Moses on Sept 13, 1763 killed the Indian Zacharius in a barn sed as a waystation for people traveling thru the area. It was owned by Daniel Oblinger. This is said to have sparked the Gnaddenhuetten

(present day Weissport) Massacre a few weeks later. Ref: Glenn Stephens of Hummelstown, PA and Lois Bires from the Pittsburgh area.

Court records r.e. the appointment of guardians for Moses' children indicate that Jacob and Rachel were captured and held as prisoners by Delaware Indians Ref Barbrae Beck-Taamsey 9/8/2000.

The estate of Moses was settled on Mar 30, 1788. He held 80 acres of land and his children Jacob and Rachel were prisoners.

Notes:

On August 30, 1737, a Johann Wilhelm Bier took the "Oath of Allegiance" at the Philadelphia Courthouse. He had arrived in America from Rotterdam, aboard the ship "Samuel". A Johannes Beer arrived on board the ship "Neptune", taking the oath September 23, 1741. A Johannes Berr arrived aboard the "St Andrew" September 9, 1749. All sailed from Rotterdam via England. Source: Pennsylvania German Pioneers. 1727-1808 Vol I,II,III.

John filed a land warrant in Northampton Co February 12, 1752, which was surveyed September 5, 1798. The 1761 Tax Records for Lehigh Twp show John owing 16 pounds.

At his death, Anna his wife and son Amos were placed in charge of administering his estate (Administration #738).

A petition filed by sons Enoch and Adam on March 21, 1782 shows that John owned 250 acres in Lehigh Twp at the time of his death.
