DO IT TODAY

We are nearing the close of the school term. This means that we have to get down to work if we haven't so done before. Two weeks and examinations will be here. Let's don't wait and cram. Instead, let's get our lessons well every day and examination day will not have to be feared.

Remember, there are only four years in high school.

Although the days may seem long we wonder at the end of the year where that year has gone to. We will discover the worth of an education when we start out on our own in life.

So Let's not wait and put off until tomorrow.

Instead let's get it done today!

-Kathryn Troendly

SERVICE

If we are to make a real civilization, we must keep that one word foremost in our minds Service. If each one would grasp and fulfill every opportunity he has to serve others, this would indeed be a wonderful world.

Every one of us has a chance to serve others. Teachers have the chance to serve the pupils, pupils have a chance to serve the teachers. Likewise teachers have the opportunity to serve each other as do also the pupils. This can pertain to people of all classes. Are we fulfilling this opportunity to the greatest extent?

Almost everyone has the instinct of looking out for himself first. It is all right for a person to watch out for himself but shouldn't he perform some tasks, not fearing that he might not gain the advantage?

What are we in this world for, to give services or to receive services? It is all right to accept services from others but it is just as fine a quality to give services to others at any opportunity.

-Kathryn Troendly

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT TO BE HELD MAY 2.

Our commencement will be on May 2. Since we are not going to hire a speaker this year, the graduating class will put on the program themselves. Four of the students will give orations.

Raymond Folkert, who has an average of 94.04 percent, will deliver the valedictory.

Laura Torgler, with an average of 93 percent will give the salutatory.

Mr. May has also chosen Josephine Mizer and Ruth Zimmer to give orations. In addition, there will be several musical numbers by the class of '34.

SENIOR BOOSTER CLUB PLAY

The Senior Booster Club presented the play "A Little Mistake" last Wednesday. The following members of the Booster Club participated: Roberta Richardson, C. Rogers, M. Simoni, E. Wilson, and Eugene Bowen a member of the public speaking class. This play was well attended and the proceeds were given toward the athletic fund.

LETTERS PRESENTED AT PEP MEETING

The Junior and Senior High School met in the auditorium Friday afternoon for an assembly. The purpose of this meeting was to present the football and basketball letters. The presentation of the letters was made by Coach Schroeder. The following Junior High boys received football letters: J. Lenzo, Gerald Smith, K. Ausmus, B. Goettge, R. Brode, S. Jones, H. Atha, B. Jackson, C. Williams, B. Warner, J. Heller, R. Bassett and Jr. Albright.

The following freshman boys who played on the Junior High team this year and also received letters are: R. Vansickle, R. Ophile, J. Tish, H. Robinson, Chris Yanai, Royce Moore, R. Taylor, and H. Peoples.

The following Jr. High boys received basketball letters:

S. Jones, B. Goettge, C. Swietzer, R. Knowles, C. Huntsman, J. Heller.

Coach Schroeder then told us that he would now present the Senior H1 boys, who had played the number of quarters required, with their letters. The following boys received letters: H. Hudson, M. Thompson, O. Korn, G. Maxwell, O. Shalosky, G. Meeks, A. Wilkins, E. McCall, M. Derr, W. Couts, P. Taylor, H. Anderson, R. Jones, B. Cooper, and R. Parks.

Coach Schroeder then made the presentation of the basketball letters. Ed McCall was selected captain of the basketball team. The following received letters: F. Fisher, J. Fletcher, G. Maxwell, O. Korn, P. Hammersley, and M. Thompson.

Herman Hudson was chosen as captain of the team of 1933. He was chosen after a close election.

--Harriet Ophile

THE PROGRESS OF THE ANNUAL

The work on the annual is near completion. The assignments of each member of the staff have been finished and handed in. Due to the fact that the theme which was first selected could not be used, a new one was chosen.

