William DeGarmo, p. 1130

WILLIAM DEGARMO, who for fourscore years was a resident of Washington county, was a grandson of Paul DeGarmo, a Frenchman, who immigrated to America and died in Washington county, Penn.

Jacob DeGarmo, father of subject, was a native of the Keystone State, and was united in marriage with Hannah Ames, who was born in 1790, a daughter of Joshua Ames, a shoemaker by trade. She became the mother of fourteen children, viz: Elizabeth, William, Sarah, Hannah, John, Mary, Martin Smith, Absalom, Jacob Johnson, Jabez Gifford, Maria (wife of William Bell), Hiram, Jerome and an infant daughter, twelve of whom lived to maturity. Jacob J., Jabez G. and Maria are in West Virginia. She died in 1882. One son, Hiram, entered the "Ringgold Battalion," and served three years under Capt. Gibson.

William DeGarmo, the subject proper of this sketch, was born December 11, 1810, in Pennsylvania, and was two years of age when his parents moved to Washington county, where he was reared and educated. On April 15, 1830, he was married to Elizabeth Case, a native of this county, daughter of Stephen Case, who died when she was a child, and their children were Julia A., wife of Isaac Hartman (she died July 3, 1864, leaving one child, six weeks old, named Lizzie, whose home was afterward made with her grandparents; her father married, for his second wife, Adeline Dague, who bore him two children: Charles Lindsey and Anna May; the father died about the year 1872); Hannah, Mrs. Thomas Lytle, of Nottingham township; Elizabeth, married to M. Hartley, of Amwell township; Lucinda, wife of Adam Fergus, of Somerset township; and Maria, who all her lifetime remained at home with her parents, caring for them in their declining years, and now that they are gone, her niece and herself remain at the old home which has been left to her by her father. On September 6, 1892, Mrs. DeGarmo passed from earth at the age of eighty-three years, and six months later, Feb. 28, 1893, her husband, at the same advanced age, followed her over the "dark river." They had been married nearly sixty-three years. Mr. DeGarmo was a Democrat and had filled several local offices. They commenced life in a very humble way, and all their possessions were accumulated by hard work and judicious economy. Mr. DeGarmo in addition to his farming pursuits made many sleds out of the roots of trees, and this industry he followed in connection with agriculture till his eyesight began to fail him. He was generally in the enjoyment of good health, was of medium size and at the time of his death his hair and beard were as white as the driven snow. The old homestead contains sixty acres of prime land.

OHIO VFW NEWS

The Passing of a Veteran

He was getting old and paunchy and his hair was falling out fast,

And he sat around the VFW, telling stories of the past,

Of a war that he had fought in and the deeds that he has done,

In his exploits with his buddies; they were heroes, every one.

And 'tho sometimes, to his neighbors, his tales became a joke,

And his buddies listened, for they knew whereof he spoke,

But we'll hear his tales no longer, for ol' Bob has passed away.

And the world's a little poorer, for a Veteran died today.

No, he won't be mourned by many, just his children and his wife.

For he lived an ordinary, very quiet sort of life.

He held a job and raised a family, quietly going on his way;

And the world won't note his passing; tho a Veteran died today.

When politicians leave this earth; their bodies lie in state,

While thousands note their passing and proclaim they were great

Papers tell of their life stories; from the time that they were young,

But the passing of a Veteran goes unnoticed and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution to the welfare of our land,

Some jerk who breaks his promises and cons his fellow man?

Or the ordinary fellow, who in times of war and strife,

Goes off to serve his country and offers up his life?

The politicians' stipend and the style in which he lives,

Are sometimes disproportionate to the service he gives.

While the ordinary Veteran, who offered up his all,

Is paid off with a medal and perhaps a pension, small.

It's so easy to forget them, for it is so long ago,

That our Bobs and Jims and Johnnys, went to battle, but we know

It was not the politicians, with their compromise and ploys,

Who won for us the Freedom, that our country now enjoys.

Should you find yourself in danger, with your enemies at hand,

Would you want some cop-out, with his ever-waffling stand?

Or would you want a Veteran, who has sworn to defend.

His home, his kin and country and would fight until the end?

He was just a common Veteran and his ranks are growing this,

But his presence should remind us, we may need his likes again.

For when countries are in conflict, then we find the Military's part,

Is to clean-up all the troubles, that the politicians start.

If we cannot do him honor, while he's here to hear the praise,

Then at least let's give him homage at the ending of his days.

Perhaps, just a simple headline in the paper that might say:

Our Country is in mourning, for a Veteran Died Today
