ASSUMES CLASS PRESIDENCY

Mrs. Earl Reed, new president of the Newcomerstown Business and Professional Women's club, is shown receiving the club gavel from Mrs. J. P. Burge, the retiring president, following installation of new officers of the club Tuesday night at a dinner meeting at Stoffer's restaurant.

Other new officers are vice-president, Mrs. Wallace Curtiss; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Kinsey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert Dungan, and treasurer, Mrs. John McKean.

Mrs. Reed, Mrs. George Sager and Mrs. Curtiss with Mrs. Frank LaPorte, member of the local club and director of District 8, are in Cincinnati attending the Ohio Federation meeting.

New Officers of BPW Club Installed Following Dinner

Past President Edith Lee conducted an impressive installation service Tuesday evening when new officers of the Business and Professional Women's club were installed following a dinner meeting at Stoffer's restaurant.

Installed were Alma Reed, president; Evelyn Curtiss, vice-president; Jean Kinsey, recording secretary; Olive Dungan, corresponding secretary; Dorothy McKean, treasurer.

The installation took place before a setting of wrought iron candelabra with a large floor basket of iris and other spring flowers.

The invocation was given by Carol

Steffen, and dinner was served to 58 members and guests at tables decorated with small pots of white petunias, which were the favors, white tapers in crystal holders and wide strips of crepe paper down the tables. There were also arrangements of spring flowers on the fireplace and piano.

Guests were St. Jean Farrar, Ft. Myer, Va., Mrs. Graham Marshall, Mrs. R. A. MacQueen, Mrs. S. A. Neighbor and Mrs. Robert Denham.

Miss Sue Kohl, a new member, was presented.

During the business meeting in charge of the retiring president, Susan Burge, Olive Dungan reported a total of $1125 received to date in the Cancer drive.

The tea for senior girls to be held next Tuesday at the Presbyterian church was discussed. Plans were made to attend the state convention in Cincinnati this week-end, and invitations were read from the Dover-New Philadelphia club to a dinner meeting Thursday night, May 27, at the Elks club in New Philadelphia, and an installation tea at the Cadiz club Sunday, June 6.

The club voted to again sponsor a Little League team, and Joan McPherson announced there would be painting of the benches at Cy Young park next Wednesday afternoon.

The club also voted to continue the calendar project for another year.

New members in the past year, Pauline Funk, Helen Loveless, Ruth Domenico, Patsy Beiter, Ida Ortt, Virginia Bond and Sue Kohl, were initiated by Esta Knowles.

The guest speaker for the evening was William Steis, manager of radio station WJER in Dover, who used as his topic, "Sound and Fury," telling of the advertising phase of a radio station.

Mr. Steis was presented by Mary Kohler, chairman of the radio and television committee. Ida Ortt sang three numbers with Margaret Gaskill as accompanist. The new president spoke briefly and presented a past president's pin to Mrs. Burge.

The annual club picnic will be June 15.

The new president and vice-president, with Mrs. LaPorte, district director, will leave tomorrow to attend the convention in Cincinnati. Several other members plan to go Saturday.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 27, 1954

Twenty-one girls from the graduating class of the Newcomerstown high school were guests at a tea given Tuesday night in Fellowship hall of the Presbyterian church by the Business and Professional Women's club.

The party was in charge of the public affairs committee. Mrs. T. F. Baily gave the invocation and the club president, Mrs. J. P. Burge, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Charles Phillips, advisor to the seniors, gave the response. The seniors introduced themselves and told of their plans for the future.

The program included vocal solos by Mrs. Paul Ortt, with Mrs. R. Lyle Gaskill accompanist; skit, Mrs. Carl Krebs Jr., Mrs. Wallace Curtiss, Mrs. Bernard Goodall, Mrs. William Thomas, Misses Melba and Carol Steffen.

Decorations included a large bowl of red roses, the class flowers, on the refreshment table, with pots of ruffled petunias in each window. The roses were presented the girls as favors.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader

Prayer "The Collect"

In Unison

Solo: "Pledge to the Flag"(Mallott) Virginia Engelken
Accompanied by Ada Louise Weishaar

RESPONSIVE READINGS:

Leader: "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, and the people whom He hath chosen for an inheritance.
Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any nation.

When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn!"

All join in singing:

"O beautiful for spacious skies for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!"

Leader: And all these blessings shall overtake thee:
Blessed shalt thou be in city and in field; Blessed shalt be the fruit of thy labor and thy ground; Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in and when thou goest out; Blessed shalt thou be in basket and store.

In Unison: Proclaim Liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof; Loose the bands of wickedness, and undo the heavy burdens! Let the oppressed go free.
Break every yoke!

"O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern impassioned stress A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!

America! America! God mend thy ev'ry flaw, Confirm thy soul in self control, Thy liberty in law!"

Leader: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness;

that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

In Unison: With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and orphan, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.

"O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife Who more than self their country loved, And mercy more than life!

America! America! May God thy gold refine, Till all success be nobleness, And ev'ry gain divine!"

Leader: God hath made of one blood all nations of men, and we are his children, brothers and sisters all. We are citizens of these United States, and we believe our flag stands for self-sacrifice, for the good of all the people.
We want, therefore, to be true citizens of our great country and will show our love for her by our works.

In Unison: Our country does not ask us to die for her welfare; she asks us to live for her and so to live and so to act that her government may be pure, her officers honest, and every corner of her territory shall be a place fit to grow the best men and women who shall rule over her.

"O beautiful for patriot dream, That sees beyond the years, Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!

America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown
thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!"

"I SPEAK FOR DEMOCRACY" Elizabeth Ellen Evans

Solo: "The Lord in my Shepherd" Virginia Engelken

34TH ANNUAL CONVENTION

CINCINNATI

MAY 21-23, 1954

NETHERLAND PLAZA HOTEL

Theme: ADVENTURE IN ACHIEVEMENT

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face—without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all, and oh, Lord God, let us forget not to be kind!

(Tune, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds")

Our emblem binds us all
In one great sisterhood;
It bids us hear our conscience call
For nobler womanhood.

God guide us when we wear
This emblem on our heart;
And keep us true and always fair.
God bless us as we part.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Officers of the Business and Professional Women's Club who were installed were (left to right): Mrs. Alma Reed, president; Mrs. Evelyn Curtiss, vice president; Mrs. Jean Kinsey, recording secretary; Mrs. Olive Dugan, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy McKean, treasurer.

BPW Club Holds Installation

NEWCOMERSTOWN — Officers were installed when the Business and Professional Women's Club held a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Stoffer's Restaurant with 58 members and guests present.

Guests were Sgt. Jean Farrar, Ft. Myers, Va., Mesdames Graham Marshall, Russell MacQueen, Robert Denham and S. A. Neighbor.

The program was in charge of the radio and television committee, Miss Mary Kohler, chairman. It included three songs by Mrs. Paul Ort, two of which were sung in Spanish. Mrs. R. L. Gaskill was accompanist.

During the meeting plans were made to entertain the senior girls with a tea at Fellowship Hall, Presbyterian Church, May 25 at 8 o'clock.

The club also voted to sponsor a team in the Little League again this year.

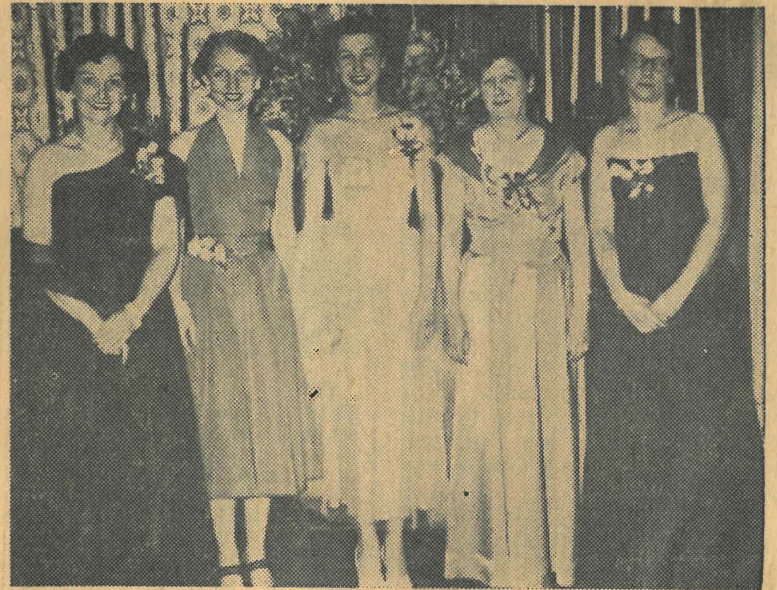

One new member was accepted and seven were initiated with Mrs. E. V. Knowles in charge of the ceremonies. Mrs. Norman McPherson announced that the park benches at Cy Young Park would be painted, May 26.