At a meeting of the Senior class votes were cast for the dedication of the annual and it was decided to keep the dedication a secret until the annual is published. It will be sent to the press within a few days and in a short time will be ready for distribution.

--Raymond Folkert

THE FLASH

The Junior-Senior play, "The Flash," was presented to an enthusiastic audience last night. The setting of the play is in the Green Room of the Mask and Dagger Theater where the actors wait their turns. The play takes the audience backstage into the lives of Star, a mysterious crystal-gazer, an energetic reporter, a blustering detective, a wealthy young man, and his society-crazed mother, the ushers, electricians, maids, and workers in the theater. The ending was a surprise and a delight to the audience.

The play was well acted, the players holding the audience in a state of excitement through humorous and mysterious scenes from the first shriek of Lily until the curtain closed on the act.

The cast was well supported by the capable stage managers who were on the alert to have the lighting and sound effects just right. The ushers also added to the enjoyment of the evening by their courteous and efficient work.

JUNIOR NEWS

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Spartan Club sponsored a card party and dance in the K of P Hall Wed. Night April 4. Lunch was served by a group of Sophomore girls. Bob Daugherty's orchestra from Coshocton furnished the music for the dance. The dance was a big success.

Two of our Sophomore boys received Varsity Letters at the Pep Meeting Friday, April 6. John Fletcher, Varsity forward on the basket-ball team and Harold Anderson who played on the football team.

The Sophomore Class Team was the winner of the Inner-Class Basketball Tournament.

Kathryn Ausmus has returned to school after a long absence. She has moved to Port, where she plans to attend school next year.

Dorothy Shaffer was a visitor in the Coshocton schools during the Easter vacation.

Edna Earley and Frances Milligan spent their Easter vacation at the home of the latter's grandparents.

M., Carol P., Ruth P., Jean R., Dorothea S., Marian T., Mavis T.

A number of the Freshman girls and boys attended the Spartan dance last week.

Chas. Abbuhl says he spent a very enjoyable week-end at Uhrichsville, his home town.

Horace Jackson, Joe Tish, Howard Robinson, and Chris Yanai were compelled to write the Articles of the Constitution as a result of talking a little in the Study Hall.

Who was the girl that tripped Robert Opphile and as a result caused one of his front teeth to be knocked out?

We wonder who the girls were who tried to teach Bobby Taylor and Chris Yanai to dance at the Spartan Dance.

YOU SELDOM SEE:

Jules Rohr not giggling.
Robert Stoffer without a date.
A teacher who never assigns homework.

Carl Seiber acting sensible.

HONESTY

The greatest thing in the world is honesty. Being honest with yourself comes first and then being honest with others. Although we don't look at it as being dishonest when we hand in other people's work as our own we are being dishonest. When we copy in tests we are not adding to our knowledge, but are really subtracting from the people we copy from. These are just a few of our common faults which may be said to be dishonest. We must remember that the little dishonest things count just as much as the bigger ones. So let's all try to be more honest in the little things just as much as in the bigger things.

---Jane Ashelman

KEEPING IN TUNE WITH THE EIGHTH GRADE HISTORY CLASS

The eighth A section of Junior High have been studying the World War which is the most interesting part of the eighth grade history. Mr. Barthalow has made it very interesting and clear to his pupils. He gives many oral talks which are not given in the history books of the pupils. Mr. Barthalow's attentive listeners not only get the advantage of these oral reports but also they have the pleasure of not reciting until about the last five minutes of the period.

The pupils and teacher are in the midst of this great battle. They are expecting to enter the room and either be blown up by a bomb or shot by one of the German machine guns. ---Jevene Lacey

JOYCE KILMER

Joyce Kilmer was born<sup>n</sup>1886 and died in 1918. He was an American poet and journalist, famous as the author of the beautiful poem "Trees".

He was born at Brunswick, N.J. and educated at Rutgers College and Columbia University. After teaching for a time, he entered newspaper work in New York City, soon becoming a well known contributor to many newspapers and magazines; but being distinguished particularly for verse. He was killed in France in the fighting along the Ourcq, on July 30, 1918.

