The Durben Family

Ezekiel Wheeler Durben was born Sept. 26, 1827 in Jefferson County, Ohio and died in Greensey Co. Ohio, May 4, 1902. He is buried in the Kimbalton Cemetery, in Liberty Twp. near the grave of his son Thomas Chadwell Durben. There is no grave marker.

He was married Oct. 30, 1848 to Rebecca Colvin, who was born Nov. 4, 1829 and died before 1875.

She was the daughter of Branson and Mary () Colvin. Branson Colvin is buried in the Greensey Cemetery, Wheeling Township.

Ezekiel Wheeler and Rebecca Colvin Durben are the parents of eleven children.

1. Mary Elizabeth Durben, born Oct. 30, 1849
2. Franklin Fleming Durben, born May 1, 1851
3. Harriet Matilda Durben, born Sept. 1, 1853 died Mar. 29, 1926

More research is desired on the children of Mary E. and William Thornton family who lived north of Guernsey near the railroad tracks.

Her marriage record was found in 1971 and a Will of Mr. Thornton was found naming his children to both his first and second wives. Some data on the family later given by others

2. Franklin Fleming Durben (called Flem) born
May 8, 1851
- m. July 29, 1875 in Tuscarawas County, Ohio to Elizabeth Boham born about 1857, who died when young from Consumption, which was so prevalent in early times.
Information given by Anna Fackler, a cousin in Oregon, tells that they had a daughter, Mary Durben who married Hershell Purdue and had a large family.

It has since been learned from the 1860 Census of Oxford Township, Tuscarawas County, that Elizabeth Boham-Durben was born, being age three years of age in the 1860 Census, and was a daughter of Bapel Boham, born in New Jersey ca. 1827 being 33 years old in 1860 and wife Nancy — Boham whose age is given as 30 years in 1860.

Anna Fackler's mother, Nancy Emily Boham Durben wife of Jacob P. Durben, and Peter Boham, a brother of the Boham girls married Sarah Rebecca Durben

Some but little on your grand mother Durbone family
Kleinknecht - Kaser

Caroline, Lucy and Lizzie Kleinknecht are said to have come directly from Germany to Coshocton County Ohio.

Caroline Kleinknecht was born in Germany in 1838.

She married Lewis Kaser who was also born in Germany
c.a. 1824'd ca Feb. 20, 1874 and is buried on a farm about two miles from Warsaw, Ohio along the road to Spring Mountain. He was born in Germany and was a shoe maker.

He was found dead in his shop a few days before William Kaser his son was born, and was thought to have been murdered.

They were the parents of six children, one being born a few days after his father's death.

The children were placed in homes here and there and have no accurate dates of their births, except the last one.

Jacob Kaser was in an accident

Fleming Kaser

Lewis Kaser, Jr. was killed in an accident on bridge construction work.

Hannie Kaser called Annie b. c.a. 1867

Lucy C. Kaser b. c.a. 1868

William H. Kaser b. Feb. 23, 1874

Caroline Kaser later had a daughter Mary E. Kaser

b. 5-22-1877 The census I found gives mother born in Germany. Father born O.

Caroline M. secondly July 4, 1881 to Ferdinand Seal born in Germany. He was also a shoe maker.

2,
There is a tombstone in the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Reformed Church Cemetery in Jefferson Township, Cashton County, Co which has the following grave stone inscriptions.

Lewis Kaser born Sept. 22, 1824 died Feb. 20, 1874

Jacob Kaser born Dec. 17, 1862 died July 17, 1896

It is not known if when Jacob died and a monument was placed for him if his father's name was placed on the marker also, even if he was buried elsewhere.

Caroline Klainknecht Kaser Seal is buried in the South Lawn Cemetery, on the left side of cemetery, just below the Soldier's Plot and just to right at end of these graves

A very small marker Caroline Seal 1838 - Jan 3, 1918.

4-18-1897 as the first wife of Cornelius Mickisner

b. 8-6-1878 d. 5-8-1954. 7 children

He was only married 4 times. all died before him except the last one who he m. 11-12-1946 He was born

8-6-1878 d. 5-8-1954 Had 7 ch to Mary

I located a Kaser Cousin of Chadwick's and he wrote me several letters with information before he died 7-1974

He was a son of William H. Kaser, but his uncle Gary had taken to where his grandfather was buried

I thought you might also what I have on your grandmothers side.

She was such a very good mother in law to me.
