It is not known for sure that the land transaction, cited, above, was for this Archibald, or for his son, Archibald. The legal description puts the land very near to the purported location of the "original Archibald Little" home, as stated by the current landowner. It is possible that the two Archibalds have been confused. However, in 1840, a list of landowners in Monroe Twp, Guernsey Co does not include Archibald, the son, as a landowner. It does include Isabelle, Archibald's widow. (Stories of Guernsey County Ohio, by William G. Wolfe, 1943, Chapter XXXI, Monroe Township). The same reference describes the settling of Irish Ridge and details the role of Archibald Little and his family (see below). It also states that Archibald Little owned a mill, probably a grist mill.

Little, Archibald, (Z), Nov. 22, 1816, resident of Steubenville, Ohio, acquired land in Range 2, Township 4, Section 19. (NW 1/4, 160 acres)
Little, Archibald, (Z), Nov. 22, 1816, resident of Steubenville, Ohio, acquired land in Range 2, Township 4, Section 13. (SE 1/4, 160 acres)
Little, Archibald, (Z-M), Sept. 7, 1824, resident of Guernsey Co., Ohio, acquired land in Range 2, Township 4, Section 19. (W 1/2 SW 1/4, 80 acres)

It is probable that the third entry refers to the same transaction as the one cited above. The transactions in 1816 would have Archibald (and family) living in Steubenville, Ohio at the time. They are known to have immigrated to the US via New York in 1814. There is a family tradition that they located in a river valley first, although opinions vary as to which river valley. After a short time they were supposed to have moved to Irish Ridge for a better climate and for reasons of health. Archibald, the son, would have been about 22 years old in 1816, and was not married until 1819. In the 1820 census, an Archibald Little with an age corresponding to his was reported in Cambridge Township.

Irish Ridge

Irish Ridge is not a political division or subdivision within itself. It is a territory somewhat limited in extent, yet widely known. Many Guernsey county people have heard of the place, no doubt, but do not know where it is located or what it is like. They assume, from the name, that persons living there now, or at one time, came from Ireland. That is right.

Settled by the Irish - Irish Ridge is west of Birmingham in Monroe Township. It begins to rise at Clear Fork creek on the south, stretches north three or four miles, and then drops down to Rocky Fork. From about the center a spur reaches southwest to Odell. Along the crest of the main ridge is the Irish Ridge Road. From this road an extensive view of the country may be had.

In 1814 Archibald Little, his wife Isabel, and their nine children, then living in Ireland, decided to come to America. They were not permitted by law to sell their farm and take the money out of the country. However, they gathered together their household goods and began the journey. The ship was unseaworthy and sprang a leak, but the flow of water was stopped by a ham of meat and their lives were spared.

Landing at New York they bought a yoke of oxen and a cart, and started towards the West. The smallest children rode in the cart; the rest of the family walked. After many days they came to what is now Irish Ridge in Monroe Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, and here they established a home.

They had no neighbors at first, but later there came others from Ireland: William Kimball (see our Kimble/Kimball ancestry), Samuel Clark, James Hazlett, Captain John Orr (see our Orr ancestry), John Smith and Isaac Barishford. There was thus formed an Irish settlement.

Irish Ridge Church - Some who were not Irish were attracted to the place: Frederick Braniger, who came in 1816; also David Fisher and Elias White. The Fisher and Braniger families were of stock known as Pennsylvania Dutch. Several descendants of these families are now living on Irish Ridge.

On the farm owned at present by William Tedrick, a church was built about 1830. As were all other churches of the Guernsey county pioneers, it was built of logs. Amongst its founders were William and John Little, sons of the original pioneer; John Johnson, John Smith and Captain John Orr. Here the Irish Ridge folks worshiped for many years, and near this place two other churches were successively erected, the present one in 1889. It is called the Hopewell, or Irish Ridge church, and is of the Methodist Protestant denomination.....At the church is a cemetery within which the pioneers and many of their descendants are buried.