His "Trees" is quoted all over the world. Shortly before his death, a fellow soldier who didn't know him said, "Say, do you know that poem about a tree?" and began to recite it. Kilmer finished it.

---Mary Knezevich

FOURTH LARGEST DIAMOND IN THE WORLD

Diamond history was made recently when a native laborer discovered a flawless blue-white diamond weighing 726 carats on the digging of J.J. Jonker, a poor prospector, at Elandsfontein, South Africa. Large as a hen's egg, the stone was immediately bought by a diamond firm for $315,000, with a part of which the lucky 62 year old prospector planned to realize his life long ambition of buying a sheep and cattle ranch. Only three times in history before have large stones been found. The biggest, the Cullinan Diamond, weight 3,025 carats before it was cut. The Excelsior, 969½ carats; and the Great Mogul, 787 carats. With the finding of the Jonkers Diamond as it has been christened, prospectors are rushing from all parts of Transvaal in the hope of similar discoveries. Two general methods are in use for mining the gems. In many parts of South Africa they occur in river gravel which is washed and screened. Most of the diamonds of commerce, however, come from the curious volcanic pipes of blue ground typified by the Kimberly diggings. Here deep shafts are driven, the earth being brought to the surface and washed.

Kimberly is famous for the wonderfully clear and beautiful diamonds. Copper, tin, and coal are also found near these mining centers.

CLASS ROOM NOTES

Jane Ashelman, a pupil of Mr. Barthalow's has had an average of 97% for the past period. This is the highest average ever achieved by any eighth grade pupil. We wish to compliment her. The Honor Roll for the eighth grade is as follows:

Ann Davis	Robert Brode
Thelma Swigert	Junior Reger
Viola Ott	Clanor Grey
Mary Norris	Grace Zimmer
Robert Knowles	Mabel Earley
Florence Cunningham	Arthur Johns
Mabel Marlatt	Madlyn Bradshaw
Wayne Hartstine	Rosalie Cunningham
Wayne Angle	Melvene Shumaker
Eunis Wiandt	Jevine Lacey
Waneta Twyman	Mary McAllister
Betty Gross	Billy Goettge
Ruth Leighninger	Jane Ashelman
Carl Sweitzer	Dorothy Hill
John Heller	Margie Hendershot
Gladys Laughlin	John McPeck
Marjorie Lease	Katherine Hothem
Donald Clark	George Covic
Jane Latham	Christina Williams

HONOR ROLL--SEVENTH GRADES

Jr. Hinds Mary Knezevich

John Budd	Wilda Lee

The 8-A literature class just finished reading "Evangeline," which was written by Longfellow, and has been very interesting. They are now having the joy of reading "Sohrab and Rustum," which was written by Matthew Arnold, and seems more enjoyable.

The seventh grades are beginning to read "The Courtship of Miles Standish." They are looking forward to an enjoyable time in Reading. Watch out for the Seventh Grades! There is excitement in the air and we are going to be doing things soon.

Well to let the High School know that the 8-A is still doing its figures we will let you in on a brief account of this weeks work. We have been working on our General Review and most of the room is coming to the finish. We have a sheet of thirty-eight problems to work as a review. This review is for a small test which will be given Monday. Come up and see us some time if you don't believe we are learning our figures.

The 8-A English class is doing very well lately. We have sixty-three sentences on a sheet to diagram and we are getting along fine. We have to diagram them then give the parts of speech and use each word in the sentence. We are all working hard on our autobiographies which will be done soon.

The 7-A Geography Class is beginning the study of Africa. Mr.

Derr told us if we finished in time he would tell us the mystery story, "The Hidden Hand."

The 7-A English class is beginning the study of the compound sentence.

The 7-A History class is studying the French Revolution.

