Class of 1926 Has 50th Anniversary

Newcomerstown's class of 1926 observed its 50th anniversary Saturday evening,

June 26, with dinner at the River Greens Golf Club.

Twenty members of the twenty-seven now living were in attendance. Twelve members of the class are deceased.

Preceding dinner, a social hour was held during which the class picture was taken.

The table, decorated by Mrs. Elmer Martin, emphasized the class colors, green and white, with white daisies, ferns, green candle holders and white candles.

Toastmaster Willard Colvin introduced Preston Hannhs, who gave the invocation. After dinner, the toastmaster called on Gladys Alexander, who read correspondence from members who could not attend.

There was also a congratulatory card from Mrs. Maby (Stahler) Kartman, Florida, who had taught the fifth grade class in the old West building. Miss Alexander then gave the memorial for the members who were deceased, and a moment of silence was observed.

Each member gave an account of the past five years and old class or group pictures were shown.

The following prizes were awarded:

Martha (Stahler) Hart for being the only one with pierced ears; Mayor Howard Lyons for being the only one with a great-grandchild; Mrs. Charles Little (Elsie Smith) for carrying the oldest $2 bill; and Willard Colvin who had started shaving when he was the youngest (eighth grade).

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Addy, West Lafayette; Mrs. H.C. Conover (Mary Burris), Springfield and her guest, Mrs. Virgie Prosser; Mr.

Willard Colvin, Elmhurst, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Adams (Lucille Heskett), Portsmouth; Mr. Raymond Craigo, Cumberland; Mrs. Ermel Rice (Bertha Kedigh), West

CLASS OF 1926 has reunion

The Newcomerstown High School Class of 1926 held their 55th year reunion Saturday, July 18, at the River Greens Golf Course Clubhouse.

There were 39 members in the original class. Of those 39, seventeen are deceased. Thirteen attended the reunion.

A short memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Jessie Stocker Summers for Nellie Brown, Dorothy Jones, Gladys Alexander, Novella Opphile, Mary Carol Beers, Alice Patterson, Forest Hammersley, Elsie Smith, Charles Crater, Julius Nicodemus, Robert Robinson, Bernard Sibole, Kenneth Neff, Arthur Wiandt, Alvin Lehman, Preston Hannahs and Max Tyhurst, deceased members of the class.

Letters were read from Mrs. Gilbert Hart (Martha Stahler) of Fucson, Ariz.; Mrs. Ernest Miller (Lois Little) of Abilene, Tex.; Mrs. David James (Doris Berry) of Covina, Calif.; Mrs. Lowell Adams (Lucille Heskett) of Portsmouth, Ohio; and Mrs. Raymond Lindsey (Margaret Reed) of Ashville, Ohio.

Each member gave an account of activities the past five years (since the 50th reunion). Daises were the class flowers. Class colors were green and white, which were used to decorate the banquet room.

Those attending were Mrs. Lester Baker of Lake Worth, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ermel Rice of Columbus, Ohio; Willard Colvin of Elmhurst, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lyons of Strasburg; Raymond Craigo and guest, Mrs. Grace Atkinson of Cumberland; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Addy and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of West Lafayette; Mrs. Mary Burris Conover and guest, Virgie Prosser, of Springfield; Mrs. Arthur Summers, Miss Mabel Geese, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Class votes no to reunions

Members of the Newcomerstown High School Class of 1926 gathered at the River Greens banquet room Saturday, July 12, for a celebration of their 60-year high school reunion.

Places were set for nine class members and 10 spouses, relatives, friends, and the speaker, Doug Spade, principal at Newcomerstown High School, and his wife, Jan.

The graduating class of 1926 consisted of 39 members (26 boys and 13 girls). At the time of the reunion, 17 of the class members were living, with 21 deceased, and the whereabouts of one member, Evelyn Greer Baines, unknown. Class members asked that anyone knowing where she was to notify one of the remaining class members.

Those attending were: Lucille Heskett Adams, and granddaughter Marie Frazier of Wooster; Howard Lyons and his wife, Grace, of Strasburg; Ralph Addy and his wife, Audrey, of Plainfield; Bertha Kedigh Smith, and her husband, Harold, of West Lafayette; Charlene Gardner Cunningham of Newcomerstown and her daughter, Joan Belle, of Columbus; Mabel Geese, Therma Longsworth Hickenbottom, and friend Charles Leech, all of Newcomerstown; Elmer Martin and his wife, Margaret, of the Newcomerstown area; Jess Stocker Summers and a friend, Allean Billings, of Newcomerstown; and Mr. and Mrs. Spade.

