Foreword

We, the Newcosean Staff of 1933, in producing this volume, have tried to include those apparently insignificant events which, in later years, will bring back pleasant memories of Newcomerstown High School. Therefore, if this Annual will help you to recall in the future some of the events of the preceding years, the Staff will consider that their efforts have been well worth while.

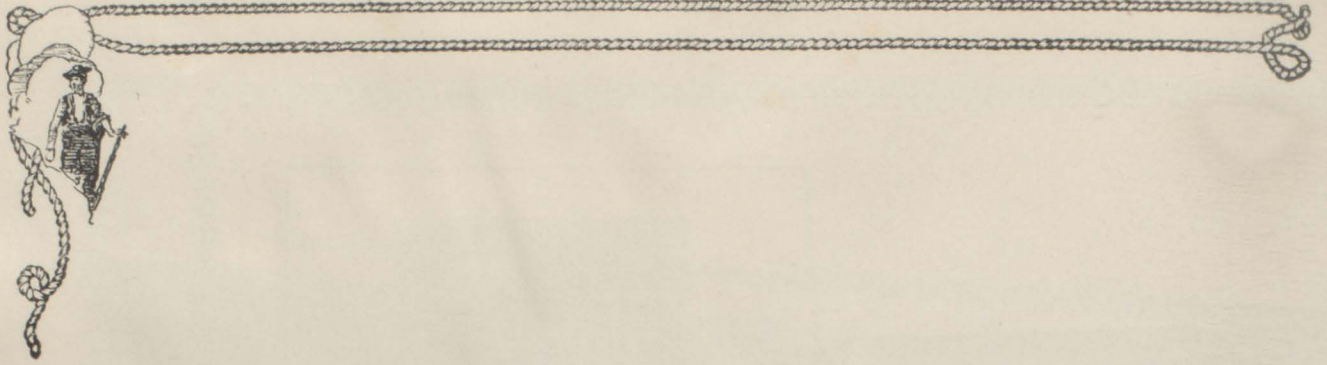

DEDICATION

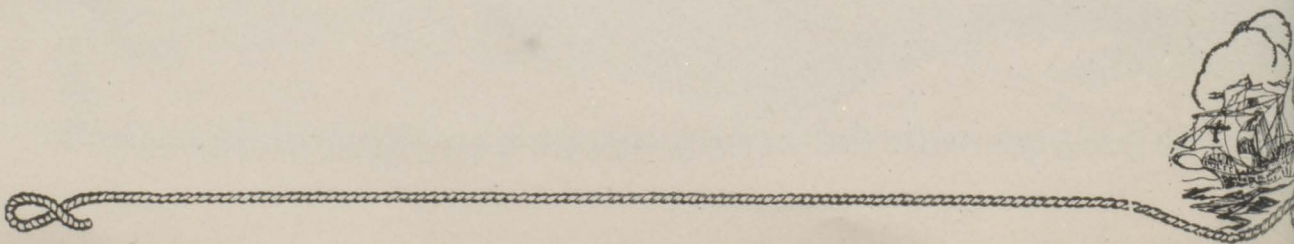

The Senior Class respectfully dedicates this volume to Mr. Charles Birkheimer, whose genial disposition and untiring efforts have created a lasting friendship with the Class of '33

Class Prophecy

May 10, 1940—Met Ralph Lehman while walking down the Rue de la Paix this morning. Haven't seen him for about six years. He is the special correspondent for the Baltimore Sun, and has been sent to cover the Olympic games at Rome, Italy. We went to lunch together at the Picadilly Cafe where an old classmate of ours, Howard Stocker, is waiter. After ordering, we began to talk about our good times in N. H. S. and wonder what our classmates were doing. Raymond Vierheller was the pilot of the plane in which Ralph and his companion and reporter, Eugene Parks, flew from London on their way here. Ralph and I planned to go to the Olympics together. I am going to take Lucille Reidenbach, my secretary, with me. Am going to show Ralph the sights while he is in Paris.

May 11,—Went sight-seeing this morning. Went to the exclusive salon of Gwendolyn Reger—Modiste. Betty Britton is her distinguished stylist. These two girls have surely made good. Next we boarded a bus and went to the regular monthly entertainment given by the University of Paris in the University Auditorium. Here we heard lectures by Dr. Robert Kistler, professor of medicine at the university, and Professor Eugene Bowen, delegate from the United States to the Geneva Peace conference. In the musical part of the program we had the pleasure of hearing Albert Clough's symphony orchestra, of which both Charles and Mary Foust are members. The master of ceremonies of this program was none other than Robert Archer.

