MR. HARTLINE'S HOME, STRASBURG

Ben's Grandpa
Franklin Hartline

SCENE ON MR. HARTLINE'S FARM

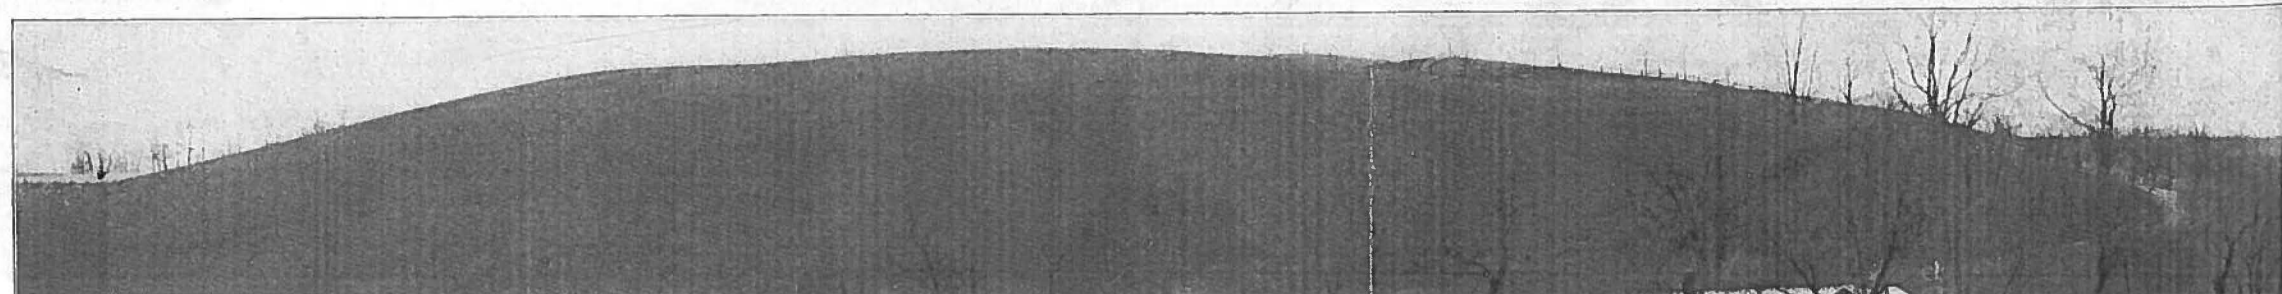

Peter Hartline came from about Strasburg, Germany, served in the War of '12, settled near Bolivar, and married Christina, daughter of George and Mary Houseman Palmer of English descent. He died March 17, 1837, aged forty-nine; and she died May 15, 1826, aged thirty-eight years, and was buried on the farm near Bolivar. Their son, Joseph, born January 8, 1818, and died August 9, 1904, married Christina, daughter of Abraham and Susanna Seese Gnagy. Christina Hartline was born November 16, 1847, and died March 8, 1880. Her father, Abraham, was born November 7, 1804, and died March 11, 1861; her mother, Susanna, was born June 28, 1803, and died March 18, 1845. Abraham was buried near Collins Station, Indiana. Abraham was the son of Christian and Catharine Stryker Gnagy. He was a United Brethren preacher who died and was buried at Maumee City, Ohio. His wife, Catherine, died September 15, 1828, aged fifty-four. Susanna Gnagy's father, George Seese, was born August 6, 1783, and died December 10, 1848. His wife, nee Mary Miller, was born August 26, 1782, and died August 31, 1872. All not otherwise stated were buried at Strasburg. Franklin Hartline, the oldest of the twelve children of Joseph and Christina Hartline, was born January 31, 1850. After work on the farm and school in the district, he went to Mount Union College in the spring and fall of 1869. He then taught four winter schools,

HARTLINE'S PRIZE HERD IN FIVE STATES IN 1907

during which in August, 1871, he married Lucinda, a sister of John Garber, whose family is elsewhere noted. She died June 30, 1874, leaving Calvin L., and an infant, Walter J., who died six weeks later. On December 27, 1876, Mr. Hartline married Miss Adolphine, one of the four children of Frederick and Magdalene Layman Chattain, who lived on the French side of Switzerland. She was born July 6, 1852, and, after the death of her father, was brought to Ohio by her mother in 1855. Mr. and Mrs. Hartline have eight children: Edwin Stanley, at Long Lake, Wisconsin; Joseph Clinton, in partnership with Calvin L. in hardware store at Newcomerstown; Frances Felicia Hollinger, at Massillon; and Effie Fredonia, Nellie Flossie, Roscoe Chattain, Frank Leslie and Fritzie Waldo, at home, where farming has been the occupation, with special attention, since 1890, to the breeding of registered Red Polled cattle with remarkable success. Mr. Hartline's herds have won first prizes in the State Fairs of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee; in all, in twenty-three different state exhibitions in nine different States. He also won first prize at the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo, and in five different years in the International Stock Expositions at Chicago. The herd illustrated has just returned with first prizes won in the State Fairs for 1907, in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Of Historical Interest
