Mary Eveline Quillen Rodman Honeywell
23 Jan 1899 – 13 Oct 1978

This book is dedicated to Mary Eveline. Her 1966 book Quillen Family Ohio Branch provided my initial interest in my Quillen lineage. Mary had the advantage of living among and knowing the older Quillen descendants of Isaac Quillen, her grandfather and the first child of Elihu Quillen Jr. She shared their stories in her book.

ORIGIN OF CLAN

The Quillin Clan or sect originated in North Ireland, County of Antrim. The race from which it sprang is Celtic and Continental. Several Celtic migrations went from the European continent B.C. to Ireland. Among them was the Milesian Colony which was the fifth migratory group. They came directly from Spain but prior to that from Gaul (old name for France) across the Pyrenees Mountains into the Elbro River valley of Spain where they were known as Celtiberi. They moved from there to the northwest to Galicia, and then through the port of La Coruna to Ireland during the Fourth Century B.C. They settled in the region of Dalriada which consisted of the present counties of Antrim and Down. In later times they were a part of Ulster.

The Quillin Clan descends from the ancient Lords of Oriel, Ulidia, and Ulster. The Celts made their first settlement in Dalriada in the territory called The Route. The Celts were formerly called Gaels, a contracted form of Goidelic Celt.

The Route was the main traveled road between Scotia Major in County Antrim and Scotia Minor in Western Scotland. The relationship, in ancient times, between these two regions was very close, in fact the kings of one were at the same time kings of the other region and came in time to form the nucleus of the Irish Kingdom of Scotland.

The Clan, Quillin, believes itself to have descended from King Niall I, the 116th Pagan King of Ireland, who ruled from 380 to 405 A.D. The Mag Uillin manuscript claims that King Niall's youngest and only son by his 2nd wife, Queen Inne, is the ancestor of the Mag Uillins (old form of spelling in the Gaelic language). This son's name was Fiacha. Queen Inne was a princess of Ulster in her own right, being sixth in descent from Fergus Davendedah, King of Ulster, who was grandson of the Monarch Conn of the Hundred Battles.

The name Cullen or Uillin means "fair-haired." Fiacha had two brothers, Owen and Connell, who lived in County Tyrone and County Donegal in Ireland. Their descendents succeeded each other in the sovereignty of Ireland for six hundred years; and Benedict Fitzpatrick, in his book "Ireland and the Making of Britain" says that the pedigrees of the leading families of Ireland converge for the most part in the Fourth Century and in the family of Niall the First.

The original designation of the spot where stood the ancient palace of the Ulster Kings was Rath More Mag Cuillin. The King of Wales was repulsed here in 685 A.D. by the Mag Cuillins. This stronghold was burned by the O'Neills in 1513 at which time the Mag Uillin Chieftan moved into Dunluce Castle.

Much of the history of ancient Ireland was recorded in the Annals of the Four Masters who were four Franciscan Brothers who dedicated their lives to keeping records of the times of the Irish people. It took them four years to collect and copy the history in legible form.

The Castle of Dunluce was taken from the sons of Garrett Mac Quillin by O'Donnell in 1513 and given up to the sons of Walter Mac Quillin in 1513 A.D.

The Chieftan of the Clan, Mag or Mac Uillin moved into Dunluce Castle in 1513 A.D. This was prior to the time Ponce de Leon discovered Florida.

It is appropriate to try to determine the origin of the name Quillin, with its many variants of spelling.

There is no letter "Q" in the Gaelic alphabet. The Gaelic alphabet has eighteen letters and "Q" is not one of them. The Quillin ancestors were Gaelic and spoke and wrote that language. Their surnames were Gaelic. The language is very old and is said to have come to Ireland from Phoenicia instead of through Greece and Rome, the usual route. Doctor Samuel Johnson and Edmund Spenser concur in this opinion.

The letter "Q" was inserted later by the English as a part of their process of anglicizing the Irish people, possibly during the reign of Elizabeth I, 1558-1603.

Here are some of the various spellings that have been used by the Quillin Clan:

Mag Uillin, Mag Cuillen, Mag Uidhifin, Mag Uibhilin, Moigh Cuillin, Mag Ullaine, Mag Coillin, Mac Coillin, Mac Cuillin, Cuillinan, Cullen, Cullinan, Quillinan, Mac Coillin, Mac Gwillinan, Mag Uyllen, Quillen, Mac Quillan, Quillian, Mac Quillin, Quillane, Quillon, Quilling, and Quillins

The word "dun" indicated the residence of a king. Hence Dunluce Castle.

Dunluce Castle, in County Antrim, Ireland, is now partly in ruins but is preserved as an ancient monument by the Ministry of Finance of Northern Ireland. A picture of it is to be found in the History of the Quillin Clan by Mac Quillin and Brown. A picture of it is also found in English Travel Brochures. It was considered as impregnable.

Edward Mac Quillin was the last chieftan of Dunluce Castle and Lord of the Route. A direct descendant of Edward, Edward Quillinan has written a beautiful poem about Dunluce Castle. He married Dorothy Wordsworth, daughter of the English poet, William Wordsworth.

"Through many an age by lineal right,
Its blessings and its boast,
Mac Quillins were the fostering light
Of Antrim's feudal coast."

The Quillin Clan was almost annihilated at the Battle of Aura. History records only three survivors, one an old man, another a mere lad and one in between who were later to meet a sadder fate from the English.

Many families of the Quillin Clan were forced to change the spelling of their name in order to survive. Some were forced to drop the "O" and the "Mac" prefixes. Others were forbidden to use their old names in any form. Hence the different forms of the name's spelling in the U. S. where in many cases the families attempted to restore the former names. Their lands were confiscated by the English, their religion was proscribed and their names mutilated.

Rory Oge Mac Quillin learned that if he "could not lick them he might as well join them" and proceeded to marry one of the Clan O'Neill's daughters who were cooperating with the Scots against the English.

What caused the Quillin Clan to come to such a status having controlled so much land and wielded so powerful an influence? It can be understood only through an understanding of English and Irish relationships. Politics and favoritism played a leading role.

It may be that Cosmic law meted out justice in a stern manner to the clan leaders whose ancestors in ancient times conquered by the sword.

The English followed the policy of "Surrender and Regrant." An English Governor, Sir Arthur Chichester, made use of famine and pestilence to exterminate the masses of the Irish. All of the land owned by the Mac Quillins was taken from them without their consent and control.

When James VI of Scotland became James I of England, the Irish hesitated to accept him as their king. He promised to return to them their lands lost in the past seven years. He later withdrew these promises for no good reason at all.

The last member of the clan to hold land by letter grant from the King of England was Rory Oge Mac Quillin whose grandfather was Edward Mac Quillin; Rory Oge's father of the same name had been executed in Dublin by the English. Edward was the last member of the clan to occupy Dunluce Castle. Rory Oge II died in 1636.

The Annals of the Four Masters end in the year 1616. Edward Mac Quillin had another grandson, Richard Ferdoragh Mac Quillin.

