Obituary for Alice Faye Myers

Alice Faye Myers, 75, of Newcomerstown passed away Friday, January 3, 2020 at Lafayette Pointe Nursing and Rehab Center with her family by her side after a long battle with Alzheimer's. She was born February 7, 1944 in Peoli to the late Clarence and Edith (Chambers) Jones. She was a 1962 Cambridge High School graduate. Alice enjoyed her 20-year employment with Sears, New Towne Mall in New Philadelphia. She was a member of North Salem Community Church and she was an avid quilter. She was immensely proud of her family and leaves behind nothing but beautiful memories. On June 29, 1962, Alice married Stephen Myers who survives. She is also survived by her two daughters, Elaine Sue (Gary) Vorwerk of Circleville and Karen Lynn (Matthew) Friend of Plain City; her four grandchildren, Nicholas and Holly Vorwerk and Jacob and Lauren Friend; two brothers, George Jones of Kimbolton and Tim Jones of Newcomerstown; two sisters, Mary Ann Rose and Susie Shalosky. Her family will have a memorial service at a later date and she will be interred at North Salem Community Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to Community Hospice Truman House 716 Commercial Ave SW, New Philadelphia, OH 44663.

Obituary for Donna Jean Davis

Donna Jean Davis, 83, of Newcomerstown passed away Friday, January 24, 2020 at Riverside Manor Nursing & Rehab. Center. She was born December 29, 1936 in Zanesville to the late Loren Ray Morris and Margaret (Hamilton) Steil. Her father passed away when she was only four-years-old so her step-father, Bernard Steil, loved and raised his step-daughters as his own. She attended school in Zanesville. She was a factory worker her entire adult life, retiring in 1998 from Groovfold in Newcomerstown. She was a selfless dedicated mother, grandmother, great and great-great grandmother. She left us beautiful memories. Her love will continue to guide us through our lives. Although we can no longer see her, she will continue to be our guide, our eternal light and love. Her life was an example of Ephesians 4:32, "Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you." She is survived by her children, Jeff Davis of Newcomerstown, Peg and Dwane Jones of West Lafayette, Pat and Chuck Hosfelt of Coshocton, Tom Davis of Newcomerstown, Cathy and Tim Myers of Newcomerstown, Deana and Rocky Tidd of Newcomerstown; 16 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; one sister and brother-in-law, Margie and Bob Walker of Zanesville. She was formerly married to R. Paul Davis who passed away in October of 2009. Her wish is cremation and graveside service to be held at a later date followed by a family dinner to celebrate her life and the family she loved. Pastor Glen (Rocky) Tidd to hold graveside service at time of interment. Memorial contributions may be made to Community Hospice Truman House 716 Commercial Ave SW, New Philadelphia, OH 44663.

Obituary for Betty Jean (Hickenbottom) Ward

Betty Jean (Hickenbottom) Ward, 89, died at her daughter's home in Newcomerstown, Ohio on Friday, April 10, 2020. She had been living with her daughter, Clenda (Ward) Hardesty and son-in-law, Duane Hardesty. Betty was born on July 26, 1930 in Newcomerstown, Ohio to the late Joseph "Joe" and Jesse "Therma" (Longworth) Hickenbottom. Betty was a member of the Isleta United Methodist Church. She retired from the Newcomerstown School District where she was secretary at the high school and then at both the East and West Elementaries. She will always be remembered for her sweet smile, loving hugs, endless kindness, loving nature, and positive outlook on life. One treasured quality always seen by family and friends was her uncanny ability to listen with open ears and without any judgement.

Betty is survived by her children, Clenda (Duane) Hardesty of Newcomerstown, Donald (Agnes) Ward of West Lafayette; nine grandchildren, Devin, Drew, and Tory (Rachel) Hardesty, Christopher (Samantha), Tristen (Bryce), and Brandon Ward; two great-grandchildren, Kayli Smith and Gideon Ward. She is also survived by sister Sandra Dobson of Newcomerstown, sister-in-law Helen Lov of Covington, GA, and brother-in-law James Ward of Jonesboro, GA. Betty was preceded in death by her daughter, Cara Ward, and her husband, Owen Ward.

