A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.
- Proverbs 22:1

That which is better than silver and gold - A Good Name - gains added luster in adverse circumstances, and the sterling qualities of character are strengthened in the combats of life.

THE RUBY COAT OF ARMS HEREBY ILLUSTRATED IS OFFICIALLY DOCUMENTED IN RIETSTAP ARMORIAL GENERAL. THE ORIGINAL DESCRIPTION OF THE ARMS (SHIELD) IS AS FOLLOWS:

"D'OR A UN MONT DE TROIS POINTES D'AZUR, SURM. DE TROIS RUBIS EN LOSANGES DE GU., 2 ET 1."

WHEN TRANSLATED THE BLAZON ALSO DESCRIBES THE ORIGINAL COLORS OF THE RUBY ARMS AS:

"GOLD; CHARGED WITH A BLUE MOUNT, HAVING THREE PEAKS, SURMOUNTED BY THREE RED DIAMOND-FACED RUBIES IN DESCENDING ROWS OF TWO AND ONE."

TO THE READER

I have made every effort to be accurate but human failings include errors. Hopefully the mistakes are few. Please forgive, if a mistake was made on your family's information.

Please note that I only included information that was available. I attempted to contact all persons for which anyone gave me an address or phone number. If anyone was missed, it was not intentional.

Note that genealogy is an ongoing process. As people marry, have children, die, etc. keep your record up-to-date by adding the information on the space supplied for that purpose.

ANCESTORS

"If you could see your ancestors
All standing in a row;
I expect you'd find there one or
Two you wouldn't care to know;
Because in climbing family trees
One always meets a few
Who get there by irregular stops
As such folks always do.

If you should meet your ancestors
All standing in a row,
You'd surely find there one or
Two whom you'd be proud to know;
But here's another question,
Which requires a different view;
If you should meet your ancestors
Would they be proud of you?"

ON SERENDIPITY

(Copied from Original Thoughts from Elissa Powell.)

Serendipity, according to Webster's Dictionary, is "the faculty of finding valuable or agreeable things not sought for". Serendipity is a part of genealogy and it happens when you least expect it. For instance, when you are very busily copying baptismal data on your family out of a book in a library and something calls to you to get up and take the books you are done with to the return cart. On top of the return cart is a cemetery book that you "happen" to pick up and leaf through...and lo, and behold, there is your spouse's family all buried in one small family plot, with names, dates and directions to the cemetery! Or serendipity is when, after spending a day unsuccessfully looking for a tombstone in a cemetery, you get back in your car and for the fun of it (or to please your small child who accompanied you) you chase a hot air balloon to a field where you get out and find...the tombstone you had been hunting for all day! A little hard work and serendipity can go a long way. Such as culling the pedigree charts of a genealogical society in your research locale for pertinent family names and writing to those folks who could be related. But they are not. BUT they do know someone else who does indeed turn out to be a cousin. And this newfound cousin gives you the name of an even closer cousin who happens to live next door to someone else related to another part of your tree. Two trees expanded several generations, all on one clue! Persistence and serendipity also can bring good, unexpected results. As in the case of finding a cousin's submission to the Mormon's ancestral File and writing to the old address. It is returned with no forwarding information available from the post office. Then trying to hire someone in the area to research their phone book for your "lost" cousin. No luck. Then trying a letter with a self-addressed stamped postcard to the old address again, this time addressed to the occupant. The occupant doesn't know your cousin but asks some neighbors who happen to have kept in touch with your cousin. Bingo! Your cousin is delighted to hear from you! Another connection made and 3 more generations back discovering on your tree. Sometimes procrastination and serendipity make strange bedfellows. As in the time I was reading through some correspondence that had been waiting three months for an answer. One letter said that our distant cousin "was an author of a book called 'The Red Hills' or something like that." So I filed the letter, never intending to do much with that information. The next day I happened into an antique store, which I never do. And you guessed it...there was the book by my distant cousin! If I had attended to that letter immediately, instead of procrastinating, I would have forgotten about the title and the hint by the time I entered that store. So when you least expect it, you, too will have serendipitous moments. And I hope they bring you more than you ever expected.

KITH AND KIN - MAYBE, MAYBE NOT!