James Ross Mac Quillin went to France with 20,000 other Irish soldiers of the famous Irish Brigade in the reign of James II.

The line of descent from the beginning of the 16th Century to the latter part of the 18th is as follows as recorded by Edward, son of Ephraim McQuillin:

Joseph Mac Quillin of County Wexford, born 1792, son of:
 Edward Mac Quillin, born 1760, son of;
 Ephraim Mac Quillin, born 1726, son of;
 Richard Mac Quillin, born 1670, son of;
 Charles Mac Quillin, born 1630, son of;
 Richard Mac Quillin, born 1594, son of;
 Roderick Oge Mac Quillin, born 1567, son of;
 Edward Mac Quillin, Jr., born 1535, son of;
 Edward Mac Quillin, Sr., born 1503, son or brother of;
 Roderick Macquillin, son of;
 Walter Mac Quillin.

Ephraim Mac Quillin, born 1726, married a lady by the name of Hoope, who belonged to the well-known Society of Friends, and engaged in the manufacture of linens.

The records indicate that they had two sons, or maybe descendants further removed, who in 1790 continued to transmit the name. One removed to America, the other went to the Province of Leinster, and later one member of it is found residing in County Wexford, England.

John Quillin, Esq. was Attorney-General of the Isle of Man.

He married Elizabeth, daughter of Wm. Pownall, Esq. of Litherland in the County of Lancaster, England.

Attention is called to the fact that the people who lived in the southern counties of Ireland and cooperated more or less with the English government were spoken of as "The Green Irish" and were for the most part Catholic. The people of the northern counties with whom we are concerned in this history were known as "The Orange Irish" and were strictly Protestants and persecuted by the English Crown.

THE QUILLEN-QUILLIN-QUILLAN FAMILIES IN AMERICA

1. "Teague Quillin, age 20, who sailed from "ye port of London" aboard the ship "The Thomas" to arrive in Virginia on August 21, 1635." Maryland State Archives contain records of Teague Quillin born 1615 in County Kilkenny, Ireland. Had a son Daniel.
2. Daniel Quillin, Quillane married wife Lydia (maiden name unknown) in 1661 Northampton County, Virginia, where they had tithables in Accomac Co. in 1663-1664. By May 1665 they had settled in the region of Somerse County, Maryland. According to the book Old Somerset on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, by Clayton Torrence:

"Quillane, Daniel Quillane and Lydia, his wife, in Northampton County, Virginia, 1661; and by Mary, 1665, were in the Morumsco section. Quillane had patents in Somerset County for lands called "The Irish Grove," on e. side of Morumsco Creek, and "Limbrick," on n. side of Pocomoke River, in a neck of land called Nassawaddocks (O 7, p. 536)., Daniel and Lydia had issue: (1) Eliza, 1661/2; (2) Thomas, May 3, 1665; (3) Daniel, Jr., Nov 13, 1667; (4) Teague, almighty God hath so disposed that...Daniel Quillane came by misadventure to his death and dyed intestate" (see deed in Somerset Court, October 24, 1681 m Thomas Quillane to Thomas Lidster). Thomas Quillane (son of Daniel and Lydia) m., 1685, Sarah Morris; issue: (1) Daniel, 1687; (2) Thomas, 1691 (IKL)."
3. Thomas Quillane, born 3 May 1665 Daniel and Lydia's son, married Sarah Morris 24 July 1685 and reported the birth of two sons: Daniel, born 24 Jun 1687; and Thomas, Jr., born 14 Jul 1691. Thomas Quillen is recorded in the 1723 Somerset County, MD census. Generations 4 and 5 that follow are best assumptions based on all available information.
4. Daniel Quillane III, Thomas and Sarah's son, born 24 June 1687 married unknown, and had three sons: Thomas born ca 1710 MD, Clement born ca 1723 MD and Elisha born ca 1725. Clement married Susannah Miller.
5. Thomas Quillen, son of Thomas, born ca 1710 Kent Co., MD, married unknown, and had two sons: Daniel born ca 1755 and Clement b ca 1764. (I have seen his birth listed as 13 Aug 1765 but no proof.) "Thomas Quillane, a planter in Kent Co., Md., was son and heir of Daniel Quillane, late of Somerset Co., who was son and heir of Thomas Quillane of same county, who was son an heir-at-law to Daniel Quillane, deceased." Thomas and Sarah Morris Quillane made deed for land sold in Somerset Co., Md., Oct 24, 1691. Lydia Quillin was appointed administrator of Daniel Quillin, 1684, Somerset Co., Md.
6. Clement Quillen, son of Thomas, married ca 1780 MD Hannah (maiden name unknown) and had five children: (he went to Ohio in 1805)

FOREWARD

In the history portion of each chapter, for ease of the reader, spelling of the name Quillen, Quillin, Quillan, etc. will remain the same for a specific individual (except in rare instances). For example, James A. Quillen will always be referred to as Quillenen and Earl Quillin will always be referred to as Quillinin.

As noted in the first sentence of Chapter 3, only one record was found where a suffix was added to the name Elihu (in this instance to son Elihu as Elihu, Jr.). No record was found where Sr. was affixed to father Elihu. For the reader's edification, therefore, Elihu the father will always be referred to as Elihu Sr. and Elihu the son will always be referred to as Elihu Jr.

The family charts are done in the Family Tree Maker program. The numbering system starts with the earliest traceable family member which is Elihu Sr. For example, each chapter's charts will begin with Elihu Quillin Sr. who is the first generation (hence the ¹ one above his name). His first child, Rachel is the second generation (above her name is ²). Rachel's children will be the third generation and their children the fourth generation and so on.

Some children born or married in 2011 may not be entered if the information was not acquired before this publication.

was Eli. As for the names of any brothers or sisters for James, Earl only heard talk of a brother David and brother Adam, who lived out West. The family talk was that apparently James' family was not close. His father had remarried and James and some of his siblings did not get along with the stepmother and had not spoken to each other for years. Earl did know that James and family had come to Holmes Co. sometime in the 1850's, cleared the land, built a cabin and eventually a house. He knew they had come from Harrison Co. Dad's notes showed that he had tried to find James' father in Harrison Co. but could only find a Joshua Quillen, who had a son James B. Quillen, and the year born did not jibe. This is where he ended his search.

I went to the state library in Columbus, OH and among their collection of family genealogies was one written by Mary Evelyn Honeywell in 1966 titled Quillen Family Ohio Branch. Looking through it I saw mention of a James Quillen, but more importantly I found that the book was basically about the family of an Isaac Quillen (born in 1840) who was the son of an Elihu Quillen, whose father was Elihu Quillen of Harrison Co. Could this Elihu Quillen Sr. be the "Eli" that Earl Quillin told my dad was James A. Quillen's father? Mary Evelyn Honeywell had a son, Charles Rodman, by her first husband, listed in the book. By luck he was (and still is) alive. I contacted him and he still had a copy of the book. I sent a check and upon receiving it was able to finally get our Quillen/Quillin ancestry unraveled.

