daughter of George Milton (Wm) Cauts.

An old Coult's family cabin in Washington Twp.,
Jucosawwas County, Ohio.

Was situated on Hershom Coult's farm - see on Jucos. Co.
Atlas maps 1875-1908.

Some of Charles Coult's children were born here.

It came down in 1929.

William & Jane Hovey Couts came to Ohio in the spring of 1817. Leaving Sussex Co. N. J. on April 26th in an ox cart. with their little son Isaac who was just 3 wks old when they started, also seven other children, ranging in age 12 - 11 - 9

7 - 6 - 4 - 2 yrs -

It would seem to me that it would <sup>take</sup> a woman with a lot of courage - and one who was used to hard things to to start a journey like that, in an ox drawn covered wagon.

They arrived at "Newtown", later named "Proli". They were three months on the way - They stopped at what at that time was the "old Tavern", and then rented a house from a Mr Randall.

That house was on the now "Martin Hollingsworth farm -

Then William started at once to locate land, and bought 160 acres of land.

Price $.25 an acre - think of it -

Then the great task of clearing began -

Having cleared the land, they built a log cabin. They lived there a long time - nothing eventful happened, until your great Grandfather Isaac was lost in the forest - he was 8 yrs old at the time. The occasion stirred the whole community. That was 1825 probably in June. men & women were the same in that day as now, as the news spread. people came from everywhere until the searching party consisted of 500 or more people who left their work to help -

He was lost in the forest 3 days & nights - The searchers finally decided on a signal - one gun shot when found - 2 if alive - It must have seemed a hundred yes to the stricken mother as she waited for the second shot. Truly God preserved his life for he spent it in an honorable & useful manner.

11. mother being an educated...

which was very rare in that day.

She noted that he was a precocious child. she taught him to read by the time he was 4 yrs old - He always had a love for books.

Things ~~of~~ moved on normally until the children grew to man & womanhood & and began to get married & establish homes of their own.

as they cleared the land, one field at a time they named the fields.

nancy was the first to marry - married Joshua Hartsorn -

They built a little cabin on the farm. and that field was designated, as the field before Joshua's old house door.

Today we would say the field south east of the house -

Then there was the field called the Limestone spring field.

Toward Isaac Beals, a neighbor to the west -

The poplar spring field. to the east, where a large poplar tree stood over the spring -

Then the Chestnut stump field.

then the old meadow field was toward the Aussenman Beal farm & 160 acres in all, & this farm was given (at his death)
to his son William, because he stayed home & helped the father till he was 25 years old.

James & Nancy were the student type of children, & life went on in that home same as other homes. The children vied with each other for knowl-

So they often had spelling bees, the mother
the teacher so they were given the word
Co-shoctor to spell, & James spelled Cos-hoe-ton, & Nancy jumped & said
"you big dummy", that is pronounce

Co-shoctor - so they were like this of to day -

Boys flying kites sometimes haul in their white winged birds, but you can't do that when you are flying words - Thoughts unexpressed
Some times fall back dead -

But God himself can't kill them, once they are said -

"These experiences make me exclaim
Take me back to the days when the old red Cradle rocked." (over)

There was 80 acres that laid west of Isi father 160 - it run the full length of the farm.
Grandfather coveted that farm - so did Isaac Beal. They were whose farm was just further west from it & it lay between the two farms - So they were both trying to accumulate enough money to buy it - Grandfather sold some cattle & got the money first, & he started to Zanesville Ohio which was the headquarters at that time for all land transactions - He made the mistake of stopping at Mr Beal on his way & told him what he was going to do - & that there was a friend who lived along the old National pike about half way to Zanesville at whose house he would stop & stay all night & journey on in the morning - & get to the court house early to obtain the land.
That troubled Mr Beal very much,
he hated to lose the coveted prize.

He said in after years that providence favoured him for his Brother in law who was a Dr. Came riding in the "P.O." 1 for farm

the
and happened to have money enough with him to let Mr Beal jump his horse & ride to Gansenville - & purchase the land a head of Grandfather - Mr Beal rode all night, & by passed Grand father while he slept - on his way back he met Grandfather walking along - he bid him the time of day, & let Grandfather walk all the way to Gansenville, to find out that he had lost the coveted prize because he could not keep his own secret, a lesson for all time - I guess he was quite a talkative man - so the story goes, that trait could be handed down to generations yet unborn - one trait to guard against

"no body ever listened themselves into trouble", a motto to teach all children,

The land was purchased for $1.25 - an acre >
Jane Hooley Courts Williams wife

a Lady of very high order - educated - a rare privilege of that day - The parents of William Coats came from Scotland - presumably from the Lowlands - a Co of men came from Scotland

THE LOST CHILD

A Pioneer Danger - One of the fears of the pioneer mother living in an isolated cabin in the backwoods was that her children might stray into the forest and become lost. In many sections there were no roads and but few paths. Unless it kept in sight of the house, a young child, lacking the sense of directions, might wonder deeper into the woods when trying to find its way home. Then there was always the danger of wild animals against which it could not defend itself.

Many stories of lost children have been told. This is the story of one lost in the forests of Guernsey County more than a hundred years ago. The place was the northern part of what is now Monroe township, and the name of the child was Isaac Couts.

Lost in the Forest - William Couts, the father of Isaac, located near the line that separates Guernsey and Tuscarawas Counties, in 1817. That region was then a vast wilderness broken here and there by small clearings around lonely cabins. The nearest postoffice was at Washington, on Zane's Trace, fifteen miles south of the Couts cabin, and it was here that the family received their mail and did their trading.

