Doris:

Received your letter and am forwarding a descendant chart Phillip Hershman, Jr. who is my great, great, great grandfather. John Baker Hershman was my great, great, great uncle.

I also have information on the HIRSCHMANN (original spelling) family dating back to 1704 when in Germany and their coming to America in 1751. Phillip's father was one of 4 brothers who arrived in Philadelphia on 10/17/1751 on the Duke of Wiremburg. These four brothers "scattered" to various cities. Phillip and his father Matthias Ulrich Hirschmann ended up in Virginia.

Hope this information is of benefit to you.

Are you a descendant of Rosanna (Anne) Baker? If so, and if you have information on her family, I would appreciate your sending it to me.

Your certainly welcome to contact me at (610) 995-0874. This is the number for my "home" office. Radnor is a suburb of Philadelphia, PA.

I lived in Coshocton County from 1956 to 1959. My father, Robert R. Hershman, Sr. (page 8) was the manager of the Coshocton Chamber of Commerce during those years.

Enjoy,

Bill Hershman

The last Bowman schoolhouse was built in 1888 on the south side of the Walhonding Canal. The earlier schoolhouse stood on the Hershman farm on the north side of SR 36. The school was still standing in 1968 having been purchased by L.C. Shaw & Newton Speckman, retired teachers who bought the farm

(3) 10-Nov-1900, in Portsmouth, Scioto County, OH, Hattie M. Waring, b. Circa 1876, Portsmouth, Scioto County, OH, d. ?. Charles died 11-Aug-1914, Coshocton, OH, buried: Prairie Chapel Cemetary, Coshocton, OH. Charles Barrow Hershman was married to Julia A. Richardson on 2/22/1877 in Coshocton, OH. Julia was born in 1851 & died 6/2/1885 in Coshocton, OH. She is buried in Prairie Chapel Cemetary, Coshocton, OH. Records aren't available to prove his marriage to Sarah E. Sadie Smith after Julia's death. On 11/10/1900, C. B. married Hattie Waring (age 24) of Ports- mouth, Oh. They were married by a Justice of the Peace, per a clerk in the Probate Court of Scioto County. He was 52 years old at that time. Julia: Charles Barrow Hershman's first wife. Two children: Harvey Wilden(stillborn) and Harold Jay Hershman. Sarah: Sarah Smith Hershman, my great, great grandmother allegedly married several times. In 1916, she was living at 844 Main St. Coshocton, OH and was a teacher. Her husband in 1932, Linsay Sandridge (b.-4/6/1866 in Richmond, Va & d. 11/29/1935) is buried in Valley View cemetary, Warsaw, OH. There is no proof in Coshocton records about when or if Sarah & C.B.Hershman married. Sarah was the daughter of Henry McFaden Smith (Washington County, PA) and Martha Jane Milligan (Coshocton County, OH). Hattie: Though her actual birth date is not known, the marriage record of 1900 indicates her as being 24 and Charles B. as 46. The latter is not correct as his head stone and death record clearly states that he was born in 1848. Charles, therefore, was 52 when he married Hattie Waring. Hattie was the daughter of David Waring and Mary Blyler Waring. Hattie remarried to Gust Pappas, after Charles Barrow's death. They married on May 30, 1916 in Coshocton, OH.