If Elihu Quillen Sr. in Mary's book was "Eli" her book did not directly mention a son James A. It mentioned, on page 19, that in the 1850 Ohio census, Elihu Sr.'s family did not list Elihu Jr. and brother James because they were older and not at home. A copy of page 19 is at the end of this introduction.

Elihu Quillen Jr. was married first to Eliza Ann Maxson and they had a son Isaac who Mary Evelyn descended from. Elihu Jr. had abandoned Eliza and Isaac and remarried. Eliza, with son Isaac, settled in Hocking Co., OH. As a young girl in Hocking Co., Mary was privy to Isaac's family and their stories. He knew the family had come from Maryland, passed through Pennsylvania stopping for a short period of time in Chambersburg, Franklin Co. According to Isaac, they settled in Ohio in the early 1800's. While the book is concentrated on Isaac Quillen's family up to 1966, it also contained an outline of a David Quillen family. I contacted Mary's son

INTRODUCTION

In the early 1970's my father began tracing our family heritage. Beginning with the Ryan line he followed it back to the early 1700's in Shenandoah Co., VA. He found that my grandmother Gray was from Pennsylvania and he found records showing her three brothers had come to the states in 1800. He then started on my mother's Neville line and traced it back to England. In addition to the male surname he also researched the female surname lines.

He died in 1979 and in about 1983 I sat down with the several folders and notebooks he had put together and saw where he had ended his various searches either by hitting a brick wall or by just running out of time due to his illness. I was soon bitten by the genealogy bug.

As I started going through the information on my grandmother Ryan's Gray family I noted that her mother was Harriet Quillen who had married George Washington Gray in Holmes Co., OH. Her father was listed as James A. Quillen born 1816 in Harrison Co., OH and her mother was listed as Elizabeth Clancy, born 1816 in Jefferson Co., OH.

While Elizabeth Clancy's father and mother were listed there was no listing for James A. Quillen's parents. At this time I was involved with writing the first of three books on my Ryan family and decided to make a list of the family names that needed more research.

In 1995 I was finishing a book on my wife's Hall family of West Virginia. It was in 1996 when I looked at the list of names and began to use various new on-line resources to see if I could get further back on each. I found it possible to find the needed family information without a lot of travel, plus find who else was searching for the same name.

I started going through all of my father's folders which contained notes he had made and letters he had received. When I got to the folder on Quillen I saw that he had found a grandson of James A. Quillen, Earl Quillin, in Holmes Co. Earl lived near the original James A. Quillen farm. My father and Earl were second cousins once removed and became good friends. He had asked Earl why he spelled his last name with an "in" instead of "en" as James' daughter had. Earl said that was how his father and cousins in Holmes Co. spelled it. When asked if he knew who James A. Quillen's father was, he told my dad that he had heard others say that his name

Charles again, and he confirmed that his mother had found David as she was finishing her research and that he was a brother to Elihu Jr. She only had time to add the outline of David's family as a separate page and never did any additional research on his family. This confirmed that if David was a brother of Elihu Jr. then so was my James. Mary died in 1977 without ever knowing that Elihu Jr. had married a third time. He settled in Carroll Co., MO and had four more children.

A trip to the Harrison Co. courthouse in Cadiz and a trip to Jefferson Co., OH courthouse in Steubenville plus a review of the 1820, 1830, 1840, and 1850 census records allowed me to not only prove that Elihu Sr. was "Eli" but that his father was Clement Quillen who had arrived in adjoining Jefferson Co. prior to 1805 when he purchased land. The records show that Elihu Sr. was born in 1790 in Maryland and that he had siblings Adam born 1782 MD, Joshua, born 1786 DE, Amos, born 1789 MD, and Rachel born 1792 MD. They are named in the settlement of Clement Quillen's estate in 1839 where they sell Clements's land. While his will just referred to four sons, the sale of his land named them along with their wives.

By 1997 I had traced my Quillen ancestry back to my third great-grandfather Elihu Sr. and to my fourth, Clement. My primary research turned to finding Clement's parentage. I knew from the census records that all his children had been born in either Maryland or Delaware. Honeywell's book showed that she had done research in these states also. I had access to an on-line program called Gen Forum and entered the surname Quillen, first name Clement, and up came research information on him in both states and also Ohio. Several researchers names were identified and I began on-line correspondence with some of them. Over the next three years we did extended research into Maryland and Delaware records and concluded that there was no record that gave positive proof to Clements parentage. Researcher Susan Quillin Thompson even organized a Quillin/Quillen reunion in 2001 in Newcomerstown, Tuscarawas Co., OH. Only a few attended but Susan and I had the most information and have kept in touch.

Susan descends from Clement's son Amos, Elihu Sr.'s brother, and had recorded his family up to the present. She also had researched Clement's sons Adam, Joshua and Elihu Sr. She did have James, David and Elihu Jr. listed as children of Elihu Sr. Also listed as his children were Mary

J., Adam, and Joshua. I continued correspondence with Susan and other "Ohio" Quillen researchers who were also trying to find Clement's parentage. By 2002 my wife and I had moved to Wilmington, NC and I placed my Quillen binder on the shelf. From time to time I would look in Gen Forum to see if there was any new information on Clement or Elihu Sr. It was in 2009, after completing a history on my maternal Neville line, that I saw a reference to a Vernan W. McCabe who had written a book in 1996, The Descendants of the Quillen Family of the Delmarva Penninsula. After talking to him I got a copy of his book for Christmas 2009. While he had no conclusive evidence on who Clement's parents were he did have some doubts as to Clement's descendants, including that of my second great-great-grandfather James.

He asked me to put together information on James' family for him, particularly the Quillen/Gray family. In the process, looking again through my Quillen binder, I made the decision to once and for all get Elihu Srs.' family correctly recorded. I realized that my Elihu Quillen information did not match his or other researchers who had tried to assign children's names to Elihu Sr. So, in January 2010, I decided the only way to accurately record Elihu Srs. family would be to write a history of him. It has proved to be a most interesting endeavor. Oh yes, I never sent the Quillen/Gray information to him. However, it is all in this history and I will make sure he gets a copy.

Although this is a history of Elihu Quillen Sr. it is necessary to tell about his ancestry. As mentioned, his father was Clement Quillen and mother Hannah, whose maiden name is at this writing, unknown. Some researchers say it is Todd or Turner, with no proof. Clement is our earliest proven ancestor. Many Quillen researchers have tried for years to prove who Clement's father was. From the Origin of Clan at the start of this history you will see that our American Quillen ancestry began in the 1600's on what is known as "The Delmarva Penninsula." This area is between the Atlantic Ocean and the Chesapeake Bay containing the state of Delaware, the eastern portion of Maryland, and, at the southern tip, a portion of Virginia. This is shown on the maps at the end of this introduction.

Based on early land records, church records, wills and years of researchers analyzing it all, the last page of Origin of Clan shows the most accepted ancestry up to Clement at this time without proof positive as to Thomas, born 1710, being his father.