On Friday morning, July 23, 1825, Isaac, who was light years of age, started alone to school which was held in a little log building across Rocky Fork Creek, about one mile south of his home. He traveled a narrow path through the woods, carrying his lunch wrapped in a handkerchief.

When about half way to the school he imagined he saw a bear in the path ahead of him. Instead of turning back home he quickly slipped into the laurel which grew densely at that place, intending to make a detour around the bear and return to the path on the other side. This was exceptional courage and presense of mind for a boy as young as Isaac to display.

His detour was so great that when he came to the path it did not seem familiar. Thinking that he had reached the wrong one he again struck out through the laurel, losing the handkerchief which contained his lunch. He wondered on, not knowing how long or how far. It was afterwards believed that he followed Rocky Fork Creek.

A Bed Is Made - At length he came to a path, one that he had never seen before. He reasoned that this would take him to some habitation and he turned on it, but when he reached the top of a steep bluff, he found that the path came to an end. He realized that he was lost. He called for help but received no response other than the reverberations of his own childish voice.

Instead of wondering on as many a child would have done, he decided to remain where he was, hoping that he would be found. Between two trees that stood on the bluff was a hole made by the uprooting of another tree. Isaac gathered all the moss he could find and made a soft bed in this hole. Night came on, and with it all the loneliness of the forest. Fearing wild animals he did not sleep. Only once was he disturbed; some beast approached his bed, gave a loud snort and sprang away.

Saturday morning found him hungry, thirsty and sleepy. He slept during most of the day. His opinion was that he would never be found, and he hoped that he might die. However, he remained in his mossy bed all day Saturday and Saturday night, and until afternoon on Sunday, without food or drink.

Community Alarmed - On the Friday forenoon that Isaac left for school his older brother passed the school house on his way to mill. The teacher came out and asked him why "Ikey" was absent. Returning home the brother reported that Isaac was lost. Word was sent to the neighbors and all of Friday afternoon and night was spent in a fruitless search.

When Saturday morning came the news had spread for miles, and men left their work to assist in the hunt for the lost boy. During the entire day an unsystematic search was made, which proved to be ineffective.

On Sunday morning men and boys came on horseback-hundreds of them- and a consultation was held. Arrangements were made for a more minute search and it was agreed that certain signals should be given in case the boy was found. Hours were appointed for reporting as the search continued. There was much sympathy for the distracted family. The child had now been lost for two days and two nights in the deep forest, and it did not seem probable that he would be found alive. As the squads returned at intervals with no news, the mental agony of the Couts family became intense.

Strong Men Wept - About two o'clock on Sunday afternoon a group of searchers from the Odell neighborhood, not far from Sugar Tree Creed, came by chance near the bluff where Isaac lay. It was about three miles back in the forest from the Couts cabin. Their attention was attracted by a weak "Halloo" made by the boy.

"Big Jim" Willis, a giant of the Odell squad of searchers, quickly climbed the bluff and gathered Isaac in his arms. Not knowing the signal, they did not give one until the Beal cabin was reached, a half mile south of the child's home. About 600 men and boys were engaged in the hunt at the time, and many of them were at the Coutts home trying to decide upon some plan of action; when the signal was given.

The news that the boy was found and was alive and well spread like wild fire. As the signals indicating this fact were relayed there was cheering for miles. When "Big Jim" Willis carried little Isaac into the Coutts cabin, the mother and a sister fainted away. The excitement was so intense that strong men broke down and wept like children.

Become a Prominent Man - Isaac Coutts lived to be ninety years of age. That he was courageous when a youngster is shown by this incident. That he was precocious is evidenced by the fact that he could read when four years old, and that, at the age of eight, he had studied through the dictionary two times, this and a Bible being the only books the family possessed.

When sixteen years of age he began clerking in a store at Birmingham. Here he received instruction in mathematics from his employer and Dr. Van Horn. He then entered Madison College at Antrim, one of the first to be enrolled there, for a course in surveying. After two weeks of college he was told that he could be taken no further in that subject by the teacher there. For more than fifty years he did surveying in northern Guernsey and southern Tuscarawas Counties. His death occurred in the latter county in 1907.

Flames Catch Clothing and a bright Little Girl is Fatally Burned

The home of Mr. & Mrs. Earnest Coutts, who live near Booth, about 6 miles S.E. of Newcomerstown, was the scene of a sad occurrence Monday afternoon.

The children were playing in a room heated by a Mentor stove, the door of which was open. Little Bessie, 6 yrs. old, ran in front of the stove, and her garments caught on fire, the flames quickly spreading over her body. The screams of the children quickly attracted the attention of the Mother, who ran to the little one's relief, burning herself seriously about the face in a attempt to wrap a quilt about the child in order to smother the flames and save it's life.

The little one suffered terribly and died sometime during the night. It is believed the child inhaled the flames, which no doubt hastened it's death.

Dr. Goudy, of this city, was summoned by phone, and did all that was possible to relieve the sufferer, but the injuries were too great to yield to the soothing applications. The grief stricken parents have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

The above item appeared in the Newcomerstown newspaper of Wednesday, March 15, 1911.

It is on microfilm in the Coshocton Library, where I often do research of the Newcomerstown area. They have the papers of Newcomerstown on microfilm from about 1898 on to later years.

March 7, 2001

NINETY YEARS AGO - 1911

Bessie Coutts, six, dies of burns received when her clothing caught fire from an open grate at her home south of town.
Fast service will be inaugurated over the C & M Railroad May. 1.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Mother, Gladys M. Ames, who passed away seven years ago, Feb. 4, 1980.