Irish Ridge School - There was established, of course, an Irish Ridge school. This was located near the church, and like the church, gave place to other buildings. In 1870 a brick schoolhouse was erected, which was destroyed by fire in 1888. It was replaced by another brick building, which is the only one-room school of the kind in the county.....

In the years before the Civil War one of the "Underground Railroad" routes through Guernsey county passed along Irish Ridge. The people there were sympathetic towards the fugitive slaves and assisted them on their way to freedom. A station was maintained on the farm now owned by Albert Ross on Rocky Fork.

Neither a store nor a postoffice was ever kept on Irish Ridge. Mail was received through the office at Birmingham [also known as Milnersville] until that was closed a few years ago; now it is delivered by rural mail carriers from Kimbolton.

The nine children of the first settlers, Archibald and Isabel Little, were William, Joseph, Archibald, John, Francis, Edward, Mary, Ellen and Rebecca. They settled in the community after they married, but their descendants scattered. There is no longer a family by that name on the ridge, nor is there anything there to indicate that it was ever Irish.

This narrative has appeared in several other sources since this was published.

Excerpt from; "Stories of Guernsey County," by William G. Wolfe, as reprinted in Sidelight Stories of Guernsey County, Ohio, Guernsey County Chapter; Ohio Genealogical Society, 1990, page 40.

Early Days on Rocky Fork

"Over on Rocky Fork" is a phrase often used in designating a particular region of Guernsey county. Rocky Fork is a creek that flows south through the western part of Monroe township and empties into Sugar Tree. The latter stream flows into Salt Fork, whose waters join Wills creek.

Rocky Fork, as the name implies, flows through a rocky section of the township. The pioneers found high hills, deep hollows and caverns, when they came here. The fertile soil produced mammoth trees, beneath which grew laurel and other shrubs. The pioneers found, too, that it was the kind of place in which wild animals loved to live, and it was many years before they had rid the valleys and adjacent hillsides of them.

Bears and wolves were the most troublesome. On Irish Ridge, above the creek, lived Archibald Little. One day, one of Little's sons tracked a bear into a large hollow tree. He hastened home for an ax, and, with two neighbor boys and axes returned to the tree. It soon succumbed to their chopping and they stood by with their axes to attack the bear which they were sure would soon emerge. To their surprise three bears rushed out and attacked them. The axes proved to be the proper weapon and in the end the boys won the fight.

(The article continues with a story about another family and wolves.)

Birthdate conflicts with birthdate for his brother Archibald: Francis' tombstone reads "Francis Little, Died 1890, Age 90 years". He may have been born between March 1799 and March 23, 1800 which was when he died in 1890. His brother Archibald's tombstone give Archibald's birthdate as November 1, 1800, but other family sources give Archibald's birthdate as 1794.

Francis Little provided a home for his two great grandsons, George R. and James T. Little (born 1878 & 1879) after their father, Andrew Jasper, remarried.

Obituary from Guernsey Times, August 24, 1876

Birmingham Locals

Died, August 13th, Mrs. Francis Little, wife of Francis Little, Esq., aged 73. Mrs. Little was taken sick in the fore part of the summer with the flux; a black spot appearing on her foot spread almost to the knee, the flesh falling off her foot after enduring untold suffering; death quietly came to her relief; her remains were followed by a large concourse of friends to the Hopewell cemetery [also known as Irish Ridge Cemetery].

Birthdate discrepancies: Tombstone says age at death was 78 years, thus born 1797-1798; Obituary (above) would have the date as 1803; Census of 1850 has her as age 45, thus born about 1805.