Letters were read from: Martha Stahler Hart of Tucson, Ariz.; Mary Burris Conover of Tempe, Ariz.; Lois Little Miller, Abilene, Tex.; Clara Dell Fisher Rice, Columbus; and Doris Berry James, Covina, Calif.

Howard Lyons, master of ceremonies, introduced Spade, who pointed out the many changes in schools during the past 60 years. He congratulated the class members of 1926 not only for their longevity, but for their contributions to the community and to life in general.

Tables were decorated with the class colors of green and white with candles and flower arrangements by Grace Lyons. Favors, made by Margaret Martin, consisted of miniature rocking chairs in which were seated miniature figures of an elderly woman or man.

Registration was handled by Elmer Martin. Ralph and Audrey Addy were greeters. Addy also gave the invocation while Howard Lyons gave the welcome. Bertha K. Smith gave "In Memoriams." The flower arrangements were given as door prizes. Winners were Elmer Martin, Jan Spade, Harold Smith, Marie Frazier, Mabel Geese, and Charlene Gardner Cunningham.

Members voted to not hold another reunion but to have another "get-together" in the future.

The Senior Class History

On September 5, 1924, a group of sixty-eight pupils assembled at the new High School, eager to begin their duties as the Freshmen class.

The first day was one of agony for the newcomers. Freshmen wandering into French classes was only one of the many mistakes made that day. The evening of the first day, the Sophomores and a few Juniors diligently applied the paddle to all Freshmen found lurking on the streets.

Thus the class of '28 entered the portals of N. H. S.

After the first flurry of excitement subsided, we applied ourselves to our studies and soon became a part of N. H. S. life. We held a class meeting, elected officers, chose the class colors, Green and White, the class flower, the Lily of the Valley, and our motto, "We shall study and be prepared, for some day our chance will come."

The class entered into the activities of the High School and contributed to the glee clubs, the orchestra and to athletics. We have kept this spirit through the years, doing the best we could to boost N. H. S.

By Mr. Wagoner disclosing to us the mysteries of Science, Mr. Conover expounding the principles of Algebra, and Miss Thomas patiently drilling us in English, we gained the necessary knowledge to admit us to the Sophomore class.

During the second year we studied diligently and in the fall of '26 entered the High School again, this time as Juniors.

The class play was one of the main events of this year. Miss Macmillan directed the play, and it was largely due to her efforts that the cast were able to portray the parts so well.

The Junior-Senior Banquet this year was a great success. Every one did his utmost to make it the best banquet ever held in the High School, and we felt that the appreciation expressed by the Graduating Class of '27 was well deserved.

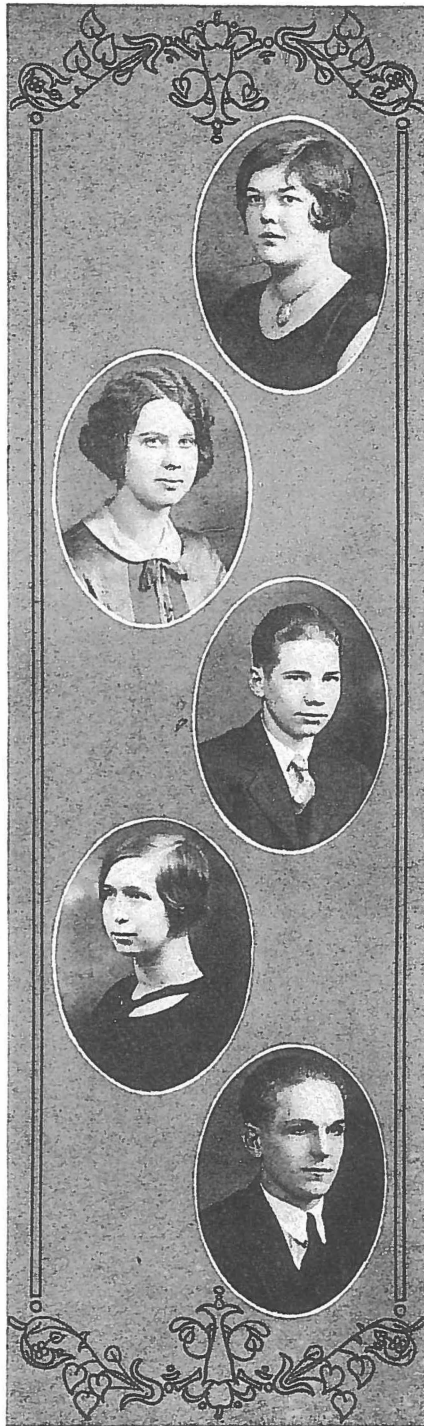

On entering the Senior class, we were of the opinion that the most solemn duty of a Senior was that of carrying himself proudly and looking with disdain on the lower classmen. But this error was soon corrected, and we learned that to be a real Senior one must study even more than before. This year we have played an active part in the school life and in all our work have tried to assume the dignified and reserved manner becoming to the Senior class.