Records show that he had land in Sussex Co., Delaware in the 1780's in the area known as Baltimore 100. This area was a part of Worcester Co., Maryland until 1775. MD claimed the southern and western part of DE until 1763. Thus, it is possible that Clement may have been born in Worcester Co., married there and never moved until heading west to Ohio sometime in the late 1790's.

Based on the birth years of his four sons and daughter (marriage age at that time was certainly by 18) it is estimated that Clement was born ca 1764 in either Maryland or Delaware.

The route the family took to Ohio (according to Honeywell's book) took them through Chambersburg, PA, where they may have stayed for a period of time. They arrived in Ohio by or prior to 15 Nov 1805. That is the date Clement purchased 202 and $\frac{3}{4}$ acres of land in Warren Twp., Jefferson Co. from J Nicholas Riley and his wife Hannah (see deed at end of introduction). The area containing the farm became Wells Twp. in 1823. Also refer to maps of 1800 available routes of travel to Ohio from Maryland/Delaware. One possible route would take Clements family into Hagerstown, MD then to Chambersburg, PA and then along what is now Rte. 30 to Washington Co., PA and into Jefferson Co., OH (maps at end of introduction).

Why Ohio? It had just become a state in 1803. There was a Daniel Quillen in Jefferson Co. at this same time who, while not proven, is believed to have been Clement's brother. He may have come first and sent word back to "come on out." Clement spent the remainder of his life on his farm. He wrote his will 10 Sept 1826 naming his wife Hannah, daughter Rachel, granddaughter Aria and four sons (unnamed). One of his sons Amos is named. At his death the land goes to Hannah and at her death to be divided between the four sons. Clement died prior to 19 Nov 1835 when his will was probated and settled in May 1836 all in Jefferson Co. A copy of the will follows at the end of the introduction. He is buried in the New Alexandria Cemetery, Jefferson Co.

Among other court entries for Clement in Jefferson Co. are the following: Common Pleas Record 1A page 504 John Scott vs Clement Quillin 8 Aug 1807 Sheriff you are commanded to take into custody Clement Quillin for court to be held at Steubenville 1st Tuesday in August to answer John Scott action of debt of $50, 29 Jan 1807. Dec 9, 1808 Judgement 108 and ½ cent.

It is not until Hannah died in 1839 and the land is sold that names of the four sons are officially known—Adam, Elihu Sr., Joshua, and Amos. They sell the 202 and ¾ acres to William Todd on 16 Mar 1839 for $4,500.00 (copy at end of introduction).

Some things to keep in mind as you go through each chapter for Elihu Srs. children. The pages are 3-hole punched so that you can personalize your own chapter. You can add family stories, pictures, birth, marriage and death certificates, wills, etc. I have included copies of some of the records that I obtained in the course of my research.

All births, marriages, deaths are shown as county and state only, no city. This is to provide for some identity security. This information is not recorded for persons under age 21. There is no mention of where people live.

Data was obtained from individuals by phone, letter and e-mail, bible records and vital records. When giving information i.e., names, there is chance for misspelling, dates can be off by day, month, or year. Human error creeps into this endeavor. There are a number of names with no pertinent information listed. There are cases where there are no names, period. Possible identity theft concern from some descendants had caused much of this. Then there are some descendants who are simply not interested. Persons with multiple marriages do not want all marriages included.

The spelling of the surname, Quillen or Quillin occurs both ways in some families. As you can see in the census records and other documents besides Quillen, Quillin there is also Quillan, Quillon, Qillon, Quilling, etc. While census records are a valuable resource they are subject to error. Recorded ages can change more or less every 10 years. Spelling of names is in most cases what the census taker heard. In early census' people could not spell. In the later censuses a person within the same family gave different answers as to where their parents were born. The first U.S. census was 1790. The first Ohio census was 1820. The 1890 census was destroyed in a fire.

The 1820, 1830, and 1840 censuses only name the head of households. "All household members" could include nonfamily and are simply shown by the number living there in the broad age categories. Error could occur if the census taker entered the number in the wrong column or if all persons living there were members of that family. A lot of assumptions are made at times in using these three census records.

Beginning with the 1850 census, all household members are named. This includes family and any family help. It is the spelling of the surname that is critical in finding the particular census to look at, i.e., the various spellings of Quillen from census to census. Examples are Quillen, Quillin, Quilin.

In the three other family histories I have written, I have said that to do a family history you need “luck points.” Without them large areas of a history would be blanks. Here are the ones that made this history.

- Finding Mary Evelyn Honeywell’s Quillen History. This connected Elihu Jr. and David to Elihu Sr. Elihu Sr. was her second great-grandfather.
- Finding my father’s notes on his conversations with Earl Quillin.
- Doris Russell was searching the Oak Hill cemetery in Carroll Co., MO and found Elihu Quillen’s Jr. tombstone while trying to find her great grandfather, Adam Quillen. Adam’s great-grandfather and Doris’ third great-grandfather, was Elihu’s brother, Adam Quillen.
- Finding Elihu Srs. son Adam and family in Jay Co., IN.
- Finding Elihu Srs. daughter Rachel’s obituary. First time any of Elihu’s children mentioned their parent’s names.
- Finding descendants of James Quillen's daughter Nancy Gray in California and Oregon.
- Accidently finding the Wilkin’s Family History on line which had David Quillen’s family up to 1955.
- Lastly I thank my wife Trina for entering all of the information into the Family Tree Maker Program and typing all the other portions. Also, my mother-in-law, Wanda L. Abruzzino for editing it all. This was really Luck.

Page 19 from Mary Honneywell's book, in the first paragraph she had Elihu and his brothers as sons of Clement's brother Daniel. In the fourth paragraph she refers to "later in 1841" (she meant 1850 census finding Elihu Jr. born in 1810. She then mentions Elihu Jr.'s brother James born about 1813. The 6th and 7th paragraphs indicate that Elihu (Jr.) married Eliza Ann Maxon in Washington Twp., Harrison Co. and after divorcing Elihu Jr. she moved to Hocking Co., OH in about 1848 with son Isaac.

(Descended from Daniel)

Daniel Quillen, listed in the U. S. Census for 1820, was born in Maryland but at this time was living in Harrison Co., Ohio, one of its earliest settlers, being between sixty and seventy years old in 1820. He had sons, Elihu, and Adam, that we know of, Elihu having been born in Maryland in 1790, and Adam in 1798.

Sometime near 1800 the families moved to Harrison County, Ohio, where we find records of Land warrants to Adam in 1818 and Elihu in 1827. Prior to 1800 these families had resided for a time either in Franklin County or Washington County, Pa., depending on the date at which time each county was erected.

Elihu I. married Sarah Cree who was born in Pa. and at the time of the census in 1850 for Harrison County, Ohio, they had a son, Adam, age 36, and daughters Matilda age 25 and Mary J. age 22, still living with them. Sarah was probably Elihu's second wife as he had children grown before this marriage.