It was also announced that to date the Cancer Drive fund totals $1,125.

Officers were installed by Edith Lee, a past president. They are Alma Reed, president; Evelyn Curtiss, vice president; Dorothy McKean, treasurer; Jean Kinsey, recording secretary; and Olive Dugan, corresponding secretary.

The club collect was repeated in memory of Mrs. W. A. Beers, a charter member of the club, whose death occurred Monday, May 17.

Mrs. Bess La Porte, district director, Mrs. Reed, new president, and Mrs. Curtiss, new vice president, leave Friday to attend the state convention at Cincinnati. Others of the club also plan to attend.

B. P. W. OFFICERS, who were installed recently, are, left to right, Alma Reed, president; Evelyn Curtiss, vice president; Jean Kinsey, recording secretary; Olive Dungan, corresponding secretary; Dorothy McKean, treasurer.

B. P. W. CLUB MEETS WITH 58 PRESENT

The Business and Professional Women's Club held a picnic supper in the Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian Church, June 15.

There were 58 present including guests, Mrs. Thomas Fox of Charlestown, W. Va., Mrs. E. C. Shoemaker, Mrs. Clifford Hosfelt, Miss June Carney and Kathy Zeigler.

Invitations were read to the meeting of the B. P. W., June 28, at Coshocton and those wishing to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Bess LaPorte.

A report of the recent convention was given and the new president, Mrs. Alma Reed announced her committee chairmen. She also stated that she had received a certificate of appreciation from the National Heart Association for the fine work done by the local club.

The program also included showing of slides by Miss Carol Steffen and Mrs. Reed.

There will be no more meetings until Fall.

DUES-PAYING TIME

Mrs. Earl Reed, new president of the Business and Professional Women's club, announces that due to a change in the by-laws of the National Federation, the deadline for payment of club dues is July 15. Dues should be handed to Mrs. John McKean, treasurer, by Saturday, July 10. A penalty will be imposed after that date.

Colored slides of the installation of new officers of the Business and Professional Women's club at the meeting one month ago were shown by Miss Carol Steffen Tuesday night when the club held an indoor picnic at the Presbyterian church.

Colored slides of the regional meeting of the Federation held last year at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and travel pictures were shown by the new president, Alma Reed.

Fifty-eight members and guests attended the meeting, which was in charge of the finance committee. Guests were Mrs. Thomas Fox, Charleston, W. Va., Mrs. E. C. Shumaker, Mrs. Clifford Hosfelt, Misses June Carney and Cathy Zeigler.

The report of the auditing committee was given by Jen Evea Raine, and the retiring president, Susan Burge, read invitations to the birthday party of the Uhrichsville club Wednesday night; the Salem club June 21; Columbiana, June 22, and the Coshocton club June 28 at 7 p. m. at Riverside Inn. Members who can attend any of these meetings are asked to contact Bess LaPorte.

The new president, Mrs. Reed, reported on the state convention held recently in Cincinnati, and named the following chairman and co-chairmen of committees for the year: membership, Mabel Ady and Betty Hackenbracht; public affairs, Jen Evea Raine and Dorothy Heller; news service, Virginia Yingling and Frances Bean; education and vocations, Gladys Beall.

International relations, Carol Steffen and Florence Denham; legislation, Norma Rutledge and Betty Cordrey; bulletin, Melba Steffen and Margaret Carr; health and safety, Ruby Hayes and Mary Katherine Zeigler; radio and television, Betty King and Lucille Beiter; national security, Helen Glazer and Thelma Starkey; music, Virginia Marlowe and Margaret Gaskill; scrap book, Frances Bean; cards, Helen Riffle; flower committee, Jo Little and Maxine Davis; hospitality, Patsy Beiter.

Mrs. Reed read a certificate of appreciation from the American Heart Association for the assistance given by the club in the recent drive for funds.

District BPW Meet Held Here Sunday

A meeting of officers and chairmen of District 8, Business and Professional Women's Club, was held Sunday with sessions held at the American Legion Home at 10 a. m. and in the afternoon.

Mrs. Bess LaPorte, district director, presided and the meeting was called for the purpose of planning the year's program and for the district meeting to be held Oct. 10.

Twenty-three were present representing seven of the nine clubs in the district. Also present was Mrs. Myrtle Reiss, state chairman of the radio and TV committee.

Maude Scott Taken at 80

Mrs. Maude Hortense Scott, 80, prominent resident, died Saturday evening at 11:15 following a two-month illness. Mrs. Scott observed her 80th birthday on Friday.

She was born at Uhrichsville, July 9, 1874, a daughter of Wesley Browning and Sara Clifton Sulzer, but the greater part of her life has been spent in Newcomerstown.

She graduated from the Newcomerstown high school in 1891 and attended a business school in Topeka, Kansas for one year.

She was married March 29, 1894 to S. W. Scott in Chicago. He died in 1951.

Surviving are a daughter Lucille of the home, a son V. S. Scott, Sr., Newcomerstown, two grandsons and two great-grandchildren. A sister and a daughter are deceased.

Mrs. Scott engaged in a number of activities. She was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church, the W. S. C. S., Oriental chapter, O. E. S.; Past Matrons Association of Oriental chapter; Frees Rebekah lodge, and a member of the Past Noble Grands Association of the lodge; member of the Daughters of Union Veterans Circle and charter member of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mrs. Scott operated a grocery store on River st. for 19 years. She served as city treasurer for two terms and was postmaster from 1930 to 1935. She was also past general chairman of the Tuscarawas county Republican Executive committee and had been local correspondent for the Daily Times for 35 years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Trinity Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. E. R. Haines and burial was made in the E. State st. cemetery.

Memorial services were conducted at the Ourant Funeral Home, Monday evening by Frees Rebekah lodge and on Tuesday evening by Oriental Chapter, and a visitation made by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

President's Message

Dear fellow club member,

We are starting another club year together - a year which will be an "Adventure in Achievement" for every-one of us. If each of us will add her bit, I am sure this year will be a real "Adventure in Achievement."

I am keenly aware of the honor of being elected President of this club and the confidence placed in me. You are a splendid group to work with and for. Without your full cooperation I can do nothing. Won't you please make it a point to attend all meetings? I do need the help of every member.

How about 100% attendance at our first meeting. Will you be there?

Your friend,

Alma Reed

- Program - - - -The Public Affairs Committee with Jen Eeva Raine, chairman and Dorothy Heller, co-chairman will be in charge of our first meeting. Barbara Atkinson, Duke Heller and John McFadden will be our speakers for the evening. They will speak to us on their experience at Buckeye State Summer Camp. This should be very interesting to us all. There will also be singing by the club group.
- District Meeting - - - -Our District Meeting this year will be held at Cadiz on Sunday, October 10th. Make plans now to attend this meeting. Let's try to have a good crowd attend this District Meeting.
- Candy - - - - -There will be candy available at the meetings for your convenience.
- Dues - - - - -Don't forget to pay your dues. They are $5.00 per member, plus 25¢ penalty and are payable to the Treasurer, Dorothy McKean.
- Business Women's Week - - - -October 10-16th is Business Women's Week and is observed throughout the United States.
- Reservations - - - -Don't forget to make your reservations early this year. Let us try to avoid that last minute confusion by having to add more tables, etc., as we have had to do in the past, because of our negligence.
- Sales Tax - - - -SAVE YOUR SALES TAX STAMPS

Three to Speak At Club Meeting

Miss Atkinson

McFadden

Heller

Miss Barbara Atkinson, Duke Heller and John McFadden will speak on their visits to Buckeye Girls' and Boys' State this summer at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at Stoffer's restaurant.

