CARLTON L. HUDSON SERVICES

1922-2008

Carlton L. "Carl" Hudson, 85, Port Washington, went to sleep in death on Thursday, Feb. 14, 2008, due to complications of cancer. He was surrounded until the end by his loving family.

Carlton was born in Toledo on March 19, 1922, a son of the late Merle and Myra Hotmer Hudson. He was a graduate of Cleveland West Tech High School. Carlton was employed as an electrician with Reliance Electric, Cleveland, for a few years. He then entered the field of sales and installation of dry cleaning equipment and served as a plant manager in this field for many years.

Carlton was a devoted husband and father and was the best step father and friend that anyone could imagine. One of his favorite activities was playing cards with family members. Carlton devoted his life to Jehovah God by water baptism on Aug. 1, 1938. Carl was an active member of the Port Washington congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. He often shared his hope of the resurrection and better conditions on earth under God's kingdom soon to come. His hope was to rest in sleep until Jehovah would restore the earth to a beautiful paradise. Carlton put much faith in the words of Matthew 5:5, where this gospel speaks of the meek inheriting the earth and of John 5: 28-29, where this gospel tells of the resurrection hope.

Carlton was preceded in death by his first wife of 41 years, Erma Lowe Hudson of Zanesville. He is survived by Erma and Carlton's three sons and a daughter, Leslie and Heidi Hudson of New Hampshire, Martin and Patricia Hudson of Florida, David Hudson of Florida, and Diane Hudson of Berea. He was also the last member of his generation of the Hudson family, having been preceded in death by two brothers and a sister.

Carlton is survived by his second wife, Dorothy J. Meyers Hudson of Port Washington, whom he married on Sept. 6, 1993. Also surviving are Dorothy's children, Karen Meyers and Judy (Mrs. Gerald) Ford, both of New Philadelphia, Linda (Mrs. Robert) Belock of Hinckley, Patricia Smith of Elyria, Kathleen (Mrs. Gary) Dorward of Cleveland, Cheryl (Mrs. Harvey) Bell of Missouri, Marc and Marlene Meyers of Florida, and Daniel and Elaine Meyers of New Philadelphia; several grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; and a special dear friend, Terasa (Edgar) Herbert of Bowerston.

To honor Carlton's wishes, his remains have been cremated. No public visiting hours will be observed. Memorial services to celebrate Carlton's life will be Saturday, March 1 at 4 p.m. in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 1212 Kelly Avenue. NW, New Philadelphia. Brother Mark Overholt will officiate.

The Ourant Funeral Home assisted the family with all the arrangements.

MIRIAM J. MILLER

1944-2008

Funeral services to celebrate the life of Miriam J. Miller, 63, Middletown, formerly of Newcomerstown, were Feb. 23, 2008, at the Ourant Funeral Home in Newcomerstown. Pastor Jeffrey Steele-Steeber conducted the services with burial in the West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown. She passed away Friday, Feb. 15 in the Atrium Medical Center, Middletown, following a short illness.

Miriam was born in Coshocton on July 29, 1944, the daughter of the late Charles G. Miller, who died in 1985, and the late Alice Loraine Pope Miller, who died in 1996.

Miriam was a graduate of Newcomerstown High School, Class of 1962. She then received both her bachelor's degree and master's degree from Kent State in the field of library science. While in Newcomerstown, Miriam was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church. She was a retired librarian with the Indian River Juvenile Correction facility, Massillon, where she was employed for several years. While at Indian River, Miriam was named union representative for the year in the state of Ohio.

Prior to this, she was a librarian with the Newcomerstown school system for a few years and a librarian with the McKinley Middle School, Middletown, for many years.

While in Middletown, she was a supporter of the Dayton Theater. Miriam was an avid reader and enjoyed working with crafts, attending Cincinnati Reds baseball games, doing crossword puzzles, and listening to instrumental music.

Miriam was known to her many friends as a caring and honest person who was always ready to help others in their time of need.

She is survived by her brother, Wayne E. (Linda D.) Miller of West Lafayette; a nephew, Derron T. Miller of Newcomerstown; a niece, Reagan L. Miller of Grayslake, Ill.; uncle, Harold E. (Harriet Grace) Pope of Coshocton; aunt, June (Patterson) Miller of Newcomerstown; a special lifelong friend, Carol (Mrs. John) Ramsey of Middletown; several cousins; and her Siamese cats, Magnum and Columbo.