The census for 1820 for Harrison County, Ohio, lists Elihu Quillen with two males under ten years of age. Later, in 1841, we find Elihu Quillen, born in 1810, in Ohio, age 40 and his wife Eleanor A. Phillips whom he married in 1841. This Elihu and James born about 1813 were older sons of Elihu I. and were not at the home when the census was taken.

The U. S. Census for 1840 Harrison Co., Ohio, lists Joel Malesbury living in Washington Township. His family consisted of 1 male under 5 years, the head 50 to 60 years, 1 female 20 to 30 years and 1 female 50-60 years.

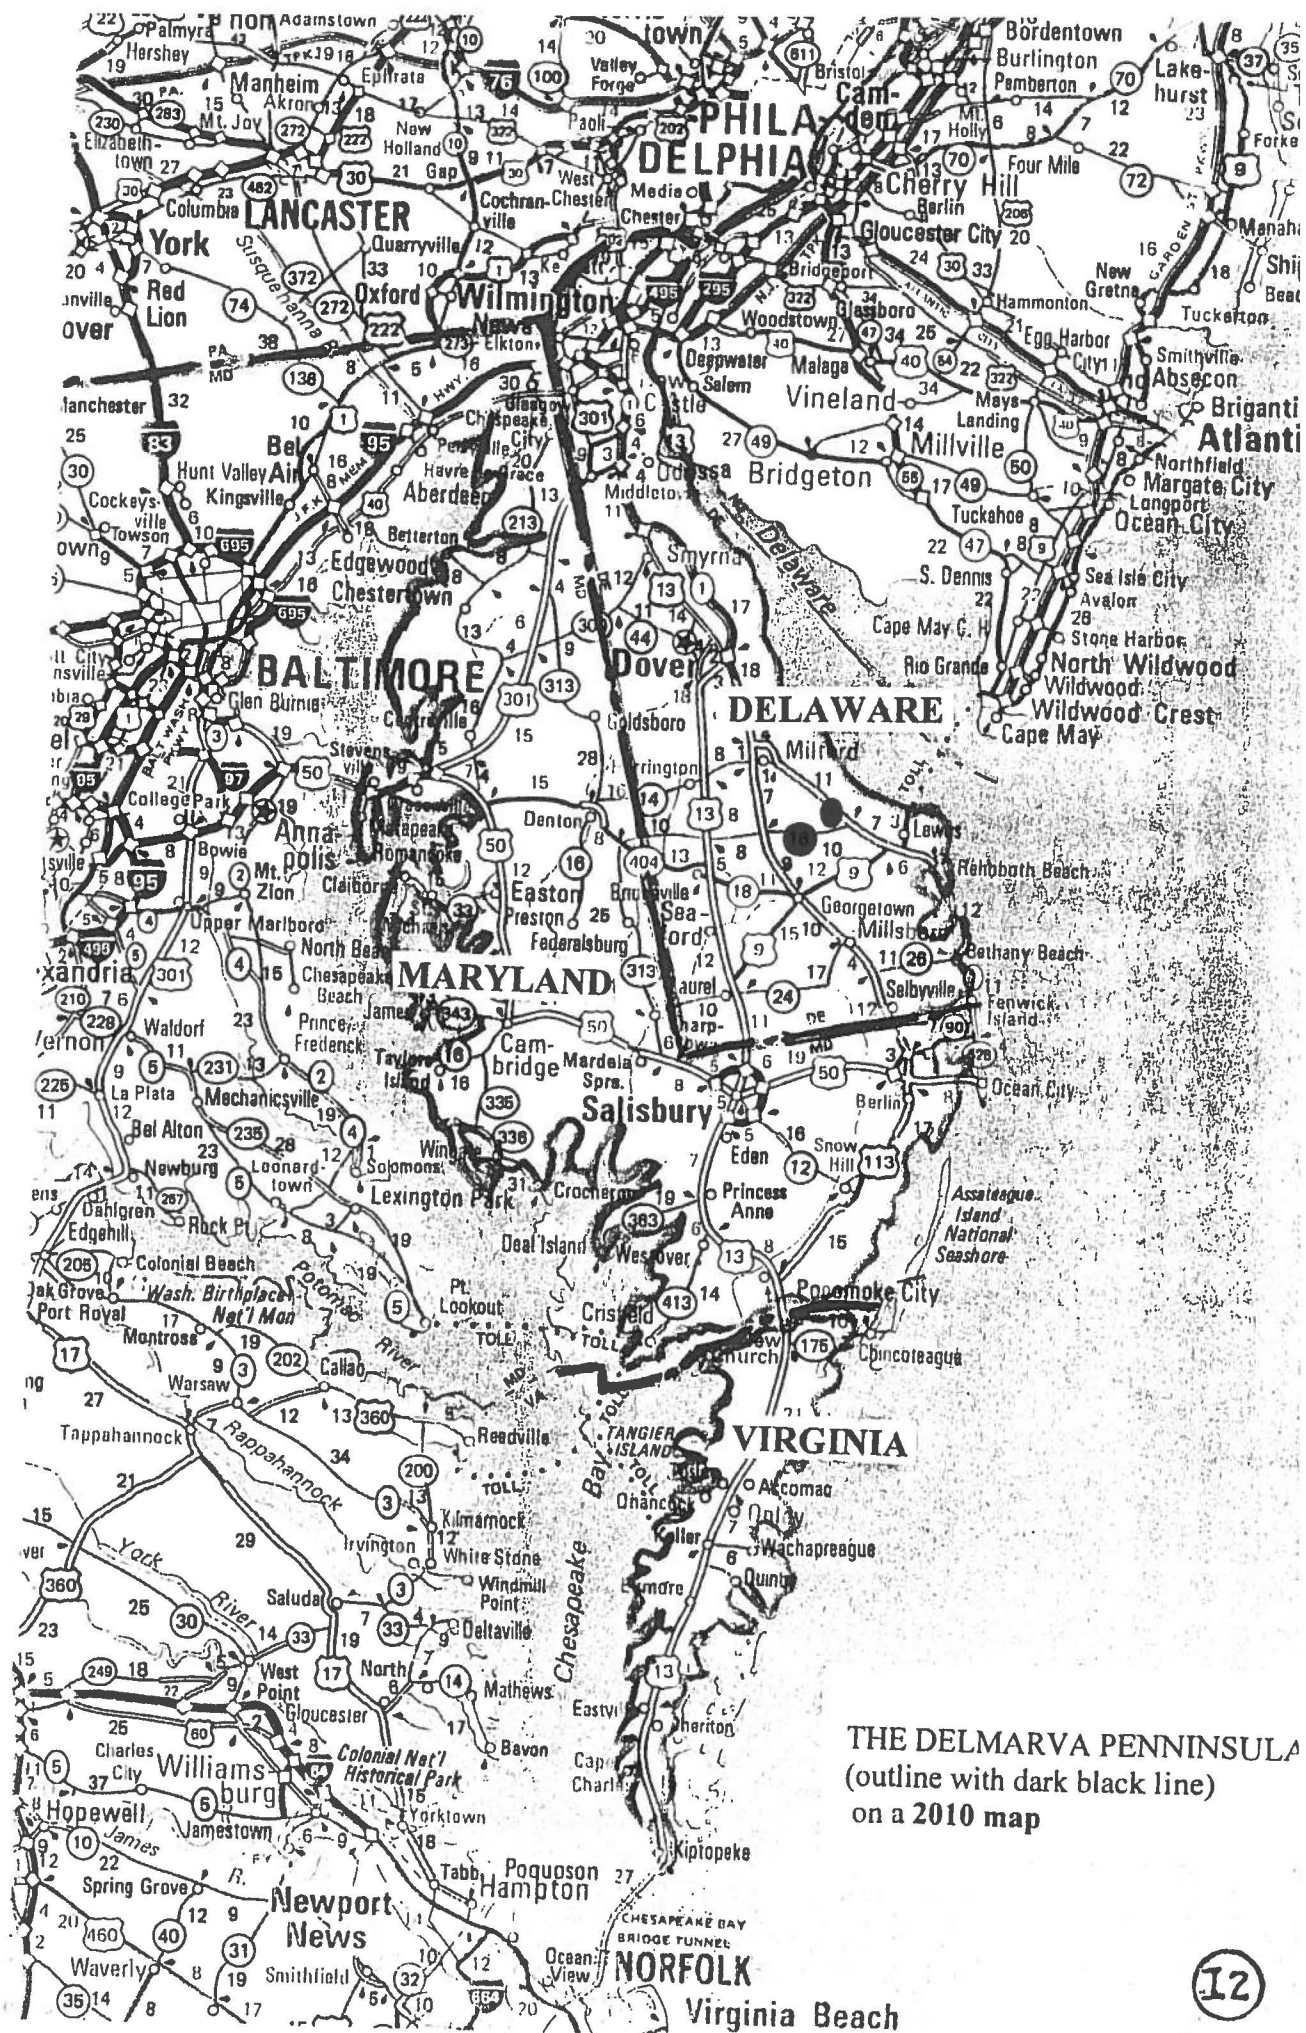

We take this to mean Joel Malesbury, his wife Ann, their granddaughter Eliza Ann Maxon, and her son Isaac Quillen. Joel was born in Pa. in 1785. The census of 1860 for Hocking County, Ohio, says that Ann Malesbury was born in New Jersey and Isaac Quillen was born in Ohio.

According to the older children of Isaac Quillen, his mother, Eliza Ann Maxon, separated from his father, Elihu Quillen, when Isaac was about 2 years old. Eliza Ann and Isaac came to Hocking County with her grand-parents, Joel and Ann Maxon Malesbury, when Isaac was about eight years of age.

The U. S. Census of Laurel Twp., Hocking Co., Ohio for 1850 shows.

One way would have been going north to York, PA, then west. The second and perhaps the best way would have been through Baltimore and west to Hagerstown, MD, then north to Chambersburg. Clement Quillin's Will

Jefferson County, OH Will Book 2 pages 447-449

I, Clement QUILLEN of Jefferson County, state of Ohio, being sick and weak in body, but sound in mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament. That is to say; that I first resign my soul to God who gave it. I secondly allow my body to be decently interred. I next allow my executors to pay all my lawful debts, provided my estate is worth the same. I now bequest to my four sons now living the whole of my landed property on which I now reside, to be equally divided anymore than my son Amos is to have his part of that land where he now lives. I also bequeath to my granddaughter Aria Quillen, at the decease of her grandmother, also two hundred dollars and the horse she now has named for her. Furthermore, I allow my sons above-mentioned legacies out of the land, provided my chattled property will not amount for the same. And, lastly, I bequeath the land and property that I now am in possession of, to my wife Hannah, as long as she lives, to enjoy it peaceably as she formerly has done. And, after her decease, my sons within mentioned, to inherit and divide my property as within mentioned. In witness hereof, I have affixed my hand and seal this tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six.

Elihu Quillen Sr. – 1790 – 1866