During these four years our class has dropped from sixty-eight to thirty-five members at the present time. We that remain are striving to gain all knowledge possible before the time for our departure arrives.

We regret the parting from friends we have made during the years we've spent in N. H. S., and we hope that in the future years, the Faculty will remember us with kindly thoughts, and that they will have no occasion to regret the many weary hours spent endeavoring to impress upon our memory, the principles of some subject.

Thus the class of '28 takes its leave of N. H. S., and in so doing realize the truthfulness of the old lines, "They were glad, yet they shed tears."

NHS Class of 1935 Meets Here

Newcomerstown graduating class of 1935 held a reunion at the high school June 22.

Dinner tables were centered with rose bowls with floating red roses. The class colors were red and black.

Gene Matthews, Newcomerstown, was elected the new president and also served as toastmaster. The invocation was given by Richard McMillan.

The "In Memoriam" for 13 class members and three teachers was presented by Vernon Powell and a resume of past reunions was given by Mrs. John (Nelva) Foust.

Mrs. E.D. (Mary) Swigert gave a "This and That" report and also presented rose bowls to Virgil Peoples, who traveled the farthest, coming from Marysville; Marjorie Schlupp Roberts, Newark for having the most children; and to John and Nelva Foust for having sent the first reservation.

She presented Miss Christina Macmillan a dozen red roses for being the faculty advisor for the class.

Teachers present for the occasion were Mrs. Al (Dot) Marshall, Clyde Barthalow, Carl Schroeder and wife of Massillon and Claude Hing and wife, of Newcomerstown.

After dinner and the program, the group toured the Old Temperance House Museum.

Letters were read from Katherine Troendly Veigel, Waraw; William Miller, Savannah, Ga.; Laura Gadd McCormick, West Lafayette; Bernard Hartman, Newnan, Ga.; Ruth Early McCoy, New Philadelphia; and Robert Wolf, Sebring, Fla.

and Kelvin Thompson, transportation chief for the same organization, told of proposed plans for a bus service.

Lorenz explained that a town of 5,000 population to receive five-day service and Newcomerstown only qualifies for two-day service based on the 1970 census.

Councilmen Ronald Hooker and Robert Riley pointed out that, counting people just outside the town limits, ordinance which would increase the number of policemen.

Hooker pointed out that there are already four deskmen, including a certified policeman, plus the chief of police and four patrolmen. Since they seemed to manage without overtime, Hooker said he saw no need for adding to the force.

It was noted that employees welcome overtime and Mayor Charles Holdsworth said Council was looking at dollars instead of service to the public.

Robert Ogden, local insurance agent, registered a complaint on the $2 charge made for copying accident reports. The mayor will meet with him to discuss the matter.

Approval was given acting making it mandatory that street department employees wear hard hats. The tie vote on the matter was broken by the mayor.

It was recommended that

The committee in charge of arrangements were Mrs. John Foust, Mr. Eugene Mathews, Mrs. Mary Swigert and Vernon Powell.

Another reunion will be held in two years.

11, repair can be made up $2500 without putting it up bid.

In final action, bills were approved for payment in amount of $36,391.51.

'42 seniors again to r

By PACKY McFARLAND

Fifty years ago, Newcomerstown High School conducted commencement for members of the Class of 1942, and this week many of that gang of 29 boys and 39 girls will visit West Main Street in Newcomerstown again.

Why West Main Street? Because five decades ago the stretch of West Main Street from the C&M Railroad tracks to River Street was common ground for the citizens of Newcomerstown and nearby townships.

In this short distance was located the major retail center of their collective world, an important setting of social interaction for persons of all ages.

Saturday was West Main

Street's busiest day. It was crowded with people and automobiles with the latter parked at an angle to the curb. Every merchant, financial institution and office was open for business and for greeting and conversing with friends, neighbors and relatives. The longer you talked and listened, the more information you collected and spread.