Your memory is as dear today
As in the hour you passed away.
Memories are treasures
No one can steal.
Death leaves a heartache
No one can heal.
We who think of you
In your eternal rest
We are the ones who loved you best.
Helen and Roger Grandchildren
Great-grandchildren

GLADYS M. AMES
IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Gladys M.
Ames, who passed away Feb. 4, 1980.
You always had a pleasant smile
And friendly greeting for all
Although it has been awhile
When all alone the tears still fall

We know you had to go away
To the home of eternal rest
Those who think of you today
Are the ones you loved best.
Your Family

Charles Opphile Struck by Car, Fatally Injured

Charles T. Opphile

Charles Thurman Opphile, 62, Newcomerstown RD 2, was fatally injured when struck by an automobile on E. State st. Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Opphile was walking across State st., from north to south, between Mulvane and Chestnut sts., near the Clyde Lee home.

A car driven by Ralph McMilland, 40, of Gilmore was traveling east. The left front end of the car struck Mr. Opphile and knocked him into the middle of the street.

He was rushed to Coshocton hospital where he died at 9:09 p. m. Saturday. He had suffered a fractured leg, head injuries and other injuries.

The driver was not held. Local police, who investigated found no laws were violated.

MR. OPPHILE was born July 21, 1888 at Newcomerstown, the son of Christopher and Jemima Opphile. He was a retired employee of the James B. Clow & Sons plant and a member of the L. O. O. M. lodge.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lorin Berkshire, RD 2 and Mrs. Alyce Duffy, Newcomerstown; a brother, Cleve Opphile, Newcomerstown and a half-brother, J. O. Shaw, New Philadelphia.

The Moose lodge held services at the Ourant Funeral Home, Monday evening. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the same place with Rev. J. H. Bradbury, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in the East State st. cemetery.

Grandson follows footsteps as trustee

BY MRS. BERT SILVIUS

More than a quarter century of service was represented by a township trustee and his grandson, who were among the special guests at the annual spring banquet of the Tuscarawas County Assn. of Twp. Trustees and Clerks.

Earl Coutts, Newcomerstown R.D. 3, and his grandson, James Earl Coutts, 430 Pearl St., Newcomerstown, both Oxford Twp. trustees, have the distinction of being the only grandfather-grandson combination holding township offices, as far as Mrs. Mildred Cronebaugh, Stone Creek R.D. 1, can discover. She is secretary-treasurer of the county's township officers.

The elder Coutts ran for trustee first in 1961 because of a challenge that no one on the north side of the Tuscarawas River would be elected as a township trustee because of the smaller pocket of population on that side. Coutts has now been elected for five consecutive terms and is now in his 20th year of service.

