At a meeting appointed Dec. 25, 1860 for the purpose of considering the question whether a new church should be built or the old one repaired. Abraham Bontrager was chosen President and Rev. G. Rettig, Sec.

Item first.

Shall a new church be built or the old one repaired.

Resolved:

That we create a new church.

Resolved:

That the new church be built on the same ground near where the old one stands.

Resolved:

That the house be frame.

Resolved:

That the house be 36 by 48 feet, with two doors in the gable end.

Further a building committee was chosen by ballot consisting of Wm. Critz, Jacob Mizer Jr., and George P. Mizer.

Rev. G. Rettig Sec.

The Evangelical Lutheran and German Reformed Congregations met on the 7th. day of June 1861 for the purpose of laying the corner stone of our new church. Ministers present, Rev. M. M. Bartholomew, Pastor of the English Evangelical Lutheran congregation assisted by Rev. J. G. Zahner of Ragersville. Be it known in all time to come that the present is a confirmation of the original organization perfected by the Rev. Emmanuel Greenwald of New Philadelphia, Ohio about twenty-eight years ago by the election of officers.

After the appropriate religious services in the English and German languages, the corner stone was laid in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Owing to an unfortunate occurrence the corner stone of the old church having been removed, the former records of the church were entirely destroyed.

We the church council of the English Evangelical Lutheran congregation (and regular successors in office) pledge ourselves anew to defend the unaltered Augsburg Confession of faith and Luther's Smaller Catechism against all who may oppose the primitive usage of the Church.