The family suggests that memorials may be made in Miriam's name to an individual's favorite charity.

RICHARD HACKENBRACHT 1920-2008

Richard Hart Hackenbracht passed away peacefully March 3, 2008, after a brief illness.

Born Aug. 28, 1920, in West Lafayette, Richard was the son of Henry and Grace Hackenbracht. His father was a teacher, a farmer, and a U.S. Railway postal clerk. His mother was a homemaker.

Richard graduated from West Lafayette High School in 1938. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree and Master of Arts in Education degree from The Ohio State University in 1942 and 1947. He completed additional graduate studies at the University of California, Berkeley; the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; and California State University, Hayward.

During the Great War, he served in the Pacific Theatre as a Lieutenant, Junior Grade in the U.S. Coast Guard for four years. His ship was one of the first to enter Nagasaki Harbor, Japan following the explosion of the atomic bomb.

Richard spent most of his 34-year professional career as Principal of Ygnacio Valley Elementary School (23 years) before the Mount Diablo Unified School District (MDUSD) was formed. He first taught at the old Ambrose Elementary School and did a stint as Vice Principal before becoming the first Principal of Shore Acres Elementary School.

Although retired in 1981, Richard continued to teach mathematics in more than 20 elementary schools in MDUSD until 1999. He also read to pupils at Shadelands and Pinehaven Schools, and completed long stints as interim Principal at different elementary schools.

Hackenbracht

His love of mathematics led him to help found the California Mathematics Council, Northern Section (CMC-N). For his dedication and years of service, the CMC-N dedicated its 1973 Asilomar Conference to him and awarded him its first CMC Life Membership.

Other educational pursuits included teaching other educators about math and reading methods at Montana State University, Missoula, Mont., and Holy Names College, Oakland, Calif.; and training Peace Corps volunteer teachers bound for the Philippines.

Active in community, church, and environmental concerns,

Richard was very involved as a member of the First Lutheran Church, Concord; and previously, the Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Concord. He has served on the Concord Historical Society Board and as a docent; on the Concord Library Council; and as a volunteer visitor at Mount Diablo Hospital from 1979 - 2005 in Heart-to-Heart, a cardiac rehabilitation program. He greatly enjoyed good books, good music, and for many years, good golf. He and his wife Margaret enjoyed a goodly number of years traveling around the world.

Richard's survivors include his wife of 62 years and high school and college classmate, Margaret Troendly Hackenbracht; daughter, Mary Hackenbracht and her husband, Buck Gee; and grandson, Christopher Koo; daughter, Anna Hackenbracht and her husband David Koo; granddaughter, Miranda Koo; and grandson, Qun-Qun Koo; sister-in-law, Jane Hackenbracht of Bellevue; 15 nieces and nephews; and their families, plus many good friends.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Rees Hackenbracht of Bellevue; and his sister and brother-in-law, Lorena and Cecil Sims of West Lafayette.

Private burial services have been held. A memorial service will be March 22, 2008, at the First Lutheran Church in Concord, Calif.

Remembrances may be made to First Lutheran Church Music Fund, 4000 Concord Blvd., Concord, CA; Save Mount Diablo, 1901 Olympic Blvd., Walnut Creek, CA; Concord Historical Society, 1601 Sutter St., Concord, CA; or another organization of your choice.

WILLIAM E. OURANT 1921-2008

Funeral services to celebrate the life of William E. "Bill" Ourant, 87, Newcomerstown, will be at 11 a.m. on Thursday, April 3, 2008, at the Ourant Funeral Home in Newcomerstown. The Rev. Dr. Terry T. Timson will conduct the services. Burial will follow in West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown, where the Newcomerstown Veterans' Honor Guard will perform military graveside services. Visiting hours will be Wednesday, April 2 from 5 to 8 p.m. in the funeral home, and on Thursday morning from 10 to 11 a.m. He passed away late Saturday afternoon, March 29, in Mercy Medical Center, Canton.

Bill was born in Harrison County on Feb. 25, 1921, a son of the late Lyle and Geneva Ann Hugh Ourant.