Several persons have gathered information on the Ruby family. Included below are collections of information compiled by W. H. Lewis, Margaret Waters and Donald Murphy, J. P. Ruby, Betty Douglass, Geneva Ruby, Eloise Morris and a few observations of the author. There are some inconsistencies, but were copied word for word.

W. H. LEWIS STORY

- By W. H. Lewis

The Ruby family originated in France. Here they had their coat-of arms, crest and motto and all the insignia of nobility. The name was spelled RUBIA. During the trouble between the Catholics and Protestants, the Ruby family, with many other French Huguenots, came to England, where they lived for many generations, and the name took the English form as we now have it today, Ruby.

In 1770 Thomas Ruby came to America and settled in America near Baltimore. From Baltimore the family migrated both North and South, and the branch to which Isaac and William B. Ruby belong, went to Ohio. John Ruby and his wife Constance, the grandfather and grandmother of Isaac and William B. Ruby, were devoted members of the Methodist Church, and were leaders in all religious work during a long lifetime. They both died of old age.

Their son, John Ruby, married Elizabeth Love and in 1823 they removed to Harrison County, Ohio, where they lent their influence to building up the church, entertaining circuit riders and offering their home for a house of worship before church buildings were built. Their children were seven sons, John, Isaac, William B., Edward, Benjamin, Henry, and Robert and three daughters, Matilda, Hester and Elizabeth. This differs from the record of Jas. P. Ruby, who says that Elizabeth Beatty was the mother of Isaac Ruby and Elizabeth Love the grandmother.(DDM)

In 1831 William B. Ruby married Susanna Landis. She was the daughter of Abraham and Martha Landis, whose family originated in Germany, but they were forced to take refuge in Switzerland during the religious persecutions in their native land. Their children were John and Martha Ruby and they were born on the farm that their father made from the wilderness, and where he lived until he moved to Iowa. Susanna Landis Ruby died in 1835, and her daughter, Martha, went to live with her maternal grandparents, with whom she remained until her father came to Winterset in 1852. John went to live with his aunt, Nancy Landis Gibbons, where he remained until his father's second marriage.

William B. Ruby, or "Uncle Billy", as he came to be called, and Ann Guiberson Ruby, born September 22, 1837; Elizabeth Ruby, born April 30, 1841; Susan Frances Ruby, born October 6, 1843; and Melville Ruby, born August 9, 1851 and died December 18, 1851.

William B. Ruby and his wife, Ann Guiberson Ruby, came to Winterset, Iowa with their children in October, 1852. Mr. Ruby was soon elected a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal church, and as such officer was very useful when that organization erected its first church edifice. He was in the church very like the orderly sergeant in a military company. He looked up every stray Methodist that arrived in the county, and saw to it that he took his place in the church organization, and gave such assistance in the activities of the church as it was proper for him to do. He was, for many years, the leader of the singing in the Methodist Church, and in this work he was efficiently assisted by Mrs. Elliott, the wife of Col. George N. Elliott, who was at the front on the firing line. He was also assisted by his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Ruby Lambert, whose husband was also on the firing line. Mr. Ruby had a strong bass voice and he made it heard.

The family of William B. Ruby was joined by the Jacob Leinard family, at their home in Holmes County, Ohio, on August 12, 1852, when they started on the long journey to Iowa. The Ruby family had all their goods packed in an immense canoe shaped wagon box, supported by staunch bows supporting the heavy canvas cover. The family was seated on various articles of furniture or bundles of goods. Drawing the heavy wagon were four sturdy horses, one of the leaders bearing a saddle, whereon one of the boys usually rode. After a week's travel they encountered the equinoctial storm. All day it drizzled, rained or poured and the cold wind blew. The father of the family occupied the saddle on the leader, and he would not permit one of the sons to be exposed to the inclement weather. Wrapped in a greatcoat, with water trickling from his hat brim, he encouraged his spirits and stimulated his soul by singing the songs of Zion. All day his voice poured forth his favorite hymns, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less Than Jesus' Blood and Righteousness," "Love Divine All Love Excelling," etc. They arrived in Winterset on October 9, 1852. Making the journey together, only two are remaining, Mrs. Martha Ruby Frye and Melville C. Leinard.

A farm had been purchased south of town on the Clanton, where the family lived the first winter. This land was under cultivation and the family had the crops, with cows and other livestock, for winter's living, thus banishing the hardships of pioneering. Game was plentiful. Two deer and numerous wild turkey, with prairie chicken and quail, added to the family menu.