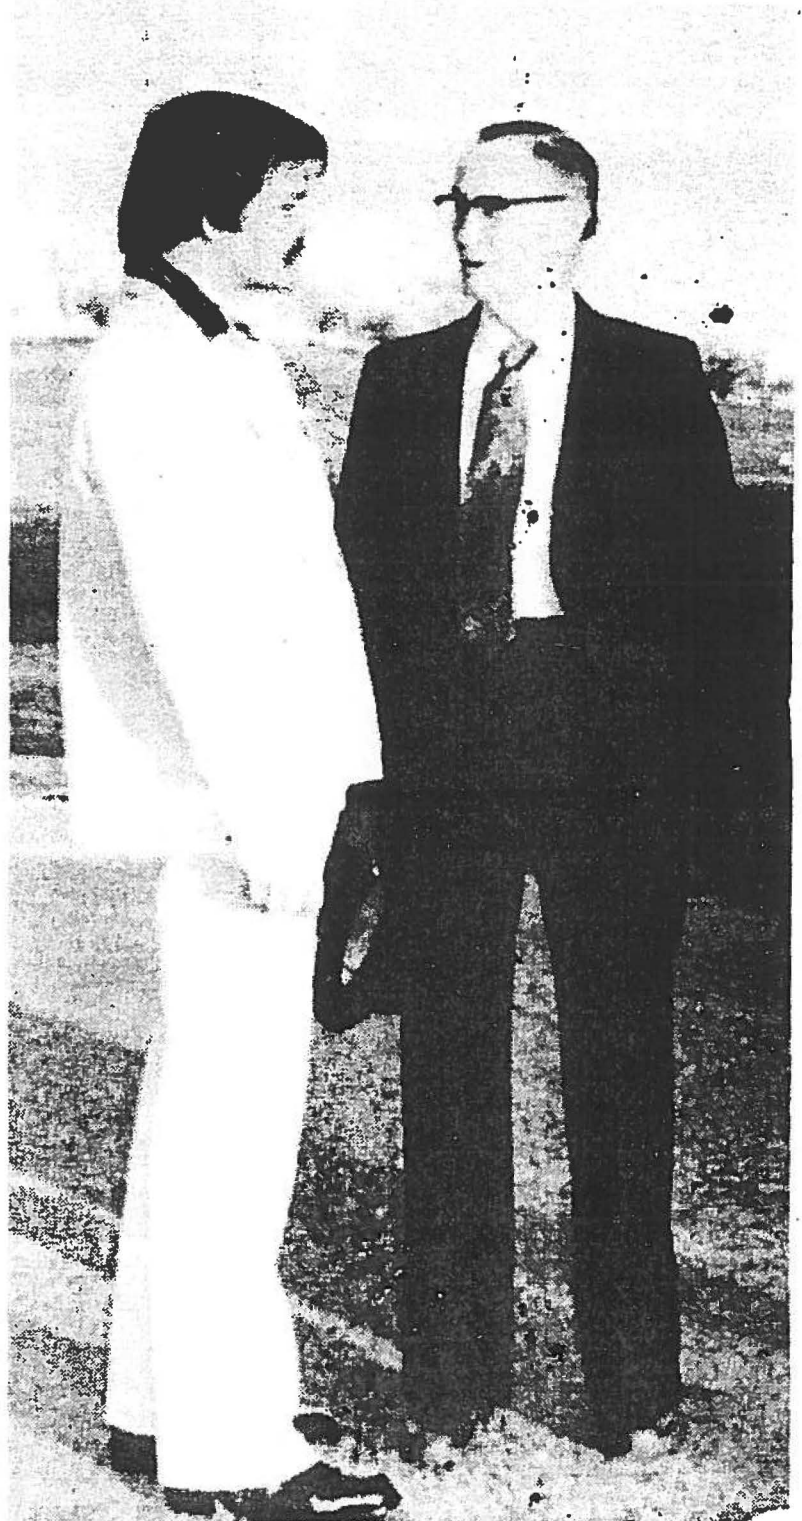

Although it is Earl's final year, his grandson said he is sure his grandfather would be elected if he chose to run for a sixth term.

Jim, now 30, was only 11 years old when his grandfather was first elected. He often went with him cut brush and clean out culverts.

Those years influenced his decision to run for trustee and he was elected when he was 25 years old. He is in his sixth year as a trustee. He is vice president of the Oxford Twp. trustees and is their representative on the Tuscarawas County board of health, Tuscarawas County regional planning commission and the Tri-County Ambulance Service board.

An employee of Conrail, Jim and his wife, Ellen, have three children. His grandfather is a retired employee of the Eureka Hardware Store in Newcomerstown, where he worked for 27 years. He is still an active farmer on 193 acres.

Earl also reported he became a great-grandfather again recently. He has five children and 17 grandchildren. He now has 14 great-grandchildren.

In Loving Memory

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

MOTHER OF FIVE DIES OF GOITRE

Mrs. Cora Mae Coutts, aged 38 years, died Friday, Mch. 23rd, at 7:35 a. m., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Neighbor, South Goodrich st., this city.

Her death was caused by goitre with which she had been afflicted for about 17 years. Despite her affliction she bravely met the responsibility of maintaining herself and five children during the past four years, a task which proved too much for her, and no doubt hastened her death. Her health began to fail rapidly about two months ago, but she was bedfast only a week before the end came.

Cora Mae Neighbor was born in Newcomerstown April 21, 1885. At the age of 19 years she was united in marriage to Ernest Coutts. Fourteen years of her married life was spent on a farm near Booth.

She is survived by her parents and the following children: Charles aged 17, Lillie 15, George 11, Paul 6 and Beatrice 4. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Edna Mackey of Lakeland, Florida, and Mrs. Loretta Huffman of this city.

Mrs. Coutts united with the M. P. church early in life.

Funeral services were held at the Neighbor home on Sunday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. L. C. Monberg. Interment was made in the new West Lawn cemetery.

Debra Werner, summer bride

In a recent candlelight ceremony in Streetsboro's St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Debra Marie Werner became the bride of Rory Glenn Wolff. Conducting the exchange of vows were the Rev. John Herrlinger of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Cuyahoga Falls and the Rev. Dave Bliss, pastor of St. Thomas Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald W. Werner, 1932 Summers Ave., Streetsboro. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Wolff of Cuyahoga Falls.

Gracing the church altar were multicolored daisies, white mums and candelabra.

Miss Werner was presented in marriage by her parents. Her bridal gown of Qiana was fashioned with an empire waist and a bodice accented with French lace and illusion. French lace also adorned her capped sleeves and her finger-tip length veil. She carried a bouquet of multi-colored daisies, white carnations, white rosebuds, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Annette Werner of Streetsboro attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janet Greenhorn of Stow, the bride's sorority sister; Darlene Wolff of Cuyahoga Falls, the groom's sister; and Mary Perin of Streetsboro.

The attendants, attired in pastel gowns in blue, apricot, yellow and green, carried bouquets in matching hues which featured daisies, carnations, dried flowers and baby's breath.

The groom's fraternity brother, Peter Zeeb of Cincinnati, served as best man. Ushers included another fraternity brother, Tom Kelly of Westlake; the groom's brother, Gordon Wolff of Cuyahoga Falls; and the bride's brother, Jeff Werner, of Streetsboro.

Normand Duquette, organist, played "One Hand, One Heart" during the candlelighting

MR. AND MRS. RORY WOLFF
(Debra Marie Werner)

ceremony; "The Lord's Prayer" during communion, and other traditional selections throughout the service.

Approximately 200 guests greeted the bride and groom at a reception in the Streetsboro Lion's Hall immediately following the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Wolff was graduated from Streetsboro High School and Kent State University. She is employed as a registered nurse at Robinson

Memorial Hospital. Her husband was graduated from Parkway West High School in St. Louis, Mo., and from Kent State University. He is employed with the Metal Processing Corp. in Maple Heights. His bride was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta and he with Sigma Tau Gamma.

The newlyweds vacationed at Niagra Falls in Ontario and are now residing in Ravenna at 5108 S.R. 59.

Earns degree in nursing

Debra Marie Werner received her bachelor degree in nursing at Commencement ceremonies held Saturday at Kent State University.

Miss Werner, who is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Reginald Werner, 1932 Summers Ave., Streetsboro, was graduated from Streetsboro High School in 1973.

A member of the Angel Flight Air Force ROTC, Miss Werner was also affiliated with the Nursing Honors Association, Alpha Xi Delta social sorority and also served as 'little sister' to Sigma Tau Gamma.

Miss Werner, who has accepted a position at Robinson Memorial Hospital, will become the bride of Rory Glenn Wolff at 7:30 p.m. on July 30 in an open church ceremony at St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Streetsboro.