This first meeting of the new year will be in charge of the public affairs committee. Miss Jen Ewea Raine is chairman and Mrs. Alfred Heller co-chairman.

B. P. W. MEETING

The Business and Professional Women held their meeting Tuesday evening at Stoffer's with 73 in attendance, including five guests Mrs. Frank L. Stare, Ellenton, Fla., Mrs. C. F. Biggs, Mrs. John Atkison, Edna Heller and Wanda Rogers.

Mrs. Thad Bailey gave the invocation. The dinner tables were decorated in keeping with the season, with the Trojan colors of Orange and Black, football balloons and fall flowers. The business was in charge of the new president, Mrs. Alma Reed.

Miss Jen Eva Raine, chairman of Public Affairs committee, introduced Barbara Atkinson, who told of her experiences at Girl's State at Capital University this past summer, and Duke Heller and John McFadden, who spoke on Boy's State at Camp Perry.

Mrs. Bailey who recently returned from Norway, brought greetings from the B. & P. W. Clubs of Norway. She was entertained in the home of Mrs. Randi Eckhoff, Oslo, a former secretary of the Norway Federation. Mrs. Joe Visintainer, chairman of the finance committee, presented the budget for the year. Two were voted to membership. Plans were made to have a float in the Halloween parade and Virginia Marlowe was named chairman of that committee. Also planned was a display at the Cub Scout's fair with Mrs. Thelma Tschudy and Mrs. Fannie Miskimen in charge.

The president announced the fall conference to be held at Cadiz, Oct. 10th. Those who plan to attend are to notify the president by Oct. 4th. Business Women's week was discussed and the club will attend the College Street Methodist church Oct. 17th. Preceding the church service, those attending will have breakfast at the Luncheonette at 9 a. m. An invitation was received from the New Philadelphia-Dover Club to attend the style show to be held Oct. 7th in the Dover high school auditorium.

The club voted to purchase pictures for the members of the B. & P. W. Little League team.

The meeting closed with a poem by the president, in memory of Mrs. Maude Scott.

Delegates to Girls' and Boys' States Speak at BPW Meeting

Deep appreciation for the opportunity to attend Buckeye Girls' State was expressed by Miss Barbara Atkinson, and Buckeye Boys' State by Duke Heller and John McFadden in their talks to the members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at a dinner meeting at Stoffer's restaurant.

Miss Atkinson, who was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, told of the mythical state she attended this summer at Capital university in Columbus, with a total of 554 girls from the junior class of high schools all over the state registered.

She was elected to the city council of Woolsey, her mythical city. Each city was named for a famous woman, and her particular city was named for Sarah Chauncey Woolsey, writer of children's stories.

She told of the many interesting features of the week, including the election of officials of city, county and state, comparable to those now elected by adults, told of a tour of the municipal buildings of Columbus and a tea given by Mrs. Frank Lausche, wife of the governor.

Miss Atkinson said what she learned about government will be of value to her in her senior year in high school.

Heller told of the 981 boys who attended Boys' State at Camp Perry near Lake Erie, and of his being elected to the city council of Jensen. He and John McFadden, who with two other boys were sponsored by the American Legion and Elks, told many interesting things concerning Boys' State.

McFadden said the purpose of Boys' State is to teach government through practical application, then to return and give talks to help spread understanding of our system of government.

He was elected to the city council of his city, Stone, named for a past commander of an American Legion post.

The young people were introduced by Miss Jen Eeva Raine, chairman of the public affairs committee of the club. Dorothy Heller was co-chairman and others on the committee were Eva McCleary, Irene Beauregard, Coloma Cooper, Katherine Raine, Nina Moore and Irene Hodapp.

Berdene Baily gave the invocation. Group singing was led by Joann McPhersor with Virginia Yingling at the piano.

During the business meeting in charge of the new president, Alma Reed, the budget for the year was submitted to the club by the chairman of the finance committee, Mary Visentainer.

Two were voted to membership, a float was planned for the Halloween parade, with Virginia Marlowe chairman, and the minstrel discussed.

Selma Tschudy and Fannie Miskimen were named to take care of a display at the Cub Scout fair Saturday at the American Legion home.

Mrs. Reed stressed the district meeting Oct. 10 at the Cadiz Country Club, and those who can attend are asked to contact her by Oct. 4.

Business Women's Week, Oct. 10 to 17, was discussed and the club will attend services at the College Street Methodist church Sunday, Oct. 17, with breakfast at the Luncheonette at 9 a. m.

President Reed read an invitation from the Dover-NewPhiladelphia club to a style show they are presenting Oct. 7 at the Dover high school auditorium. Mrs. Reed has tickets.

The club voted to purchase pictures for the Little League team sponsored by the club.

Berdene Baily brought greetings from the Business and Professional club of Oslo, Norway, through Mrs. Randi Eckhoff, former secretary of the Norwegian Federation. Mr. and Mrs. Baily were entertained in the Eckhoff home on their recent trip to Norway.

Dinner was served at tables decorated with fall flowers, football balloons and orange and black tapers, honoring the Trojan football team of the Newcomerstown high school. On each chair was an inflated seat cushion from the Booster club.

Present were 64 members and the following guests: Mrs. Frank L. Stare Sr., Ellentown, Fla., Mrs. Charles Biggs, Mrs. R. L. Shoemaker, Mrs. John Atkinson, Misses Edna Heller, Wanda Rogers and the three speakers.

Hellers and BPW Win Final Games

The Little League season ended last week with Hellers and BPW winning the final games.

Wednesday night BPW defeated PTA 11-5 in a game that was forfeited because an injury reduced the PTA squad to eight players. Catcher Brown was struck by a foul ball in the third inning and had to leave the game. Knutsen was the PTA pitcher.

With Brown out of the game, BPW loaned PTA another player and the game continued after the forfeiture. BPW was leading 6-2 when the injury occurred. For BPW Morrison and Egler pitched and Hogue and Whyde caught.

On Thursday night Hellers defeated Clows 4-2. Art pitched a no-hit game for Hellers but four errors accounted for the scoring. Mathews was the Heller catcher Fantin and Baker were the Clow batteries.

Final standings:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Clows	7	3	.700
Elks	6	4	.600
BPW	6	4	.600
Hellers	5	5	.500
PTA	4	6	.400
Rotary	2	8	.200

MUSIC STUDY CLUB

The first meeting of the new Fall Season of the Music Study Club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. G. W. Gross, Chapman ave, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Donald Doss, club director, gave a short story of the Hymn for the month, "Oh Love that Wilt Not Let Me Go", which was sung then by the group.

Mrs. Russell MacQueen, program chairman gave a synopsis of the program for the year. Mrs. Walter Bower reviewed "Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan and Mrs. Frank Warren told of Aaron Copeland's opera "The Tender Land." A short business session was in charge of the president. The club voted to have their meeting dates on the B. P. W. Calendar. Three were voted to membership.

The program included piano numbers "My Romance" from Jumbo and "All Points West" both by Rogers and Hart, by Mrs. W. A. Lehman. Mrs. Charles Leiser presented two vocal numbers, "Some Enchanted Evening" from South Pacific and "Surry with the Fringe on Top" from Oklahoma, by Rogers and Hammerstein, accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Norman at the piano. Mrs. Norman also gave two piano numbers. "Chanson" by Friml and "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Rogers and Hammerstein.

Refreshments were served to twenty members.

At the Presbyterian church on Oct. 20th, an old fashioned singing school will be held. This will be an open meeting and guest night, with Folk and Indian Songs, Negro Spirituals and church music of all types. A special invitation is extended to the Choral Society and Choirs of other churches.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1954

MAPLEWOOD P. T. A.

First meeting of the Maplewood P. T. A. was held Wednesday evening. The meeting opened with group singing led by Mrs. E. D. Brenneman. Mrs. Wayne Dorsey was accompanist. Mrs. Paul Ortt, president, led the Pledge of Allegiance and Rev. E. R. Haines of Trinity Methodist church gave the invocation.