May 13,—Departed for Rome today. Found that the plane in which we were flying had been designed by our old friend Philip Schlupp. Florence Young was the hostess in the plane. While on our way to Rome, I had the good luck to find a book in the plane's library which had just recently been written by Ruth Jane Sells, a prominent politician in America. Ralph read a column in the paper, written by Alva Hannahs, on the "Theory of Relativity". At Marseilles we changed from plane to boat. Found that Carlos Fletcher was First Mate on this boat. George Little, Governor of Tennessee and Arthur Dennis, a Senator of that state, and Mr. Richard Bonnell and his wife the former Miss Martha Taylor were also on the boat. Mr. Bonnell has been studying the "lost art" of the Egyptians and recently discovered how to make the fluid which the Egyptians used for embalming. Dewey Shurtz, captain on the boat announced that a television radio would be used for the first time that evening in the ship's salon. The television radio has recently been perfected by Edwin Fletcher. The program is to be sponsored by Ronald McAllister, a prominent American merchant.

The first number of the evening was a dance by Helen Van Sickle, star of many Broadway hits. Theda Robey, and her singing violin, assisted by Rubinoff, presented two violin numbers. Bertha Shepherd, called by many "A second Fannie Brice", sang "Get a Little Fun Out of Life". Pauline Barcroft, Grand Opera star, sang "Coming Home".

May 14—Helen Glazer, physical education director on the boat gave a talk on "Keeping Physically Fit". Helen Shull, the ship's doctor, informed us that Cecil Stocker and George Hursey have recently been engaged by the Russian government to teach agriculture at the University of Moscow.

May 15—Arrived in Rome today. In the afternoon we attended the track events. We arrived just in time to talk with Lloyd Crater who was drawing a cartoon of the star of the American relay team, Everett McElhaney. We also had a chance to talk with Letha Vierheller, called by athletic critics "The second Babe Ditricksen". Over in the press box we found Chester Cosner and Alfred Swigert, who have recently returned from a big game hunt in Africa, where they bagged two "Lyons". We had the extreme pleasure of hearing Chester announce that one of our old school mates, Bob Eagon, had just won the one hundred yard high hurdles. You see, Chester is a radio announcer of high esteem. From there we proceeded to the natatorium to watch the swimming events. There we saw the United States women's swimming team. Two of the members are Alma Caddes and Mabel Cappel, our old friends of the class of '33.

May 16—Dined today with the noted actress, Erma Couets, and her traveling companion, Margaret Early. They had recently visited their homes in Newcomerstown and told us that Laura Silverthorne was instructor of Typing and Shorthand at N. H. S. Also that Kathrene Wigfield has taken charge of the newly organized kindergarten at Newcomerstown.

May 17—Attended the tennis matches today. Saw Marjorie Wolfe defeat the French star and thus become the women's tennis champion of the Olympics.

May 20—Left for Paris today. Returning by way of Geneva. Stopped to see Mary Marlatt who is a matron at the famous girl's school of Geneva.

