Hunnell-Emler Nuptial Rites Held at Church of Christ

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Emler

Pfc. and Mrs. Donald Emler were married Saturday in a quiet ceremony at the Church of Christ on West State st., with Fred M. Cline officiating in the single ring wedding service.

The bride chose a grey faille dress trimmed with black velvet for her wedding, and her flowers were Better Times roses.

Her attendant, Mrs. Robert Myers, Route 1, wore a navy suit and her corsage was red carnations.

Robert Myers was best man.

The new Mrs. Emler, the former Betty Hunnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hunnell, Route 2, was graduated from the Madison high school in 1948 and is employed at the Kingston-Conley Mfg. Co. in Cambridge.

The groom, whose parents are

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey B. Emler, Peoli, is stationed at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz., and has now returned to camp.

Saturday evening a wedding dinner was held at the home of the groom with 16 present.

Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight

By Rose Heartsick Thorpe

England's sun was slowly setting o'er the hill tops far away,
Filling all the land with beauty at the close of one sad day,
And the last rays kissed the forehead of a man and maiden fair.
He with steps so slow and weary, she with sunny, floating hair,
He with bowed head, sad and thoughtful: she with lips so cold and white,
Struggling to keep back the murmur, "Curfew must not ring tonight"

"Sexton," Bessie's white lips faltered, pointing to the prison old,
With its walls so tall and gloomy, moss-grown walls, so damp and cold.

"I've a lover in that prison, doomed this very night to die
At the ringing of the curfew, and no earthly help is nigh!
Cromwell will not come till sunset," and her lips grew strangely white
As she spoke in husky whisper, "Curfew must not ring tonight."

"Bessie" calmly spoke the sexton, every word pierced her young heart
Like the piercing of an arrow, like a deadly, poisoned dart,
"Long, long years I've rung the curfew from that gloomy shadowed tower:
Every evening just at sunset it has tolled the twilight hour;
I have done my duty ever, tried to do it just and right.
Now I'm old, I will not miss it. Curfew bell must ring tonight!"

Wild her eyes and pale her features, stern and white her thoughtful brow,
And within her heart's deep center, Bessie made a solemn vow
She had listened while the judges read, without a tear or sigh.

"At the ringing of the curfew, Basil Underwood must die."
And her breath came fast and faster, and her eyes grew large and bright
One low murmur, faintly spoken, "Curfew must not ring tonight!"

She, with quick steps, bounded forward, sprang within the old church door.

Left the old man treading slowly paths he'd trod so oft before,
Not a moment paused the maiden, but with cheek and brow aglow
Staggered up the gloomy tower, where the bell swung to and fro,
As she climbed the slimy ladder, on which fell no ray of light,
Upward still her pale lips saying, "Curfew must not ring tonight!"

She has reached the topmost ladder; o'er her hangs the great, dark bell!
See! the ponderous tongue is swinging, 'tis the hour of curfew now
And the sight has chilled her bosom, stopped her breath and paled her brow.
Shall she let it ring? No, never. Her eyes flash with sudden light,
Upward still her pale lips saying, "Curfew must not ring tonight!"

Out she swung—far out. The city seemed a speck of light below:
There 'twixt heaven and earth suspended, as the bell swung to and fro;

And the sexton at the bell rope, old and deaf, heard not the bell;
Sadly he thought that twilight curfew rang young Basil's funeral knell.

Still the maiden, clinging firmly, quivering life and fair face white,
Stilled her frightened heart's wild beating: "Curfew must not ring tonight!"

It was o'er the bell ceased swaying, and the maiden stepped once more

Firmly on the damp old ladder, where for hundred years before
Human foot had not been planted. The brave deed that she had done
Should be told long ages after. As the rays of setting sun
Light the sky with golden beauty, aged sires with heads of white
Tell the children why the curfew did not ring that one sad night.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1905.

Passing of a Noble Woman.