Mr. Ruby, wishing better advantages for his family than their remoted location afforded, traded his farm in the spring of 1853, for one a mile east of Winterset, still known as the Ruby farm. Here he built a substantial house and barn and brought his land to a high state of cultivation. He had one of the first apple orchards in Madison County, as well as all kinds of small fruits. Shade trees, shrubbery and flowers ornamented the ground. Here Ann Guiberson Ruby died

August 7, 1855. Here he brought his third wife, Elizabeth Smith Ruby, whom he married in Ohio on November 29, 1860. (Error - Hancock County, Indiana - Court House Marriage records. - MTE). Here they lived on the farm until they moved to town in 1860.

They built a new house in 1875, where they lived almost in the shadow of the church, and they never failed to hear the bell and attend every service. On May 2, 1889, just as the sun went down, the life of W. B. Ruby passed. Elizabeth Smith Ruby died August, 1893.

Martha, the oldest daughter, was married September 3, 1853 to Jacob Frye. He accompanied his uncle, E. R. Guiberson, from Ohio to Iowa in 1894. They spent the first winter in Des Moines, then a frontier fort. They were often visited by Indians, who were friendly. One morning, as they were at breakfast, an Indian chief entered the door. Mr Guiberson offered him the plate of biscuits, crisps and brown made from rare white flour. The chief truly appreciated the hospitality and emptied the whole plate of biscuits into his blanket and vanished with his ugh, ugh, leaving the family looking after him in hungry amazement.

The next spring Jacob Frye accompanied his uncle to Winterset, where he built the first house in the town. He assisted in surveying the town site and was a member of the committee appointed to select the name of the town. The oldest son of Jacob and Martha Ruby Frye was born in 1854, and he was named for his grandfather, William Ruby Frye. When he reached the years of manhood he went to Mexico and engaged in the development of the rich mines of that country. A revolution forced all the Americans to leave, and he went to Seattle, where has lived every since. He recently spent the winter in El Paso, Texas, and visited Winterset, returning to Seattle by way of Denver, where he visited his mother and sisters.

A little daughter, Emma Charlotte, died in infancy in 1857. The second daughter, Eleanor, has made the home for her mother these later years in Denver. She attended school in Winterset, then went to Kansas with the family. She was graduated from the University of Kansas, and after teaching in the schools of Great Bend, Kansas, she went to Denver where she entered the public schools and where she still holds a position.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ruby Lambert continued to reside in Winterset for several years, and married William Laird Myer on Mar. 15, 1866. Mr. Myer was a merchant at Osceola, Iowa, and she changed her residence to Osceola, and for several years she was an active member of the Methodist church at that place. Mr. Myer died on June 15, 1897 and Mrs. Myer continued to live at Osceola, until some time in 1902, when she removed to Denver. She continued to reside at Denver until Dec. 13 1926, when she died, her body was cremated, and her ashes were buried in the family plot at Osceola.

Susan Frances Ruby was married to Henry C. Carter, and they had two children, Samuel and Lorena. Samuel died at Grand Island, Nebraska and Lorena married Charles Perry. Henry C. Carter died at Winterset and Susan married R. D. Stewart. One daughter, Theodosia, died in her youth. In failing health, Stewart went to Kansas, but receiving no benefit from the change, he and his wife went to his father's home in New York, but shortly returned to Winterset. They went to Grand Island, Nebraska, where he died after a lingering illness. Susan Stewart lived with her daughter, Mrs. Perry, until she married David Nixon at Atkins, Nebraska. They lived there on a farm for some years, then, wishing to retire, they sold the farm and went to Sacramento, California, where Mr. Nixon's children, by a former marriage, lived. There Mrs. Nixon died in August, 1924 and Mr. Nixon a year later. Mrs. Perry died at the Mayo Brothers hospital in Minneapolis, where she was a patient.

John Ruby, son of William B. Ruby and Susanna Landis Ruby, was born Dec. 18, 1834 in Holmes County, Ohio. In 1852 he came with his father to Winterset, Iowa.

Esther Elizabeth Hyskell, a daughter of Jacob and Mary Ann Hyskell, was born on Apr. 24, 1837 at Warrior's Mark, Huntington County, Pennsylvania. In 1856 she came with her father's family to Madison County, Iowa, where she taught district school, and in 1860 she was married to John Ruby.