Every Saturday, except for a Christmas or New Year's Day, there were more people than automobiles on West Main Street. Many families did not have a car, but they could — and would — walk uptown or downtown or crosstown to West Main Street. Some retailers kept their doors open until 11 p.m. or later if the possibility of one more sale existed.

Almost without exception a sale involved cash, either in full or as the initial payment of a layaway plan. "Grown-ups," as "school kids" perceived their parents and other members of the older generation, believed strongly in the consumer policy: Save up, then buy. Today's magic plastic, the credit card, was unknown to them.

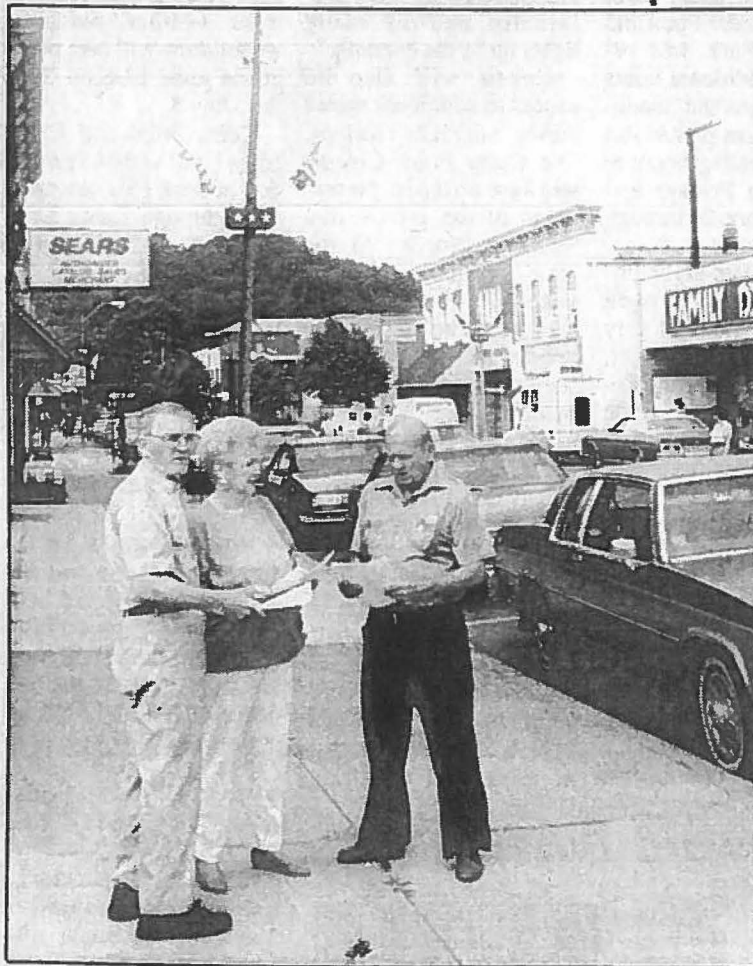

The Class of 1942 had a typical senior year until Monday, Dec. 8. The football team, dominated by seniors, set a new school record for wins in a single season by winning one more game than the great 7-0-0 team of these seniors' freshmen year. The home games were played on Fridays, under lights first used the previous season.

The marching band, resplendent in complete uniforms, performed at halftime for the second year in a row. Evastine Rice, a senior, was leader of the eight drum majorettes. During timeouts, seniors Doris Wilkin and Suzanne Gai-nor led the cheerleading corps of seven girls. At the Oct. 31 game, senior Norma Miller reigned as homecoming queen.

Unquestionably, the superstar of these Friday nights was senior Wib "Lightning" Little. Running from the tailback position in the single wing, Little contributed spectacularly to the Trojans' first-ever league championship. After the season, he received one of the halfback positions on the United Press All-Ohio High School team.

The other seniors on this team were Wally Curtiss (C), Don Harrison (RG), Charlie Cunningham (RT), Chet Hanson (RE), Fred Snyder (LT), Packy McFarland (QB), Bob Gaynor (HB) and Don Wolff (FB).

In this bygone era, football was important partly because it was the only varsity sport offered in the autumn and there was no television to keep people at home on Friday nights.

dam West Main Street

Other facets of life were different, too. For example, the local paper reached Bob Duncan's newsstand on Mondays and Thursdays and was called the Newcomerstown News and Index. Charles Phillips was the editor and each issue was composed and printed in the same building now occupied by Newcomerstown News editor Ray Booth and his colleagues.

The Dec. 8 issue of the News and Index reported that five Trojan footballers had been named to the Eastern Ohio League's All-Star team. In addition to Little, those honored were Curtiss, Snyder, McFarland and Wolff.