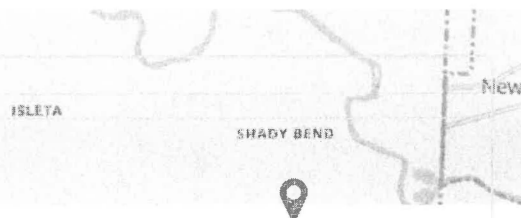

Due to the pandemic, there will be no public services. Funeral services are in the care of Addy Funeral Home of Newcomerstown, and burial will take place at West Lawn Cemetery. The family requests that any memorial contributions in Betty's name be made to Everal's Chapel Preservation Society (60417 Everal's Church Rd Newcomerstown, Ohio 43832) or to the Isleta United Methodist Church (58608 Co Rd 9, Newcomerstown, OH 43832).

Obituary for John Jesse Alexander Kistler

John Jesse Alexander Kistler, 82, of Newcomerstown, passed away at his home after a lengthy illness on Friday, April 10, 2020. He was born Friday, July 16, 1937 in Newcomerstown, Ohio to Dr. John B. and Ruth (Alexander) Kistler. He attended Newcomerstown Schools, graduating from Worthington High School (1956) and Ashland College (1966). A lifetime entrepreneur, John owned and operated a number of local businesses over his lifetime. He was a member of the Lutheran Church and attended the Church of Christ in Christian Union. John enjoyed lifetime membership in the Model T Club of America and was a 60-year member of the Lone Star Masonic Lodge. He was a supporter of local country musicians and founded Frogtown Music Hall, which brought joy to local residents for 17 years. He was also an avid steam engine enthusiast, ham radio operator, history buff, and cyclist. John loved being outdoors, spending time at his campground and lake. Most of all, he loved spending time surrounded by family and friends.

John is survived by his wife of 59 years, Ruth (Emerson) Kistler; six children, Kathy (Siamak) Shahbodaghi, John, George (Jolinda), Marianne (Jeff) Burrier, Genny (Craig Wales), Thomas (Heather); 13 loving grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; nieces; nephews; and extended family. John was preceded in death by grandson Bret Burrier; a sister, Floride Kistler Sturm; a brother, George Kistler. John was a cheerful and loving father, husband, grandfather, and friend. Private services are planned, and burial will be at West Lawn Cemetery in Newcomerstown. The family will hold a memorial gathering at a later date. Arrangements are in the care of Addy Funeral Home. The family suggests that contributions in John's memory be made to Community Hospice, 716 Commercial Ave. S.W., New Philadelphia, OH 44663.

Obituary for Della Perkins

Della Marie (Hines) Perkins, 99, of Newcomerstown, Ohio, went to her heavenly home on June 12, 2020. Born in Somerset, Kentucky on September 16, 1920, she was the daughter of William and Eula Hines. On September 13, 1942, she married Charles H. Perkins, who passed away in August of 1990. Together they were the parents of Charles (Texie) Perkins and William (Mary) Perkins all of Uniontown, Ohio and Richard (Julie) Perkins of Newcomerstown, Ohio. Additionally, Della considered Frank (Mary) Malterer of Randolph, Ohio as her fourth son. Grandchildren include Robert (Kelly) Perkins, Mindy Perkins, Cole Perkins and Hayley (Zachary) Miller. She had eight great-grandchildren: Julianna, Mason, Ben, Coty, Faith, Dakota, Sophia, and Olivia. Besides her husband, Della was preceded in death by her grandson Ryan W. Perkins. One of Della's fondest career memories was working at Ravenna Arsenal, assembling M79 ammunition for the war effort. Della will be remembered as a devout Christian who never met a stranger. She never had a cross word to say to anyone and would take every opportunity to spread God's word to all she could. Her greatest joy in life was baking for her family and many establishments in Newcomerstown. Della's cakes were enjoyed by many people, and you never left her house without eating first! Della enjoyed going to garage sales, making quilts and taking care of others. She loved and spoiled her grandkids and never spanked them once! She was known to everyone as "Grandma Della" or "Nana." In keeping with Della's wishes, there will be a private funeral service at Addy Funeral Home in Newcomerstown. Burial will take place at West Lawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Oak Pointe Nursing and Rehabilitation Activities Department (130 Buena Vista Street Baltic, OH 43804). Please add Activities Christmas Fund in the memo. This fund is used to purchase Christmas gifts for the residents at Oak Pointe. The family would like to extend their gratitude to the staff at Oak Pointe for the wonderful care shown to Della.