When the Civil War broke out John Ruby enlisted in the Fourth Iowa Cavalry, Dec. 5, 1861. He took part in many engagements and was never wounded, but spent some time in a hospital with bad eyes from which he never entirely recovered. When he returned home from the war he learned the harness maker's trade, but lost his tools when his shop burned.

He then rented his father's farm, but on account of weak eyes, gave it up and went to dairying in 1872. In 1879 Mrs. Ruby's health failed, owing to the heavy work which fell to her while milking fifty cows, so they sold the dairy and moved to Rooks County, Kansas, and took up a residence on a homestead near Algona. The family at that time consisted of six children, three boys and three girls.

All the children helped to make the new house on the prairie, the oldest girl teaching the first school organized in the district, the boys took turns in herding the cattle, helped build the sod house and barn, and break the land to be farmed. The mother enjoyed much better health after arriving in Kansas, and did her full share in helping to establish the new home, and was known far and wide as an angel of mercy who never failed when sickness occurred in the community. Having been reared from infancy in the faith of the early Methodist Episcopal church, they reared their family in the same way. In 1888 he rented the farm and moved to Stockton, in order to give the children better school advantages than those offered in the country schools. He eventually sold the farm where he had kept a post office and store for several years and engaged in the livery business in Stockton, Kansas. This he was obliged to abandoned in a few years on account of failing eyesight. From this time on until his death, Feb. 3, 1911, the United States Government paid him a sufficient pension to keep him and his wife in the modest way in which they lived. They were active church and Sunday school workers until physical strength would not permit further activity in that line. Mrs. Ruby's long and useful life came to a peaceful end on May 24, 1920.

Samuel Guiberson Ruby was the third child of William B. Ruby and Ann Guiberson Ruby, and was born Sept. 22, 1837. He came with his parents to Madison County on Oct. 19, 1852, and was engaged in the work of caring for a farm until he arrived at the age of manhood. He attended the public schools of the community and studied law in the office of G. N. Elliott, and was admitted to the bar Sept. 9, 1862. He enlisted with Company G, Third Iowa Volunteer Infantry, Apr. 21, 1862, and was discharged July 8, 1862, when he returned to Winterset.

He was married Dec. 25, 1863, to Miss Mary J. Ogden, the second daughter of William Ogden. They made their first home in a small, one story brick house northeast of the Methodist church, probably on lot 5, block 1, original town plat of Winterset. They continued to reside in this house until early in the seventies, when he bought a house on lots seven and eight, block 31, original Winterset. A few years later, Mr. Ruby moved this house to a lot across the street, and built on lot eight, one of the largest and finest wooden dwellings in Winterset.

Mr. Ruby was an able practitioner in his profession, and for one of the rough and tumble cases which made up a large part of the business of those early years, he was at his best and very successful. Mr. Ruby owed much of his success to the Guiberson elements in his character, which he inherited from his mother, Ann Guiberson Ruby.

He was associated at various time with other lawyers, probably G. N. Elliott, B. F. Murray, and later with Eli Wilkin, with whom he was long associated. Their partnership was a very successful one, and continued until the physical infirmities of Major Wilkin compelled his retirement from long practice.

Mr. Ruby served as county attorney for five years, and as mayor of Winterset for two terms, and as attorney for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway for many years. In 1889 President Harrison appointed him as consul to Belfast, Ireland and he served a term of four years. He was Knight Templar and a member of Pitzer Post, G.A.R. He removed to California in August, 1906, and resided in Los Angeles until his death on Dec. 20, 1924. His widow, Sophia J. Ogden Ruby, died June 3, 1928.

The family of Isaac Ruby was intimately concerned in the settlement and development of Madison County. They were, all of them, devoted Methodist people, holding to the old time views and carrying out those views in their daily life and business.

Isaac Ruby was the second child of John Ruby and Elizabeth Love Ruby, and was born in Bradford County, Pennsylvania on Sept. 12, 1802. John Ruby and Elizabeth Love were married in 1799, and they migrated to Harrison County, Ohio in 1823. They were the parents of twelve (some say 10) children, of which Isaac Ruby was the second and William B. the third.