Mrs. Amanda Peoples, wife of James Peoples, departed this life at their home near Peoli on the 17th inst., in her 57th year. Her maiden name was Amanda J. Stewart, and was born Oct. 2, 1847. She was a member of the Wesley Chapel M. E. church and lived a pure, consecrated Christian life; was a loving, dutiful wife, a kind mother and an obliging neighbor. To this home were born seven children, six sons and one daughter, namely, H. L., who is an M. E. minister located near Cumberland, O.; O. M., also a Methodist minister at Plainfield, Coshocton county; C. E. who resides on the home farm; E. E. a resident of Newcomerstown; N. A. and J. B. employed at Cleveland, and Mrs. Benj. Murphy jr. who resides near the home place. The funeral took place at Wesley Chapel last Friday, the solemn services being conducted by Rev. E. E. Shiltz who was able to speak of the departed as having entered into a state of peace, rapture and glory that surpasses human experience, knowledge or conception.

WED. MAY 31, 1905

Died From Injuries.

Frank Brown, who was struck by a train near Glasgow on Wednesday of last week, died about noon the same day from his injuries. He was taken to the home of his brother, Thos. Brown, of this place, where the funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. J. Wolfe, attended by many sympathizing friends and neighbors. He was 23 years old, and is survived by mother, two brothers and three sisters. His death was the result of one of those unfortunate incidents in life for which no one is particularly to blame, but which so often happens. No one should step off of one track onto another to allow a train to pass, as it is much safer to get clear of the tracks entirely until every occasion of danger is passed.

WED. MAY 31, 1905

Death of Mrs. Neal.

Mrs. Ella Neal, wife of Morris Neal, departed this life May 25, at their home in Wheeling twp., Guernsey county. She was the daughter of James and Martha Little, and was born Oct. 6, 1876. She was married to Mr. Neal, Dec. 10th, 1898, and to them was born a daughter, who, with the husband, mother and two brothers, and other relatives, mourn their loss. In early childhood she united with the Peoples' M. E. church, and lived a true Christian life. The funeral services were conducted last Friday at 1 p. m. at Peoples' church, by her pastor, Rev. E. E. Shiltz, whose remarks were based on the text, "Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is, that I may know how frail I am." Interment was made in the Peoples' cemetery.

Mrs. James Murphy.

Mrs. Malinda Henderson-Murphy, wife of James Murphy, died Monday night at their home near Avondale, Coshocton county, at the age of 52 years. Mrs. Murphy's former husband's name was Henderson, and to them were born four children—Edward Henderson of this city, C. M. Henderson, of Pittsburg, Mrs. Henry Miller, of Avondale, and Frank Henderson, single, who lives at home. There were no children by the second marriage. Mrs. Murphy was a sister of Crayton Norman of this city. The funeral will occur to-morrow, Thursday, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Murphy was an excellent woman, and her departure will be mourned by many friends and relatives.

PRICE WILSON DEAD.

Relieved of Long, Weary Illness and Much Suffering.

Mr. Price H. Wilson, who suffered long, weary months from cancer of the stomach, passed peacefully away at his home near Peoples' church last Sunday, May 28. He bore his illness patiently, and derived much comfort in his later moments from frequent prayer and song services that were held at his home by Christian friends and neighbors. But it seems his days were numbered, and God called him hence.

Mr. Wilson was born in Wheeling twp., Guernsey county, Feb'y 29, 1848, and was married to Elizabeth Devault, Feb'y 14, 1867. To them were born four children—Harvey Wilson of New Phila, Mrs. Maggie Haver south of town, J. M. Wilson of this city, and Ella, deceased. The mother of these children died May 29, 1876. Mr. Wilson afterward married Elizabeth Norris, and to them were born six children—Mrs. D. A. Parks of Post Boy, Mrs. Jasper Booth of Guernsey, Mrs. Emmet Stevens, Byesville, Mary and Carrie who reside at home, and Willie, deceased. Mr. Wilson lived near where he was born, all his life.

The funeral services were conducted at Peoples' church, Tuesday at 10 a. m., by Rev. E. E. Shiltz. Deceased requested that the three older and three three younger children of the family act as pall-bearers, which request was complied with.

William Wiandt, 88, Is Taken by Death

William Wiandt, 88, died Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lucy Dunlap, RD 1, Paris, Ohio after a two-weeks illness due to the infirmities of age.