The 7-A Reading class is required to know the poem, "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer.

Glendale Risher was the only one who went to the show, "A Little Mistake." Maybe he understood Beverly Barnhouse to say that she was going.

Wilda Lee spent Friday in Pittsburg attending the funeral of her great-uncle.

Dorothy Edwards spent Easter Sunday at her grandmother's home.

The Easter Bunny must have been extra good to Junior Albright. He was absent from school the following Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday after Easter.

Beverly Ann Barnhouse attended the Spartan Dance Wednesday evening.

Harold Fenton spent Easter Sunday with his cousin Earl Fenton.

Martha Olson visited relatives in Ostrander, Ohio.

June Latham spent Easter vacation in Coshocton, Ohio.

June Boltz was taken to the Coshocton Hospital Sunday afternoon of March 25 for appendicitis. She has now returned to her home and is improving daily.

Mr. Derr took the following boys and girls visiting to the Plainfield and country school Monday April 2: Jane Ashelman, Ann Davis, Grace Zimmer, Thelma Swigert, Marjorie Lease, Gladys Laughlin, Ruth Leighninger, Robert Knowles, and Robert Brode. These pupils had an average of 95 in Arithmetic.

Chester Schlarb spent Sunday in Uhrichsville.

Bud Jackson spent the Easter vacation at Canton, Ohio.

Shirley Kuhn of Dover visited with Jane Kohler Easter Sunday.

Evelyn Boltz spent Easter with her grandparents.

Miss Edna Huff visited her uncle during the Easter vacation.

Charles Williams had guests from Coshocton over the Easter vacation.

June Boltz has come home from the hospital and is getting along splendidly.

Mr. Barthalow and Mr. Cooper spent the Easter vacation with friends and relatives at Athens.

Betty McFarland visited friends in Zanesville over the week-end.

Katherine Covic was visiting her boy friend (Everett Corbett) Sunday!!

Max Mackey and Donald Addy spent their Easter vacation fishing and splitting rails.

Jack Gainor returned Tuesday after spending the vacation with relatives in Newark.

The debate held by the eighth grade in the auditorium Friday was won by the affirmative side. The question was: Resolved, that the Philippine Islands should have their independence. Those on the affirmative side were: Jane Ashelman, R. Brode and Thelma Swigert. Those on the negative were: Arthur Johns, Ann Davis and Gladys Laughlin. Mr. Cooper acted as judge.

Another debate is to be given this Friday. The subject is: Resolved, that the Mexican War was justifiable. John McPeck, John Heller and Billy Goettge compose the affirmative side and Dorothy Hill, Marjorie Hendershot and Ruth Leighninger the negative.

To those who talk and talk this proverb should appeal: the steam that blows the whistle will never turn the wheel.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

All is not gold that glitters.
All truths must not be told at all times.
A guilty conscience needs no accuser.
Deceit shows a little mind.
A good reputation is preferable to a girdle of gold.

A mere suggestion - To let the teachers pick out the four or the one best autobiography of both eighth grades.

THE SUNSHINE CLUB

The girls of the 7<sup>c</sup> class are forming a club called the Sunshine Club. Mrs. White entertained the girls at her home on East Canal St. The guests who were present were: Ruth Greathouse, Bessie McElhaney, Vera Robinson, Margaret Elliott, M. Hafner, Helen Schlarb, Mary Alice Bicker, Hilda Sayre, Helen Pappas, Vada Hewitt, Irene Yanai, and Rose

Yanai. Officers were elected. They were:

Mrs. White - Sponsor
Margaret Elliott - President
Bessie McElhaney - Vice President
Margaret Hafner - Treasurer
Vera Robinson - Press Reporter
Vada Hewitt - Secretary

Games were played and delicious refreshments were served.

LOWDOWNS ON THE HIGHLIGHTS

Mildred C. - What are you going to be when you grow up?
Evelyn B. - A woman.