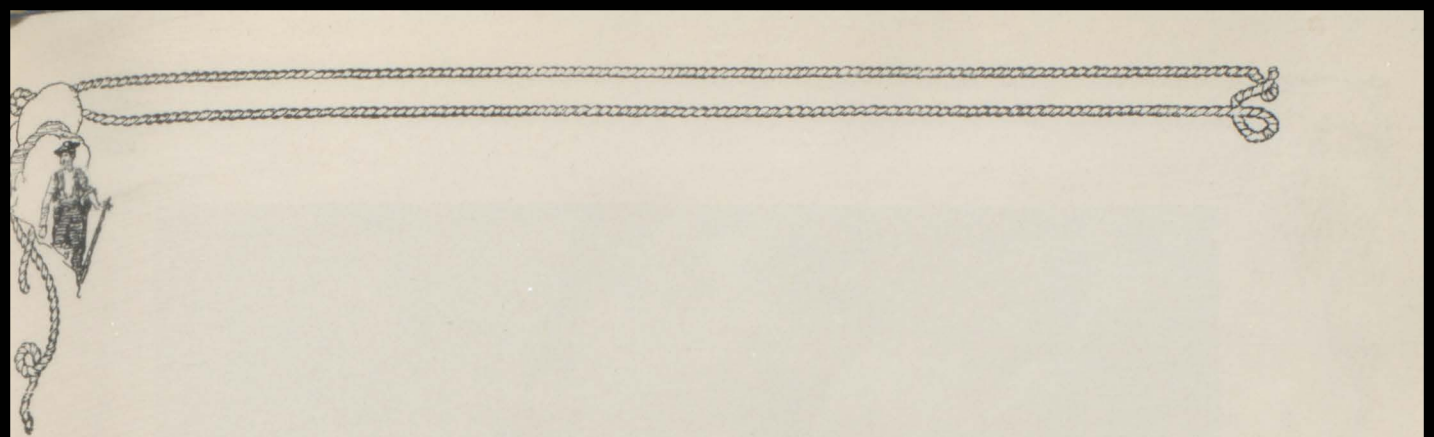

May 23—Arrived in Paris today. Ralph sailed for home this afternoon.

June 18—Received a letter from Ralph today. More news of former class mates. Thelma Mullett is the head nurse at Bethesda Hospital at Zanesville, and Florence Miller is also nursing at that hospital. Mabel Little and her husband, the Bishop John Little, are living in Columbus. Ralph informed me that, while on the trip home a double wedding occurred on the ship. Max Tufford and Lucille Boothe and Freda Mallett and Lee Murphy were married by the Reverend Harry Langell. Lee is the proprietor of the Murphy hotel in Newcomerstown.

In this letter Ralph thoughtfully called my attention to the fact that all the members of the class of 1933 have made good in a big way.

Wise and Otherwise Club

The Senior Wise and Otherwise Club was organized in September, 1933. It consists of eight Senior girls, whose object is to play a part in the athletics and other activities of N. H. S.

Money has been raised through the medium of candy sales and the sale of tickets. This is our last year to be of service to N. H. S. and it is with deepest regrets we are leaving old Newcomers High.

- President..... Betty Britton
- Vice President..... Marjorie Wolfe
- Secretary and Treasurer..... Helen Van Sickle
- Sponsor Miss Christina A. Macmillan

First row—Elaine Hill, Marjorie Wolfe.

Second row—Helen Van Sickle, Gwendolyn Reger, Helen Glazer, Betty Britton.

Third row—Alma Caddes, Ruth Jayne Sells; Miss Macmillan, Sponsor.

The Junior Booster Club

In September, 1931, twenty girls organized a club for the benefit of the Athletic Association. This was a new experience for each member and every girl did her part in making the club a success. Officers were elected and we made much progress during the year, being the first club to earn its pledge of seventy-five dollars. In May, 1932, the entire club was excused for a half day and deciding to take advantage of this opportunity, we went to Canton and enjoyed ourselves immensely.

This year (1932-1933) the club was reorganized and the group has been as successful as last year. The same officers were elected again. The Booster Club is planning to do even better things in the future.

President	Ruth Zimmer
Vice President.....	Charlotte Rogers
Secretary-Treasurer	Melba Steffen
Editor	Margaret Simoni
Sponsor.....	Miss Dorothea Swigert

Second row—Eileen Warner, Marie Mallet, Rosemary Lyons, Mary Wilson, Evelyn Riggle, Vera Chance, Lucile Wilson, Lillian Gombar, Laura Torgler, Mary Lewis.

The Sophomore Booster Club

At the beginning of the school term a meeting of all Sophomore girls was announced, and from this the Sophomore Booster Club was formed. Miss Chapman was chosen as our sponsor, but due to the fact that "in matrimonium ducta est" we had to choose another sponsor, who proved to be none other than Miss Conn.

We have had candy sales and lunches and in doing so we have tried to follow the motto of "May the Sophomore Booster Club never rest till it makes its good better and its better best," in boosting the athletics in dear old N. H. S.

Girls' Glee Club

In September a number of girls tried out for the Glee Club, out of which twenty-nine were selected. It was decided that they would meet twice a week, on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. At the first meeting the officers were chosen. Vera Chance and Ruth Zimmer were the accompanists. The girls journeyed to Dover to sing at the Dover Fair, and on November 9 they sang in chapel. Miss Murray and the girls went carolling on December 22 and were given much praise for their singing. They expect to broadcast soon. Preparations are now being made for a concert which will be given March 30, Visiting Day. The girls have been very successful in their music achievements under the supervision of Miss Mary Alice Murray.

President	-----	Pauline Barcroft
Vice President	-----	Charlotte Rogers
Secretary-Treasurer	-----	Theda Robey
Librarian	-----	Betty Britton

First row—Marjorie Wolfe, Rachel Neighbor, Martha Taylor, Pauline Barcroft, Jean Richmond, Anna Yanai, Vera Chance (Acc.), Mary Foust, Evelyn Riggle, Alma Caddes, Ruth Silverthorne, Theda Robey.