Narrative written by Mary E. Coutts, daughter of Edward Little, August 10, 1929

"My Father, Edward Little, was the youngest son of Archibald and Isabel Little. He was born in Ireland in 1812. When he was but two years old his parents decided to take their children, six boys, William, Joseph, Archibald, John, Francis and Edward and three girls, Mary, Ellen and Rebecca, and seek a new home in a strange land. They gathered together what they could of their belongings and started on their journey. They were not allowed to sell their land and take the money out of the country. I do not remember the name of the ship they came over on but I do remember of hearing them say the ship sprang a leak and almost sank. They checked the flow of water enough with a ham of meat and they were able to keep the balance pumped out. They landed in New York, and bought a yoke of oxen and a cart. They loaded their belongings and the smallest children on the cart, and the rest of the family walked. I can imagine if such a sight was seen going along the street today, it would create quite an excitement. They landed on a ridge in Guernsey County that is called Irish Ridge to this day. My father married Eleanor Shannon, and four children were born to this union, Amon, Rebecca, William and myself. William died early in 1889 and Rebecca in 1928. My mother died in 1855. Some years later my father married Edith Hedge, daughter of Aaron Hedge. Three children were born to this union, Sarah, George and John. John died in infancy. George left years ago, and we have not heard from him for a long time. My father died in 1869. Sarah and myself are the only ones left of the family of seven."

Company D, mustered in May 1, 1864; mustered out September 3, 1864.

George Little, Private, age 27, entered service April 27, 1864, 100 days, mustered out with company September 3, 1864.

NOTE: If George was born in 1832, the age given above is not correct, or, we have not identified the correct George Little. This George Little, however, is the only George Little listed for Guernsey County.

172d Regiment- National Guard

"This regiment, brought out by the hundred days' call, did not leave the State. It was sent from Columbus to Gallipolis, Ohio, with a strength of eight hundred and fifty-four, rank and file, and performed guard duty at that important depot of Government stores during the whole of its service.

On several occasions the enemy made demonstrations on Gallipolis, but never ventured near enough to involve an engagement.

The One Hundred and Seventy-Second performed the duty required of it with fidelity. A large number of its members had previously seen active service in other regiments. It was mustered out of service at Gallipolis on the 24th of August, 1864, and immediately thereafter sent to Camp Chase, where it was paid and discharged."

December 1975, a narrative written by Pauline Little Huffman, granddaughter of George and Nancy Orr Little. (Some of the document is about Archibald Little and is very similar to the narrative in Wolfe's account. Only the parts relevant to George and Nancy Little are cited here.)

Grandfather George Little was born in 1832 and married Nancy Orr, who was born June 16, 1833, and was married April 23, 1853. To this union was born 10 children: Mary Elizabeth, Andrew Jasper, Mag (or Margaret), Frank, John, and Ella, and four died very young.

Grandfather served in the Civil War and after his return home, decided to migrate farther west. They went by covered wagon. It was a long hard journey and on the way while crossing Missouri, the children became sick with diphtheria and three of the children died and are buried there.

After a long hard trip they arrived in Nebraska and obtained 80 acres from William E. Little deceased, who had obtained the land from the Pacific Railroad on August 18, 1882 and deeded January 3, 1890 and left to Heirs at Law. George and Nancy Little, being the only Heirs obtained it with a mortgage. They lived there till Grandfather's death August 16, 1893. Grandmother then moved to Central City, where she lived till her death October 12, 1921.

When they arrived in Nebraska they had six living children, Mary Elizabeth had remained in Ohio, and Margaret, Jasper, John, Frank, and Ella had survived the trip. One child had died in Ohio and is buried at Irish Ridge. Uncle Frank died at the age of 31 yrs-11 mo.-21 days and is buried beside his father and mother at Central City, Nebraska.

Uncle John married Mary Hill who grew up in the west. He died in 1915 and is also buried beside his father, mother, and brother at Central City. Aunt Mary was Matron of a children's home and took care of him till his death from a sun stroke. I remember visiting him when I was very small with my father, mother and brother. After his death, Aunt Mary moved to Akron, Colorado and was Matron of a children's home there and raised their three children, Alva, Victor and Bessie, and is buried there beside her daughter Alva. I visited their graves in 1963.

