THE HART FAMILY HISTORY.

KIND FRIENDS:

We offer no apology for the briefness and the errors that may occur in the outline or facts herein given, and trust that when any mistake is found that the party will forward to us the correction with any other information they may have.

Thanks are extended to Mrs. Sarah Peairs of Bakersville, O., and others for their assistance in tracing out the HART FAMILY connections.

There may be little concern in the tracing of the relationship and the early life of our ancestors to many, but when we know the ties that unite us they are of great interest to all of us.

Origin of the Harts, although taken from the old German Bible which is held sacred by one of the family, will say that our early forefathers came from Germany as John Hart was unable to speak English well at the time of his death, Sept. 25, 1864, age 86 years

The Harts of the present generation came to Ohio from Virginia and settled at or near Morristown, Belmont county, O., and then moved to the Buckhorn valley, Tuscarawas county. The Harts, as a class, are industrious, law-abiding citizens, being able, up to the present time, to take care of themselves. They are somewhat religiously inclined. The most of the family have resorted to farming for an occupation, yet there are a great many professional men among them.

Our ancestors came to this country in the latter part of the 17th century and settled in Virginia in what is known as the Shenandoah Valley and spent much of their early life along the banks of the James river; thence in 1830 moved to Ohio and settled on farms near Morristown, Belmont county. It is stated that one of our forefathers was an officer in the Revolutionary war and lost his life fighting for freedom, and was buried somewhere in the Shenandoah Valley where his monument still stands.

Of the two brothers, Leonard and John Hart, who came to Ohio from Virginia, Leonard married Mary Knisely, daughter of Jacob Knisely, of Greenbriar county, Virginia. To them were born twelve children. John Hart married Susannah Perkins, and to them were born five children. Elizabeth, wife of Joseph McPherson, whose son lives in Athens county, this state; Rebecca, wife of Thomas Bendure; Lucinda, wife of Jeremiah Shore; Jemimah, wife of Thomas Cross, and L. Mc M. Hart, who married Margaret Hart. Of Leonard Hart's 12 children, only one is living, Sarah, wife of John Peairs deceased.

Of John Hart's family we are unable to give any statement only what you may gather from the family history.

Sarah Hart Peairs, (Aunt Sarah, as she is familiarly known), resides at her home place in Bakersville, Coshocton co, O. She was born Sept. 26, 1827, in Belmont county, 5 miles from St. Clairsville, O., and moved to Morristown, O., same county, and lived on her grandfather's farm, and in later years moved to what is known and always will remain such, as Buckhorn Creek, in Tuscarawas county, and is still living, we are glad to say, at the ripe old age of 79 years. The first reunion of the Hart family was held at her residence Sept. 26, 1903, another in 1904, and the present one held Sept. 17, 1905.