This joyful news, however, was the last article written about the Class of 1942 during peacetime, for that morning, Congress voted to go to war against Japan. Jeannette Rankin of Montana cast the only dissenting vote.

A typical senior year was no longer possible.

Immediately following this entry into World War II, the Heller Brothers Co. announced an increase in plant security to insure the protection of its work force of approximately 1,300, who had been busy filling defense orders for a number of months.

At the same time, superintendent of schools, C.L. McMahan, announced cancellation of the varsity basketball team's trip to West Virginia and North Carolina planned for the Christmas holiday period.

And the question on everyone's mind was: Where will the Japs strike next?

Enemy armed forces never reached Newcomerstown, but in February there was an unexpected invasion. The specific strain of hemolytic streptococcus which causes scarlet fever arrived and by Feb. 10, Mayor Earl Treasurer and Dr. C.A. Hanson, president of the board of education, ordered the schools closed.

Two junior high school teachers, Miss Rachel Barnett and Mr. Donald Pickering, were under quarantine with the illness. Four other teachers were under quarantine observation.

Trojan basketball practice was suspended and the public library, located on the second floor of 143 W. Main Street, was shut down. Churches cancelled Sunday services.

The most dramatic medical episode of this quarantine period involved a popular member of the senior class. The News and Index reported her case thusly:

"Confined to her home with scarlet fever, Miss Virginia Laughlin, 17, underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday morning (Feb. 15, 1942) at 2 o'clock, at her home on River Street.

"Miss Laughlin, quarantined over a week ago, was stricken with acute appendicitis Friday.

"As a result of the quarantine, local physicians had to perform the operation at home, using facilities at hand. The operation was performed on a dining room table."

On Tuesday night, Feb. 24, the Trojan basketball team hosted Cadiz in what, today, in the middle school auditorium. This contest was the last regular season game for six seniors: Lee Hootman (F), Bob Gaynor (G), Packy McFarland (G), Chet Hanson (C), Lloyd Craig (G) and Don Wolff (F).

The final score was 48-27 in favor of the hosts. Hootman, the team's leading scorer, was high-point man with 19. This victory, the 13th of the year, established a new school record for most victories in a single season, replacing the varsity record of 12 wins set when these seniors were in the eighth grade playing junior high basketball for coach Gene Riffle.

The most cherished of these 13 victories was a 44-38 upset of the New Philadelphia Quakers.

In March, the American Legion sponsored a patriotic essay contest for high schools in Tuscarawas County. Three of the eight prizes were won by Newcomerstown students. Senior girl winner was Jo Ann Trees. The assigned subject for the 348 students who volunteered was: "The system of checks and balances in the federal constitution and its relationship to the individual citizen."

On Wednesday, March 16, volunteers from the American Legion, Elks, Lions Club and Veterans of Foreign Wars launched a series of monthly salvage drives: rags, old rubber, paper and metals were needed for the war effort. Otto J. Beiter, a member of the board of education, served as general chairman.

Late in March, the W.M. Brode Co. was awarded a defense contract to build two grade-separation underpasses at the Ravenna arsenal. Their low bid was for $277,623.

Other local activities in March included civilian defense classes in firefighting, home nursing and first aid; the sale of approximately 1,820 state licenses plates for motor vehicles; and an announcement by senior Gloria Norris, the current Newcosean sales manager, that the price of a 1942 yearbook would be $1.75.

In April, the News and Index continued to publish twice a week. The April 9 issue revealed that clothing store owner Norman Lerenman, who planned to join the Army in the near future, had appointed Elmer Sneary as store manager for the duration of the war. Lerenman's business was located at 130 W. Main St., today the location of Bowman Sportswear.

The April 13 issue reported that 90 local residents had been certified in first aid, an air warden's group had been formed in Newcomerstown, and 21 men were drafted into the Army.

At the high school, coach Phil Bickle was conducting spring football practice and the senior class play was in rehearsal. Every senior know how many days remained in the school year.

On May 5, "Spring Fever," a comedy in three acts, was presented to parents and friends by 10 members of the English and speech. Cost of admission was 40 cents, adults, and 30 cents, children.

Two Sets of Twins in 1948 Graduating Class

TWO SETS OF TWINS were graduated from Newcomerstown high school Monday night. They were, left to right, David and Donna Mizer and Wallace and Waldon Walters.

