Funeral services for Alva "Alvie" W. Kirk, 70, of Coshocton, were Dec. 31, 2009, at the Addy Funeral Home, Newcomerstown. Pastor Martin Addy officiated the services with burial in the West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown. He passed away Dec. 26 at the Lafayette Pointe Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, West Lafayette.

He was born July 5, 1939, in Freeport, the son of the late Earl and Eula (Toland) Kirk.

He retired from Pretty Products of Coshocton.

Mr. Kirk was a member of the Moose, Army-Navy and Eagles lodges, all of Coshocton. He enjoyed motorcycles, singing, playing guitar, loved music and drawing art.

Survivors include two sons, Lonnie Kirk and companion Sandy of West Lafayette and Johnnie (Shirley) Kirk of Newcomerstown; one daughter, Corinna Kirk Welch of Flagler Beach, Fla.; step-daughter, Betty (Mike) Wilson of Iowa; six grandchildren, Areon, Jacob, Jordan, Samantha, Frankie and Hannah; one great-grandson, Zachary; two step-grandchildren, James and Joseph; three step-great-grandchildren, Serenity, Keegan and Chase; and two brothers, Dwight Kirk of Greensboro, N.C., and Denver Kirk of Coshocton.

Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by one grandson, Johnnie Lee; and two sisters, Kathleen Kirk and Iva Jean Edens.

Memorials may be made to the donor's favorite charity.

Personal condolences may be sent to the family at www.addyfuneralhome.com.

JUANITA HANSON-HECK 1922-2009

Juanita M. Hanson-Heck, 87, of Newcomerstown, formerly of Gnadenhutten, passed away Tuesday, Dec. 29, 2009, at Aultman Hospital in Canton.

Born Jan. 28, 1922, in Mountain, W.Va., (the former Mole Hill, W.Va.), she was a daughter of the late Martin Luther and Myrtle Mae (Forester) Jones.

After growing up in West Virginia, where she was a graduate of Pennsboro High School in 1940. Juanita moved to Gnadenhutten where she made her home for most of her life and had been a long-time member of Gnadenhutten United Methodist Church. Most recently, she had been a member of Christ United Methodist Church in Newcomerstown.

On Dec. 5, 1943, she married Alvin A. Hanson with whom she enjoyed nearly 36 years of marriage until his passing Nov. 1, 1979. They are survived by two children, David Hanson and his companion, Linda Pinchek of Dennison and Mrs. Jayne (Robert) Shaw of Newcomerstown; five grandchildren, Carrie Stewart (Larry) Johnson of Mogadore, Richard (Karen) Baker of Gnadenhutten, Jennifer Steed and her companion, Rob Hand, of Corpus Christi, Texas, Melissa (Rick) Menges of Sugarcreek and Tosten Hanson of Uhrichsville; and five great-grandchildren, Shayne Stewart, and Emily and Erika Johnson of Mogadore, and Hunter and Elena Baker of Gnadenhutten.

Juanita was preceded in death on Jan. 30, 2003, by her second husband, Dwight Raymond Heck to whom she wed June 1, 1984. She is survived by her step-children, Robert (Phyllis) Heck of Denver, Colo., and Ray (Patti) Heck of Louisville, Ky.; three step-grandchildren, Rob and Timothy Heck of Denver and Jennifer Heck of Louisville; and several step-great-grandchildren.

One of 13 siblings, she is survived by two brothers, Howard L. (Eleanor) Jones of Baltimore, Md., and Lester (Norma) Jones of Duncannon, Pa.; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by six brothers, James, Paul, Lionel, Clarence, Wayne and Chester; and four sisters, Allean Spencer, who had resided in Gnadenhutten, Melissa, Arrahwanna and Bessie.

Juanita was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and homemaker who loved caring for her family and home. She is fondly remembered for her meticulous attention to detail in all of her domestic duties.

Services, officiated by the Rev. Russel Ham, were Dec. 31, 2009, in the R.K. Lindsey Funeral Home at Dennison. Interment followed in Gnadenhutten-Clay Union Cemetery.