He was a graduate of Scio High School, Class of 1939, where he lettered in football, baseball, and basketball. He attended the Ohio State University, but like so many others of his generation, his studies were interrupted by World War II. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps and served as second lieutenant as a bomber pilot. While in the Air Corps, he took courses at Murfreesboro State Teachers College, which later became Middle Tennessee State University. He served in England with the 95th Bomber Group as a B-17 pilot. In March of 1945, after completing a successful mission, his B-17 was shot down and crash landed in the small community of Weisel, Germany, near the Rhine River. Along with his B-17 crew, he was interned as a POW in Stalag 7A, Moosburg, Germany's largest POW camp. Along with 110,000 Allied prisoners, he was rescued in late April 1945, by General George Patton's Third Army Division on its march to Berlin. After being liberated, he returned home, attended, and graduated from the Cincinnati College of Mortuary Science.

Together Again
Marge and Bill Ourant

In December 1948, Bill, as a licensed funeral director and embalmer, settled in Newcomerstown and became the founder, owner, and operator of the Ourant Funeral Home. He purchased the residence of independent contractor W. M. Brode at 407 E. Canal St. and moved the business to this location in 1950. Along with funeral director and colleague W. Robert Parks, the funeral home also operated one of the two ambulance services in Newcomerstown for many years.

Bill was active in many civic organizations during his lifetime in Newcomerstown. He belonged to the Ohio Funeral Directors Association and the Tri-County Funeral Directors Association. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Newcomerstown, where he also served as elder, treasurer, and clerk of the session. Bill was also a 55-year member of the Lone Star Lodge no. 175, F & A M of Newcomerstown, and the Newcomerstown Lions club, where he served as president and Rose Day Chairman. He was also a life member of the Thomas Montgomery Post no. 431, Newcomerstown American Legion, where he served as past commander, a life member of the Darrell Beiter Post no. 3303, V.F.W. of Newcomerstown, and the Disabled American Veterans. He was a member and past president of the Newcomerstown Chamber of Commerce, and was also the first president of the Newcomerstown Community Improvement Corporation (CIC), one of the first in the state of Ohio. While with the CIC, the following industries established themselves in Newcomerstown: Seiberling Rubber Company (now Boltaron), Weather Seal (now General Electric), Kurz-Kasch, GroovFold, 31 Inc., and Herco (Now 3-D Diamond).

Bill also served as chairman of the finance committee which helped to create and build Lee Stadium at the Newcomerstown High School complex. He also served on many of the school levy committees through the decades. Along with nine other local businessmen, the Newcomerstown Progress Corporation was created in 1973. Bill served as its president as the Riverside Manor Nursing & Rehabilitation Center and the Riverside Apartments were built. He also served on the Board of Trustees of the Newcomerstown Public Library for over 20 years. He was honored by the Knights of Columbus as Citizen of the Year in 1981. Also, he was recently inducted into the Newcomerstown High School Citizens' Wall of Honor. Bill was also a life member of the Newcomerstown Elks Lodge no. 1555, and the L. O. O. M. no. 1337, Newcomerstown Moose Lodge. He was also a retired director and past president of the Tuscarawas County AAA. Bill was also the last surviving funeral director who assisted with the West Lafayette Troop Train Disaster in 1950.

Bill enjoyed being with his family and friends and going out for dinner. He was a regular patron of T. J.'s Restaurant, Stone Creek, for many years. He also was an avid sports fan and enjoyed watching the Ohio State Buckeyes and the Cleveland Indians. When he and his wife, Marge, established a winter residence in Winter Haven, Fla., they became season ticket holders for the Tribe's spring ball games.

Bill was preceded in death by wife, Marjorie E. Beall Ourant, who passed away Dec. 8, 1999, and whom he married May 1, 1944. Also deceased are daughter-in-law, Bonnie L. Spengler Ourant, who died on March 30, 1999; a brother, Edwin L. Ourant of Dover, who died in 2005; a sister, Mary Lou Pittenger of Scio, who died in 1983; and brother-in-law, Donald Pittenger of Scio.

Bill is survived by two sons, John C. and Kenneth L. Ourant, both of Newcomerstown; two brothers and their wives, Robert and Gladys Ourant of Upper Arlington, and Jack and Marge Ourant of Scio; sisters-in-law, Mary Ourant of Granville and Sylvia Beall Treiber Creager of Canton; and numerous nieces and nephews, including great-niece, Leah A. Spengler of Atlanta, who was raised in Newcomerstown.