Marsha Ann Marlatt-Meek

May 14, 1954 - August 9, 2020

Marsha Marlatt-Meek passed away on Sunday, August 9th, 2020 at her home in Port Washington, Ohio. Born May 14, 1954 to Jessie Marlatt-Russell of Gnadenhutten and the late Delmar Marlatt.

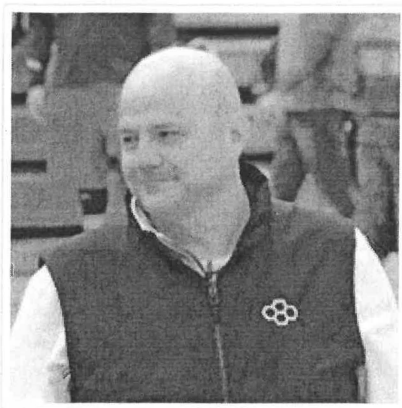

She was a graduate of Indian Valley South in the class of 1972 before she began her career as a self-made graphic artist.

Marsha was well known for her accomplishments in archery; her green thumb, with a beautiful garden to show for it; and spending time with loved ones. She truly lived life to its fullest and to the beat of her own drum.

Marsha married Chet Meek in 1998 who survives at their home. She is also survived by her mother; brother, Jeff Marlatt; niece, Lacy Monticelli and her husband Andrew; nephew, Jameson Marlatt; and extended family, Callene Peterson.

She was preceded in death by her father, and sister-in-law, Carmen Marlatt.

In keeping with her wishes, no services are planned at this time.

Jericoe J. Jones

November 22, 1974 - August 12, 2020

Jericoe J. Jones was born November 22, 1974 in Dennison to the late Harold "Butch" Jones and his mother, Alice Simmons of Dover. He graduated from Garaway High School in 1993 and then went on to graduate from Ohio University Eastern Law Enforcement Academy in 1996. He served 13 years in law enforcement, working for the Village of Dennison, the City of Uhrichsville, and the Harrison County Sherriff's Office as a detective. Jericoe served on the South Eastern Narcotics Task Force as well as the Harrison Co. Sexual Assault Task Force. He later graduated from the National Training Center of Polygraph Science in New York City. He served as a polygraph examiner from Harrison, Carrol, Jefferson, Tuscarawas, Belmont and Guernsey counties. He had three cases he was most proud of. He was able to get a confirmed truthful chart to prove a Jefferson Co. female was innocent of aggravated arson, in which someone else later confessed to. The second case, he was able to solve a 30 year old cold case with a second confirmed chart with a confession. The third case, he was able to prove a man was innocent of aggravated rape with a truthful chart, where the lady later failed the polygraph test and confessed she made the whole story up. Jericoe later left law enforcement and joined the Oil & Gas boom, where he served as a Safety Coordinator and Project Manager. He was most recently employed by Western Mountain Inc. where he served as Project Manager. Jericoe was never the guy to hit "decline call." He didn't care what you needed- a shoulder to cry on, a sounding board to vent to, advice, or a financial need, he was always there & came through every time. Jericoe was also a very influential coach- he coached his daughter, Tori Jones' softball teams, Paul's Body Shop, and numerous Dover All Star teams, along with a travel softball team, the "Outlaws." Jericoe's softball teams went on to win numerous championships along the way, and the Dover Outlaw team was feared wherever they went. His greatest love in sports was watching the kids grow as players and developing life-long memories with them and their families. His favorite sport was wrestling, where he served as head wrestling coach at Newcomerstown High School. He and his devoted staff set a goal his first year, and they turned an average program into a small mega power in Division III Wrestling, gaining the respect of the mega powers in Division I and Division II, producing numerous state qualifiers and state placers. Jericoe's Trojans currently have three wrestlers ranked in the top five in the state. He was the