During the business session, the group decided to purchase pictures of the Little League ball team for each member of the League. They will also buy kitchen equipment to totaling $100.00 to be used by the social committee. Dates of all meetings of the P. T. A. will be placed on the new B. P. W. calendar.

Mr. Geese, principal of Maplewood school, introduced the teachers of that school. Committee chairmen are as follow: program, Mrs. Burton Hothem; membership, Mrs. William Farrell; magazine, Mrs. Louis Craigo; publicity, Mrs. Dean Palmer; projects, Mrs. Wallace Bower; ways and means, Eugene Parks.

A program included a vocal solo by Walter Brenneman, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Gaskill; vocal duet by Martha and Mary Jo Dorsey, accompanied by Janet Hothem, and a piano solo by Janet Hothem. Colored slides of a Western Trip were shown by Miss Jen Eva Raine. A social hour closed the meeting. October 13th will be the date of the next meeting.

CALENDAR PROJECT

For the fourth consecutive year members of the Business and Professional Women's club are at tempting to contact everyone in the community to see if they wish to have their name listed on their birthday on the community calendar.

Mrs. Joe Visentainer, chairman of the finance committee of the club this year, is chairman of the calendar project. Mrs. Earl Reed is president of the club.

On the front of the calendar, as in the past, will be a cut of the Heller Bros. Co. plant, and meeting dates of organizations are listed as well as birthdays and anniversaries of people and firms in the town.

Persons who would like to get on the calendar but have not as yet been contacted may get in touch with any member of the club.

The proceeds from the calendars will be used for projects of the club, as has been the custom in the past, according to Mrs. Visentainer.

OFFICERS INSTALLED AT B. P. W. MEETING

Spring flowers made a beautiful setting for the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club held Tuesday evening, May 17 at Stoffer's Restaurant. The fireplace was centered with a large arrangement of Weigela and mockorange blossoms.

Officers were installed by the past president, Mrs. Parker Burge against a background of baskets of iris and two seven-branched candelabra. The club collect was used as the installation theme and installed were Evelyn Curtiss, president; Dorothy McKean, vice president; Betty King, recording secretary; Norma Rutledge, corresponding secretary, Margery Fletcher, treasurer.

The program was in charge of the music, radio and TV committee, Mrs. Betty King, Mrs. Virginia Marlowe, Mrs. Lucille Beiter and Mrs. Margaret Gaskill. Group singing was enjoyed and entertainment was furnished by Al Mathias of Cambridge, magician.

Dinner was served to 62 members and guests, Mrs. Donald Addy, Mrs. Donald Kopes, Mrs. Dan McConnell and Miss Kathy Zeigler at tables centered with Maypoles and miniature dolls dressed in pastel colors.

During the business in charge of the retiring president, Alma Reed, it was decided to again sponsor a Little League team and plans were discussed for the safety check, the club is sponsoring.

Ruby Hayes gave a final report on the Cancer fund which totals $860.97. Bess LaPorte, district director announced the leadership training school to be held here June 26, and the state convention at Dayton next week. Twelve new members were received.

The retiring president, Alma Reed gave a brief history of the Federation and the local club and introduced the past president, who were Jen Eeva Raine, Margaret Carr, Virginia Yingling, Bess LaPorte, Carol Steffen, Charlotte Metzger, Edith Lee and Susan Burge.

At the close of the program the retiring president presented her gavel to Mrs. Curtiss who in turn presented her with a past president's pin.

October Meeting

- - - - - The News Service Committee with Virginia Yingling, chairman and Frances Bean, co-chairman will be in charge of this month's meeting.

Mrs. W. V. Buchanan of New Philadelphia, Ohio will be our guest speaker and will review a popular book. We all enjoyed her so much when she was here several years ago and reviewed the book "Cheaper by the Dozen".

Attend Church

- - - - - Sunday, October 17th., we will observe B.P.W. Week by attending services at our President's church.

Breakfast will be served at 9:00 a.m. at the Luncheonette. At 10:30 a.m., the club will go in a group to the College Street Methodist Church.

New Members

- - - - - We are happy to welcome two new members, Doris Best and June Carney into our club.

Calendar

- - - - - To-date we have cleared $572.75 on our calendar. Thanks to Mary Visintainer, chairman of the Finance Committee and all her helpers who have worked so diligently on this project.

Candy

- - - - - GUESS WHAT! We have candy to sell. Good crunchy, crispy cans of Peanut Crunch. Buy now!

Stamps

- - - - - Are you hoarding your Sales Tax Stamps??? If not, then give them to our club. We need them badly. Don't forget to bring all you can find to our next meeting.

Hallowe'en Float

- - - - - Much progress has been made on the Hallowe'en Float for the big parade on October 29th. Virginia Marlowe has worked hard and spent many hours making this float.

Minstrel

- - - - - By "Bones" Steffen-

Yes, it's time again for our B.P.W. Minstrel. Have you been out to practice? Are you coming? We still need chorus members, and we are counting on each of you to do his part. Things are progressing very well. Those who have been practicing seem very enthusiastic, and we're hoping we have a bigger and better show than last year. But that depends on you. If you have any suggestions to offer, please feel free to give them to me. We will welcome any suggestions, for only that way can we get the ideas of the whole club. Please watch the paper for the next practice and come out and join our chorus. Even if you don't think you have much voice we need you for moral support, because a big chorus really looks good. Just wait until you see our old gray mare, and our chorus of girls doing the Charleston as well as all the other surprises. Come on! We need you! Let's all get in the big B.P.W. Minstrel.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 21, 1954

Mrs. W. V. Buchanan of New Philadelphia gave a splendid talk on her recent trips to Alaska and South America at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at Stoffer's restaurant.

Mrs. Buchanan, who retired in June after serving four years as president of the National Council of Presbyterian Women, was introduced by Virginia Yingling, chairman of the news service committee. Frances Bean is co-chairman. The invocation was given by Irma Curtiss.

During the business meeting, conducted by President Alma Reed, further plans were discussed for the annual minstrel to be presented Nov. 18, 19 and 20, with rehearsals Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Leading building and Sunday at 2 at the high school.

Five were voted to membership and new members, June Carney, Doris Best and Mary Ann Kelly, were presented.

The president reported on the district meeting held at Cadiz Oct. 10.

The club voted to cooperate with other groups in entertaining Little League players with a banquet.

Dinner was served to 61 members and the following guests: Mrs. G. B. Brode, Mrs. Carl Krebs Sr., Mrs. William Ferrell, Mrs. Dan McConnell, Mrs. Ralph Dovenbarger, Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Frank Stare, Bradenton, Fla.

The tables were decorated with baskets of gourds, varicolored mums, black and orange tapers, pumpkins and black cats with clever favors at each place.

Because the date of the next meeting would be dress rehearsal for the minstrel, the meeting has been cancelled, and plans were discussed for the Christmas party with a one dollar gift exchange. Canned goods will also be brought to furnish baskets for needy families.

Large Crowd on Hand to Witness Halloween Parade

Several thousand spectators lined streets at Newcomerstown last night to witness the annual Halloween parade sponsored by the Newcomerstown Chamber of Commerce.

Music was provided by the Newcomerstown, West Lafayette, Stone Creek and Port Washington high school bands.

Leading the parade was a unit of the state highway patrol, followed by a color guard of World War II veterans, the two village fire trucks and the emergency truck.

The first of two convertibles carried Mayor Lorin Gadd of Newcomerstown, Mayor Ellwood Coutts of Port Washington and Mayor Wherley of Stone Creek.

In the second vehicle were the Newcomerstown homecoming queen, Miss Linda Smith, and two attendants, Miss Barbara Palmer and Miss Dorothy Postewaite. Herbert Hawkins of the Chamber of Commerce also was in this vehicle.

Next came several decorated school buses on which were signs urging a large vote for the school levy coming up for approval next Tuesday. Cub Scouts formed a unit, and the Trojans football squad and cheer leaders rode along in a truck float.