Those wishing to honor her memory by a charitable contribution are encouraged to do so to Christ United Methodist Church, 648 Oak St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832.

Personal condolences may be sent to the family at www.lindseyfh.com.

JOHN JONES 1948-2010

John Myron Jones, 61, went to be with the Lord following an accident on the family farm Saturday, March 20, 2010.

He was born Oct. 20, 1948, in Coshocton, raised in Newcomerstown and remained a life-long resident of Tuscarawas County. He dedicated most of his life to serving the community in various ways as a local business owner, emergency technician and volunteer.

John spent his early years working on the farm just outside of Newcomerstown. In school, John was a popular, outgoing and intelligent student, an accomplished athlete, Farm Science Review participant and local 4-H member. In addition, he served as president of Newcomerstown High School Class of 1967. After graduation, he attended The Ohio State University where he completed a degree in Agricultural Economics and Agronomy and was a member of The Ohio State Freshman Senate. John also served in the Ohio National Guard becoming the Commander of the 214th Light Maintenance Company in Coshocton and Newark. Upon commencement, John returned to Newcomerstown and pursued new business opportunities such as starting his own farming business and founding the Newcomerstown Tree Service. He also worked as an EMT for a local ambulance service, then later in life moving onto an agronomy specialist position. For the past 15 years, John held various key positions at Ciba-Geigy/Norvartis/Syngenta Seeds Inc. Most recently, he worked as CCA representative and was awarded the National Top sales position in the U.S. for Syngenta Seeds, Inc. He was instrumental in designing an innovative TruBulk seed efficiency system which is currently used in the farming work and accepted challenges with enthusiasm. Even with his practical approach to life, John could speak intelligently about any topic and was an avid reader; he was always creative and inventive to solve problems and engineering new ideas. He was passionate about farming and the land, but even more, his duty as a husband, father, grandfather, son, brother and uncle. John lived life by his own rules, was never pretentious, and accepted people as they were. He will be dearly missed.

John leaves behind his wife of 20 years, Carolyn (Ramsey-Putnam) Jones who he married July 1, 1990; his parents, Paul and Louise (Bush) Jones of Newcomerstown; daughter, Kristen Ann of Columbus; sons, Jonathan Paul Rogers and wife, Leigh, of Cincinnati and Ryan Lee Jones of Newcomerstown; two step-sons, Jonathon (Roxann) Putnam of West Lafayette and Derek (Julie) Putnam of Missouri; brother, Steve (Sherry) Jones of Newcomerstown; nephews, Nathan and Joshua; niece, Rebekah; sister, Tricia and life partner, Jeff Hawkins; nephews, Jason and Justin; and grandchildren, Lilliana, Cameron, Ashton, Keegan, Chereka, Dillon, Dalton and Dustin.

Services were March 25, 2010, at the First Baptist

Funeral services to celebrate Jim's life were March 26, 2010, at the Ourant Funeral Home, Newcomerstown. Ralph D. Maxwell Jr. conducted the services. Graveside services and burial followed on March 27 in the Community Chapel Cemetery, Washington Township, Tuscarawas County, where the Newcomerstown Veterans' Honor Guard also performed military graveside services.

The family is requesting that memorials be made in Jim's name to the Salvation Army of Dover, P.O. Box 426, Dover, OH 44622-0426.

Man drowns in creek

WILLS CREEK — A 78-year old Coshocton County man is believed to have drowned, along with suffering cardiac arrest and hypothermia, March 23, along a creek just south of the Wills Creek area community.

Don Stroup, assistant county coroner and chief investigator, determined the cause of death.

James V. NeSmith, 78, of 14786 Franklin Township Road 263B, was found unconscious, partially in Willis Creek, after the Coshocton County Sheriff's office received a 911 call from NeSmith's wife, Mildred, Tuesday morning.

Mildred NeSmith told a dispatcher that her husband had left the house about an hour earlier and when he didn't return, she began looking for him.