The family is requesting that memorials be made in Bill's name to the Newcomerstown Lions Club, in care of Dennis Belle, Treasurer, 623 S. River St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832.

FRANCES DURBEN

Our beautiful mother, Frances Kina Bernardo Durben left this world Wednesday, April 9, 2008, to begin a new journey with God, a life free of worry, free of pain and free of sorrow.

She was born Aug. 2, 1928, in Monongalia County, W.Va., to the late James and Angelina (Prestere) Bernardo. Frances lost both parents by the age of ten. She and sister, Margaret, lived with foster parents in Morgantown. When her older sister, Mary, married Lester Myers of Newcomerstown, she and Margaret lived with them and attended school in Newcomerstown. It was there she met and married Ray E. Durben on Oct. 23, 1946. Together, they reared five children, Marlene (Jeff) Hostetler and Kay (Randy) Braniger, all of West Lafayette, Linda (Tom) Mason of Newcomerstown, and Ray (Lorelei) Durben and Pam (Roy) Tipton, all of Coshocton.

Frances worked at Groovfold in Newcomerstown for 20 years. She was a member of the Isleta Church of Christ. She was a devoted mother and grandmother who loved spending time with family and attending her grandchildren's sporting events. Frances always had a smile and kind word for everyone.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Ray on May 15, 1977; two great-grandchildren, Justin Morris and Kaieden Smith; two sisters, Mary Myers and Margaret Steinbach; and two brothers and their wives, Russell (Margaret) and Carlo

Frances and Ray Durben Together Again

(Emily) Bernardo.

She is survived by all her loving children; 17 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; many nieces and nephews; and three brothers-in-law, James Durben of Coshocton, Robert Steinbach of Port Washington, and Lester Myers of Newcomerstown.

God is truly welcoming one of the best mothers ever, and she will be sadly missed.

Funeral services were April 14, 2008, at the Isleta United Methodist Church with Pastor Johnnie Swann officiating. Burial followed in the West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown. The Addy Funeral Home in Newcomerstown was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Coshocton County, P.O. Box 1284, Coshocton, OH 43812; or to Coshocton County Hospital Extended Care Facilities, 1460 Orange St., Coshocton, OH 43812.

BARBARA J. SCOTT SERVICES
1933-2008

Funeral services to celebrate the life of Barbara J. "Barb" Scott, 75, of Newcomerstown, will be Tuesday, May 13 at 11 a.m. at the Ourant Funeral Home in Newcomerstown. Rev. Donald Silverthorne will conduct the services with burial in the West Lawn Cemetery, Newcomerstown. The funeral procession will depart the funeral home around noon and proceed west on Canal Street. It will pass the Temperance Museum, the Olde Main Street Museum and Social Center, and the USS Radford Museum, which were all a significant part of Barb's life. Barb and Vane's honeymoon car, their 1950 Dodge, will follow the hearse in the procession. Following the graveside services, the family will meet in the Olde Main Street Museum, 213 W. Canal St., Newcomerstown, for a bereavement luncheon. She passed away Wednesday morning, May 7, 2008, in Union Hospital, Dover.

Barbara was born in Newcomerstown on Jan. 15, 1933, a daughter of the late Eldon H. Waller, who died in 1987, and the late Madeline I. Norman Waller, who died in 1997.

Barbara attended Newcomerstown High School and also took courses at Coshocton Business College.

She was a lifelong Newcomerstown resident and was involved in many community activities throughout her life. She was a 25 year member of the Newcomerstown Historical Society and has served as its president since 1991. Barb was also a member of the Newcomerstown Rotary Club and served as

Scott

Rotary president in 2003-2004. She was also a member and past president of the former Newcomerstown Business & Professional Women, and attended Christ United Methodist Church.

Barb also belonged to the Newcomerstown Chamber of Commerce, where she was recognized as Member of the Year in 1999. In 2006, Barb received the Chamber's Lifetime Achievement Award. She was also the secretary/treasurer of the USS Radford 446, Inc., National Organization of USS Radford Association, and the USS Radford National Navy Museum. Along with her husband, Vane, they were recognized by the local Knights of Columbus, John Kennedy Council, as their Favorite Couple in 2001.

As a result of her work with the Newcomerstown Temperance Museum, she received the Zeisberger-Heckewelder Humanities Award from the Tuscarawas County Historical Society in May 2003. Barb was honored as a runner-up for the Tuscarawas County Women of the Year award in 2007. Also in 2007, she was elected to the Citizens Honor Roll Wall at Newcomerstown High School.