The float of the Business and Professional Women's club with a Cinderella motif, was judged the best. The Heller Bros. float depicting the manufacture and use of files won second award, and the float of Rainbow for Girls on a religious theme received third place. Cash awards were made. Other results:

Decorated pleasure cars: 1-Sorosis club, unusual display featuring 700 balloons, 2-Triosis.

Comic vehicles: 1-Barkers Gulf station; 2-Raymond Funk service station entry.

Cast Rehearsing for Women's Minstrel Show

If hours of practice and lots of hard work mean anything, this year's Business and Professional Women's Minstrel will be bigger and better than ever.

A chorus of 30 is practicing several nights a week under the direction of Virginia Yingling, with Hele Gefeller of New Philadelphia at the piano and "Buck" Wilkin on the drums.

Many who participated in the very successful minstre last year are again helping, with several new faces this year. Many novel specialities will be seen, and several good solists will appear on the program.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the club, and these may be exchanged for reserved seats at the Davis Drug the week of the minstrel. Dates this year are Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18, 19 and 20.

Capacity crowds, totaling more than 1500, attended the Business and Professional Women's Club minstrel Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights

The all-girl minstrel was directed by Miss Carol Steffen, who also was one of the premier end men. The show was considered one of the best presented by the group.

Marjorie Randles was interlocutor and the end men were Margaret Carr, Edith Lee, Ethel Johns, Mary Evans, Bess LaPorte, Frances Bean, Jean Kinsey and Kathy Leading with Joan McPherson and Miss Steffen as the premier end men.

Soloists were Thelma Hinds, Dorothy Martin, Olive MacQueen, Ida Ortt, Margaretta Brenneman, and Marjorie Feiber.

Specialty dancers were June Carney, Sue Kohl, Helen Schaar, Marjorie Fletcher and Eva McCleary. Alma Reed and Evelyn Curtiss presented their version of "Television's Tough on Love."

B. P. W. Minstrel Starts Thursday

All ten end men for the B. P. W. minstrel are prepared to keep you roaring with laughter, starting Thursday, Nov. 18. They are ready to give you their version of that talk of the town character "Jenny." Premier end men, Carol Steffen and Joan McPherson, will have you in tears as they sing, "It's a Cruel, Cruel World."

This year's show also features a trio composed of Olive MacQueen, Thelma Hinds and Margaretta Brenneman, in "Seeing Nellie Home." The chorus will be featured along with Marjorie Feiber in "Be a Clown," and such other numbers by the chorus include "When I Get You Alone Tonight," "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," and "A You're Adorable." Kathryn Leading and Eve McCleary will dance to the old familiar tune, "Dearie."

This year's show promises to be bigger and better than last year's. Tickets are still available. Ticket reservations may be made at Davis Drug store. The minstrel will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1954.

Minstrel Show At Newcomers Success

The first performance of a sparkling minstrel show was presented last night in Newcomerstown high school auditorium by members of the Business and Professional Women's Club there.

The second annual show will be repeated tonight and Saturday at 8 p. m. with all seats reserved.

Featuring numerous blacklight numbers, songs, dances and skits, the all-woman cast was heavily applauded at last night's final curtain. More than 40 musical numbers are being presented under the direction of Virginia Yingling with Helen Gefeller at the piano and Buck Wilkin at the drums.

The show is directed by Carol Steffen with Marjorie Randles as the interlocutor. The endmen include Edith Lee, Kathryn Leading, Jean Kinsey, Frances Bean and Mary Evans.

BPW Minstrel

Opens Nov. 18

Last minute rehearsing is being done by the Business and Professional Women of Newcomerstown for their "All Girl Minstrel" Nov. 18, 19, and 20.

Many of the cast are veterans of last year's show, but this year's show will have many new faces in the chorus as well as soloists.

Something new in stage setting and lighting will be used this year which should make this year's show quite a spectacle.

This year's show will present Marjorie Randles, again appearing as interlocutor for the minstrel cast. Ten end-men will be on hand to entertain you with songs, dances and jokes. End-men for this year's show are Marg Carr, Edith Lee, Ethel Johns, Mary Evans, Bess LaPorte, Frances Bean, Jean Kinsey and Kathy Leading, with Carol Steffen and Joan McPherson as premier end-men. They will present such numbers as Frances Bean and Edith Lee in "The Feminine Sex;" Mary Evans in "The Preacher and the Bear;" Joan McPherson in "The Red Red Robin;" Ethel Johns in "Woman" and Carol Steffen in "Doin' What Comes Naturally."

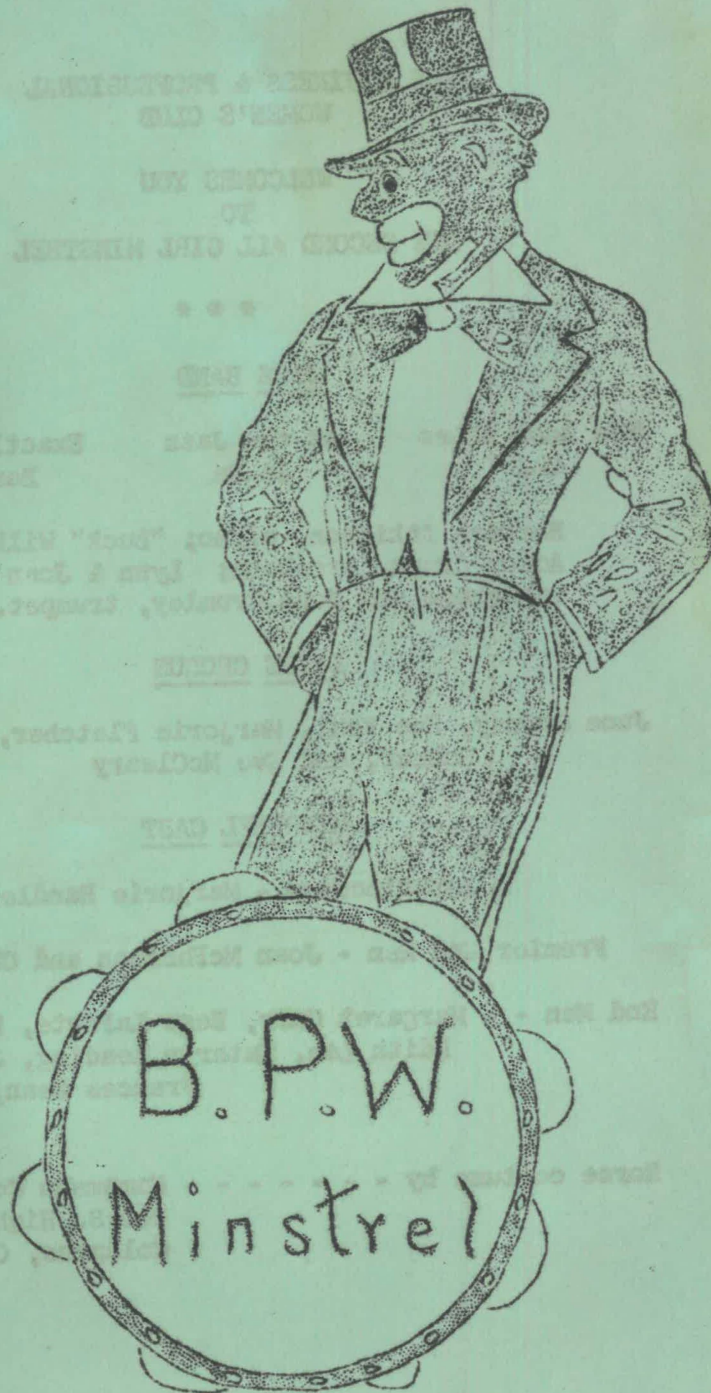

This year's soloists will be Thelma Hinds in "Can't Yo Hear Me Callin' Caroline," Dorothy Martin in "Farewell to Storyville," Olive McQueen in an outstanding negro spiritual "Gwin' to Hebbin" and Ida Ort in her Spanish presentation of "Jealously." Margaretta Brenneman will present that ever-popular "Chapel in the Moonlight," and Marjorie Feiber presents her version of "Keep on Smiling," which we know the audience will be doing during the entire performance.