It is believed that James

NeSmith walked to Wills Creek near his residence where he accidentally fell into the water head first, suffered a slight concussion and ended up in the water face down. It was not known how long NeSmith was in the water but when the first rescue personnel arrived on scene, he did not have a heartbeat and was not breathing.

Medical personnel from the Coshocton County Emergency Medical Services, as well as the Franklin-Conesville-Virginia Volunteer Fire Department assisted at the scene.

NeSmith was taken to Coshocton County Memorial Hospital at 11:31 a.m. and was pronounced dead at 12:10 p.m.

FLOYD L. 'BUD' EDWARDS 1939-2010

Floyd L. "Bud" Edwards, 70, of Newcomerstown, passed away Friday, April 30, 2010, at Southeastern Med in Cambridge, following a long illness.

A son of the late Etta (Edwards) Robinson, Bud was born June 7, 1939, in Elizabeth, W.Va.

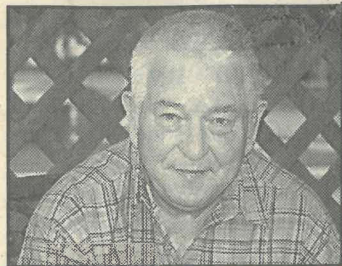

On Feb. 13, 1962, Bud enlisted with the U.S. Army and honorably served his country until his discharge on Jan. 29, 1964. Then on March 18, 1965, he married the former Cheryl Martin of West Lafayette, and he has three children, Karen, Daniel and Rhonda.

Bud was an iron worker by trade and also owned and operated a farm in his spare time. He was a member of the Iron Workers Local 549 of Wheeling and the Iron Workers 550 of Canton. In his earlier years, Bud worked at General Tire for 10 years. Bud was also a member of the Newcomerstown American Legion Post 431, the Newcomerstown Moose Lodge 1337, the Elk Lodge 1555 and Eagles of Cambridge.

An avid outdoorsman, Bud enjoyed hunting and fishing, especially at Clendening Lake and Lake Erie. Also, he enjoyed camping, mushroom hunting and gardening. He was a fan of football with The Ohio State Buckeyes and the Pittsburgh Steelers being his favorite teams to watch. He also enjoyed playing cards with friends spending many hours playing euchre.

Most of all, Bud cherished his grandchildren. He enjoyed watching their sporting events and other activities they were involved in. He enjoyed giving them four-wheeler rides and fishing at the pond. He shared many stories with them and always made them laugh.

He is survived by his wife, Cheryl Edwards of the home;

Edwards

his children, Karen Hawkins of Carrollton, Texas, and Daniel (Sarah) Edwards and Rhonda (Chad) Stephen both of Newcomerstown; five grandchildren, Sierra and Savannah Hawkins, Johnathon Sheehan and Kaylee and Brandon Stephen; two sisters, Rose Voegele of Winston Salem, N.C., and Anna May Haney of Grants Pass, Ore.; and three brothers, R.T. Robinson of Elizabeth, W.Va., and Mike Robinson and Gerald Robinson, both of Newark, W.Va.

Bud was preceded in death by his mother; an infant son, Terry Edwards; and a brother, Frank Edwards.

To honor Bud's wishes his remains have been cremated. Services were Saturday, May 8 at Wesley Community Chapel, Newcomerstown. Memorial services were at 11:30 a.m. Following, the Newcomerstown Veterans' Honor Guard performed military services. A reception for friends and family took place at the Masonic Temple in Newcomerstown immediately after services.

Those wishing to do so may send the family a personal condolence and view an online memorial by visiting the funeral home's Web site, www.geibcares.com.

Contributions may be made in Bud's memory to the American Heart Association, 5455 N. High St., Columbus, OH 43214.

ROGER KIRKPATRICK

WEST LAFAYETTE — Roger Norman Kirkpatrick, 76, of West Lafayette, went to be with his Heavenly Father, with his wife, Shirley (Willer) Kirkpatrick, and daughter, Tammy Jo at his side, on Saturday, May 22, 2010.

