Introduction

In 1979, while I was attending college, I took an introduction to Anthropology course to fulfill a Social Science requirement. As a project for this course I selected to research and submit a family tree. My mom, Helen Schlarb Little, was my main source of information. She not only knew about her side of the family but also seemed to know dad's side better than he did. This was probably because mom grew up living close to her aunts, uncles and cousins. Frequent family gatherings were so much a part of her early life. Family ties were very important to her. My mom wrote down what she knew, gathered up a lot of information from her cousins and visited cemeteries to fill in birth and death dates. Her efforts formed the core of both my college project and what you see in this document. Unfortunately after college I did not pursue working on the family tree until about three and a half years ago, after both of my parents had passed away. In fact it was their passing that rekindled my interest in our family history. I wanted to preserve their memory and also pursue whom our ancestors were, what the times were like in which they lived, and where did they come from.

I choose to commemorate this, the 40th year of the Young Schlarb Thomas reunion by pulling together and presenting in this book the majority of the information I have been able to gather on the Young family line. It is, unfortunately, incomplete. I apologize for not contacting more of you in person to gather additional information for this work. I would love to hear from you now. I would also like to apologize up front for any misspellings, incomplete information and mistakes. Please feel free to call, write or e-mail me to contribute additional information or to provide corrections. I would also like to include stories that you would like to pass down to future generations. I will continue to research our family line and eventually I will publish an update. But by the very nature of this hobby it will never be 100% complete and it will be up to others, including future generations, to continue this work. At the end of this year I am planning on contributing an electronic version of the information in this book to the World Family Tree™ Project of Broderbund Software®, creator of the Family Tree Maker™ program that I use to organize this information. This will help preserve our family history in a format obtainable by other researchers and by future generations. To safeguard the privacy of people living at the time of the submittal, only our names, genders, and family links will be included.

I have been collecting copies of old pictures from family members that I have talked to. I have included some of them in the appendix of this book. I would love to see whatever other old pictures some of you may have. I may even be able to help identify who is in them if they are not marked. I have also had the opportunity to record conversations with some of you. Unfortunately I have not been able to transcribe those recordings and include them at this time.

Following this introduction this book presents some information on the origins of the Young - Schlarb -Thomas reunion. It then provides an outline of all the descendants that I have been able to find of Jacob and Phillipina Young, our immigrant ancestors. This outline presents the names, spouse's names, birth, marriage and death dates and locations if I have them. The next section is the register report for Jacob Young. It provides any detail personal or marriage information that I have gathered. Some of these details are in conflict with others. I have included all of them so that they might be sorted out at a later time. Next are several pages of photographs that I have been able to collect. These did not print out as well as I had hoped. I can provide copies of the photographs that these were scanned from or send the electronic file for use on your personal computer if you want. Following the photographs I included a family tree information submittal form for use in providing additional information. The last section is an index of people mentioned in the outline descendant tree and the register reports sections.

I have really enjoyed meeting with my relations that have contributed to this work and I look forward to hearing from many more of you. I would like to take this opportunity to extend some special thanks to several people that have been especially helpful in this endeavor. Please forgive me if I miss someone. For my mom, for reasons that have been mentioned above and for having been such a great mom. For my Uncle Roy and Aunt Gladys Schlarb for being my surrogate parents for this effort. For my Uncle Ed and the great time we had in Florida a couple of years ago. I especially liked hearing about the period when my parents were dating. For Richard Schlarb and Lewis Reiss for showing me around the local area. For Richard Schlarb, Freda Young Everhart, Viola Everhart Armburst, Patty Schlarb Conway, Sara Wilson Schlarb, Betty Firster Schlarb, Dorothy Schlarb Collins, Pauline Schlarb Boose, and Jim and Martha Schlarb for your numerous stories and photographs. For Lewis Reiss for loaning your copy of the Mizer family history book. For Eileen Young Hahn for loaning your copy of the Regula family history book. Thank you.

I can be contacted at 613 13th Street, Manhattan Beach, CA 90266-4832. My phone number is (310) 546-4342. My e-mail address is wlittle274@aol.com. Descendants of Jacob and Phillipina Young

Generation No. 1

1. JACOB¹ YOUNG was born Abt. 1811 in Hollenollen, Rockhausen, Bavaria, Germany, and died 1867. He married PHILLIPINA BAAB[?] in Germany.