As this year's specialty numbers B. P. W. presents a chorus of dancers composed of June Carney, Sue Kohl, Helen Sharr, Marjorie Fletcher, and Eva McCleary. Wait until you see the "Sheik of Araby" and his harem, as well as their version of the Charleston.

Alma Reed and Evelyn Curtiss, hit of last year's show again present another hit with their version of "Television's Tough on Love"

These and many other numbers with a chorus of 30 tend to make this year's show bigger and better than ever.

Tickets available from any club member and reserved seats may be gotten after Nov. 15th at Davis Drug Store. Dorothy McKean is chairman in charge of tickets.

6-Team Little League Opens

The Cy Young Little League season opened Monday evening at the park when Clows played Hellers. Clows won 22-11.

There are six teams in the league this year. They are sponsored by the Heller Brothers Co., James B. Clow and Sons, Rotary Club, Maplewood P. T. A., Business and Professional Women's Club and the Elks.

This is the second year of Little League baseball in Newcomers-town. Last year four teams were in the league.

There are about 75 boys between the ages of 8 and 12 in the organization. It is planned to have 12 players on each team.

A Pony League, for boys over 12, had been discussed but has not yet been organized. League officials said it could still be sponsored if an organization could be found to take charge.

Little League managers are:

Clows, Bob Leonhard and Dick Jurin; Hellers, Dean Palmer, Trig Shaw and Roger McCrone; PTA, Joe Tish and Burton Hothorn; BPW, Paul Hammersley and Paul Whitis; Rotary, Clyde Cooke and Glenn Bricker; Elks, Glenn Shaw and Ralph Heister.

Schedule; June 17, Clows vs. PTA; June 18, BPW vs. Elks; June 21, Heller vs. Rotary; June 22, Clows vs. BPW; June 23, Hellers vs. Elks.

WELCOME DECEMBER

Greetings to you, cold December,
Once again you grace life's scene
Time of many modulations
And of Christmas, red and green.
Month that ushers in the winter
And the icy winds that blow,
Period when nights are endless
And the skies are filled with snow.
Grand finale to the old year
And a prelude to the new
Time for plans and resolutions
That we try hard to pursue.
Month when hearts cannot be weary
For we celebrate the birth -
Of the infant who is Ruler
Of the heaven and the earth.
Period when children wonder
What dear Santa Claus will bring
And the air is filled with music
Carols that the angels sing.
Welcome to you, cold December
For you bring true love and cheer
Making hearts feel warm and happy
Every time you reappear.

Club Meeting - - - - The December meeting is in charge of the Hospitality Committee with Patsy Beiter, chairman and Margery Fletcher, co-chairman. Plan to attend this Christmas Party with a $1.00 Christmas exchange. Bring a gift for your guest if you invite someone. Let's try to have a 100% attendance. We hope Santa will be there to see us. Don't forget to bring a can of fruit or vegetables to this meeting for the needy. If anyone knows of a needy family, please inform the Hospitality Committee.

Entrance Fee - - - - Don't forget to bring one or more sales tax stamps with you to the meeting. We should have plenty of them now after doing our Christmas shopping. ONE STAMP OR MORE FOR ENTRANCE FEE TO THE B.P.W. MEETING.

New Members - - - - -We are happy to welcome the following new members to our club:

Clara Stewart	Helen Schaar	Ruth McFadden
Mary Ann Hursey		Iris Shoemaker

We shall look forward to seeing you at our meetings.

Candy - - - - - - - -Buy your candy now for the holidays. We have plenty on hand and will have it to sell at our meeting Tuesday night.

Committees - - - The following are assigned to the different committees:

June Carney - Hospitality
Mary Ann Hursey - International Relations
Iris Fruchey and Helen Schaar - Legislation
Ruth McFadden - Health & Safety
Iris Shoemaker & Doris Best - Radio & Television
Clara Stewart - National Security
Mary Mason & Doris Sharrock - Music
Cecil Cramlett - National Security (Name was cut off of programs)

Float - - - - - Hallowe'en Float - 1st prize - $75.00. Because of no bulletin last month we didn't get to extend our many, many thanks to Virginia Marlowe who gave so generously of her time, and who worked so diligently in making us one of the prettiest floats she has ever made. Also thanks to any member of the club for his fine support and cooperation in helping in any way with the float.

Minstrel - - - - Carol wishes to take this opportunity to thank everyone who gave so generously of their time and talent to make our second annual minstrel a real success. I think one of the nicest things that comes from our minstrels is the fact that we really get to know each other so much better by working together. We find that it is not our individual effort that makes a thing a success. By working together as a group, things that at one time sounded like "just talk" become a reality because of our combined effort. This working together then is really what our club should, and I think does stand for. It is impossible for me to thank each and everyone who helped, but no matter how little or how big the job was, you did it willingly. That's what made our show a success. Once again a great big THANKS.

Bones Steffen

THE NEW YEAR

We are standing on the threshold, we are in the opened door,
We are treading on the border land
we have never trod before.
Another year is opening, another year is gone,
We have passed the darkness of the night we're in the early morn.
We have left the fields behind us o'er which we scattered seed;
We have passed into the future
which none of us can read.
We hasten to fresh labor - to thrash
and reap and sow,
Then bid the New Year welcome and let the old year go!

Message from our - - -
President

-HAPPY NEW YEAR! May I start the New Year by expressing to each of you my deep appreciation for your cooperation.

The Dawn of a new year brings expectancy and hope - that eternal hope which keeps men's eyes on the stars. We resolve to work diligently that something worthwhile may be accomplished; to lend a helping hand where help is sorely needed; to tread carefully, lest we offend; to brighten the corner where we are. We want the world to be better for us, and for all mankind, and we gird ourselves to the task of helping to make it so.

May this year, so full of promise, bring unity, understanding, and knit closer our relationship together.

My best wishes for a peaceful, healthful and happy New Year.

Traffic Safety Stressed Here At Two Meetings

Last year Newcomerstown had 31 auto accidents resulting in seven deaths and injuries to 24.

In a campaign to cut this toll, and similar losses in other communities, two safety meetings were held in the high school auditorium last Thursday. They were sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The meeting Thursday afternoon was for students

Appearing on the platform were Supt. D. B. Roeder, Mayor Lorin D. Gadd, Harold McVicker, vice president of the Tuscarawas County Traffic and Safety Committee, D. D. Johnson, county prosecutor, and Patrolman J. E. Reynolds of the highway patrol, who spoke on traffic laws and safety. Also on the platform were Miss Melba Steffen, representing the B. & P. W. club, and Police Chief John Lawver.

A movie on traffic safety, "The Last Date," was shown.

Thursday evening a meeting, open to the public, was held at the high school. Talks were given by Mayor Gadd, Mr. Reynolds, Mr. McVicker and Mrs. Alma Reed, president of the B. & P. W. club.

A film on driver education featured the evening program.

Safety Meets At Newcomers

Two meetings on traffic safety, sponsored by the Newcomerstown Business & Professional Women's club, were held at the high school there Thursday afternoon and evening.

The first meeting, for pupils in junior and senior high schools, was held from 2:30 to 3:30 in the auditorium of the school. Talks on traffic safety were given by Prosecutor Danny D. Johnson and Plt. J. E. Reynolds of the state highway patrol, and a film, "Last Date", was shown.

Also present were Mayor Lorin Gadd, Police Chief John Lawver, both of Newcomerstown and Harold McVickers, vice president of the county traffic safety committee.

At the evening meeting, which was open to the public, Joe E. Hurst of The Plains, chairman of District 7 of the Governor's Committee on Traffic Safety, spoke on traffic safety and a film, "There were Four," was shown.

Johnson also gave a short talk titled "Traffic Safety Is Everyone's Problem."

Safety Program Given at School

J. E. Hurst, New Philadelphia, who is on Governor Lausche's traffic safety committee, Patrolman J. E. Reynolds of the state patrol at New Philadelphia, D. D. Johnson, Tuscarawas county prosecuting attorney, and Mayor Lorin Gadd were among the speakers at the safety program presented Thursday evening at the high school, sponsored by the health and safety committee of the Business and Professional Women's club, with Miss Ruby Hayes as chairman.

Also on the program were President Alma Reed of the sponsoring club.

