Somewhere in Italy:

Dearest Folks:

I received your letters of May 11th and 16th this week and was very happy to hear from you again. Was sorry to hear that you have had a little spell of sickness, Dad! I hope you are in pretty good shape by this time! I have been enjoying good health for right along and hope to continue that way!

I guess Wayne will be in the service by the time this letter reaches you. So send me his address as soon as you get it and I will write him as often as possible. Its nice knowing that Clarke will not have to go for a while yet. I still hope he will never get called up!!

I received the money order but so far, the slippers haven't arrived! I raised my allotment by $20.00, effective July 1st. I am also sending you a money order for $100.00, as I said I would! I really didn't need that fifty dollars as bad as you think!! So don't worry about me coming home as a gambler!!

I just saw a copy of the picture I had taken the other day and it is pretty good, I think!! As soon as I get a few pictures made from it, I will send one to you!!

Received a letter from Alice today and will have to answer her letter tonight! At present, I don't get too much time to write so I have to write when I can!! Well! I guess this is the end of another letter! I will be waiting to hear from you

Love,

Family awarded flag for service during World War

A flag hung for years in the window of the late Elmer and Helen Schworm who lived at Park Hill Drive, Newcomerstown. The flag was unique — it was a small flag and had six stars — but the Schworms were one of the rare families to be presented such a flag; each star represented one of their sons who had served his country in World War II.

The photograph is of the six Schworm sons. They are (top row, left) Tech-4 Clark E. (N.H.S. 1934) U.S. Army Medics, Feb. 23, 1945-Aug. 27, 1946, Asiatic (Pacific) Theater; Electrician First Class Roland G. (N.H.S. 1938) U.S. Navy, Oct. 19, 1939-Nov. 19, 1945, Jan. 1946-Nov. 1948 & Jan. 1951-May 1952, Asiatic (Pacific) Theater and European Theater; T-Sgt. Stanley F. (N.H.S. 1936) U.S. Army, March 13, 1942-Oct. 4, 1945, European Theater; Sgt. Lorin W. (N.H.S. 1941) U.S. Army, Jan. 2, 1943-Jan. 6, 1946, Asiatic (Pacific) Theater. Bottom, left, Cpl. Donald C. (N.H.S. 1946) U.S. Army, June 26, 1946-Nov. 1, 1947, Asiatic (Pacific) Theater and Seaman First Class Robert Wayne (N.H.S. 1944), U.S. Navy, June 2, 1944-June 5, 1946, Asiatic (Pacific) Theater.

Clark Schworm died in 1971. He is survived by his wife, former Irene Finley of Bethesda, three children, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Stanley Schworm married the former Orpha Hammersley of West Lafayette. They have two children and one grandchild. He is retired from Universal Cyclops and now resides in Coshocton.

Lorin Schworm, who now lives in Westerville, is married to the former Twilva Black of Newcomerstown. He is retired from Conrail. They have three children and two grandchildren.

WAYNE SCHWORM
NEWCOMERSTOWN, OHIO

Robert Wayne Schworm
 Born May 30, 1926 — Newcomerstown, Ohio
 Retired May 30, 1988

Some know him as Robert, some as Wayne
 But everyone knows they're one and the same.
 Now he's finally retired after his 24th year
 Some of the things he'll be doing now—are perfectly clear.

He'll probably spend a lot of time "manicuring" the yard and playing with his cars—he'll work really hard.
 He'll do some cooking, baking and wandering about,
 seeing if there's anyone that he can help out.
 He's got some great neighbors who he always enjoys,
 and Brenda has given him two grandchildren—a girl and a boy.
 He's a perfectionist and always has everything just right and after 35½ years of marriage,
 he and Mary Ann never fight!
 They're just back from a lovely vacation—they had a great time,
 Now here's the second part of this rhyme. . . .

Irene says Wayne's been a great Brother-in-law
 And they've always gotten along well,
 She's heard so many stories from Clark
 She doesn't know which to tell!

Wayne loves tossed salad—and that's a fact,
 But when he ordered extra—he didn't know how to act.
 Stanley said, "You should have seen the look on Wayne's face
 When the waitress at Cuttys Ark put those two huge bowls at his place".

Roland came all the way home with this little story I know you'll like,
 Wayne was just a small little 4 year old tike.
 Well Stanley and Roland just for fun
 Would fill little Wayne's bibs with gravel so they'd weigh a ton.
 His pants were tied at the ankles—but he'd try to walk anyway,
 Is this why Wayne has foot problems today?

When Wayne took his brother Lorin to the hospital
 They tried to keep him instead
 He wasn't supposed to be the patient,
 But he couldn't get that through the nurse's head.
 Wayne had to explain he was there for Lorin—he wasn't sick at all,
 Whew—was that a very close call!