Notes for JACOB YOUNG:

1.) From a conversation with Chester Young and his sisters, Wilma (Young) Stahl and Eileen (Young) Hahn, at the Young - Schlarb - Thomas family reunion in June 1995: Jacob Young I was born in 1811, He married a women last name of Baab, his son Jacob II had 2 brothers, Peter and William, and two sisters. Additional information was provided in a letter to Bill Little dated 11 January 1996, from Eileen G. (Young) Hahn, West Lafayette, Ohio. In this letter Eileen stated: "Father Jacob Young I was born in Bavaria."

2.) From the family history book copied in December 1996 from Patty Schlarb Conway, Alliance, Ohio: Jacob Young; born 1810 in Germany. Wife: Phillipena; born 1813 in Ohio/Bavaria, Germany. Their seven children were: Phillipena (born 1836), Jacob (born 1838, died 25 February 1901, married an Elizabeth), Elizabeth (1841), Peter (1843), Caroline (1848), William (1852) and Charles (1861). All were born in Ohio.

3.) Information on "Young (Yung)" is from an article by Dorthy Evans in the 1985 History of Coshocton County, Ohio, page 405, copied at the Coshocton Library, Dec. 1996:

Jacob Young I was born 1811 in Bavaria. He came to America and settled on a farm south of Baltic in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. He was one of the founders of the Fait Church. Jacob I and wife (Baab - maiden name) had three sons: William, Peter and Jacob II. (See the notes for Jacob Young II for the entire article.)

4.) From the 1988 History of Tuscarawas County, Ohio, page 497, copied, Dec. 1996:

"... Jacob (1838) was the son of Jacob Young 1811 - 1867, born in Hollenollen, Rockhausen, Bavaria, and Phillipina Bahmer/Boehmer 1812 - 1876, born in Schonborn, Rockhausen, Baveria."

5.) 1840 census - Tuscarawas County, Ohio, page 265: Jacob Young, head of family. Living in this family were one free white male under five years old and one in the age range of 20 - 30 years old and one free white female under five years old and one in the age range of 20 - 30 years old. One person was employed in agriculture for this entry.

6.) 1850 census - Information taken on 29 August 1850, Buck township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, page 38, dwelling number 490, family number 490: Jacob Young, age 40, occupation farmer, value of real estate $1000, birthplace Germany; Phillipana, 37, Germany; Phillipana, 14, Germany; Jacob, 12, Ohio; Elizabeth, 9, Ohio; Peter, 7, Ohio; Carolini?, 2, Ohio; William P. Stillabauer, 66, occupation none, value of real estate $200, birthplace Germany. Phillipana, Jacob, Elizabeth and Peter had all been in school within the year.

7.) 1860 census - Information taken on 21 July 1860, Bucks township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, page 216, dwelling number 1129, family number 1283: Jacob Young, age 49, occupation farmer, value of real estate $5000, value of personal property $950, birthplace Germany; Philippina, 27 (did they mean 47?), Germany; Jacob, 20, Germany; Peter, 17, Ohio; Wm, 8, Ohio; Elizabeth, 19, Ohio; Caroline, 12, Ohio.

8.) U.S. Passenger List Indexes: In May 1998, Bill Little checked the passenger indexes for New York, NY (National Archives series M261); Baltimore, MD (M327 and M326); Philadelphia, PA (M360); and Atlantic & Gulf Coasts (M334). No matches were found for either Jacob or Phillipana Young or Jung assuming an entry year of between 1836 to 1838 based on the birth locations and ages of their first two children as listed in the 1850 census (The 1860 census listed their child Jacob, 20, as being born in Germany. Since the next child, Peter, was born in Ohio around 1843, this could imply their immigration date is somewhere between 1837 to 1843) Additional passenger lists for Boston, MA; New Orleans, LA; and "Miscellaneous Ports (Atlantic, Gulf Coast, Great Lakes)" have not yet been checked because no indexes exist for the years in question.

"Jacob Young I was born 1811 in Bavaria. He came to America and settled on a farm south of Baltic in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. He was one of the founders of the Fait Church. Jacob I and wife (Baab - maiden name) had three sons: William, Peter and Jacob II.

Jacob Young II (b. 1838 - d. 1901) married Elizabeth Regula (b. 1843 - d. 1929). He first had a farm in Crawford Township then in 1875 he purchased a farm in Adams Township, Coshocton County. Their children are: Wilma (Young) Stahl, Eileen (Young) Hahn and Chester A. Young, present owner. Most of the Young family are members of Renner's Church and Progressive Valley Grange.

The homestead acres now graze Holstein dairy cattle. Crops are cultivated and harvested by mechanical horse-power as contrasted to the Belgium horse-power used by John and Chester A. Young ( pictured ) - These staunch German descendents have tilled this soil for over one hundred years."