Mary Smith was the descendant of a German Methodist family, a first cousin of Bishop Hartzell, and she and Isaac Ruby were married Nov. 26, 1825. While they lived in Harrison County, Ohio, there were born to them Martin B., George, James, Hester and William J. In 1836 the family moved to Holmes County, Ohio where Barbara, Mary, John Wesley, Margaret and Eleanor were born. Martin B. Ruby went to Iowa where he married Mary F. Myers, a daughter of Jonathan Myers of Winterset on Jan. 19, 1853.

In 1851 Isaac Ruby and family moved to Indiana, but several of the older children having married and gone to Iowa, the parents followed them in 1859, and located on a farm three miles southwest of Winterset.

James P. Ruby was the third child of Isaac and Mary Ruby, and he learned the trade of a wagon maker and in 1852 he married Amy Wood. They lived in Winterset four years, and then went to Cass County, Nebraska, where they lived for 37 years, and then removed to Smith Center, Kansas, where the wife died in 1893. James P. Ruby died at the home of his son, Frank Ruby, at Hill City, Idaho in 1921 at ninety years of age.

Hester Ruby was the fourth child of Isaac and Mary Ruby and she married Jacob Leinard and became the mother of a family of children of whom Melville C. Leinard will be mentioned herein, later. (Error? --Emma Ruby Peffley says this Hester was Isaac's sister, not his daughter. His daughter married Gabriel Osborn.)

Barbara was the sixth child and she married Caleb Price, and settled on a farm adjoining her father's farm. She raised a large family of children and was a prominent and helpful woman in the social and religious work of the community. The Methodist class of the Beerbower school house was probably the most efficient and powerful one in the county, and Barbara Price was one of its most efficient members.

The musical element that had been developed by B. F. Roberts and William J. Ruby became a very powerful one, and when a new preacher was placed in charge of the Beerbower circuit, if he thought the emotion was low, he had only to line out one of the Wesleyan hymns. They would all join in singing it with the energy of devotion, and preacher would call on Sister Barbara Price to lead in prayer, and the response from the congregation would testify to the emotion.

William J. Ruby was the fifth child of Isaac and Mary Ruby and was born in Harrison County, Ohio, in 1835 and came to Madison County in 1859, and located on a farm about three miles west of the Beerbower school house. His wife was Matilda Harper, and her sister, Helen, became the wife of John Wesley Ruby. A third sister married Peter C. Hogle. William J. Ruby taught school for a few years after his arrival in the community, one of the first terms of which followed a term taught by B. F. Roberts, at the Beerbower school house. William J. Ruby was a good singer and leader, as was his wife. Mr. Ruby was a licensed preacher, and being a pleasant speaker, was frequently invited to speak in the neighboring school houses and the various local gatherings at which such services were desired.

Mrs. William Ruby was a talented woman, and a much loved teacher in the Sunday school, where she had a large class of the juveniles, who regarded her with the affection she shared with their mothers. A large Sunday school was also maintained at the Beerbower school house, of which Issac N. Hogle was for many years the efficient superintendent. When he thought he might be becoming inefficient from age or extreme familiarity with the position, he resigned and asked that Melville C. Leinard be elected to his place, which was done, and Leinard successfully filled the position for many years.

William J. Ruby was often called upon to conduct funerals. I very distinctly remember the funeral of Mrs. Judith Bruce, the first wife of R. P. Bruce, which was conducted by Mr. Ruby. W. J. Ruby had been a neighbor of the Bruce family for the years since which they had been pioneers and his review of the hardships and trials which they had experienced together was very affecting and very unlike the ordinary funeral service.

In 1870 Isaac and Mary Ruby, having sold their farm, bought a home just across the street from this writer's house and were very helpful to us in many things that arose in the raising and care of our children. The new Ruby home was so located that all of the Ruby family had to pass the new home on their way to town, and it was very easy to stop there, and they ususally did. The new arrangements were very pleasant and satisfactory but one afternoon the call came to this writer that Mother Ruby was very sick, and unless she revived very soon it would be fatal.

Father Isaac Ruby was walking across the room in great distress, and said, "Brother Hogle, will you pray?" Brother Hogle prayed as one rarely does in a lifetime, but before its close, Mother Ruby was dead and still. Her long and useful life was ended on Apr. 9, 1880. Barbara Price cared for her father at her home during the rest of his life, and he died there Sept. 22, 1894, this ending his long and active life.