Boys' Glee Club

Shortly after the beginning of the school term all boys interested in the Glee Club were called to the Auditorium. After a tryout, twenty-four boys were selected to make up the Boys' Glee Club of 1932-1933. Every member has taken great interest in this organization. Activities for 1932-1933 have been confined principally to chapel services and other High School programs. Our chief outside work was singing at the Tuscarawas County Fair. We are very proud of our Glee Club and our capable director, Miss Mary Alice Murray.

President -----	Charles Foust
Secretary-Treasurer -----	Max Tufford
Librarian -----	Albert Clough
Director -----	Miss Mary Alice Murray

First row—William Clark, Robert Huff, Jules A. Rohr, Dean Palmer, Herman Hudson.

Second row—Marcus Terrell, Robert Archer, Albert Clough, George Little, Ralph Lehman, Robert Kistler, Oscar Shalosky, Paul Taylor, Howard Norman.

Orchestra

Our Orchestra, under the able direction of Miss Murray, has grown this term. At the graduation of the Class of '32 we lost several players, some of whose places were filled by incoming Freshmen, but the position of drummer so well filled by that "ray of sunshine," Charles Raine, is still vacant.

All of the players have shown great interest in the organization, and have put forth their greatest efforts to assure its success. We have played overtures for several programs and hope to have the opportunity to play for others. May the success of this organization continue.

President -----	Robert Kistler
Secretary -----	Charles Foust
Librarian -----	Jules A. Rohr
Director -----	Miss Mary Alice Murray

First row—Hilda Chapman, Janet Lacey, Rachel Neighbor, Melba Steffen, Mary Foust, Rachel Lease, Marie Cunningham, Theda Robey, Josephine Mizer, Katherine Troendly, Jules Rohr.

Third row—Vernon Draher, John King, Robert Wolfe, Dean Palmer, Wayne Mizer, Willard Bond, Ordell Korn.

Athletics

Varsity "N" Club

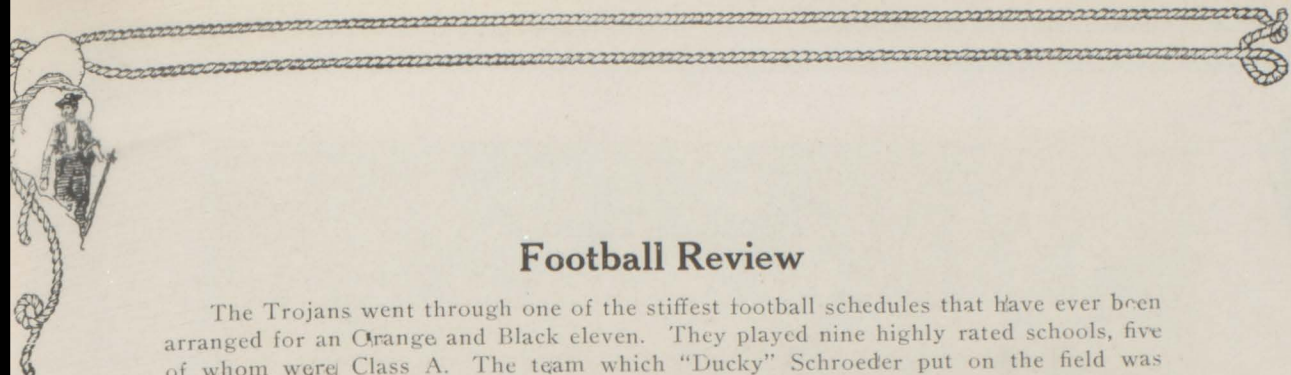

Seated—Lehman, McCall, Junior Swigert, Thompson, Foust, Bonnell, McAllister, Hudson, Cosner, Hannahs.

Standing—Shurtz, Kistler, Parks, McElhaney, Torgler, Eagon, Dennis, Fletcher, Shalosky, Meeks, Stocker, Gadd, Alfred Swigert, Clough, Maxwell, Coach Schroeder.

The letter men of N. H. S. met one afternoon and again organized the Varsity N Club. The following officers were elected: President, Alfred Swigert; Vice President, Alva Hannahs; Secretary and Treasurer, Eugene Parks.

