Carol Anne Boucha, 67, lost her fierce battle with cancer in Green, Ohio on August 8, 2019.

Carol was preceded in death by husband Howard C. Boucha, Newcomerstown. She is survived by daughters Renée (Boucha) Onesti of Green, OH and Nicole (Boucha) Montgomery of Wilmington, NC; sons-in-law Todd Onesti and Jeff Montgomery; the love of her life, grandbaby Mila Rose Montgomery; Goddaughter, Devon (Cisek) Pollich of Las Vegas, NV; brothers Gerald (Jerry) Cisek of Mt. One of her greatest experiences after high school was spending the summer in Europe studying art and architecture.

Carol married Howard C. Boucha on September 11,

Carol Boucha

1976. They relocated to Southeast Ohio in 1978, inspired to try farm life by friends who'd done the same 2 years earlier. Though a suburbanite her entire life, Carol quickly adapted to farm life: gardening and preserving what she grew, and raising an impressive menagerie of farm animals: Bunkie the horse, Gee Gee the goat, Miss Piggy the pig and tons of cows, chickens, ducks, cats, and sheep. All the while she and Howard remodeled their very old—and very much in disrepair—farmhouse. Carol did love country living, and only moved to town out of necessity, upon the death of Howard in 1988. She lived in Guernsey/Newcomerstown, OH for 40 years and became a snowbird migrating down to Mt. Dora, FL with her brother, Jerry, in 2015.

She loved the theater including ballet and Shakespeare. She saw the Royal Ballet, Yule Brenner in the King and I, Felisha Rishard in Jelly's Last Jam, Startford-Upon-Avon, and Oberammergau (the Passion Play that is only performed once every 10 year) in Germany. Carol even wrote a play for the Newcomerstown festival.

Carol was the impetus behind several community projects in Newcomerstown but none more popular or successful than the "Sweethearts Follies." Thousands of people were involved and thousands of dollars were raised for the town. Carol was chairman for the first several years and handled either publicity, promotions or programs through 1991. She was always in the dance numbers and skits. Her daughters, Renée and Nicole, were also on stage in the Follies.

While raising her girls in Newcomerstown, Carol was a Girl Scout leader and Catechism teacher. She was a "Mom" to many of the girls' friends who would stay the night and become part of the family. She worked at the Newcomerstown News until 1991 as a Sales Representative and the person in charge of loud laughter and mayhem.

Carol began working at Halo Branded Solutions, Sterling, IL and stayed for 28 years as the Calendar Marketing Coordinator. She loved her career and the company she worked

Robert Paul 'Bob' Lyne

1954-2019

Robert Paul "Bob" Lyne went home to be with the Lord on August 11, 2019 at the age of 64 after a long, brave battle with Parkinson's disease while residing in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where he lived for over 30 years in Newcomerstown before spending his final months at the Hennis Care Centre of Dover.

Bob was born on October 28, 1954 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Pat and Marla Lyne. A 1973 graduate of Star Spencer High School, he embarked on a demanding but interesting career as an insulator after completing an apprenticeship in the trade of asbestos worker on February 1, 1977 in his native Oklahoma. For a significant and memorable time in the 1970s, he even worked on the Alaska pipeline. Before the end of that decade, he fell in love with Barbara Phillippi while working in New Mexico, and on August 8, 1980, they got married in Oklahoma in the presence of the Rev. Albright G. Harvey. After he moved his family to Ohio in 1987, he eventually joined Insulators Local 84 after being a member of Insulators Local 94 since 1974.

Although he had to retire early in the early 2000s because of his health, he made the best of his early retirement with a good pension to focus on the needs of his wife, children, and grandchildren. Like his mother, he valued family above all else. He also dearly loved his pets, especially his short-haired Chihuahua Taco. After his wife's death in 2018, he eventually became a resident of the Hennis Care Centre of Dover, where he received excellent care, but he outlived her only by about 14 months before joining her in heavenly glory. A football enthusiast, he was a fan of the Oklahoma Sooners, and he also enjoyed classic movies, country music, and family travel. He went on family trips to many famous places, including the Grand Canyon, Gettysburg, and even the Neuschwanstein Castle. He also had a strong work ethic. A lifelong Baptist raised with good values, he passed on a legacy of honesty, integrity, commitment, reliability, and punctuality.

Leaving behind four children and seven grandchildren, Bob is survived by his son, Christian Lyne of Akron; his son, Jeremiah Lyne of Las Vegas, Nevada and his fiancée, Janice Clavel, and his daughters, Taylor and Mikayla, Taylor's sister, Julia, and his son, Alexander; his daughter, Heather Lyne of New Philadelphia and her sons, Zachariah and Zane; his son, Sean Lyne of Gnadenuhthen and his wife Megan, and their daughters, Charlotte and Gemma; his brother, Douglas Richard "Dick" Lyne Jr. and his wife Cherri of Norman, Oklahoma and his daughters, Melanie West and Rachel Lyne, and his son, Josh Lyne, and their mother, Kay Meaders; his brother-in-law, David Spencer, and his daughters, Mandy King and Jennifer Freer, and his son, Clint Spencer; and his sister, Patricia Jean "Patti" Crain of Harrah, Oklahoma, and her son, Richard Crain, and her daughter, Kelly Crain, and their father, Carl Crain. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Jill Lyne (Phillippi); his parents, Douglas Richard "Pat" and Marla Jean Lyne (Donnell); and his sister, Marla Kaye Spencer.

After cremation, a private memorial service was held at 1 p.m. on August 24, 2019 at King's United Methodist Church with the Rev. Eric Miller officiating. As was done for his wife Barbara and sister-in-law Sandra Phillippi in 2018, the interment of the ashes took place with a service of committal in King's Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to King's United Methodist Church, 5651 Kings Ridge Rd, Newcomerstown, OH 43832.