Aunt Mag was married to Robert Vance and they homesteaded close to Federal, Wyoming and are buried at Laramie, Wyoming. They had four children, three boys and one girl.

Aunt Ella lived at Delta or Shasta, California. She was married to Joe Viola and had two children, Cecil and Nina. I corresponded with her until her death in 1946. She is buried in an Indian Cemetery on Mt. Shasta.

.....I remember little things father would tell, like how the Indians rode up to the back of the covered wagon and demand the biscuits Aunt Mag had baked for their supper, and of the bear skins on the floor for rugs.

December, 1975: Excerpts from a narrative written by Pauline Little Huffman about her grandparents, George and Nancy (Orr) Little. Only the portions relating to her father, Andrew Jasper Little, are cited here. See the notes for George Little for additional material.

My father, Andrew Jasper, lived most of his life in Ohio and was married four times. Three of them died and left him with children, when he married my mother, Mary J. Booth. The children were George and James to the first marriage, Charles to the second marriage, Elma to the third, and Melvin, Pauline, and Lucile to our mother.

Father out-lived all his wives and lived with me till his death on October 25, 1941.

Notes for ARCHIBALD LITTLE:

Signed: Yes, the document on file at the BLM contains a signature.

It is not known for sure that the land transaction, cited, above, was for this Archibald, or for his son, Archibald. The legal description puts the land very near to the purported location of the "original Archibald Little" home, as stated by the current landowner. It is possible that the two Archibalds have been confused. However, in 1840, a list of landowners in Monroe Twp, Guernsey Co does not include Archibald, the son, as a landowner. It does include Isabelle, Archibald's widow. (Stories of Guernsey County Ohio, by William G. Wolfe, 1943, Chapter XXXI, Monroe Township). The same reference describes the settling of Irish Ridge and details the role of Archibald Little and his family (see below). It also states that Archibald Little owned a mill, probably a grist mill.

Little, Archibald, (Z), Nov. 22, 1816, resident of Steubenville, Ohio, acquired land in Range 2, Township 4, Section 19. (NW 1/4, 160 acres)

Little, Archibald, (Z), Nov. 22, 1816, resident of Steubenville, Ohio, acquired land in Range 2, Township 4, Section 13. (SE 1/4, 160 acres)

Little, Archibald, (Z-M), Sept. 7, 1824, resident of Guernsey Co., Ohio, acquired land in Range 2, Township 4, Section 19. (W 1/2 SW 1/4, 80 acres)

It is probable that the third entry refers to the same transaction as the one cited above. The transactions in 1816 would have Archibald (and family) living in Steubenville, Ohio at the time. They are known to have immigrated to the US via New York in 1814. There is a family tradition that they located in a river valley first, although opinions vary as to which river valley. After a short time they were supposed to have moved to Irish Ridge for a better climate and for reasons of health. Archibald, the son, would have been about 22 years old in 1816, and was not married until 1819. In the 1820 census, an Archibald Little with an age corresponding to his was reported in Cambridge Township.

1820 Census: Monroe Twp, Guernsey Co

Males: 1 under 10 (probably Edward)
1 10-16 (???)
1 18-24 (probably Francis)

Females: 1 under 10 (probably Rebecca)
1 16-24 (probably Mary)
1 25-45 (probably Isabel, but the age is off, tally mark may be in wrong column)

1 45 & up (Archibald, age 59)

Irish Ridge

Irish Ridge is not a political division or subdivision within itself. It is a territory somewhat limited in extent, yet widely known. Many Guernsey county people have heard of the place, no doubt, but do not know where it is located or what it is like. They assume, from the name, that persons living there now, or at one time, came from Ireland. That is right.

Settled by the Irish - Irish Ridge is west of Birmingham in Monroe Township. It begins to rise at Clear Fork creek on the south, stretches north three or four miles, and then drops down to Rocky Fork. From about the center a spur reaches southwest to Odell. Along the crest of the main ridge is the Irish Ridge Road. From this road an extensive view of the country may be had.