As the introduction stated, Elihu Sr. arrived in Jefferson Co., Ohio from Maryland as a teenager after a long journey across Pennsylvania. His exact date of birth and location of same in MD has not been established. His father, Clement, was at times in several MD counties but most likely it was in Kent Co. The 1790 year of birth comes from the 1850 and 1860 censuses, as does place of birth being Maryland. Elihu Sr. married at age 16 on May 1806 in Jefferson Co. to Jean Baker who was also about 16 years old according to census records. There has been no conclusive documentation on Jean Baker's parentage. Some researchers say she was born in PA. Perhaps the Baker family traveled through PA with the Quillen's. Elihu Sr., along with his brothers and sisters, lived and worked on his father Clement's 202-acre farm. Elihu Sr. and Jean's first child of record was Rachel, born 4 Mar 1819. There were probably at least one if not two births prior to Rachel who died early. In Rachael's obituary she says the family moved to adjacent Harrison Co. in 1816. Harrison became a county in 1813. It was formed from parts of Jefferson and Harrison. By 1816 they had two more children, Elihu born 18 Jan 1813 and Adam born 8 July 1815. Son James Adam was their first child born in Harrison Co. on 6 Oct 1816. Per Rachel's obituary they settled on 80 acres (actually 86+) of land between the towns of Freeport, Harrison Co. and Westchester Tuscarawas Co.

This would be the same 86 acres that Elihu Sr. purchased from the Federal Government under the 1820 Act for the sale of Public Lands on 10 Dec 1827. This was handled at the General Land Office in Steubenville, Jefferson Co. The 86+ acres is described as west half of the southeast quarter of section thirty-two in township twelve of Range seven (see maps at end of this chapter). Elihu Sr. would have staked out his claim and, when he had the money, purchased the land.

The 1820 Harrison Co., Washington Twp. Census, Ohio's first census, shows two males under 10 years of age which could be Elihu Jr. b 1813, Adam b 1814, James b 1816, Charles b 1818 or David b 1819, and one 26 to 45 (Elihu Sr.). It shows one female under age 10 which would be Rachel and two females age 10-16 (unknown) and one 26-45 which would be wife Jean.

The 1830 Harrison Co., Washington Twp. Census shows one male age 5-10 Charles, and one age 10-15, David. It shows one female under age 10, Mary Jane and two age 10-15, one being Matilda and two age 15-20, one who would be Rachel. No female shown in the 40-50 age group which indicates wife Jean is deceased prior to 1830. She may have died giving birth to Mary Jane in 1828. Elihu Sr. married widow Sarah Cree, 28 Apr 1836 in Harrison Co. Her maiden name was Sarah Rice b 27 Mar 1796 in Green Co., PA d 5 Feb 1883 Perry Twp., Tuscarawas Co., and is buried in the Westchester Village cemetery in Perry Twp. She married first 8 June 1815 Greene Co., George Cree b 1793 d 1832 Harrison Co. It is interesting to note that in the 1830 census a Charles Baker is listed as the head of household next to Elihu Sr. Could this be Jean's brother? Could Elihu Sr. and Jean's son Charles B. Quillen's middle initial stand for Baker?