This club is an organization of boys who have won an "N" in either football, basketball or baseball. Although baseball has in the last two years become a minor sport, there still remain two letter men of the 1931 squad. This is the fifth year for the club, it being organized in 1929. These boys have all put forth an effort to produce winning teams in N. H. S. and, if for nothing else but this, we wish them all the greatest of success in the future.

Football Review

The Trojans went through one of the stiffest football schedules that have ever been arranged for an Orange and Black eleven. They played nine highly rated schools, five of whom were Class A. The team which "Ducky" Schroeder put on the field was always a fighting one but they were outweighed in every game.

N. H. S. opened the season at Dover, where they were defeated to the count of 38 to 0. This team, however, went through the season without a defeat.

Newcomerstown then lost a heart-breaker to Caldwell High by a one point margin. The final score was 7 to 6.

The next game was played with an ancient rival, Dennison. Swigert crossed the goal line but the score was called void because of off side. The locals showed their best fighting spirit but were unable to score. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

The Trojans won their first game of the season by downing Millersburg High. Remembering the defeat of the season before, the Trojans played inspired ball to win, 8 to 0.

The following week the locals treked to New Philadelphia. After playing a stubborn brand of ball the first half, they fell by a 14 to 2 score.

Showing the old time fighting spirit of the Trojans, N. H. S. defeated a bitter rival, Carrollton, in a sea of mud, by a score of 12 to 0.

The next week Dame Fortune reached her climax when N. H. S. lost a hard fought game on the home field. The old jinx of never defeating Urichsville seemed to be ever with the Trojans in this contest, because they had numberless scoring chances but failed to make any of them materialize. The game ended 6 to 0.

The Armistice Day game was played at New Concord, Newcomerstown being defeated 26 to 7.

The Turkey Day game was a disappointment to everyone, the locals being scalped by the Coshocton Redskins to the tune of 67 to 6.

This was the last game for such stalwarts as Captain Alf. Swigert, Gene Parks, Charlie Foust, Ab Clough, Bo Hannahs, Boots Lehman, Art Dennis, Chet Cosner, Dick Bonnell, Howard Stocker, Everett McElhaney and Ron McAllister, whom we wish the best of luck in the future.

SEASON'S FOOTBALL RESULTS

Football Team

Captain Swigert, was the chief ground gainer and punter. Although "Alf" suffered a painful ankle injury, his playing was hard to equal. He will be greatly missed during the coming year.

Eugene Parks, playing his third season, gave a good account of himself. He could run the ends, punt, pass or buck the line. Gene was good, both on defense and offense. He graduates.

Charles Foust, the giant tackle, playing his third and last year, could tackle and block like "nobody's business". The opponets found that it was anything but healthful, to start a play towards him.

Alva Hannahs, playing his second season for the Trojans proved to be a great asset to the team despite his lack of weight. He is one of the best blocking half-backs the school has ever turned out. "Bo" also graduates.

George Maxwell, a junior, was a valuable find for N. H. S., playing safety man, he gave a wonderful account of himself. Greater things will be heard from "Peter" next year.

Albert Clough, a senior, playing his second year on the varsity as signal barker, was well suited for the position. He was always calm and helped the team when in danger. "Ab" was good on snagging passes and running the ends.

Arthur Dennis, playing his first and last year on the varsity was always daring the opponets to run a play his direction. He played regular at tackle after Shalosky resigned.

Chester Cosner, center, could always be depended upon to put the ball back at the right place at the right time. Chet was good on defense and will be missed next year.

Richard Bonnell, alternating with Cosner at center, was plenty scrappy and always talking it up for the Trojans. This is Dicks first year and last year for N. H. S. and he will be greatly missed.

Ralph Lehman, a senior played his first year on the varsity. He was a six footer and used his height to good advantage in playing his position at left end. He played equally well on offense and defense. We wish "Boots" success in his later years.

Everett McElhaney was the tall fellow that played end. He could always be depended on to do his share. This is "Mac's" second year on the football team and he will be greatly missed next year.

Howard Socker, the little fellow with lots of scrap. Not often do you find a football player like "Harlo". He was always fighting to win whether the score was for N. H. S. or the opponets. This is "Harlo's" last year.

Edward McCall, our chief kick off man. He could boot the ball into the opponets end zone practically every time. Ed played the right end and was good on running the reverse play. He will be back next year.

Herman Hudson, came out in his sophomore year to win a letter. He could be depended upon to play a good game of football, and should be very valuable to N. H. S. next year.

