Paul Glover, our director, has directed over 250 shows for Cargill Productions over a period of years; though he has spent most of his time in professional productions in all areas . . . stage, film, TV and commercials.

He made his Broadway debut in "Bye-Bye Birdie" and went on to perform on Broadway in "Camelot," "West Side Story" and others. He then turned his talents to directing and choreographing and has directed over 300 shows — working with such people as Gene Kelly, Barbra Streisand and many others. He also staged several shows at New York's Radio City Music Hall, Bob Hope Specials, etc.

He returned to performing to work with Academy Award winner Bob Fosse and went on to assist Mr. Fosse for the Universal International Film "Sweet Charity" with Shirley MacLaine. Fosse asked him to direct the Paris production of the show and he has since directed in Europe such American favorites as "Hello Dolly," "Sound of Music" and "My Fair Lady" to mention a few.
