Directed and Staged by Paul Robert (P.R.) Swango

The 100 Club is pleased to introduce you to our director P.R. Swango. This is his 89th show in his 12 years with Cargill Productions.

P.R. began his career at the age of 15 in Bedford as the Master of Ceremonies of the Great Old American Barn Dance - a line radio show. He attended Vincennes University on a full-time performance scholarship. He was the Big Brother Chairman and received the Blue Cord Award for leadership. P.R. was included in the 1969-70 edition of Who's Who in American Junior Colleges and later in the 1979 edition of Who's Who as the Outstanding Young Men in America by the Jaycees.

His work as a professional performer has included leading roles in such hits as "Oliver", "The Odd Couple", "Teahouse in the August Moon", "Guys and Dolls", "Lion in Winter", "How to Succeed", "Fantastiks", he appeared in 70 performances of "Star Spangled Girl", and in seven different roles in "Mame"

He has been associated with Dottie West, Stringbean, Grandpa Jones, Hawkshaw Hawkins, Groucho Marx, Elton John, Rachel Welch, Mickey Rooney and many more.

Our director also enjoys working with children and is a head start volunteer. He now lives in Amherst, Ohio.