Her fiance, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Wolff of Cuyahoga Falls, was graduated from Parkway West High School, St. Louis, Mo., in 1972. He received his degree in industrial arts from Kent State University this year and is employed with Metal Processing Corp., Maple Heights.

She wore a wedding ring belonging to her great-great-grandmother, the late Anna Quillen. Her heart-shaped bouquet of white and aqua roses and mini-carnations was accented with baby's breath and turquoise ribbon tufts.

Maid of honor was Shawn Moss, Cambridge, and bridesmaids were Tammy Bourne and Audra Lister, both of Newcomerstown. Flower girl was Maggie McGinnis, Warsaw. The maid of honor wore a gown of turquoise and the bridesmaids and flower girl were attired in aqua gowns, all accented with wedgewood lace.

Each attendant held a lace fan accented with coordinating star flowers and roses, and the flower girl carried a basket decorated with aqua and turquoise flowers.

Serving as best man was the groom's brother, Tom Bourne, and ushers were Jeff Smith and Milton Miller, all of Newcomerstown.

The wedding reception took place at the Sportsmans Club, Newcomerstown.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake ...Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over ... Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever ...

SEVEN SETS OF TWINS ON ONE SIDE OF FAMILY, SIX ARE ON THE OTHER

The faithful stork, accompanied by Dr. H. O. Steele, visited the home Tuesday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Patrick, on the Bramwell road near New Midway. Twins, Edna Irene and Esther Lorene were born.

Mrs. Couts was formerly Miss Ruth Patrick. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Patrick. Her father is a veteran employe of the city of Bluefield.

But that is not all of the story. Ripley would be glad to have what follows. Dr. Steele discovered that both the Patricks and Hortons are families of twins. Mrs. Couts' mother was formerly a Horton.

On the Patrick side of the house are seven sets of twins and on the Horton side are six sets of twins. Both families are pioneers of this community and are well-known. Mr. Couts, father of the latest twins born to the two families is a native of Ohio.

And, says Dr. Steele, you may not believe it, but it is well known among the medical fraternity that "twins run in families."

I hereby certify that the above is a true photographic copy of a record filed with the Vital Registration Office, Bureau for Public Health, Charleston, West Virginia.

Witness my hand and seal this twenty-second day of September, 2000.

THE TUSCARAWAS COUNTY CHILDREN'S HOME

Ohio has decreed that each county shall care for her "Little Ones" and neglect them not, and few or none have equalled Tuscarawas in magnificent obedience to the law for a Children's Home. Our pictures make a lasting record of its beauty found amid forty-four acres of garden and orchard mingled with grove and lawn between the river and the trolley line from Canal Dover to New Philadelphia. The property founded about 1870 by Augustus Wilhelmi, was purchased in 1881, and soon after, the mansion was doubled and reduplicated with happy architectural effect. Through rise of real estate thereabout, the land alone is worth several times the cost, but the financial profit is far excelled by the moral result. The arrangements for receiving visitors of whom there are and should be many are pleasant. The rooms and furnishings for the officers, teachers and caretakers are what such self respecting people need and expect. The County Commissioners provide the Home, which is administered by a nonpartisan Board of Trustees of which the members at last report were Moses B. Kennedy, George S. Evans, Thomas B. Rankin and Edward D. Kaldenbaugh, who receive no salary, but have satisfaction, for their care, in seeing the gladness of those who are made less forlorn. The directions of the Trustees are executed by the Superintendent, Robert H. Nugent and his wife, the Matron, Hortense S. Nugent, who have special fitness for their peculiar perplexities. Wherever either went there was a look of welcome that children never feign. The least of them came to the Matron with outstretched arms and ways that kindness only can teach. The girls came out for recess and scattered in healthy play over the lawn before the towers and gables. Across and beyond the house the boys were enjoying the first barefoot bliss of the season on the daisied green, while practicing the of the "circus," to which all the men had been the day before with Mrs. Nugent, and Mr. Kaldenbaugh, who smoothes the way for all proper excursions. On call, they returned to lessons and tasks with no trace of sallow want in their round and ruddy cheeks. The recitations conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Collerado and Miss Alice Sterling were prompt, precise and pleasing. The dining tables were spread with plain, hygienic food from a well kitchen, and served by the older children with a politeness that will be useful. The dormitories and clothing rooms are neat and as wholesome as the country ventilates all the building. Each inmate is required to take two baths a week, comes from the city supply of Canal Dover. The buildings are lighted by electricity heated by hot water. The health is directed by Dr. Darius Helling with great success. The average daily attendance for two years has been ninety-one of whom every holds about a score who inspire pity for the parents that lose their children. The boys learn the love of stock and the girls are taught the care of the household. Then they go forth, many with tears for the home they must leave. Stout, George L. Taylor, John C. Donahey, Mrs. Apollo Opes, Mrs. John S. G.

Miss Bertha Deardorff are the managing Committee. The county of Coshocton, and the reputation of this Home by the children under their care in addition as "boarders," for whom $5,020.72 was paid during the year. Thus the weak and the destitute are revived and restored for the benefit of the family and society is doubly blessed that is learned and the good that Since men began to plant provided palaces for the mighty selfish wealth has loll'd. Greed still guides the way of true philanthropy brings hope has ceased to smile. No the social scheme of our age indicative of worthy progress of the unfortunate. Whoever history with profit knows is growing kinder. Ancient has elsewhere a fearful but raignment in this volume. And recent forms of charity no laudable than the good will gives the innocent children to vanquish the evils of their day.