Roger was born in Coshocton on June 28, 1933, the only child of the late Robert and Clarice (Norman) Kirkpatrick.

Shirley and Roger would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Nov. 24, 2010.

Roger, a born-again Christian, is now with his daughter, Bobbi Jo, who went to heaven Oct. 4, 1964. With his Lord's help, Roger was tough and courageous. After winning several battles from skin, and ear cancer, Lymphoma, Amelia Blastoma and Chemotherapy, it was finally lung cancer that was too much for his earthly body to endure.

Roger was a graduate of West Lafayette High School and spent his entire life on the family farm near West Lafayette.

He would always tell people, "I was raised in my parent's home, moved a quarter of a mile down the road and I can see me cemetery from here."

He always kept busy. He was an avid sportsman and worked at the Paul Apple Pennzoil Station on Main Street in West Lafayette. Later, he owned the Shell Station on Main Street in West Lafayette and then was employed for over 30 years at General Electric in Coshocton.

Roger loved and served his Country in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War and was a Conservative and proud American. He was a member of the Coshocton County Humane Society, Friends of the Animal Shelter, and loved animals especially his seven cats, Kitty Kupcake Kirkpatrick, Scooter, Harry, Gizmo, Tiny Tim Tigger, Blondie and Boo. He also enjoyed playing games with friends, collecting replicas of Red Birds, watching the financial world, working in his farm and eating.

Along with his wife and daughter, he is survived by a sister-in-law, Polly Saggio of Newcomerstown; a special person he called son, Damon S. Litsey, DPM; cousins; the Coshocton County Hospice Team; and many friends who will miss him deeply.

Roger was preceded in death by brother-in-law, Tony Saggio; and Shirley's parents, Herb and Violet Willer.

A funeral service took place May 27 at the Given-Dawson Funeral Home, West Lafayette. The Rev. Chanuncey Eggen officiated. Burial took place in Fairfield Cemetery in West Lafayette, where the Coshocton County Veterans Council conducted military services.

The family wishes contributions be made to Hospice of Coshocton, the Calvary Methodist Church on State Street in Newcomerstown or to Friends of the Animal Shelter in Roger's memory.

TOLEDO — Daniel W. Everhart, 76, of Springfield Township, Maumee, formerly of Bowling Green and Newcomerstown, passed away peacefully at his Maumee residence on Thursday, July 22, 2010, surrounded by his loving family.

Daniel was born in Akron on Aug. 14, 1933, and was preceded in death by his parents, George C. Everhart, Newcomerstown, who died in 1984, and Mildred Neiferd Everhart, Newcomerstown, who died in 1953.

He was a graduate of Newcomerstown High School, Class of 1952. Dan then enlisted in the Navy and served a tour of duty on the USS Yellowstone during the Korean War. He then returned to civilian life and was employed by General Telephone (GTE) as a supervising engineer for almost 40 years before his retirement in 1986. With GTE, he worked in Dover, Marion, Delaware, and retired from GTE in Bowling Green.

Dan was active in the Newcomerstown Elks Lodge 1555 and the Maumee Elks Lodge. He was also an avid golfer and joined golf leagues in Dover and Maumee. Dan also loved working with and restoring classic cars and participated in many car shows, parades and drive-ins during the past several years.

Dan is survived by his wife of 49 years, Joanne Nichols Everhart, Maumee, who was originally from Byesville. He also leaves three sons and a daughter, Daniel J. Everhart of Columbus, Robert A. Everhart of Bowling Green, Shawn D. Everhart of Maumee and Christine (Doug) Brunner of Toledo; two grandchildren, Nicholas and Jessica Brunner, both of Toledo; three brothers, Gene R. (Marilyn Porter) Everhart and James O. and (Kathy Brown) Everhart, all of Newcomerstown, and George O. (Kathy Robinson) Everhart of Walhonding; and two sisters, Joan E. (James P.) Foraker Jr. of Port Washington and Kathy Mizer of New Philadelphia; and numerous nieces and nephews in the Everhart and Nichols families.