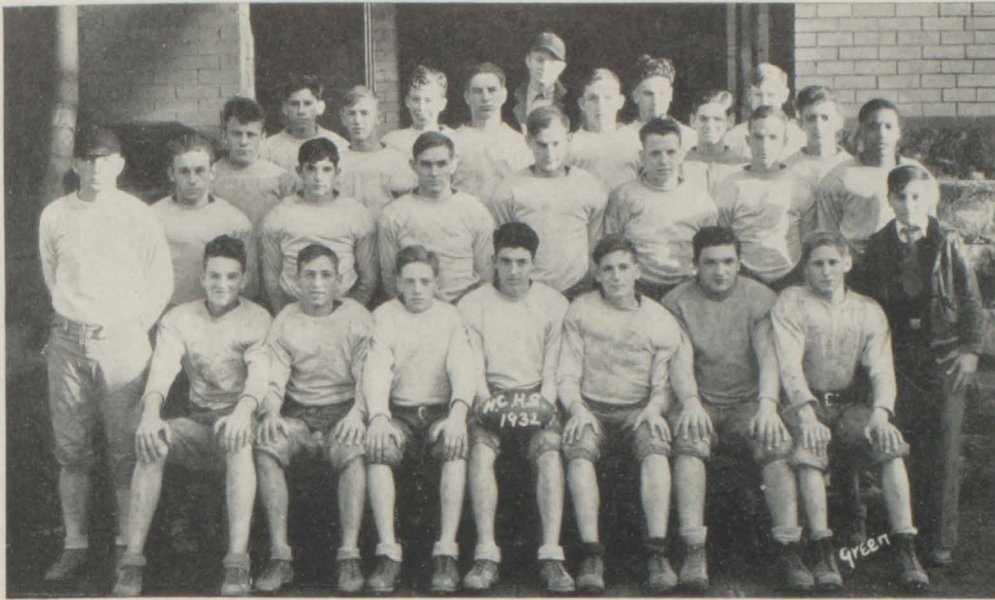

Delbert Gadd, a junior playing his second year on the line was always in the game. "Deb" will be a great help to N. H. S. next year.

Myron Thompson, a junior, showed that he could really play football. This being his first year on the varsity, he gave a good account of himself and much should be heard from him next year.

Godfrey Meeks, another tall boy, played at an end position and due to his great height was helpful to N. H. S. in the aerial game. Godfrey is a junior.

Ronald McAlister, this stocky senior came out for football and showed that he was a hard hitting fullback but with such an able veteran as Alfred Swigert, at that position he had little chance to break into the lineup. However he filled the big vacancy left by Bo Hannahs, in the Urichsville game and then and there Newcomerstown found out that he really could play football.

Football, 1932

1st row—Godfrey Meeks, '34, End; Arthur Dennis, '33, Tackle; Myron Thompson '34, Guard; Richard Bonnell '33, Center; Delbert Gadd '35, Guard; Charles Foust '33, Tackle; Herman Hudson '34, End.

2nd row—Coach Schroeder; Chester Cosner '33, Center; Alva Hannahs '33, Half Back; Alfred Swigert '33, Full Back; Albert Clough '33, Half Back; George Maxwell '34, Quarter Back; Gene Parks '33, Half Back; Edward McCall '35, End; Jules Rohr, Assistant Manager.

3rd row—Paul Taylor '35, Guard; Ronald Stoffer '34, Half Back; Everett McElhaney '33, End; Ralph Lehman '33, End; Howard Stocker '33, Guard; Carl Seiber '34, Tackle.

4th row—Ordell Korns '34, End; Arthur Wilkins '34, Quarter Back; Robert Eagon, Manager; Carl Daugherty '36, Tackle; Harold Anderson '36, Center.

Absent—Ronald McAllister '33, Full Back.

Varsity Basketball

Seated—Robert Eagon, Albert Clough, Edward McCall, Everett McElhaney, Alfred Swigert, Eugene Parks.

Standing—Coach Schroeder, John Fletcher, Floyd Fisher, Harry Torgler, Chester Cosner, Robert Kistler, Manager.

When the call was issued for floor candidates, many players reported. Among these were three lettermen, namely: Clough, McElhaney and Swigert. Coach "Ducky" Schroeder worked hard on the available material in order to produce a smooth working combination. The team had only a mediocre season from the standpoint of games won, but at the end of the season they were one of the strongest teams to ever represent the school, which is shown by their 33 to 24 victory over the Alumni. Coach Schroeder will have a difficult task next year in filling the vacancies left by the veteran lettermen: McElhaney, Clough, Swigsrt, Parks and Eagon who graduate this year.