BESSIE RUBY KIRK STORY

From a paper in the possession of Mrs. Bessie (Ruby) Kirk, Scio, Oregon.

Written by William Beatty Ruby, August, 1885.

My grandfather, John Ruby, was converted in Baltimore, Md. Was among the first Methodists in that part of the country. His wife, Constance, whom he married young, remained his companion until they died of old age. Their two oldest children were Edward and John E. My father was married in Bradford County, Penn., to Elizabeth Love, in 1797. Both were of the M.E. Church.

Their three oldest children were John, Isaac, and William B. When I was 18 years old the entire family moved to Harrison County, Ohio. (Rest of the statement deals with his three marriages and children by first two wives as already given in the preceding accounts.

M. WATERS AND DONALD MURPHY STORY

- by Margaret Waters and Donald Murphy

The first Rubys to come to America were John and Edward Ruby, brothers, who came to America in the 1700's. The family originally spelled its name Rhubin and was of French Huguenot ancestry. Driven from France in the Huguenot persecution, the Rubys came to England and thence to America. They had a family motto, "Love dieth not and ceaseth not with death." G. G. Ruby, when consul to Belfast, Ireland, under President Harrison's administration, found the family recorded in a book of registry in London, England.

James Prather (J.P.) Ruby left the most extensive history of the family and his data is used as representing the most authentic source obtainable. William Beatty Ruby also left an account and there is a family narrative in the Winterset Madisionian, date unknown. This is written by a W. H. Lewis, from data presumably furnished him by Isaac Ruby. All sources are quoted herein, with J. P. Ruby given as the authority in the case of conflicting data.

J.P. Ruby states that the first John had sons, John and Edward, but it is not clear whether the first John came to America or not. In view of the time element involved, it seems rather doubtful that he ever left England.

John Ruby, the supposed immigrant ancestor, married Constance Beatty. There is a further discrepancy in the records here, but the graves of John and Elizabeth Ruby in Harrison County, Ohio, prove the above statement to be the correct one. To John Ruby and Constance Beatty were born the following children:

1. John Ruby, married Elizabeth Love in Bradford County, Pennsylvania in 1797 and moved to Harrison County, Ohio, in 1823.
2. Edward Ruby
(Other children not known by name.)

John E. Ruby, who married Elizabeth Love, is buried in Rankin Cemetery, Harrison County, Ohio. His wife is also buried there. They had ten children, as follows:

- a. John Ruby married Rose _____.
- b. Isaac Ruby married Mary Smith.
- c. William Beatty Ruby married (1) Susanna Landis, (2) Ann Guiberson, (3) Elizabeth D. Smith.
- d. Henry Ruby married Sarah _____.
- e. Benjamin Ruby married _____.
- f. Matilda Ruby married _____ Early.
- g. Edward Ruby married Rosetta Haines.
- h. Elizabeth Ruby married Ben Johnson.
- i. Hester Ruby married Jacob Leinard.
- j. Robert Ruby married _____.

Of the ten children listed above, descendants of only three are known. Isaac and William are listed in the Smith

g.*Edward R. Ruby was born March 26, 1816 ; died October 12, 1901. He married Rosetta Haines. They had two children:

- (1) Benjamin Ruby born September 19, 1843 at Zanesville, Ohio. (See rest of info below.)
- (2) Robert Hopkins Ruby born August 19, 1850 in Ohio. (See rest of info below.)

- (1)*Benjamin Ruby born September 19, 1843 at Zanesville died September 3, 1923 at Weeping Water, Nebraska. His wife was born in Zanesville, Ohio and died in Weeping Water, Nebraska. Their children are:
 - (a) Benjamin Franklin Ruby born in Zanesville, Ohio married Mary Catherine Sanders.
 - (b) Mary Emma Ruby born in Zanesville, Ohio.
 - (c) Edward Martin Ruby born June 5, 1873 in Zanesville, Ohio, living 1944 at Weeping Water, Nebraska. He married Lulu M. Doty born January 15, 1880 at Holmesville, Ohio. She was living in 1944 at Weeping Water, Nebraska. She was the daughter of William J. and Elizabeth McClelland Doty. Their children are:
 - {1} Virgil H. Ruby born July 16, 1899 at Weeping Water, Nebraska and living in 1944 at Nehawka, Nebraska.
 - {2} Floyd S. Ruby born September 12, 1901 at Weeping Water, Nebraska and living in 1944 at Shenandoah, Iowa.
 - {3} Bernard B. Ruby born December 11, 1905 at Weeping Water, Nebraska and living in 1944 at Council Bluffs, Iowa.
 - {4} Thelma B. Ruby born November 21, 1908 at Weeping Water, Nebraska and living in 1944 at Nehawka, Nebraska. She married Clifford Cooper.
 - (d) Rosetta Ann Ruby born March 12, 1876 in Zanesville, Ohio. She is now living in Weeping Water, Nebraska. She married Wallace Philpot.