The 1840 Harrison Co., Washington Twp. Census shows two males age 20-30 which would be Charles and David and one age 40-50 Elihu Sr., one female age 10-25 Mary Jane, two age 15-20, Matilda and unknown and one age 40-50 who would be second wife Sarah.

The 1840 census also shows son James Quillan (note spelling) living adjacent to Elihu Sr. James had married Elizabeth Clancy, daughter of William and Elizabeth Clancy of Jefferson Co. James Adam Quillen was my great-great-grandfather and the subject of Chapter 4.

The 1850 census, which was the first census to list the names of all household members in addition to the "head of family," listed Elihu Srs. family as follows: Elihu Quillen Sr. age 60 born MD, Sarah age 56, born PA, Matilda age 25, born OH, Mary J. , age 22, born OH, and Adam, age 36 born OH. This shows all of Elihu Srs. eight (surviving to adulthood) children were by Jean Baker.

So between my early research, Mary Honeywell's book, the 1850 census and Elihu Srs. will, the following would be Elihu Srs. and Jean Baker's only known children that lived to reach adulthood. Elihu Srs. Bible has never been found. It could have only ended up in two places. Daughter Rachel Cochran or son Charles Quillen. Charles' son and daughter never married so if one of them had it it would not have been passed down.

1. Rachel b 4 Mar 1810 b Jefferson Co.
2. Elihu Jr. b 18 Jan 1813 b Jefferson Co.
3. Adam b 8 July 1815 b Jefferson Co.
4. James Adam b 6 Oct 1816 b Harrison Co.
5. Charles B. b Feb 1818 b Harrison Co.
6. David b 1819 b Harrison Co.
7. Matilda b 1825 b Harrison Co.
8. Mary Jane b 15 Oct 1828 b Harrison Co.

Many researchers of Clement's sons Adam, Joshua, and Amos have attributed Elihu Srs. children Elihu Jr., Adam, James, and David to one of them. I hope this history settles the ancestry. Also, his daughter Rachel has been confused with his sister Rachel and Elihu Jr.'s son Isaac has been attributed to Elihu Sr.

Elihu Srs. will was written on 29 Nov 1866 and probated on 25 Dec 1866 in Harrison Co. It lists wife Sarah, and sons Charles Quillin and Adam Quillin, daughters Rachel Cochran and Mary Jane Brown. Reference copy at the end of this chapter. The will showed wife Sarah received all the real and personal property referred to by Earl Quillin to my father. I was disappointed that James, David, and Elihu Jr. were not mentioned but then if there was a split in the family, referred to by Earl Quillin, perhaps in deference to second wife Sarah, they were left out of the will. Son Adam is to be paid one dollar upon death of Sarah. I do not know if this or the $100.00 to daughters Rachel and Mary Jane were paid. A copy of the will is at the end of this chapter.

While the will did give Sarah the land to have until her death she did sell it to stepson Charles in 1868. Refer to copy of sale at the end of Chapter 6. In the 1880 census, Sarah age 84, is living in Harrison Co., Washington Twp. as a boarder in the Mark and Elizabeth Hoge household. It is interesting that she was not living with one of her stepchildren. Perhaps the story that her sons James and David did not get along with her may have included all the children. In daughter Rachel's obituary there is no mention of a stepmother Sarah.

Elihu Sr. died prior to 25 Dec 1866 (the date his will was probated) at his farm. As of this date there is no proof as to where he is buried. There is no record of him being buried in the Westchester cemetery with Sarah. However the remains of what was known as the Quillan cemetery, located on what was Elihu Srs. brother Adam's farm still exists. Adam's 162-acre property abutted Elihu Srs. on his South line. The South line is a part of the dividing line between Washington Twp. and Freeport Twp. This cemetery was documented in 1987. At this time the property was owned by Bryl Shriver and in 2010 by Charles Cyrus.

I received the following record from Doris Russell whose third great-grandfather was Elihu Srs. brother Adam.

Since both Elihu Srs. brothers Adam and Joshua are buried there it seems logical that he and perhaps Jean and other family members would be buried there also, and his stone has been destroyed or buried. The second possible burial site for him would be the Westchester Village Cemetery where second wife Sarah is buried. However there is no record of him there. A 2010 map of Washington and Freeport Twps. showing where Elihu Srs. land was and where his brother Adam's land was and cemetery is at the end of this chapter.

All but two of Elihu Srs. children stayed and raised their families close to their birthplace. Elihu Jr. started in Harrison Co. but migrated west and settled in Carroll Co., MO. Adam started in Tuscarawas Co. but migrated west and settled in Jay Co., IN. The map of the Ohio counties where they started or settled is at the end of this chapter. There is also a map of Ohio at the end showing where these counties are in relation to Ohio's 88. Needless to say but as one can see in going through the chapter on each of his children, his descendants are scattered throughout the United States and even Australia.

Rachel Quillen Cochran—4 Mar 1810 - 5 Sept 1902

While Rachel is Elihu Sr. and Jean's first child of record (no family Bible has been found), there were probably at least two who died at birth or died young between their marriage in 1806 and Rachel's birth in 1810. Of all the information available on Elihu Sr. and Jean's children it is Rachel's obituary that not only confirms them as her parents but gives insight into her long life. A copy follows at the end of this chapter along with a picture of her tombstone.

She was born in Jefferson Co., OH and in 1816, according to her obituary, she moved with family to adjoining Harrison Co. which was formed in 1813. On 8 July 1834 she married Brice Cochran in adjoining Guernsey Co. settling on a farm in Oxford Twp. They are listed there in the 1840 census with three children, Mary (b 1838), Nancy (b 1836), and Jabez (b 1839). On 19 Mar 1842, along with an additional child born in 1841, the family moved to adjacent Tuscarawas Co. settling on a farm in Clay Twp. near the town of Gilmore. They lost a child prior to Matilda being born in 1845 and two more prior to Robert born in 1850 and their last child, Sarah was born in 1852. Their daughter Rachel died between 1879 and 1880 and had never married. Rachel is the only one of Elihu Srs. children to name a child for his daughter Matilda as a first name. His son Adam named a daughter Emaline Matilda. Their children and following generations were and have been an integral part of Tuscarawas Co. life.

Brice Cochran died 22 Aug 1877 and in 1878 Rachel sold the farm to neighbor Robert L. Morris. A copy of this transaction follows at the end of this chapter. According to the 1880 census she was living on the farm. Some time prior to 1900 she moved in with her son Jabez's family as she is listed there in the 1900 Tuscarawas Co. census. Copies of the census records are at the end of this chapter.

MOTHER COCHRAN.

A Well Known and Respected Resident of Gilmore Vicinity Passes Away at the Age of Ninety-two.