Irene W. - How do you spell sense?
Mary McGee - Dollars and cents or horse sense?
Irene W. - Well, like this "I ain't seen him sence."

Mr. Barthalow - Do you think paper can be used effectively to keep people warm?

Homer S. I should say! The last report card I took home kept the family hot for a week.

Mr. Barthalow found this on a certain eighth grade paper after the surprised semester test:

Dear Mr. Barthalow:

If you sell any of my answers to the funny paper I expect you to go fifty-

SPICE UP BORD fifty

Mr. Barthalow - How would you say in Shakespearean language "Here comes a bow-legged man?"

Stranger, - Does Jane play the piano by ear?

Mrs. Ashelman - No, she used both hands and feet. I don't think she has learned to use her ears yet.

We find that Edith Craigo is 13. Ah! Edith!

A word to the wise is useless.

HISTORY PROJECT WINS NOTICE

From THE LOUDSPEAKER' Floresville High School, Floresville, Texas .

Members of the Junior Class who groaned so loudly over their history themes a few weeks ago are now entitled to breathe a sigh of relief and true pride. Their history project, according to Miss Baldwin, was to write the history of Wilson County from their own research. Thus they began by tracing their own family history as far back as some of them could go and bringing their grandparents to Wilson County.

Complaints from harassed and over-worked parents and relatives were nearly as numerous as those from the Juniors. Old trunks, family Bibles, Photograph albums, and records of all kinds were searched for valuable information about the great grandparents. Woe unto the Junior who failed to find at least one coat of arms or family hero! No one realized at the time that he was digging for buried treasure, but that is just what happened.

Each paper was read by Mrs. Mildred Burris Garrett, the granddaughter of one of Wilson County's pioneer settlers. She is an authority on Wilson County history, for she has been engaged in searching and saving the memories for several years. She found so much information in the Junior papers that she copied some of them and took them to Austin, Texas. As a result of her interest and the information she found, the archivist, Mrs. Hatcher, has asked permission to have all the Junior themes typed and put on permanent file in the archives of Texas. They will be sent to her next week and the Junior Class of Floresville, Texas, can say with pride that they have made a real contribution to Texas history.

When the project was started Miss Baldwin said that she hoped to create a love for pioneer days in Texas and to see if each member of the class could trace his family back to the original member who immigrated to the United States. In this way she planned for the class to realize the importance of the Westward Movement. From the sixty-five members of the Junior Class she hoped to compile enough material on the pioneer families of Wilson County to make the history of Wilson County complete. The project has now gone far beyond her hopes. ----

SEE THE ANCIENT PAPERS

Miss Wood's General English Class has just unearthed a lot of newspapers printed at Cumelot, Eng., in 1591. They tell of the doings at that old center of Romance and Chivalry at King Arthur's Round Table.

A skeptic might doubt their authenticity, for the glue is not quite dry and the type looks positively modern. Nevertheless, some are good examples of the reporters profession.

"MERRY MIXERS"

(From the HALLY BOO CAPERS, Hamilton, Ohio).

A young bride was very busy one morning just as the recipes were being given over the radio and told her husband to take the recipe down. He unfortunately got two stations at the same time, one broadcasting the morning exercises and the other the recipes. This is what he got.

Hands on hips, place one cup of flour on the shoulders, raise the knees and depress toes and wash thoroughly in one half cup of milk. In four counts raise and lower the legs and mash two hard boiled eggs in a sieve. Repeat six times. Inhale one half teaspoon of baking powder and one cup of flour. Breathe naturally, exhale and sift. Attention! jump to a squatting position and fold whites of eggs backwards and forward over the head and in four counts make a stiff dough that will stretch at the waist. Lie flat on the floor and roll into a small ball the size of a walnut. Hop to a stand-still and boil in hot water but do not boil to a gallop. In ten minutes remove from fire and dry with a towel.

Breathe naturally and dress in worn flannels and serve with your favorite soup.