Mr. Jacob Young, an extensive and well known farmer of Adams township, died Feb. 25th, at the family home, at the age of 62 years, 11 mos. and 11 days. He was born in Bucks township, Tuscarawas county, and had been a resident of Adams township for about twenty five years. His death was due to the shock to his system resulting from an operation performed for relief from Hernia, from which he was a sufferer. He leaves a wife and six sons and two daughters, who have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sore bereavement. Rev. Schemel conducted the funeral exercises, Thursday, Feb. 28th, and interment took place in the Rinner cemetery. The large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends present at the funeral attested the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Mr. Young was a life-long Democrat, firm in political convictions and loyal to the principles he advocated; He lived an honorable upright life, and he passes from earth to that grander, nobler life, beyond the grave, respected and honored by all who knew him. He lived a useful life and exerted an influence for good which will be felt as long as his memory lingers in the hearts of those with whom in life he mingled."

Notes for ERNEST EDWARD SCHLARB:

1.) Source of marriage and death date is from the Ernest and Rena Schlarb family Bible (Roy Schlarb, June 1995). Roy Schlarb also remembered that his Dad died the day after the 4th of July. The marriage date of 14 March 1918 is also listed in Vol. I of the book, "Marriages - Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811 - 1930".

2.) From notes that Bill Little had written for his 1979 college project (source: Helen Little): Ernest E. Schlarb. Machine operator for Ross Clay Mine. Was in WWI. Was gassed. At one time he was put in charge of 32 German prisoners. He spoke German so the prisoners liked that. He died of cancer - growth in his throat.

3.) He went by E. E. Schlarb in his later years due to a conflicting mailing address (someone else with the exact same name). Per Roy Schlarb, 1995. He stood about 5 feet 8 inches with sandy hair (Source: probably Roy Schlarb, 1995). Roy provided three pictures of his Dad in his WWI uniform.

4.) From the Newcomerstown, Ohio Library, June 1996, World War I book listing Ohio soldiers:

NA - National Army, Br - born, Btry - battery, FA - Field Artillery, disch - discharge(d), Pvt - private 1cl - first class, Wag - wagoner, AEF - American Expeditionary Forces, Hon disch - honorably discharged

5.) From a newspaper clipping that Helen Little had (probably from the Coshocton Tribune and New Age newspaper):

"ERNEST SCHLARB KILLED IN ACTION OCTOBER 15

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schlarb, Orange and Bakersville road, received a telegram Friday morning from Washington stating that their son, Ernest E. Schlarb, aged 24, Battery E, 327th Field Artillery, had been killed in action October 15 in France.

Pvt. Schlarb was one of the 127 men who left this city May 27 and went to Camp Taylor, Ky. Last year he was married to Miss Rena West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy West, near Fresno, formerly of this city, who with an infant son survives.

Pvt. Schlarb was a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Lorenz, Chestnut-st."
(Helen Little had hand written, "First world war wrong man tho")

6.) From the 17 November 1918 edition of the Coshocton Tribune and New Age newspaper:

"IRVIN SCHLARB KILLED INSTEAD OF HIS COUSIN

Irvin Schlarb, who resides north of Chili, was killed in action in France October 15, instead of Ernest E. Schlarb, Orange and Bakersville road as was first reported. The two young men are first cousins. Irvin Schlarb went from Coshocton to Camp Sherman last April. In some manner it became reported that Ernest Schlarb had been killed but his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schlarb, received no telegram to this effect. The telegram was received by the mother of Irvin Schlarb who came to Coshocton Friday and reported her son's death to the local draft board and the Red Cross headquarters. She returned to her home before she could be interviewed and the report spread that Ernest Schlarb had been killed.

Irvin Schlarb was unmarried. Both he and his cousin Ernest are nephews of Mr. and Mrs. John Lorenz, Chestnut-st. As the telephone line between West Lafayette and Chili was out of order Saturday, efforts to secure further details concerning Irvin Schlarb failed. His cousin, Harvey Schlarb, conducts a store at Chili.

Relatives of Ernest Schlarb were deeply concerned over the report that he had been killed and upon investigation received information of the mistake in the first name."

Names, birth dates, death dates and at least the county where someone lived are important for this research.

Any additional information that you can provide, such as information from old family bibles, pictures, copies of birth or death certificates, other family records, obituaries, or if someone else has traced a portion of the family tree, would really help.

Other information such as titles, nicknames, physical characteristics like height, weight, color hair, etc.; cause of death; immigration or other stories or antidotes about a person, family, or event would be interesting to pass down as part of our family history.

Thank you
