T. J. STAHLER DIES IN MARION HOSPITAL

Thomas Jefferson Stahler, 58, well known traveling salesman and resident of Newcomerstown for about thirty-three years, died in the City Hospital at Marion, O., at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday following an operation for the removal of gall stones. His death occurred just two weeks to the day after the operation.

Mr. Stahler was a son of Philip and Martha Stahler and was born in Canton where he grew to manhood. He would have reached the age of 58 years had he lived until the 20th of this month. He came to Newcomerstown in 1895 as an employe of The Canton Wrought Iron Bridge Co., and was engaged on the erection of the Clow plant. For several years he served as local manager of the Home Telephone Co. and later accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Arbutnot-Stephenson Co., wholesale dry goods house of Pittsburgh, which position he has held for over twenty years, becoming one of the company's most successful representatives.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church of this city and was an active worker in all branches of the church society, having served as trustee, treasurer and for many years as superintendent of the Sunday school. He held membership in Lone Star Lodge No. 175, F. & A. M. of this city, and was also a 32nd degree Mason and a Shriner. He became a member of the Knights of Pythias order several years ago and was among those instrumental in the erection of the K. of P. building on Main st. Several years ago he served as president of the Newcomerstown Chamber of Commerce, and was always active in civic affairs. He was a great golf enthusiast and held membership in the Canton Country Club.

Mr. Stahler is survived by his wife, formerly Minnie Neighbor, and two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Young of Canton, and Miss Martha Stahler at home, and one grandchild. He also leaves three sisters and two brothers.

Funeral services will be held at the residence on Cross st. at 2 p. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. Harold Lee, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in the local cemetery.

HENRY PORTZ DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Henry Portz, aged 75 years, prominent retired farmer, died of heart trouble and dropsy at 7 a. m. Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Oaklief near Everal's church. He had been in failing health for about two years, and has been seriously ill since the day before Easter last.

Mr. Portz was born in Bucks township Nov. 21 1852, and has been a resident of the Everal neighborhood since 1876. His wife died several years ago. He continued to reside at his farm home near Everal's with his daughter, Cora until her marriage and removal to Bakersville about ten weeks ago, when he was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Oaklief, where he was cared for until his death.

Surviving are three sons and three daughters, as follows: Rev. C. A. Portz, pastor of the Edgewood Lutheran church at Wheeling, W. Va.; H. O. Portz, Boy Scout Executive of Tecumseh Council of B. S. of A., Springfield; Albert Portz of Chillicothe; Mrs. Edw. Oaklief of Everal's, and Mrs. Guy Garver of Bakersville. He also leaves three brothers, Adam of Columbus, Fred of Baltic and Charles of Shreve, and three sisters, Mrs. Peter Eckert of Baltic, Mrs. Caroline Koons of Dover and Mrs. Catherine Baab of Mt. Hood, Oregon.

Mr. Portz was an active member of the Lutheran church of this city and was identified with the Grange movement.

Following brief services at the late home Thursday at 2 o'clock, the body will be taken to the Renner church near Bakersville for funeral services at 3 o'clock. Music will be provided by a mixed quartet from the

CLARA SHERRETS DIES AT WOLF STATION

Miss Clara Sherrets, 65, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edith Cunningham, at Wolf, Wednesday at 11:30 a. m., after an illness of uremic poisoning. She is a sister of John Sherrets of this city.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Lutheran church in Stonecreek.