Following the talks a question and answer period was held, and a film on driver education, entitled "And Then There Were Four," was shown.

In the afternoon Mayor Gadd, Patrolman Reynolds and Prosecutor Johnson presented a similar program for high school students at the auditorium.

Also on the program were Harold McVicker, vice-president of the Tuscarawas county traffic safety committee, Police Chief John Lawver, Miss Melba Steffen, representing the Business and Professional Women's club, and D. B. Roeder, superintendent of the schools.

A film entitled "Last Date" was shown to the students.

TRAFFIC SAFETY PROGRAM

Everyone is urged to attend the Traffic Safety program to be held Thursday night at 8 at the high school auditorium. It is in charge of the Tuscarawas County Traffic and Safety Committee. Prominent speakers will appear and movies will be shown.

The meeting, sponsored by the health and safety committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club, in an effort to curb the large number of traffic accidents in Newcomerstown.

This same program will be presented to students at 2:30 p. m. Thursday.

The slogan of the campaign is "Save a Life in 1955".

Judge to Speak at BPW Dinner Meeting

Judge Delbert L. Tedrick of the court of common pleas, Guernsey county, Cambridge, will be the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at Stoffer's restaurant.

Judge Tedrick, a native of Cambridge, graduated from Ohio State university law school in 1938 and became an attorney for the state of Ohio.

He served 46 months in the army, with about 18 months in the European theater.

Following this he practiced in Cambridge and became city solicitor, serving from 1948 to 1951, when he became judge of the court of common pleas.

The program is in charge of the committee on international relations, with Carol Steffen the chairman and Florence Denham co-chairman.

A candlelight service is observance of International Relations day will be in charge of Past President Charlotte Metzger.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1955.

TRAFFIC SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Announcement is made of a Newcomerstown traffic safety campaign sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club's Health and Safety Committee.

There will be a program by the Tuscarawas co Traffic and Safety Committee Feb. 10th at 8 p. m. at the high school. The public is invited.

The same program will be given at 2:30 p. m. the same day for high school students. The traffic campaign slogan is "Save a Life in '55." There will be prominent speakers and a movie.

During the year 1954, there were 81 auto accidents investigated by the local police department; 66 cars hit other autos; 3 cars hit trains; 5 hit other objects; 2 bicycles were struck by cars and 2 pedestrians were hit. During the year, there were 24 personal injuries suffered from auto accidents and property damage was several thousand dollars, but the saddest of all was the seven lives lost during the year in Newcomerstown and one just outside of town.

During Jan. 1955. there were 10 auto accidents with property damage. but no injuries or deaths and most of these were due to snow and ice.

The B. F. W. Club. Health and Safety Committee, urges everyone to attend this program to help "save a life in 55".

Name Chairman For Heart Fund

Mrs. Alma Reed has been named chairman of the Newcomerstown 1955 Heart Fund Campaign, it was announced by Dr. Paul Hahn, president of the Tuscarawas County Heart Council. The annual campaign will be conducted here throughout the month of February, and will be sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The 1955 fund campaign, undertaken in this community, will be staged in conjunction with the national campaign by the American Heart Association, the only national voluntary health agency working exclusively in the field of heart and blood vessel diseases.

Funds from Tuscarawas county help to support nineteen separate heart research projects in central Ohio and to carry on an educational program for physicians and the public.

In our town, as in thousands of other American communities conducting heart fund campaigns, diseases of the heart and circulation take a greater toll of human lives than all other combined," Dr. Paul Hahn continued. "This fact is convincing proof that there is need of a concerted effort to combat them through medical research, professional and public education and community programs.

"The people of this county have never failed a worthy cause, and I am confident that they will respond again by their generous contributions to help fight heart disease through the Heart Fund Drive."

To Offer Program On Traffic Safety

In an effort to curb the large number of traffic accidents in Newcomerstown, the health and safety committee of the Business and Professional Women's club is sponsoring a traffic safety program to be presented Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium.

The program will be in charge of the Tuscarawas county traffic and safety committee with prominent speakers and movies.

The same program will be presented students at 2:30 at the school.

The slogan of the campaign is "Save a Life in 1955."

There were 81 auto accidents in 1954 investigated by the police department, and last year 24 persons suffered injuries in traffic mishaps with property damage running to thousands of dollars.

By far the most tragic result of the accidents in Newcomerstown were the seven lives lost, and another just outside of town.

During last month there were 10 accidents with property damage but no injuries or deaths. Most of the accidents were caused by ice and snow, the police report.

This program is open to the public.

Judge Is Speaker at BPW Club Dinner Tuesday Evening

Judge Delbert L. Tedrick, court of common pleas, Guernsey county, was the guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at Stoffer's restaurant.

Judge Tedrick, introduced by Carol Steffen, chairman of the international relations committee, gave a humorous talk on "Sense and Nonsense."

Florence Denham was co-chairman of the committee was in charge.

Preceding the judge's talk Past President Charlotte Metzger was in charge of an impressive candlelight service on international relations, reviewing the history of the federation, beginning with the National Federation in 1919, and telling of the International Federation, formed in 1930. She also told of the clubs disbanded because of the war. The service was illustrated with the lighting and extinguishing of the candles representing various countries in the world.

The invocation was given by Edna Powell.

During the business meeting in charge of President Alma Reed it was announced that the Order of Rainbow for Girls will conduct a house-to-house canvass for the Heart Fund Sunday from 2 to 4. The BPW club is sponsoring the local drive.

Mrs. Powell, visiting teacher in the schools, reported on the dental work being done by the club for children of indigent parents.

Bess LaPorte, director of District 8 of the Federation, announced the state convention to be held in May in Dayton.

Three new members, Maxine McManus, Ruth McElhaney and Helen Guthrie, and two guests, Mrs. Ralph Heister and Mrs. E. W. Steffen were introduced.

Dinner was served to 53 members and guests at a "U" shaped table decorated with miniature cherry trees, red and white tapers with hatchet favors. On the mantel was a large painting of George Washington.

Attorney Discusses Laws at Dinner Meeting of BPW Club

Attorney Raymond Rice of New Philadelphia spoke on "Legal Safeguards" at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday night at Stoffer's restaurant.

Mr. Rice gave a very informative talk on laws, particularly laws of Ohio. He told how many of our laws in Ohio are taken from English law, and stated that many have resulted from decisions of judges, called common law. He defined particular laws, such as contracts, real estate, wills, etc. He was introduced by Mrs. Don Rutledge, chairman of the legislative committee, in charge of the program.

During the business meeting in charge of President Alma Reed, the club voted $300 to the park board, to be used for beautifying the park, as the club's project for the year.

Bess LaPorte announced that the Twin City club will present Myrus on Monday, April, and she has tickets.

The club named Irene Beaugard, Edith Lee and Susan Burge on the nominating committee.

President Reed reported approximately $700 has been collected to date in the Heart drive. She also read a letter from Austria, thanking the club for a CARE package sent some time ago.

Preceding Mr. Rice's talk Jerry Widder sang "I Understand" and "Galway Bay." Miss Linda Smith was his accompanist.

Dinner was served at tables decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's day, with green and white tapers and crepe paper, shamrock favors, Irish hats, etc. On the speaker's table was a centerpiece of green and white stock with pussywillow branches.

The invocation was given by Burdine Bailey.

Guests were Mrs. Alex Webb, member of the Ada, O., club; Mrs. Raymond Rice, New Philadelphia; Mrs. Alex Robertson and Mrs. Arthur Mercer.

B. AND P. W. CLUB

Mrs. T. F. Baily gave the invocation when the B. P. W. club met at Stoffer's Tuesday night.

The speaker was Atty. Raymond Rice of New Philadelphia. He was introduced by Mrs. Donald Rutledge, chairman of the legislation committee. His topic was, "Legal Safeguard." He traced the history of law and defined such laws as real estate, wills, contracts, etc. Mrs. Alma Reed, president, read a letter from a woman in Austria, who had received a "CARE" package, sent by the club.

Mrs. Frank LaPorte announced the Twin City B. P. W. are sponsoring "Myrus", the mind reader, April 4th.

A gift of $300 was voted to improve the park, to be used as the park board sees fit.

