which means Angel in German. The name is pronounced as 'Angel' in English. Most of the early records in Tuscarawas County have the surname spelled as Angel.

Phillip is the ^{Nephew}son of Nicholas and Catherine Engel and his ^{COUSINS}siblings were Catherine, Abalonia, Barbara, Jacob, Juliana, Joseph and Benjamin. I have not been able to trace most of these children but you have found some of them in the Moravian Church records.

The family settled in Tuscarawas County about 1848 just west of the Tuscarawas River across from Midvale in Warwick Twp. I believe that the family came from Germany at the time of the revolution in 1848. They may have been apart of this revolution or they were escaping from the same. By 1860, Philip and Margaret had moved to New Philadelphia.

I knew about Maria (Mary) Engel but I had no idea about John, who was born and died between the censuses. I checked the cemetery records in Warwick Twp and Goshen Twp for Maria, but never found her. Perhaps she is buried in the Sharon Moravian Church Cemetery.

I did not know that Margaret's surname was Wolfe. Hopefully some of her family also moved to Tuscarawas County. I appreciate the photo of Margaret. I am sorry to say that I do not have any Engel photos to send you outside of the tombstone pictures. I have been to the family plot many times with the latest being last summer.

I have enclosed my unfinished family history on the Engel. I have been sidetracked by a number of projects and will get back to it some day. I have all of the documentation that is mentioned in the history plus the documentation is fully referenced and you can find them at the courthouse. If you need any of the documentation, I will make copies and forward them to you. Let me know what you need.

My one sister, Kathy Hunka, lives in Newcomerstown and my other sister, Sarah Hinton, lives just across the border in Coshocton County.

I have been doing genealogical research since 1988 and approximately 90% of the people that I have contacted or who had contacted me never have anything to exchange. It is a real pleasure to have been given this material from you.

Until the next time,

Elaine Mayenschein

Elaine,

I visited the Tusc Cty Genealogical Society's library on Thursday and found more information on the Engel's. Checking to see if you found the same. I have information on both the families of Nicholas and Phillip including births, deaths, and when they immigrated. With this new information I see now that Nicholas is not the father of Phillip but he is probably an uncle.

Until the next time,

Eric

Henry and Margaret Glaser sold lot number nine in the east addition of New Philadelphia on 1 April 1853.¹⁶ Philip went on and purchased lot number 318 from John and Almira Chapin on 25

March 1856¹⁷ and lot number 10 in the Helmick's Addition from Ernest and Magdalena Schmidt on 7 June 1865.¹⁸

On 15 March 1865 Philip purchased a little over five acres from Oliver and Frances Taylor in the 1st quarter of township 8 in range 2.¹⁹ Margaret purchased lot number 9 in the Helmick's Addition from Frederick and Dorothy Eibert on 2 April 1863.²⁰

By 1860 the family had moved to New Philadelphia where Philip was working as a barber.²¹ Added to the family were Philip, Charles and Elizabeth. Also living with the family are John Eckert (who would marry Philip's daughter Margaret) and Jacob Engel (who maybe the father of Philip).

In 1870 Philip listed his occupation as a retail grocer in this year's federal census.²² Both he and Margaret list their birthplace as Darmstradt, which is apart of today's Germany. Philip, Charles and Elizabeth are still living in the household.

Simpson

Married, at the residence of the bride, on West Fair street, Tuesday evening last, by Rev. Simon, Mr. Samuel Simpson and Miss Lizzie Engel, both of this city. The bride is an estimable young lady, and fully capable of making a home happy. The groom is an industrious and upright young man, working in the iron mills here. The band gave them a serenade, and was handsomely treated by Mr. Simpson. The young couple have our best wishes for their future prosperity.

History of the Library

Ohio librarians are proud of the state's "long history of literacy." But Dover had to wait until 1902, and like many communities had to wait on an "angel" for financial help. It came from the American Sheet and Tin Plate Co. who wanted a library for its employees, and the general public.

It was located at the corner of Front and Factory Streets (Tuscarawas Avenue). It contained 2,000 books in charge of a Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, and included everything from "Six Thousand Years of History" to "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." Modern day mystery fans will appreciate it also contained "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes."

In 1907 the community of Dover took over, moved the library to the corner of Cherry and Fifth Streets, and the Simpson family remained custodians until 1914.

The new high school was built in 1916. The library building was dismantled and the library moved to the school basement. In 1923 came the state law requiring a community library board. Mrs. L.H. Alexander, Francis Briegal, Mrs. P.G. Justice, S.O. Mase, Mrs. Ella Seibel, Dr. K. Earl Shaweker, and Rev. J.E. Weinland, comprised the first board. The first librarian was Vivian McCarthy who served as a high school senior.

Mrs. Justice retired from the board in six months, assumed librarian's duties and served "competently and devotedly" for 22 years.

In 1927 an "unfortunate impression" arose. A newspaper story reported that many Dover residents thought the basement library was a student library. But figures were released saying that circulation had increased 100 percent in four years and it was feared the library would soon outgrow its quarters.

In August 1934, The Daily Reporter headlined the fact that the library was opening in an "Elaborate New Home." This was the former private home at 417 Walnut Street, which was to house close to 11,000 books. The "new" library was described as "commodious, with excellent natural lighting, serving its purpose well and conveniently accessible to both high school student and the general public."

That building no longer exists. In 1953 funds for a new library were acquired with a bond issue and the present building opened its doors in 1955. Dan Cooley, a 1965 Dover High graduate, became library director in 1980 and retired in 2009. Jim Gill became the library director in January of 2010.

The Eternal Goodness
I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea,
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fringed palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES;
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND
MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS
OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE
HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER*