84 Seniors Hear Sermon

"And the young man went out." This Old Testament text was used by Rev. Charles Foust of the Lutheran church at Baccalaureate Sunday night in the auditorium.

Senior class members marched through the auditorium and sat on the stage across which the motto "Success Through Work" was spelled out in large letters. The auditorium was decorated with standing baskets of white snapdragons and ferns.

Also on the stage were the four pastors who took part in the service, Rev. J. J. Wagner, Rev. R. L. Menges, Rev. Donald Doss and Rev. Foust.

The class was led in by two juniors, Donald Fenton and Bradley Guy while Miss Marie Murphy played the processional, "Pomp and Circumstances."

In her sermon Rev. Foust made three points. They were cooperation with God, love of fellowman and love of God.

The program included songs by the high school chorus and the girls triple trio.

Jack M. Schlarb

WOOSTER — Jack M. Schlarb, 61, 557 Kieffer St., Wooster, died Thursday (Nov. 7, 1991) at the Wooster Community Hospital following a sudden illness.

He was born Jan. 28, 1930, in Newcomerstown, son of the late Walter and Gladys (Norris) Schlarb. He was a graduate of Newcomerstown High School and was a Navy veteran during the Korean War. He owned and operated the Jack M. Schlarb Agency for 10 years and had previously been an insurance agent with Western-Southern Insurance Company for 20 years. He was a former life underwriter. He was a member of the Group 10 Financial Planning.

He was a member of the Wooster Grace Brethern Church, the Christian Businessmen's Association Committee and had provided religious services at the Smithville-Western Care Center for the past 20 years.

Schlarb of Wooster; three daughters, Mrs. William (Debra) Dyke of West Salem, Mrs. Alan (Linda) Streit and Mrs. Robert (Jane) Herald, both of Wooster; two sisters, Mrs. Gordon (Dorothy) Collins of Coshocton and Mrs. Byron (Pauline) Boose of Dayton; and eight grandchildren. In addition to his parents, a daughter and three brothers are deceased.

Services were Sunday, Nov. 10, at the Grace Brethern Church in Wooster, with the Rev. Bob Fetterhoff officiating. Burial was in Sherwood Memorial Gardens. Arrangements were handled by McIntire, Davis & Greene Funeral Home. Memorial contributions could be made to the American Heart Association, Wayne County Branch, P.O. Box 267, Wooster, OH 44691.

Lorna J. Coutts

Lorna J. Coutts, 69, a resident of Buckhorn Village, formerly of 253 East Canal Street, Newcomerstown, died on Wednesday night, November 22, at Union Hospital, Dover.

Lorna was born in Plainfield on December 19, 1930, a daughter of the late Charles E. and Ethel F. Amore Angle. She was a graduate of Newcomerstown High School, class of 1948.

Lorna was a homemaker for all her adult life. She was employed as secretary for the late Rev. William Calvert, St. Paul Lutheran Church, Newcomerstown, for 11 years. Lorna was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church and an affiliate member of First Presbyterian Church, Newcomerstown.

With First Presbyterian Church, she served as an elder, a session member, and belonged to the women's Patricia Circle and the Presbyterian women's organization. Lorna also belonged to the women's Bingo Club and enjoyed sewing and piano playing as her favorite leisure activities.

In addition to her parents, Lorna was also preceded in death by a grandson, Kevin V. Coutts, Newcomerstown, who died in 1992, a granddaughter, Kelly L. Coutts, Gnadenuhnten, who died in 1984, a sister, Lorena J. Hart, Dennison, and two brothers-in-law, George Dilly, Indiana, and Roy Ball, Kentucky.

Lorna is survived by three sons and two daughters: James E. and Chris Coutts, Lower Burrell, Pennsylvania, Curtis D. and Kathy S. Coutts, Gnadenuhnten, and David L. and Rose M. Coutts, Caroline J. and Michael M. Tipple, Sr., and Kerry L. and David M. Addy, all of Newcomerstown. There are also 10 grandchildren, two step grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. Lorna also is survived by a sister, Dorothy F. Ball, Cadiz, Kentucky, and a brother-in-law, Russell W. Hart, Newcomerstown.

Funeral services were held on Monday morning, November 27, from the Ourant Funeral Home. Pastor William C. Haggis II officiated. Burial followed at Plainfield Cemetery, Coshocton County.

Memorials may be made in Lorna's name to the Rebuilding Fund, St. Paul Lutheran Church, 108 South River Street, Newcomerstown, or the Arthritis Foundation.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our mother
Lorna Coutts
for her birthday
Dec. 19th
"HEAVEN"

I see the countless Christmas trees
Around the world below
With tiny lights like Heaven's stars
Reflecting in the snow.