Funeral services to celebrate Dan's life were July 26 at the Walter Funeral Home, 4653 Glendale Ave., Toledo. Graveside services and burial followed at Riverside Cemetery, Maumee, where the Lucas County Veterans' Honor Guard conducted military grave side services.

Dan's family wishes to give special thanks to the Hospice of Northwest Ohio for all their care and support. Memorials in Dan's name may be made to the Hospice of Northwest Ohio, 800 South Detroit Ave., Toledo, OH 43609.

Death Notice

DILE, Shirley I. — Funeral services for Mrs. Dile, 75, of Conesville, were Nov. 12, 2010, in the Chapel of the Given-Dawson Funeral Home in Coshocton. Burial followed in the Fairview Cemetery, Fresno. She passed away Nov. 6 at her residence.

ANNA MAE BAKER 1930-2010

Anna Mae Baker, 80, of Newcomerstown, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, Nov. 6, 2010, at the home of Don "Kraut" and Lisa Baker.

She succumbed after a 10-year battle with Alzheimer's Disease. Following her husband Dale's death in 2000, Anna Mae lived with her daughter, Gayla (and late Randy) Miller, and later resided with Don and Lisa. She was blessed to have loving care from family members and special Passport caregivers: Connie Kohl and Cristy Merce.

Born at home in Newcomerstown on July 6, 1930, Anna was the daughter of Harry and Lillie Herbert Rufer. She was always a hard worker. At an early age, she was digging coal for the family fire and milking cows with her sister, Doris (Hahn). She became an accomplished seamstress, fashioning numerous outfits for herself and her children. She canned tasty fruits and vegetables.

Leaving home at the age of 14, she lived with the Alfred Heller family, caring for their children. Mrs. Heller taught Anna manners, grace and poise. In high school, she participated in Glee Club, mixed chorus, and Future Homemakers of America. "Babe," as she was nicknamed, was voted "Best Looking" by her class and was selected as Homecoming Queen and Queen of Spring. She graduated from Newcomerstown High School in 1948.

Anna Mae also worked as a waitress at the Luncheonette and the Greyhound Post House. Virginia Baker Ames encouraged Anna to write letters to her brother Dale who was stationed in Germany. When he returned stateside, they were married in the Old Post Chapel at Ft. Sill, Okla., on March 12, 1949. During their assignments at Ft. Sill, Ft. Bliss, Texas, Wiesbaden, Germany, enjoyed planning church suppers. She also looked forward to the monthly luncheons with her NHS classmates.

Her family appreciates their acts of kindness and patience with Anna Mae as her disease worsened.

Anna and Dale had four children who survive them and they include, Linda (Terry) Myers of Dover, and Don (Lisa) Baker, Gayla Miller, and Shawn (Amy) Baker, all of Newcomerstown; grandchildren, Ryan (Aimee) Myers of Nashville, Tenn., Travis (Kaylynn) Myers of Abilene, Texas, Derek (Angel) Miller of West Lafayette, Monica (Jesse) Wilson of Coshocton, Yvonne Whitman and Nyah and Daleny Baker of Newcomerstown; great-grandchildren, Ethan Myers, Gannon Baker, Mackenzie Carrol, and Alivia, Kaylee, and Connor Miller; a sister, Norma McGarvey of Newcomerstown; and two brothers, Merle "Bud" (Betty) Rufer of Bellevue and Jim Rufer of Mansfield.

Anna was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Dale Baker; two sisters, Doris Hahn and Celia Porcher; and an infant brother, Floyd Rufer.

Services were Nov. 9, 2010, at the Addy Funeral Home, Newcomerstown. Minister Charles Newell officiated. Burial was in the Birds Run Cemetery, Newcomerstown.

In lieu of flowers, gift donations are requested for Hospice