If nothing else, the lesson The drying of a single tear has Of honest fame than shedding

DORA LEE (BOURNE) COUTS BLEVINS

I was born in the year 1897 to Joseph M. Bourne and Barbara (Fox) Bourne at Shavers Mills, Virginia. I came to Ohio in 1922 to visit my sister, Bessie Grewell, met and married Ernest A. Coutts, September 18, 1922. Ernest and I had seven children, Virginia, William, Dortha, Eva, Walter, Willard and Glenn. Eva died in 1930 at seven months old from milk poisoning. Her death was caused by the cows eating wild cherry trees as it was a very, very dry summer, about like this summer of 1991. Ernest died July 24, 1970 at the age of 88 years old. I went to visit another sister, Freda Repass, in West Virginia and on July 23, 1974, I married Luther G. Blevins, a man I had dated 52 years ago. Luther and I lived in Bristol, Virginia until the year 1980 and we moved back to Ohio. Luther died May 19, 1984 and I still reside on Maple Street in Newcomerstown, passing my time making quilts.

Blevins

1987

Dora L. Blevins, 696 (rear) Maple Street, Newcomerstown, celebrated her 90th birthday with a party in her honor Nov. 8 at the Newcomerstown Sportsman's Club. Approximately 140 family members and friends attended.

Dora was born Nov. 5, 1897, in Tazewell County, Va. She and her first husband, the late Ernest Courts, were married for 48 years and lived in Tuscarawas County. Dora and her second husband, the late Luther Blevins, to whom she was married 12 years, lived in both Bristol, Tenn., and Newcomerstown.

She is the mother of seven children: Virginia Landis of West Lafayette; William Coutts of Kimbolton; Dortha Eggleston, Walter Coutts, Willard Coutts and Glenn Coutts, all of Newcomerstown; and a step-daughter, Margaret Bundy of Tazewell, Va. She also has 19 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren; one step-granddaughter; three step-great-granddaughters; and one step-great-great-granddaughter. A sister, Bessie Grewell of Newcomerstown and Freda Repass of Hampton, Va., complete her family. Two brothers, one sister, and one daughter are deceased.

Mrs. Blevins spends her time sewing quilts and enjoys reminiscing about the "good ol' days" with family, friends, and neighbors.

Mrs. Dora Blevins, left, of 696 Rear Pilling St., receives her daily meal from Lucille Temple and Marjorie Miller, Red Cross volunteers for the meal delivery program sponsored by the Senior Nutrition Center, Bridge St. The program is in need of more volunteers to fulfill the waiting list of home-bound seniors needing the service. (For more information, see story, this page.)

Escorted by her uncle, Willard Coutts, and given in marriage by he and her mother, the bride wore a handmade gown sewn by her mother. Her floor length style gown was of polyester satin with fitted bodice and featured an off-the-shoulder neckline accented by a white ruffle. A ruffle also cascaded from the bottom of the gown. Her veil was of chapel length and trimmed in Chantilly lace accented by a tiara. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of silk roses, white mums, baby's breath, blue fern, sprigs of ivy for good luck. White and blue satin streamers accented the flowers.

All flower arrangements were made by the aunt of the bride, Janet Coutts.

Teresa Wilson served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kris Wiggins and Donna Shroyer. They each were attired in blue floor length gowns with off-the-shoulder necklines and lace bustle on the back of the skirt. They each wore baby's breath in their hair.

The groom wore a baby blue tuxedo trimmed in dark blue. His boutonniere was a white rosebud and baby's breath.

Dave Thornsley was best man. Groomsmen were Starkey Lawrence and Keith Haxlett. They were attired in baby blue tuxedos trimmed in dark blue. They were accented with a light blue ruffled shirt.

Flower girl was Ginger Stull. She wore a blue street length dress with puffed sleeves. She dropped mum petals before the bride. Junior flower girl was Paula Krownapple. She wore a blue street length dress and carried a flower basket arrangement. Ringbearer was Kyle Lawrence. He carried the rings on a white satin pillow. He wore a tuxedo identical to the best man with a white rosebud boutonniere.

Mother of the bride wore a blue-green dress with flower print. Her corsage was a white rose with two blue rosebuds and baby's breath. Mother of the groom wore a corsage of white roses with two blue rosebuds and baby's breath. Her dress was street length.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church with the ladies of the church as hostesses. Kris Rettos presided at the guest book.

The three-tiered wedding cake was made by the sister of the bride, Linda Stull. Mints were made by the bride.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at John's Steak House in Newcomerstown.

The bride is employed by Motor Service Co. Inc. and the groom is employed by Kraft Inc. Both attended Ridgewood High School.

Following a five-day trip to the Pocono Mountains, the newlyweds are residing at 521 N. George St., West Lafayette.

 Comment 2: IN PORT WASHINGTON, OHIO.

Cause of death: BIKE ACCIDENT

Boy, 6, Killed By Auto

PORT WASHINGTON — A ride on his bicycle to an ice cream stand at the edge of town at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday proved fatal to a six-year-old local boy.

The victim, Franklin Lee Stull Jr., 512 Cornet St., was pronounced dead on arrival at Twin City Hospital, Dennison, from injuries he suffered in a bicycle-auto accident along U.S. 36 in this village.

The boy reportedly rode his bike into the path of a moving auto driven by Ernest A. Myers, 64½ of 247 E. Canal St., Newcomerstown.

A state patrolman, who investigated, said the boy was enroute to the Oliver Ort Ice Cream Stand when the accident occurred. The car was traveling west on U.S. 36 and the boy was headed south on Church St. here at the time of the accident.

A preliminary investigation conducted by the State Patrol revealed that Myers was not responsible for the accident.

Franklin Lee Stull Jr. was born Nov. 2, 1967, in Dennison, a son of Franklin L. and Linda Tennant Stull.

The boy was a kindergarten student at Washington Twp. Valley School. He attended Valley View Baptist Church in Newcomerstown.