In 1814 Archibald Little, his wife Isabel, and their nine children, then living in Ireland, decided to come to America. They were not permitted by law to sell their farm and take the money out of the country. However, they gathered together their household goods and began the journey. The ship was unseaworthy and sprang a leak, but the flow of water was stopped by a ham of meat and their lives were spared.

Landing at New York they bought a yoke of oxen and a cart, and started towards the West. The smallest children rode in the cart; the rest of the family walked. After many days they came to what is now Irish Ridge in Monroe Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, and here they established a home.

They had no neighbors at first, but later there came others from Ireland: William Kimball (see our Kimble/Kimball ancestry), Samuel Clark, James Hazlett, Captain John Orr (see our Orr ancestry), John Smith and Isaac Barishford. There was thus formed an Irish settlement.

Irish Ridge Church - Some who were not Irish were attracted to the place: Frederick Braniger, who came in 1816; also David Fisher and Elias White. The Fisher and Braniger families were of stock known as Pennsylvania Dutch. Several descendants of these families are now living on Irish Ridge.

On the farm owned at present by William Tedrick, a church was built about 1830. As were all other churches of the Guernsey county pioneers, it was built of logs. Amongst its founders were William and John Little, sons of the original pioneer; John Johnson, John Smith and Captain John Orr. Here the Irish Ridge folks worshiped for many years, and near this place two other churches were successively erected, the present one in 1889. It is called the Hopewell, or Irish Ridge church, and is of the Methodist Protestant denomination.....At the church is a cemetery within which the pioneers and many of their descendants are buried.

Irish Ridge School - There was established, of course, an Irish Ridge school. This was located near the church, and like the church, gave place to other buildings. In 1870 a brick schoolhouse was erected, which was destroyed by fire in 1888. It was replaced by another brick building, which is the only one-room school of the kind in the county.....

In the years before the Civil War one of the "Underground Railroad" routes through Guernsey county passed along Irish Ridge. The people there were sympathetic towards the fugitive slaves and assisted them on their way to freedom. A station was maintained on the farm now owned by Albert Ross on Rocky Fork.

Neither a store nor a postoffice was ever kept on Irish Ridge. Mail was received through the office at Birmingham [also known as Milnersville] until that was closed a few years ago; now it is delivered by rural mail carriers from Kimbolton.

The nine children of the first settlers, Archibald and Isabel Little, were William, Joseph, Archibald, John, Francis, Edward, Mary, Ellen and Rebecca. They settled in the community after they married, but their descendants scattered. There is no longer a family by that name on the ridge, nor is there anything there to indicate that it was ever Irish.

This narrative has appeared in several other sources since this was published.

Early Days on Rocky Fork

"Over on Rocky Fork" is a phrase often used in designating a particular region of Guernsey county. Rocky Fork is a creek that flows south through the western part of Monroe township and empties into Sugar Tree. The latter stream flows into Salt Fork, whose waters join Wills creek.

Rocky Fork, as the name implies, flows through a rocky section of the township. The pioneers found high hills, deep hollows and caverns, when they came here. The fertile soil produced mammoth trees, beneath which grew laurel and other shrubs. The pioneers found, too, that it was the kind of place in which wild animals loved to live, and it was many years before they had rid the valleys and adjacent hillsides of them.

Bears and wolves were the most troublesome. On Irish Ridge, above the creek, lived Archibald Little. One day, one of Little's sons tracked a bear into a large hollow tree. He hastened home for an ax, and, with two neighbor boys and axes returned to the tree. It soon succumbed to their chopping and they stood by with their axes to attack the bear which they were sure would soon emerge. To their surprise three bears rushed out and attacked them. The axes proved to be the proper weapon and in the end the boys won the fight.

(The article continues with a story about another family and wolves.)