Barb was recently appointed to the Newcomerstown Blue Ribbon Committee for the downtown development of the village. She also served as a Cub Scout den mother for several years and also served many years as a division officer in the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary where she taught boating safety. Barbara was recognized by the Ohio House of Representatives in 1998 for her work in patriotism as a result of her work with the Colonial Flag Company, which she started with husband Vane in 1968. She also was cited in the U.S. Congressional Record in 1987 for her work with Colonial Flag.

Before establishing Colonial Flag in Newcomerstown, Barb spent time with Vane in "Great Scott" Displays and slowly became the largest traveling parade float and decorating company in North America. They added silk screen equipment during these years to make custom flags, and organized pageants and parades and created storefront decorating sales with the Rodgers Company.

During this time in the 1950s, their company was honored to help decorate the largest buildings in Washington D.C. for the first inauguration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Also, their company was the official decorator, parade float designer, and builder for two Miss America pageants, the Pro Football Hall of Fame Parades, and many national events throughout America.

One of Barb's current projects, in association with the Newcomerstown Temperance Museum, is the building of the Mary Hayes Dining Theatre complex and the Olde Main Street Museum and Social Center adjacent to the Temperance Museum.

In addition to her parents, Barbara was also preceded in death by a sister, Fern M. Ludwig Knisley, Coshocton; and a sister-in-law, Frances Graham Waller of Deming, N.M.

Barbara is survived by her husband of 56 years, Vane S. Scott, Jr., whom she married on Nov. 18, 1951. She also is survived by two sons and a daughter, Kennon E. Scott of Florida, and Vane S. "Bud" (Sue L. Cutlip) Scott III, and Gayle L. (Gary D.) Opphile, all of Newcomerstown; four grandchildren, Chad A. (Dawn R. Steffen) Opphile, Brad A. (Chasity Gadd) Opphile, Vane S. "Skip" Scott IV and his companion, Emma John and her daughter, Alaina John, and Vanessa L. Scott, all of Newcomerstown; five great-grandchildren, Alicia, Amber, and Ashlyn Opphile, Mackenzie Carr, and Raymond "Tray" Truex, III, also all of Newcomerstown; sister, Sandy L. (Dan) Loader of Newcomerstown; brother, Eldon Eugene Waller of Deming, N.M.; and several members of the family of the late Guy and Jeanette Mirise Norman.

The family is requesting that donations be made in Barbara's name to the Newcomerstown Historical Society, P.O. Box 443, Newcomerstown, OH 43832; or the USS Radford Museum, 132 W. Canal St., Newcomerstown, OH 43832.

DOROTHY J. WORTHINGTON

BYESVILLE — A memorial service was held Saturday at Black-Epperson Funeral Home, Byesville, for Dorothy Jane Worthington, 87, who returned to her Lord Jesus Christ in the early morning hours of Aug. 26, 2008, after a brief illness.

Jane, as she was fondly known to friends and family, was the second of six children born to Robert and Opal Kohler in Newcomerstown, on Sept. 15, 1920.

She married William (Bill) Worthington on July 20, 1940. Through the years, Jane worked for various businesses, including Curtis Wright, Ohio Bell, the town market, and served as treasurer for the Village of Pleasant City, to name a few.

She also volunteered with the local fire department's auxiliary. Jane was known not only for her great attitude in spite of difficulties that she faced but also for her ability to brighten the lives of others. She loved watching sports, especially tennis, golf, the Atlanta Braves, and college football and basketball.

Many were the very lucky beneficiaries of her excellent culinary abilities.

Jane was preceded in death by her husband, Bill; daughter, Beth; son-in-law, Don Moffat; two sisters, Ruth Hurst and Beryl DeRing; and a niece, Karen Papas.

She is survived by daughters, Janet Moffat of Columbus and Martha (Sid) Kasper of Northfield, M.N.; grandchildren, Brian and Steve Shorten, Phil (Judy) Moffat and Linda (Gerry) Mueller; sisters, Mary (Clarence) Watts and Marilyn (Don) Atkinson; a brother, Robert (Maxine) Kohler; and numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to your favorite charity.

Personal condolences may be sent to www.black-epperson-funeralhomes.com.