The club named Mrs. Dean Beaugard, Mrs. Vernon Lee and Mrs. Parker Burge as the nominating committee.

Mrs. Reed announced $700 had been collected to date in the Heart Fund drive. The convention, which will be held in Dayton, May 27, 28 and 29th, was discussed.

Jerry Widder sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Linda Smith.

Guests were Mrs. Alex Webb, Ada, O., Mrs. Alex Robertson, Mrs. Arthur Mercer and Mrs. Rice of New Philadelphia.

Dinner was served at tables decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

B. P. W. DINNER

A dinner meeting of the B. P. W. was held at Stoffer's Tuesday evening, with 65 members and guests attending. Guests were Mrs. Walter McPherson, Mrs. Ralph Dovenbarger, Mrs. Marshall Graham, Mrs. John Ford, Mrs. Burkett Lansberry, Sacramento, Calif., Mrs. Wayne Mizer, Mrs. Duane Smith, Mrs. Wayne Mizer, Mrs. Lawrence Wilkin, Mrs. James Herbert and Mrs. Carl Clouse Mrs. W. D. Ferrell is a new member.

Dinner was served at tables lovingly with seasonal appointments and miniature potted pansies were given as favors. Invocation was given by Mrs. Frank Powell. The Barwanetts, who are Barbara Atkinson, Wanda Rogers and Janet Portz, sang several selections.

Guest speaker was Dr. Mary K. Smith, psychologist of the Tuscarawas Valley Guidance Center at Union hospital, who was introduced by the chairman of health and safety committee, Miss Ruby Hayes. Following the talk of Dr. Smith, the club voted $100 to the Guidance center.

Election of officers was held. The new president is Evelyn Curtiss. Dorothy McKean is vice president; Margie Fletcher, treasurer; Norma Rutledge, recording secretary and Betty King, corresponding secretary.

Announcement was made by Ruby Hayes that the cancer drive will be held, house to house, Friday night April 29th from 6 to 7 p. m. It was voted to entertain the Senior girls again this year at a tea.

Alma Reed, president, announced the final total in the Heart drive as being $709.71. A letter received from Germany in appreciation of a "CARE" package sent by the club, was read.

The president also announced that reservations for the convention to be held in Dayton, May 27, 28 and 29th should be in by May 1st.

The club voted to contribute $10 to aid in the administering of the Salk vaccine.

The new auditing committee is Edith Rogers, Margie Fletcher and Esta Knowles.

Club Elects Officers; Work of Guidance Center Is Described

Mrs. Wallace Curtiss was elected president of the Business and Professional Women's club at the annual election held Monday night following dinner at Stoffer's restaurant.

Others elected were Mrs. John McKean, vice-president; Mrs. Dean Fletcher, treasurer; Mrs. Rutledge, recording secretary; Miss Betty King, corresponding secretary.

Dr. Mary K. Smith, psychologist at the guidance center, Union hospital, Dover, was guest speaker, people who take advantage of the telling of her work at the Center.

She said about one-fourth of the services of the clinic come in voluntarily, either for themselves or for a member of their family, and that a large percentage come in because they have had mental disturbances for some time and feel they need hospitalization, while another group does not need hospital care but periodic treatment by a psychiatrist.

"Tremendous strides have been made in the treatment of mental illness in the past 10 years," Dr. Smith said, adding that early treatment is a great factor in the recovery to normal living. "Too often pride and fear stand in the way of treatment," she said.

She closed her interesting talk by saying that she wanted people to feel free to avail themselves of the services available at the center, and stated that you may either call or write for appointment, and that it is not necessary to be referred to them for treatment. A fee of $2 may be paid for consultation but it is not necessary if the patient is not able to pay, Dr. Smith said.

Following her talk the club voted to contribute $100 toward the work of the guidance center.

Dr. Smith was introduced by Miss Ruby Hayes, chairman of the health and safety committee, who also presented the Barwanetts from the high school, who sang "The Man Upstairs," "My Heart Stood Still" and "Down by the Riverside."

During the business in charge of President Alma Reed a new member, Mrs. W. A. Ferrell, was introduced, as were guests, Mrs. Burkett Lansberry, Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Walter McPherson, Mrs. Ralph Dovenbarger, Mrs. Graham Marshall, Mrs. John Ford, Mrs. Wayne Mizer, Mrs. Duane Smith, Mrs. Lawrence Wilkin, Mrs. James Herbert and Mrs. Carl Clouse.

The president announced that reservations for the state convention in Dayton May 27, 28 and 29 must be in by May 1.

She read an invitation from the Dover club to attend their presentation of Miss Marguerite Higgins, noted newspaperwoman, who will be at the Dover high school May 5.

Mrs. Reed also read a letter from a man in Germany, thanking the club for a CARE package received by him.

The club voted to again entertain the senior girls with a tea.

Miss Hayes announced the annual Cancer drive for Friday, April 29, from 6 to 7 p. m., with the club members making the house-to-house canvass.

Mrs. Reed announced a final figure of $709.71 in the Heart drive.

The club voted $10 to assist in the administration of the Salk vaccine in Newcomertown.

Mrs. Floyd Rogers, Mrs. E. V. Knowles and Mrs. Dean Fletcher were named to the auditing committee.

Dinner was served to 65 members and guests. There were potted pansies as favors at each place, and green and white tapers in crystal holders along the tables.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Frank Powell.

They're Seen Seeking Bigger Say on Policy-Making Levels

BY ALICIA HARI
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Civic-minded women are becoming miffed at the idea that the only thing they can do is raise money.

They're also anxious to do more than attend card parties, sit in on cultural programs or listen to scholarly men deliver book reviews.

That is the opinion of a top member of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. The organization met here recently for executive sessions:

"If women are the ones who have to go out and raise money," says Judge Libby E. Sachar, "then they ought to have more say as to how it is spent."

Mrs. Sachar is judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court of Union County, New Jersey, and chairman of the National Federation's Finance Committee.

"We want to make ourselves known in policy matters," she explains. "Women should not be dealt with in terms of sex but judged on the basis of their ability."

Agreeing with that is Miss Marguerite Rawalt, president of the BPWC and an attorney for the Internal Revenue Service. She notes that a recently approved by-law of the organization advises members who cooperate in outside civic activities to make sure they are properly recognized at the policy level.

"Women have plenty of opportunities to keep records and collect money," she says, "but there are very few of them serving as members of a board of directors."

It's the women who are holding themselves back, she adds. They Strong believers in the theory that women should do more than just raise money when it comes to performing civic duties are Marguerite Rawalt, left, and Judge Libby E. Sachar. Both are officials of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

should break the ice and assert themselves—"gently but firmly."

The National Federation has a membership of between 160,000 and 170,000. Able to join is any female who is employed and accepted by the local club. It was first subsidized by the federal government back in 1919, but now operates completely on its own.

A majority of those who belong to the BPWC are married, but this was not the case 20 years ago. Officers of the National Federation, both married and single, agree that the change indicates women of today can manage a job and a home at the same time.

One high-ranking member, who has several children, puts it this way: "It hasn't hurt my family one bit because I work, and, in fact, I think it has done us all some good. Too many women have time on their hands. Running around doing nothing but window-shopping can make for a group of neurotics."

Nineteen million women are employed in the U. S., according to Miss Rawalt. Over half of them are married and nearly half have children over 18 years.

These women don't take jobs just for the fun of it, or so they can buy expensive clothes, she stresses. In practically all cases they need the additional income to support themselves or a family.

The National Federation's president thinks working women should not adopt masculine tactics but should rely on the feminine approach just so long as it is done in an impersonal manner.

The apparent implication of her remarks is—act like a lady while on the job, but keep the battle of the sexes out of the office.

Miss Rawalt feels that the status of women has improved greatly in recent years, and she likes to tell this story as an example:

One of her men friends was determined that his son should be the best scholar in his class. At the end of the term the boy came home and reported that he had come in second among the other students. A girl had come out on top.

"Son, aren't you ashamed to have been beaten by a mere girl?" asked his disappointed father.

Without the slightest hesitation the boy replied, "Girls aren't so mere anymore, Dad."