Rachel Quillen was born near Smithfield, Jefferson county, Ohio, March 4, 1810. Her parents, Elihu Quillen and Jane Baker Quillen, came from Maryland about 1800. In 1816 they removed to Harrison county, and entered 80 acres of land between Freeport and Westchester. Upon this land they resided until their death. She united with the church of Christ in 1828 under the teaching of John Secrest, and for the period of 74 years she was a true follower of her Savior.

On July 8, 1834, she was united in marriage by Elder Robert Cook to Brice Cochran, who died Aug. 22, 1877. To this union were born nine children, four preceding her to the grave. After her marriage she lived with her husband in Guernsey county, removing from thence to Tuscarawas county, near the present site of Gilmore, March 19, 1842. Near this place she resided continuously until her death which occurred Sept. 5, 1902, at the remarkable age of 92 years, 6 months and 1 day.

She had been confined to her bed since December, 1900, until her death, but had borne her affliction with Christian fortitude and patience. During that time not a murmur ever passed her lips. She was cheerful and happy during it all. Her only solicitude was that she might not give trouble to others. Her mind was perfectly clear to the last. But a short time before she died she spoke kindly to those about her, and passed away as calmly as a babe going to sleep in its mother's arms.

She could remember events that took place 80-odd years ago with perfect distinctness, and also events that took place in recent years. A few days before her death, she gave from memory the date of the birth of each of her children and the most of her grandchildren.

She leaves one sister, five children, fifteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. During her last years she made her home with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Sarah Butler, whose willing hands ministered to her every want and need, often anticipating them. No mother could have been more attentive to an infant.

On Sunday, Sept. 7th, at 2 p. m., the body of this remarkable nonagenarian was laid to rest in the beautiful West Union cemetery. Score upon scores of people from far and near came to pay their last respects to one who herself had witnessed the passing of three generations.

The editor of the Index had the pleasure of a conversation with "Mother" Cochran (as she was called) after she had passed her ninetieth birthday and can testify to the wonderful accuracy of her memory covering a range of nearly ninety years. For facts concerning her family history, we are indebted to her son, Esquire J. H. Cochran, of this city.—Newcomerstown Index.

- Rachel Quillen used Quillen with an "E." She named her parents and that they came to Ohio from Maryland. Mentions survived by one sister, Mary Jane Brown (who died in 1904). Since there was no communication between Rachel and her brother James Adam Quillen, her family would not know that he was still alive in 1902, dying in 1906, the last of Elihu's children.

Union Cemetery located at the West Union United Methodist Church near Gilmore, Tuscarawas Co., OH

Elihu Quillen Jr.—18 Jan 1813 – 31 Apr 1894

Only one record has been found where the term Jr. was used referring to Elihu. Harrison Co., OH Deed Book O page 777 Elihu Quillin Jr. and wife Eleanor Ann to John Watt E $\frac{1}{2}$ s/w $\frac{1}{4}$ section 35 township 12 range 7 80 acres 20 March 1843. He certainly was the most married and most traveled of Elihu Srs. and Jean's eight children. He was born in Jefferson Co. but when he was born has been a subject of great debate. The 1850 census lists him as age 40 thus he was born in 1810. This was the year of birth that all Quillen researchers have used for him. Then Doris Russell, mentioned in the introduction, found his grave in Carroll Co., MO. The headstone (photo at end of this chapter) clearly shows his date of birth and death. The date of birth is 18 Jan 1816. This matched his age, given as 44, in the 1860 Iowa census. His age in the 1870 census is 55 and 65 in the 1880 census. I had accepted the 1816 date until Marilyn Hanson a great-great-granddaughter of Elihu Jr. who was helping me on her portion of this history found some pages from her great grandmother Almeda Alice Quillin Smith's Bible. Almeda was Elihu's Jrs. daughter. The Bible date of birth was 18 Jan 1813 and the date I decided to use for Elihu Jr. A copy of the Bible record is at the end of this chapter.

Elihu Jr. married first in Harrison Co., OH about 1838 (no record found), Eliza Ann Maxon born 5 Apr 1812, NJ. They settled in Hocking Co. and had a son Isaac born 25 Jan 1840. It was Mary E. Honeywell's 1966 book (which brought Isaac's family up to 1966) that proved Elihu Jr. was the son of Elihu Sr. They divorced shortly before or soon after Isaac's birth and Elihu Jr. moved back to Harrison Co. Eliza Ann later married Robert Young and they settled in Clearport, Madison Twp., Fairfield Co., OH. She died there. On 5 Jan 1841 he married in Freeport Twp., Harrison Co., Eleanor Ann Phillips. They never had children. They left Harrison Co. about 1854/1855 and settled in Marion Co., Washington Twp., Iowa, where on the third of June 1856 he purchased land. (See deed at end of this chapter.) He listed his age as 41. They are listed there in the 1860 census as mentioned above. While in Iowa Elihu Jr. and Eleanor became acquainted with John and Malinda Barnet McCorkle. Sometime between the 1860 census and 1865 Elihu Jr. and Eleanor moved to Carroll Co., Wakenda Twp., MO. He was a founding member of the Carroll Co., M.E. Church in 1865. The original farm consisted of 80 acres and grew to 220 acres at the time of his death. The value of real estate is listed as $10,000. Eleanor died 18 Jan 1866 and learning that Malinda Barnet McCorkle was a widow, he went to Lucas Co., Iowa and married Malinda on 5 June 1866. Malinda's date of birth 26 Jan 1834, Indiana and death 8 July 1889 Carroll Co., MO. Their first child, Almeda Alice Quillen, is listed along with their second, Mary Ann, in the 1870 census, Malinda's two sons James and David McCorkle are also listed Elihu Jr. did not adopt them. The 1880 census records the family with the spelling as Quillin and Elihu Jrs. name as Elisha. Copies of census records are at the end of this chapter.

Elihu makes his will on 25 Feb 1881 (copy at end of chapter) and by May 1891 he is apparently senile. He is notified by court order that a jury will decide if he is to be declared of unsound mind and incapable of managing his own affairs. The jury finds so and he is assessed court cost of $104.40 and assigned a guardian. (copy of court papers at end of chapter.) An inventory of Elihu Jrs. estate is taken at this time (copy at end of chapter). There are additional court records for him in the Carroll Co. courthouse. Elihu Jr. died 31 Apr 1894 (copy of obituary follows).

Obituary for Elihu Quillen (Jr.) Carrollton Daily Democrat, Monday, April 30, 1894

"E. Quillen, an old and highly respected citizen, died at his home, 3 miles southeast of Carrollton at 6 o'clock this morning. Mr. Quillen was an honorable and upright man, well known and well liked by all who knew him. He was in his 80th year. Funeral at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at residence conducted by Rev. E.B. Lytle assisted by Rev. C.T. Phillips. Interment at Oak Hill Cemetery. Peace to his ashes." A photo of this "most interesting" tombstone is at the end of the chapter.