Birthdate conflicts with birthdate for his brother Archibald: Francis' tombstone reads "Francis Little, Died 1890, Age 90 years". He may have been born between March 1799 and March 23, 1800 which was when he died in 1890. His brother Archibald's tombstone give Archibald's birthdate as November 1, 1800, but other family sources give Archibald's birthdate as 1794.

Francis Little provided a home for his two great grandsons, George R. and James T. Little (born 1878 & 1879) after their father, Andrew Jasper, remarried.

Obituary from Guernsey Times, August 24, 1876

Birmingham Locals

Died, August 13th, Mrs. Francis Little, wife of Francis Little, Esq., aged 73. Mrs. Little was taken sick in the fore part of the summer with the flux; a black spot appearing on her foot spread almost to the knee, the flesh falling off her foot after enduring untold suffering; death quietly came to her relief; her remains were followed by a large concourse of friends to the Hopewell cemetery [also known as Irish Ridge Cemetery].

Birthdate discrepancies: Tombstone says age at death was 78 years, thus born 1797-1798; Obituary (above) would have the date as 1803; Census of 1850 has her as age 45, thus born about 1805.

Narrative written by Mary E. Coutts, daughter of Edward Little, August 10, 1929

"My Father, Edward Little, was the youngest son of Archibald and Isabel Little. He was born in Ireland in 1812. When he was but two years old his parents decided to take their children, six boys, William, Joseph, Archibald, John, Francis and Edward and three girls, Mary, Ellen and Rebecca, and seek a new home in a strange land. They gathered together what they could of their belongings and started on their journey. They were not allowed to sell their land and take the money out of the country. I do not remember the name of the ship they came over on but I do remember of hearing them say the ship sprang a leak and almost sank. They checked the flow of water enough with a ham of meat and they were able to keep the balance pumped out. They landed in New York, and bought a yoke of oxen and a cart. They loaded their belongings and the smallest children on the cart, and the rest of the family walked. I can imagine if such a sight was seen going along the street today, it would create quite an excitement. They landed on a ridge in Guernsey County that is called Irish Ridge to this day. My father married Eleanor Shannon, and four children were born to this union, Amon, Rebecca, William and myself. William died early in 1889 and Rebecca in 1928. My mother died in 1855. Some years later my father married Edith Hedge, daughter of Aaron Hedge. Three children were born to this union, Sarah, George and John. John died in infancy. George left years ago, and we have not heard from him for a long time. My father died in 1869. Sarah and myself are the only ones left of the family of seven."

There are 11 George Little's from Ohio who served. The 172nd was organized in Gallipolis in 1864, and lists a George Little in Co. D.

from: Stories of Guernsey County, by William B. Wolfe, 1943

"The One Hundred Seventy-second Regiment was composed almost entirely of Guernsey County men. It engaged chiefly in guard duty, being stationed the greater part of the time at Gallipolis, Ohio. It did no duty outside the state.

The roster of Guernsey County soldiers engaged in the Civil War, as given above, is not complete. Many men were members of companies in other regiments. We have been unable to secure a complete list."

from: A Compendium of the War of the Rebellion, by Frederick H. Dyer, 1959, Vol III, pg 1553, a short Regimental History is given as follows:

172nd Regiment History

"Organized at Gallipolis, Ohio, and mustered in May 14, 1864. Guard duty at Gallipolis till September. Mustered out September 3, 1864.

Lost 12 enlisted men by disease during service."

Company D, mustered in May 1, 1864; mustered out September 3, 1864.

George Little, Private, age 27, entered service April 27, 1864, 100 days, mustered out with company September 3, 1864.

NOTE: If George was born in 1832, the age given above is not correct, or, we have not identified the correct George Little. This George Little, however, is the only George Little listed for Guernsey County.

from: Ohio in the Civil War: Her Statesmen Generals and Soldiers, Vol. II, by Whitelaw Reid, 1895

172d Regiment- National Guard

"This regiment, brought out by the hundred days' call, did not leave the State. It was sent from Columbus to Gallipolis, Ohio, with a strength of eight hundred and fifty-four, rank and file, and performed guard duty at that important depot of Government stores during the whole of its service.