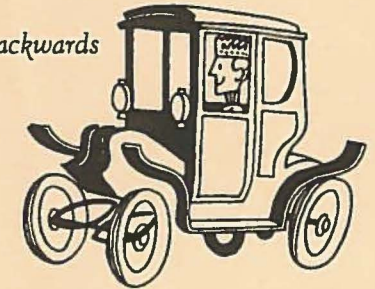

Eleanor also has something she'd like to share
 How lucky, Lorin and Wayne used to drive up Main Street backwards
 But they didn't stop there.
 They'd go to Uhrichsville and do the same thing,
 Wayne driving his "'40 Chevy"—he was the King!

Donald has a tale he'd like to add
 It was the scariest ride down Coal Port Hill he'd ever had.
 And also about the time Wayne came home so distressed,
 He was all bruised up and his bike was a mess.
 Apparently, the wind was cold so he put his face down,
 While he wasn't looking he hit a parked car in town.
 It's a lot funnier now than it was then,
 Don's glad they can look back and laugh—now that they're grown men!
 Neil Armstrong was the first to walk in space,
 But Don and Wayne were the first to orbit Judy's bean patch place.

One day back in '39, Richard and Wayne were having a great time,
 Down the hill in wagons they wanted to see
 Who could make it faster to the old walnut tree.
 Well they'd planned to switch lanes on that new gravel drive,
 It's really a miracle they came out alive.
 It got a little frightening, but they pulled through,
 The decided maybe that wasn't the best thing to do.
 Richard was younger and just couldn't keep up the pace,
 And that's the only reason he didn't win—the famous wagon race.

We've told a lot of stories,
 We've had a lot of fun,
 But all we really want to say is "Wayne, in our hearts you're Number 1"!!!
 One more thing—hope it's not too late
 To say, "As a husband, father, grand-dad and brother,
 We think you're first rate"!!!

On the Move

MARY ANN SCHWORM

Mary Ann Schworm, 6116 E. State Rd., Newcomerstown, retired Feb. 1, 2004, from Clow Water Systems Company, Coshocton. Due to vacation time earned, her last working day was Dec. 16, 2003, and a retirement luncheon was held that day.

Jeff Otterstedt, vice president and general manager, said Mary Ann has had an unbelievable employment record at Clow - over 51 years - and her record will probably never be duplicated or surpassed. She will be missed by her co-workers and the people she dealt with on the telephone daily. Otterstedt said Mary Ann will be "a hard act to follow."

Mary Ann is the youngest of 10 children of the late Fred and Mary Caldwell. She was raised on a farm near Peoli, Ohio. She began her education at a two-room school house (Pleasant alley) through the seventh grade. At the beginning of her eighth grade year she came to Newcomerstown Junior High. She graduated from Newcomerstown in May 1952. She worked for a local attorney for a short while. While stopping one day she ran into an old schoolmate, Marjorie Harding Stahl, who told her Mrs. B. Clow & Sons Company was looking for a secretary - one who knew shorthand. She applied on Wednesday and on Thursday morning she received a call from their personnel manager telling her the job was hers - providing she passed the physical by their company doctor (who at that time was Dr. Agricola) on Friday. She started to work the following Monday, Oct. 6, 1952.

The secretarial position consisted of dictation, time keeping, payroll clerk, switchboard and any other miscellaneous duties. At that time the company's products were gasteam radiators and assembly of pipe cutters. The office staff consisted of Supt. Ed White, John Ricketts, Charles Yingling, Bob Hinds, Harold Schlarb, Charles Starker, Charles Crater, Walter Albright, Lou Gracik, Esta Knowles and Helen Glazer. All have since passed away except Gracik who lives in the Chicago area.

The Clow plant closed in Newcomerstown in March 1956. Mary Ann joined Clow in Coshocton in April 1956 as secretary to the production manager, Ralph Leighninger, a former Newcomerstown resident, and the shipping manager, Frank Miller.

In 1961, she transferred to the Engineering Department as secretary to plant engineer, Bill Bevington, and industrial engineering manager, Ned Patterson. In 1982, the Research group was added to this department.

Mary Ann Schworm

In 1985, McWane Inc. of Birmingham, Ala., purchased all of the Clow plants and the local group was disbanded. Mary Ann then went to the Flange Department as secretary to the flange sales and production managers. She spent her last 19 years in the Flange Department.

She said she has many memories and has seen a lot of changes, such as wages, working conditions and equipment, procedures, personnel, etc. She said she remembers when they gave a Christmas bonus to the employees. This was a percentage of the yearly wage for each employee. The highest percentage she remembers was 20 percent. "Of course, wages were not what they are today," she noted. Her starting rate was $1.05 per hour. She also remembers the many company picnics, parties, and strikes.

Mary Ann said she has driven a lot of miles over 51 1/3 years. She estimates she has driven over 500,000 miles.

She said she is thankful to have made a lot of friends and had the opportunity to work with a lot of fine people. "Overall, it was a good 51 1/3 years," she concluded.

She married Wayne Schworm on Dec. 26, 1952. He is retired from GenCorp.

The Schworms enjoy antique and classic cars and hope to attend more car shows during retirement, and they also may do some traveling.