Surviving in addition to his parents are two brothers, Charles and Guy Stull of the home, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Landis, West Lafayette Route 1, grandmother, Mrs. Arietta Stull, Port Washington, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Dora Blevins, Bristol, Tenn.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Addy Funeral Home in charge of the Rev. Jimmy J. Robbins. Burial will be in Union Cemetery at Port Washington.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday. 4-16-74

DOROTHY J. MYERS
IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our Mother, Dorothy June Myers.

You were a gift from God and returned to God one year ago, Nov. 25th. Some days it seems like only yesterday, some days it seems like forever since you were with us.

You are always in our thoughts and in our hearts. A part of you lives on in each and everyone of us. Although a part of you is always with us, we will miss you more than words can say.

Your loving children,

Mildred, Gladys, Roger, Shirley, Janet, Cathy, Beverly and Pamela

WILLARD B. COUTS and JANET E. (HARSTINE) COUTS

Willard is one of the twins born March 26, 1936, to Ernest A. Coutts and Dora L. (Bourne) Coutts. On June 8, 1969 he and Janet were married and he built a house on Maple Street in Newcomerstown, where they still reside. Willard is a Superintendent for KoKosing Construction Company and builds bridges in numerous states. Janet has retired after 24 years as a legal secretary. Willard has been a carpenter most of his life and they enjoy working in his shop in their spare time as well as motorcycling.

Rev. C. F. Roberts and Rev. Raymond Buehler, pastors of Keene and Mt. Zion United Methodist churches, respectively, officiated at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 8, when Miss Janet Elaine Harstine became the bride of Willard Blaine Couls in the West Lafayette United Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Harstine, Warsaw Route 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Couls, 696 Maple St., Newcomerstown.

Walter Crawford presented a program of organ music and the vows were exchanged in front of an altar decorated with two seven-branched candelabras, palms and vases of gladiolus and mums.

Miss Harstine chose a floor-length organza gown featuring an empire bodice, bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves. A full chapel train fell from the mid-back, and embroidered sprays of Lily of the Valley and fern enhanced the A-line skirt, bodice and sleeves.

A forward headpiece of organza, lace and pearls held her bouffant veil of imported illusion. The bride also carried a bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mr. Mary Hykes, matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of yellow Jakarta with dyed-to-match lace on the bodice, sleeves and train. She wore a matching bow headpiece and carried yellow carnations and mums.

Bridesmaids were Helen Hartsock, cousin of the bride; Jeannette Davis, Judy Finlay and Lorena Landon. They wore gowns and carried flowers like the matron of honor's.

Lesa Landis, niece of the groom, as flower girl, wore a dress like the other attendants and carried a white basket of petals.

Walter Couls served his twin brother as best man. Ushers were Jim Harstine, brother of the bride; Dave Greathouse, George Hartsock and Jim Mallett. Candlelighter and ring bearer were Rodney and Joseph Harstine, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Harstine wore a mint green dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding, while the groom's mother chose a beige dress with matching complements. Each wore an orchid corsage.

Approximately 160 guests were present for a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mums, fern, candelabras and a four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a heart and centered a bell, decorated the bridal table.

Hostesses were Cindy Eggleston, Dana Couls, Carol Gilmore, Linda Qualls, Ruth Reed, Reva Gamertsfelder and Gladys Davis, while Janet McCormick presided at the guest book. Robin Couls, Robert Harstine and Jeff Eggleston also assisted at the reception.

The new Mrs. Couls was graduated from Warsaw High School and is employed as a legal secretary for Attorney James W. Finney.

Her husband attended Newcomerstown High School and is employed as a carpenter for Hathaway Inc.

When the couple left for a one-week trip to the Skyline Drive, Lookout Mountain and Virginia Beach, the bride was wearing an aqua and white ensemble with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

After June 15, the couple will be residing in their new home at 655 Maple St., Newcomerstown.

March 26, 1936 - July 8, 2000

They say time heals all sorrow

And helps us to forget

But time so far has only proven

How much we miss you yet.

God gave us strength to face it

And courage to bear the blow

But what it meant to lose you

No one will ever know.

Our hearts still ache with loneliness

Our eyes shed many a tear

God knows how much we miss you

As we end our first year.

Missed by his wife, family and friends

The Twenty-Third Psalm
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Proverbs 31: 10 - 23; 26 - 28: 30

- Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies,
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life
She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands."
She openeth her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue is the law of kindness
She looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."
- Favour is deceitful and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised,"

"God Hath Not Promised"

God hath not promised,
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways,
All our lives through;

God hath not promised,
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised,
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way.

Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.

The Lord is my Shepherd:

I shall not want . . . He maketh me to lie down in green pastures . . . He leadeth me beside the still waters . . . He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over . . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever!

Where the mourner weeping
Sheds the secret tear,
God, His watch is keeping,
Though none else be near.

He will never leave thee,
All thy wants He knows,
Feels the pains that grieve thee,
Sees thy hidden woes.

All your grief and sadness
In this world below,
Balance not the gladness
They in heaven know.

OWNER ASPHYXIATED BY GAS FUMES

Find Xville Man Dead In Basement

SECRET PASSAGE

Believed Overcome at Midnight

The body of Uriah Courts, 69, janitor of the Ohio Power Company quarters at Dennison, was found lying on a table in the basement of his home at 318 East Fifth street, Uhrichsville, at 7 a. m. today, where, according to Coroner J. P. Lewis, he was asphyxiated by fumes from a gas burner under a three-gallon still, which was in operation. Lewis said that the victim probably had been dead since midnight.