Ab Clough captained the team in fine manner and was generally conceded to be the best long shot on the team. Everett McElhaney, his running mate at forward, was responsible for more than one victory. He was the high scorer of the season and was always winning the applause of the fans by his uncanny shooting from all angles of the floor. Alfred Swigert was the team's great defensive guard. He was always in there with plenty of scrap and he kept the team in good spirits. Gene Parks and Bob Eagon alternated at the other guard position. They were also good defensive men and were generally in for their share of the scoring. Ed McCall was a great asset to the team although he has had little experience and is only a Sophomore. It was very seldom that he did not get the tip-off. Ed should be a great asset to the team in the next two years.

Basketball Reserves

First Row—Nick Knezvitch, '36; Garner Stocker, '36; Jr. Swigert, '34; Harry Bower, '36; Carl Lenzo, '36; George Maxwell, '34; Dean Palmer, '34.

Second Row—Coach Schroeder; Delbert Gadd, '35; Clarence Ortt, '36; Ordell Korn, '34; Manager Robert Kistler, '33.

Although the Reserves did not win many games, Coach Schroeder discovered some very promising material on this team. They were erratic in the first few games but by the end of the season they showed much ability. These players are all underclassmen, most of them Freshmen, and when they have had more experience, they should do great things for N. H. S.

JOKES

On a cold, fair morning in December, Charles Cunningham came to school, lo and behold! bedecked with a permanent.

Carlos Fletcher and Mr. Hayes were walking to school one day.

Mr. Hayes: "What are you going to be when you get out of school?"

Carlos: "An old man."

Mr. Hayes and Mr. May were at the Fair together. Mr. Hayes bought some bananas and handed one to Mr. May. Mr. May ate the peeling and asked what he should do with the cob.

What's this we hear about Helen Taylor and George Maxwell? Someone found a note to George from Helen telling him how much she loved him. And it was signed with a big X, too. Hmm, wonder what this means?

After a terrific struggle, John King finally finished his examination paper, and then at the end wrote:

"Dear Teacher: If you sell any of my answers to the funny papers, I will expect you to split fifty-fifty with me."

Schroeder: "What is electricity?"

Ab Clough: "Why it's—I knew but I forgot."

Schroeder: "What do you think of that? The only man who ever knew what electricity is, and he has forgotten."

Miss Murray: "Have you seen Lohengrin?"

Mary Foust: "No, but I've heard Minnehaha."

Ralph Lehman: "Wanna spoon?"

Gwendolyn Reger: "Sure."

So he gave her, one and she ate her soup.

Alma Caddes: "Robert Kistler has decided not to take a medical course."

Thelma Mullett: "Oh, the brave boy; just think of the lives he's saved."

Miss Conn: "I have went. That is wrong, isn't it?"

Everett McElhaney: "Yes, ma'am."

Miss Conn: "Why is it wrong?"

Everett: "Because you ain't went yet."

Martha Taylor: "Did you hear what started the row at the Ritz theater last night?"

Dick Bonnell: "No; what?"

Martha: "The first seat."

"Here's where I hit the bull's-eye," said the dust, as it swept through the herd.

Cecil Stocker: "That test we just took was a song."

Kathryn Wigfield: "Yeah, I saw you using notes."

Junior Swigert: "Do you know Lincoln's Gettysburg address?"

Melba Steffen: "I thought he lived at the White House."

Glenn Bradshaw: "Did you ever take an anesthetic?"

Rachel Matthews: "What? No! Who teaches it?"

Miss Macmillan: "Robert Burns wrote 'To a Fieldmouse.'"

Godfrey Meeks: "Did he get an answer?"

Mr. Cooper: "If I subtract seventy-nine from twenty-three, what's the difference?"

John Taylor: "Yeah, I think it's a lot of bunk myself."

Mabel Little: "This vase is over 2000 years old. Be very careful in carrying it."

John Little: "You can depend on me; I'll be as careful of it as if it were brand new."

Erma Coutts: "I'm very temperamental. I have the soul of an artist."

George Shurtz: "I can tell from your face that you're a painter."

Howard Stocker: "What part of speech is 'woman,' father?"

Mr. Stocker: "She's all of it, my son."

Don't forget to read "The Great Rubber Failure," by I. Losta Garter.

Phillip Schlupp, in Biology class: "Why does Sweitzer cheese have so many holes in it when it's Limburger that needs the ventilation?"

Mr. Schroeder, in Biology: "The class will now name some of the lower animals, starting with Harry Torgler."