The sight is so spectacular,
Please wipe away that tear,
For I am spending Christmas
With Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear,
But the sounds of music can't compare
With the Christmas choir up here.

For I have no words to tell you the joy their voices bring,
For it is beyond description
To hear an angel sing.

I can't tell you of the splendor
Or the peace here in this place.
Can you just imagine Christmas
With our Savior, face to face?

Please let your hearts be joyful
And let your spirit sing,
For I'm spending Christmas in Heaven
And I'm walking with the King!

Evelyn F. Peitz

Class of '50 has reunion

The Newcomerstown High School Class of 1950 held its 40th year reunion on July 7 at Andy's Restaurant in Coshocton.

Dale Thompson of Iowa Park, Texas, was master of ceremonies. The Rev. Donald Silverthorne gave the invocation, with six deceased class members being remembered.

Table decorations featured the class colors and flowers. Red carnations and candles and candleholders were given as prizes.

Classmates attended from Texas, Alabama, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Arkansas, Kansas, Georgia and Ohio. Eugene Riffle, a teacher, also attended.

The class voted to donate $100 to the Christina McMillen Fund towards an elevator at the Newcomerstown Public Library, and $100 to the Trojan Pride Fund.

The reunion committee included Janice (Rogers) Kohl, Mary (Kohler) Watts, Norma (Johnson) Schreiner, Marjorie (Wearsch) Hart, Patty (Silverthorne) Keffer and Marilyn (Kohler) Atkinson.

The same committee will plan the class's next reunion in 1995.

High School Song Alma Mater

Through the halls of our dear high school
Many time we pass,
But the happy days we spend here
All must end at last.

CHORUS

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
N.H.S. we praise
Hail the orange and black forever,
Alma Mater Days.

Always we will love and serve thee,
Hail from all the rest
Here's a toast to you, our high school
Our Dear N. H. S.

Mr. & Mrs. E.D. Hamsher, Superintendent of Newcomerstown Schools
Mr. Farrill Sharrock, Master of Ceremonies
Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Braden, Class Guests

The program for the evening is a part of your booklet but it would be remiss not to mention that Farrill's jokes were never any better received. I wish you could have heard him. Mr. Hamsher very eloquently brought us up to date on the current building and curriculum programs at N.H.S. Mr. Hamsher noted that today's youth have to be much better prepared at graduation than when we graduated fifteen years ago. Newcomerstown with it's new high school building and expanded curriculum is meeting this challenge. Grades 9 thru 12 will attend the new building. The existing high school building will become a "middle school" for grades 6 thru 8. Foreign language and expanded science courses are planned for the "middle school" grades.

Mr. Braden made brief remarks concerning his remembrances of our class.

A brief business meeting was conducted. Mary Ann Schworm and Ruth Stocker were elected to be the chairman and vice chairman, respectfully for the 20th year reunion. Mrs. Schworm asked that each class member to please keep her advised of any changes of addresses which may come about over the next five years.

Awards were presented to the following.

Least Hair ----- Willis Tufford -----Comb & Brill Cream

Most Recently Married ----- Russ Neal-----Geritol

Youngest Child ----- Joan Wiley-----Rattle & Oil

Most Children ----- Mary Weidger -----Birth Control Pills

Traveled Greatest Distance --- Bob Lehman-----Air Ring

Center-pieces were won by Mrs. Jack Foraker, Allen Hennis & Bob Lehman.

Pictures were taken of those classmates in attendance. Mr. Lenzo said that he would send a print to anyone desiring same. The cost is $1.25 each and should be ordered directly through Lenzo Studio, Main Street, Newcomerstown, Ohio, 43832.

It should be noted that Mrs. Schworm was the "prime mover" of the booklet. She spent many hours typing and preparing the information.

It is the hope of the committee that you will enjoy reviewing the booklet and this report of the banquet. Also, that you will make plans to attend our 20th reunion. Only with 100% attendance can an evening of this type be a complete success.

NHS Class of 1953 reunites

The Newcomerstown High School class of 1953 held their 50th-year reunion over the weekend of Oct. 10-12. Some 30 classmates enjoyed food, fun and fellowship as guests of Don and Doris Best Friday evening (Oct. 10) at the old Ritz Theater building.

On Saturday (Oct. 11), several classmates toured the former high school building (Newcomerstown Middle School) and were amazed at the changes. They also toured the new high school with its recent renovations.