Wayne Bowers, who lives in the other side of the double house owned by Courts, found the body.

The secret of Courts' activities in the basement of his home was revealed by the discovery of his body. The basement entrance of the house was closed, and Courts' entrance to the basement was gained by a secret passageway from the parlor of his home. A section of floor was removed by the victim permitting him to descend under the floor of the front part of his house, from where he entered the basement through a hole in the wall.

Find Finished Product

Courts apparently was overcome as he lay on the table which he used to climb to the slot in the wall, or when he attempted to leave the basement.

A pint bottle was one-quarter full of the distilled product of the still. Coroner Lewis viewed the body at R. K. Lindsay's funeral home, in Dennison, where it was prepared for burial.

Courts, who was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Courts, was born four miles south of Newcomerstown, February 4th, 1861. He located in Uhrichsville twenty-five years ago, first engaging in the oil well drilling business, later conducting a confectionery store in Dennison. He then accepted employment with The Ohio Service Co., now The Ohio Power Co., as a motorman on street cars plying between Dennison and Uhrichsville. When this line was discontinued, he became janitor of The Ohio Power Co. building. Courts is survived by two brothers, John, near Newcomerstown, and Gerahard, near Peoli. A grand-daughter, Tania Courts, is

JOHN W. BROWNING

John Browning brought his family from Cumberland, Maryland, about 1824, to near Bernice on Dunlap's Creek. His sons were: John Jr., Upton and Thomas. John Jr., married Mary, the youngest daughter of William Coutts who had come from southern Pennsylvania, near the old home of John Browning of whom he again became a neighbor on Dunlap's Creek. The children of John and Mary Browning were: Samantha Jane married to Alexander Schlupp near Newcomerstown; Camilla deceased after marriage to Eugene Woodard; Amanda Cordelia deceased after marriage to Lemuel C. Murphy; Mary Lucinda married to John P. Woodard; and John Wesley. Also another: Theodore by a former marriage of the father with Miss Jane Williams; and another: Benjamin F. Stocker by a former marriage of the mother with Aaron Stocker. John W. Browning, born July 16, 1864, spent his youth in the school at Bernice and in farming with his father with whom he became a partner as a stock dealer in a large business that continued until April 1882, when they bought a controlling interest in the Washington Roller Mills at Port Washington, and did a prosperous business until the father's death, January 21, 1899. They also owned the grocery in Uhrichsville successfully operated from 1896 to 1899 under the name of J. Browning & Son. For two years this business was merged with Elmer C. Christy. Having sold all those interests, he leased the Cereal Mills for one year, and purchased and operated the Steam City Flouring Mills in New Philadelphia until October 21, 1903, when he sold there and bought the Cereal Mills. On December 31, 1885, John W. married Miss Ella M., elder daughter of John and Mary Milligan Roseborough of Newcomerstown. John Roseborough was a son of David and Rebecca Lindsay Roseborough of Morristown, Belmont County, and both of Irish descent. Their younger daughter's name was Mary. Mary Milligan, a teacher, was of a Scotch-Irish family of Ohio County, West Virginia. In the family of eight, six were teachers, one a preacher, and all Presbyterians. John Roseborough by a second marriage (with Mary Walton, daughter of Hiram Walton of Fry's Valley) had four children: Linna, a teacher in Newcomerstown; Pearl, a trained nurse; John, deceased; and Curtis, a locomotive engineer, at McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Browning, born June 13, 1866, graduated from the Newcomerstown schools where she taught three years. Mr. and Mrs. Browning have six children: Clarence born February 21, 1887, is now assisting in the mill; Mary born September 3, 1889, graduated from and is now teaching in the Uhrichsville schools; Jane born November 1, 1891; Amanda born November 7, 1893; John born July 24, 1899 and Margaret born July 28, 1903. Mr. Browning has greatly improved the mill by installing the latest and best milling machinery and power plant that money can buy, which has resulted in a large increase of business, which includes high grade winter wheat flour, granulated meal, pure corn and oats chopped, middlings, bran, and all kinds of feed including hay and straw, and also all kinds of custom milling.

CEREAL MILLS, JOHN W. BROWNING, PROPRIETOR, UHRICHSVILLE

The following article appeared in the 1884 Tuscarawas County Atlas:

JOHN BROWNING, JR. (JACK), a farmer, stock raiser and dealer, P.O. Albany, was born in Allegheny County, Maryland, April 21, 1821, and is the son of John and Mary Berkshire Browning, natives of Pennsylvania, the former of Scotch and Irish extraction, and the latter of German descent. They emigrated to Ohio in 1835. Our subject was twice married. On May 24, 1846, he was married to Jane Williams (deceased), daughter of Samuel Williams, and by this union there was one child--Theodore. His second marriage was September 18, 1853, with Mrs. Mary Coutts Stocker, widow of Aaron Stocker, by whom there was a family of three children, one surviving, Benjamin F. The names of the deceased are William H., and Eliza J., who died in infancy. Mrs. Browning is a native of Washington Township, this county, and was born December 19, 1823. She is the daughter of William and Jane Huey Coutts, natives of New Jersey. By this second marriage there is a family of five children: Samantha Jane, (wife of Alexander Schlupp), Cornelia (this is incorrect--should read Camilla), (wife of Eugene Woodard), Amanda C. (wife of Lemuel Murphy), Mary L. (wife of John Woodard, brother of Eugene), and John Wesley (at home). Mr. and Mrs. Browning have been members of the United Brethern Church, our subject for forty, and his wife for twenty-four years, and the former has held office in the same from his first entry. He owns 360 acres of land in this county, and in Oxford and Salem Townships. He has been successful, and what he has accumulated has been done entirely to his own energies and perseverance.
