Rev. Calvert was born Nov. 19, 1921, in Dayton, son of the late Walter J. Calvert and Hazel Cecil Wallace Calvert. He was a 1940 graduate of Dayton Roosevelt High School and attended the Miami-Jacobs Business College in Dayton. He then enrolled at Wittenberg University in Springfield and graduated in 1945 with an A.B. degree. Following graduation he enrolled at the Hamma School of Theology in Springfield (now the Hamma Divinity School), where he graduated with a Master of Divinity degree in 1948.

He spent the remainder of his life as an ordained Lutheran minister. His first parish was the Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church located in North Industry, Ohio, in southeast Stark County. He served as the minister at North Industry from 1948 to 1955. He then transferred to the Zion Lutheran Church in Middletown, Ohio, where he served from 1955 to 1963. Following his work there, he moved to Xenia, where he was minister of the First Lutheran Church from 1963 to 1970. After Xenia, Rev. Calvert moved to Newcomerstown where he became minister of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, serving from 1970 until his retirement on Jan. 2, 1987.

Rev. Calvert was a member of the Luther League, serving as vice president in 1946-47. He was secretary and president of the Stark and adjacent counties Lutheran Pastors' Association in Canton. Also in Canton, he served as president of the United Lutheran Pastors' Association. At Middletown he was secretary and president of the Middletown Pastors' Association. He belonged to the Middletown Council of Churches and was director of the Community Vacation Bible School. In Xenia, he was a member of the Xenia Council of Churches, the Xenia Ministerial Association, and the Greene County Council on Alcoholism. He also represented Xenia on the Ohio Synod Committee on Stewardship of the Springfield District.

Rev. William Owen Calvert

In Newcomerstown, he was active with the Newcomerstown Ministerial Association, including one year as president in 1972. He also served on the Tuscarawas County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse from 1971 until the present time. Rev. Calvert was also on the pastoral services council of the 648 Board of Tuscarawas County in 1976 and 1977. He was the clerical representative of the Southeast District on the Ohio Synod Committee on Social Ministry in 1972-74.

He leaves his wife, the former Martha Jean Dorsey, of Newcomerstown. They were married on June 30, 1974. Following his retirement, Rev. Calvert and his wife remained members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Services were to be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. at St. Paul Lutheran Church with the Rev. William C. Haggis II officiating, assisted by Bishop Kenneth H. Sauer of the Ohio Synod of the Lutheran Church in America organization. Burial was to be in West Lawn Cemetery. Ourant Funeral Home handled arrangements.