On several occasions the enemy made demonstrations on Gallipolis, but never ventured near enough to involve an engagement.

The One Hundred and Seventy-Second performed the duty required of it with fidelity. A large number of its members had previously seen active service in other regiments. It was mustered out of service at Gallipolis on the 24th of August, 1864, and immediately thereafter sent to Camp Chase, where it was paid and discharged."

December 1975, a narrative written by Pauline Little Huffman, granddaughter of George and Nancy Orr Little. (Some of the document is about Archibald Little and is very similar to the narrative in Wolfe's account. Only the parts relevant to George and Nancy Little are cited here.)

Grandfather George Little was born in 1832 and married Nancy Orr, who was born June 16, 1833, and was married April 23, 1853. To this union was born 10 children: Mary Elizabeth, Andrew Jasper, Mag (or Margaret), Frank, John, and Ella, and four died very young.

Grandfather served in the Civil War and after his return home, decided to migrate farther west. They went by covered wagon. It was a long hard journey and on the way while crossing Missouri, the children became sick with diphtheria and three of the children died and are buried there.

After a long hard trip they arrived in Nebraska and obtained 80 acres from William E. Little deceased, who had obtained the land from the Pacific Railroad on August 18, 1882 and deeded January 3, 1890 and left to Heirs at Law. George and Nancy Little, being the only Heirs obtained it with a mortgage. They lived there till Grandfather's death August 16, 1893. Grandmother then moved to Central City, where she lived till her death October 12, 1921.

When they arrived in Nebraska they had six living children, Mary Elizabeth had remained in Ohio, and Margaret, Jasper, John, Frank, and Ella had survived the trip. One child had died in Ohio and is buried at Irish Ridge. Uncle Frank died at the age of 31 yrs-11 mo.-21 days and is buried beside his father and mother at Central City, Nebraska.

Uncle John married Mary Hill who grew up in the west. He died in 1915 and is also buried beside his father, mother, and brother at Central City. Aunt Mary was Matron of a children's home and took care of him till his death from a sun stroke. I remember visiting him when I was very small with my father, mother and brother. After his death, Aunt Mary moved to Akron, Colorado and was Matron of a children's home there and raised their three children, Alva, Victor and Bessie, and is buried there beside her daughter Alva. I visited their graves in 1963.

Aunt Mag was married to Robert Vance and they homesteaded close to Federal, Wyoming and are buried at Laramie, Wyoming. They had four children, three boys and one girl.

Aunt Ella lived at Delta or Shasta, California. She was married to Joe Viola and had two children, Cecil and Nina. I corresponded with her until her death in 1946. She is buried in an Indian Cemetery on Mt. Shasta.I remember little things father would tell, like how the Indians rode up to the back of the covered wagon and demand the biscuits Aunt Mag had baked for their supper, and of the bear skins on the floor for rugs.

The husband and seven children preceded the wife and mother to the great beyond. She leaves to mourn her loss two daughters and one son, Mrs. Margaret R. Vance of Federal, Wyoming, A.J. Little of Delroy, Ohio, and Mrs. Ella Viola of Delton, Cal., a daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Little of Akron, Colo., 26 grand children, 23 great grandchildren and a host of friends.

Mrs. Vance and A.J. Little were at the bedside when death brought to a close this long and useful life. Mrs. Little was a good Christian woman, a loving mother and a kind and helpful neighbor. She had been for many years a member of the Woman's Relief Corps.

The funeral will be held Friday, October 14, at the Methodist church of which she was a faithful member. The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. H.G. Langley.

Death Certificate gives cause of death as Intestinal Obstruction; mother's birthplace as Pennsylvania; source of information was daughter Margaret

The children were George and James to the first marriage, Charles to the second marriage, Elma to the third, and Melvin, Pauline, and Lucile to our mother.

Father out-lived all his wives and lived with me till his death on October 25, 1941.