Seventy-six persons, including some 40 classmates, attended the reunion banquet held at Roscoe Village Warehouse Restaurant. Following a buffet dinner, the group "traveled down memory lane" as the Class Will and Letter were read, along with a class review of past reunions.

Sunday (Oct. 12) was a noon-time brunch hosted by Don and Shirley Norman at their Buckhorn Rd., Newcomerstown, home. The covered dish was attended by some 30 classmates.

The class held a meeting at April's Country Kitch'n Nov. 19 and planned to have a reunion in 2005 at Cy Young Park. The date and other details will be discussed at future meetings. The class also collected over $1,000 to donate to the Middle School for their trophy case in the new addition. Other donations may be forthcoming.

Class of '56 has 40th year reunion

The Newcomerstown High School class of 1956 held their 40th reunion Sept. 13 and 14. On Friday evening, 41 attended a barbecue at Hickory Flats Golf Course.

Catherine McCrea, principal of Newcomerstown Middle School (formerly Newcomerstown High School) opened the "old high school" Saturday morning for a tour "down memory lane." Several classmates commented on what good condition the building is in and also that the building seemed much smaller.

Saturday afternoon included a tour of the Temperance Tavern Museum given by Barb Scott. Members of the class encourage anyone who hasn't visited the museum to do so. Another highlight of the day was a visit to the home of a teacher, Gene Riffle. He gave a grand tour of the home and the class enjoyed learning about his trains and seeing his collection of clocks.

In the evening, 62 attended a buffet dinner at the Holiday Inn, New Philadelphia. Marshall Julien was master of ceremonies. Old pictures, reminiscing about school days and where places used to be located on Main St. was enjoyed while music from the 1950's played in the background.

Classmates were present from Ohio, California, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Kentucky and Wisconsin.

The reunion committee included chairman Dan Froelich, Marshall Julien, Betty Berkshire, Gary Courtwright, Role Walters, Martha Shaffer and Judy Conley. Mrs. Berkshire made centerpieces of carnations and also offered the prayer.

MRS. NORMAN

Gary Wigfield, 15, Instantly Killed as Truck Leaves Road

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon for Gary Lynn Wigfield, 15, who was instantly killed when a truck in which he was riding plunged more than 100 feet off the road into a field.

Gary, who was a high school junior, died of a broken neck. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wigfield, Cross st.

Three other high school youths were injured in the accident which occurred Thursday at 12:30 p. m. on township road 108 on Smith's hill about seven-tenths of a mile south of Newcomerstown.

Injured were Richard Kahler, 16, 298 McKinley ave., Gary Beal, 17, and Junior Lee Foraker, 16, both of RD 1.

THE BEAL YOUTH suffered lacerations of both arms, face and head and the Kayler boy sustained bruises and abrasions of the body. Both were admitted to Co-shocton hospital but were later dismissed.

Young Foraker received contusions to the right hip and thigh and was treated at the office of a local physician.

The state highway patrol and members of the Newcomerstown police force investigated the accident. The Kahler youth, driver of the pickup truck, had been given the vehicle to drive to school because it was raining.

He apparently lost control of the truck as it was coming down the hill. The truck skidded sideways before plunging off the road.

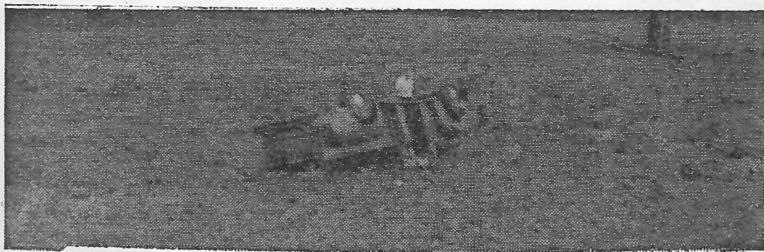

Wigfield and Foraker were riding the back of the truck and Beal was with Kahler in the cab. All were thrown clear of the truck which went 66 feet before landing on its top and then bounced 44 feet more before landing on its wheels and rolling over again.

A WITNESS called Newcomerstown police and an ambulance.

Gary was a member of the First Baptist Sunday school and the Youth Council. He was born Oct. 20, 1938.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. James Lehman, Neighbor st., his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tedrick and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Adam Wigfield, all of Newcomerstown.

Students of Newcomerstown high school were dismissed by classes Friday afternoon to go to the Bonnell Funeral Home from where funeral services were held. Burial was in West Lawn cemetery.