Alva Hannahs (teaching her to drive): "In case of emergency the first thing to do is to put on the brake."

Helen Shull: "That's queer. I thought it came with the car."

Mr. Swigert (in butcher shop): "Snap out of it, Junior. Break the bones in Mr. Jones chops and wrap up Mr. Smith's ribs."

Junior (very busy): "Yes, sir, as soon as I saw off Mrs. Murphy's leg."

Eileen Warner: "They say that the moon is a dead body."

Ott Schlosky: "Let's sit up with the corpse tonight."

We'd like to tell the one about the mouse trap, but we're afraid it's too snappy."

"There's one person that agrees with me," said the cannibal.

Clark Schwarm: "This match won't light."

Kenny Scheeler: "That's funny; it lit alright a little while ago."

JOKES

Laura Silverthorne: "Six of us girls took a tramp through the woods last summer. We had a lovely time."

Eugene Bowen: "What kind of a time did the tramp have?"

Margaret Earley: "I hear that Pauline is seasick."

Theda: "How's that?"

Margaret: "Why, Alf has water on the knee."

Carl Daugherty: "I've learned to read lips."

Mabel Cappel: "How do you do it?"

Carl: "I use the touch system."

Bob Parks: "I wish I could revise the alphabet."

Lucille West: "Why, what would you do?"

Bob: "I'd put U and I closer together."

The school gets all the credit,

The staff does all the work;

The printer gets all the money,

The editor gets all the dirt.

Jane McCleary: "Your new topcoat is very loud, isn't it?"

Howard Norman: "I guess it is, but it is all right when I put on my muffler."

Ruth Zimmer: "I heard that you accepted the postal clerk."

Charlotte Rogers: "I simply couldn't help it. He addressed me, enveloped me, stamped a kiss on my lips, and sealed it with a hug."

Chet Cosner: "What's the noise down there?"

George Little: "Fella turned a corner."

Chet: "Well!"

George: "There wasn't any corner."

Dean Palmer:

My Virgil, 'tis of thee,

Short road to lunacy,

O'er thee I rave;

Another month or so

Of studying thee, I know

Will give me plain zero

For my grade.

Florence Young: "Lee told me a swell story last night."

Letha Verheller: "Can he tell a good story?"

Florence: "Yes, indeed; he holds his audience from start to finish."

Mr. Thompson: "Young man, you are going astray."

Myron: "Yes, sir; but you should see the girl I'm going a-straying with."

Carl Lenzo: "When I don't get out in company, I get blue, but when I do, I get red because I'm so green."

"Guess I'll go on a bender," said the fly, starting around the pretzel.

Marjorie Wolfe: "I dreamed I was dancing with you last night."

Robert Kistler: "Oh, you thrill me."

Marjorie: "Yes, and I awakened this morning to find my brother, Bob, pounding my feet with a flat iron."

Miss Conn (relating to her English class the story of the king who was beheaded and whose head was thrown in a river. It is said that it floated down the river singing.)

Helen Glazer: "I bet I know what it was singing."

Miss Conn: "What?"

Helen: "I Ain't Got Nobody."

Harry Langell: "Say, pa, when deaf mutes have hot words, do they get their fingers burned?"

Mrs. VanSickle: "What did you mean by letting that boy kiss you last night?"

Helen: "Well, he was too strong for me to resist, and besides you told me never to talk to strangers."

Mrs. Clifton: "I'm afraid your dinner will be a bit burned tonight, darling."

Mr. Clifton: "Why, did they have a fire at the delicatessen?"

"Well, I'll be switched," said the box car as the engine chased it up the side track.

Raymond Vierheller: "I like to hear Mr. Schroeder lecture on physics. He brings things home to me that I've never seen before."

Lloyd Crater: "That's nothing; so does the laundry."

Mr. Clifton (in history class): "Where did Caesar defeat the greatest number?"

Wilbert Cunningham: "I'm not sure, but I think on examination day."

Max Tufford: "Is it true that statistics show that women live to be older than men?"

Robert Archer: "They ought to. Paint's a great preservative, you know."

Ruth Fletcher: "What's your idea of the tightest man in school?"

Jake Loader: "The guy who won't take a shower because they soak you too much."

IMPOSSIBLE PASTIME

Playing pat-a-cake with a mule's hind legs.

Didjaever see a bottle neck?

Didjaever water the lawn with your girl's hose?

Didjaever see a Freshman turn to rubber?

Didjaever hear a grass plot?

Didjaever see a car-pet?

We didn't.