- (2)*Robert Hopkins Ruby born August 19, 1850 in Ohio died October 27, 1933 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He married Alta Rhidora McClintock. Their children were:
 - (a) Adeline Rosetta Ruby born December 25, 1877 at Renrock, Ohio.
 - (b) Jesse Frederick Ruby born January 18, 1886 at Eagle, Nebraska. He was living in 1944 at 848 N. 44th, Lincoln, Nebraska. He had one child.

To return to the family of John Ruby and Elizabeth Love, we find that they lived in the vicinity of Millersburg, Ohio. An indication that their daughter married Wesley Johnson instead of Ben Johnson is shown in the Harrison County, Ohio marriage records which state as follows:

Wesley Johnson and Elizabeth Ruby - Dec. 30, 1846.

William Johnson and Sarah Ruby - Sept. 3, 1818.

(The above information on the marriages is also in the Johnson account from Eloise Morris.)

Could Sarah Ruby have been a sister of John Ruby, who married Elizabeth Love? (This would imply that other members of the Ruby family moved to Harrison County before John Ruby, who went in 1823. MRW)

The name Ruby does not necessarily mean relationship with the descendants of the original John and Edward. There is a Pennsylvania branch of the Rubys who were Swiss and the family is predominantly Lutheran.

Another Ruby branch, which may be related to the Ruby family with which we are concerned, is the family of Joseph Rubey (Ruby, Rheuby), born 1768, moved from Pennsylvania in 1793 to Harrison County, Kentucky and in 1824 to Union County, Indiana and died there Sept. 11, 1829. He married Ann (Nancy) Hunter, born in Pennsylvania in 1770; died on Feb. 10, 1851. Both Joseph and his wife are buried at Brownsville, Indiana. A rather extensive genealogy of this branch of the family has been prepared by J. Craig Ruby of Kansas City, Missouri.

An unsolved mystery exists within our own family. Lewis Wilson born Dec. 28, 1806; died Jan. 5, 1865; married June 2, 1831 to Elizabeth Ruby, born Feb. 4, 1807; died Jan. 16, 1902. They had a son, Joseph Franklin Wilson, who married Mary Marcelia Hogle, a daughter of Isaac and Barabara (Smith) Hogle. After Lewis Wilson died in Vinton County, Ohio, Elizabeth (Ruby) Wilson took her family and went to live with the Isaac Ruby family in Winterset, Iowa. Sarah Bashaba (Hogle) Murphy stated that Elizabeth was a sister of Isaac Ruby and that is why she came to Winterset. There is no proof of such relationship. In fact, records show that Isaac's sister, Elizabeth, married Ben or Wesley Johnson. Lewis Wilson was a Virginian and Elizabeth Ruby, his wife, were related to the Rubys of Old Town, Virginia, as shown by an undated letter from John and Zillitte Ruby of that city. No link between the two families has been found.

The original Rubys of our line settled in Maryland and went from there to Pennsylvania and on into Ohio. The Joseph Wilson line also came from Pennsylvania and there is a family tradition of French Huguenot ancestry, but there are no names which suggest a close family relationship between Joseph and our line of the family.

The first five of Isaac Ruby's children were born in Harrison County, Ohio, from 1827 to 1835. The last five were born in Holmes County, Ohio, from 1838 to 1847. All of the descendants of Isaac Ruby and Mary Smith are known, with the exception of those of Hester Ann and Mary E. Ruby. The Jackson County, Indiana, marriage records show the following entries:

1. Hester Ann Ruby - Gabriel Osburn, Mar. 11, 1858, Book D*C, p. 153.
2. Mary E. Ruby - Daniel W. Reeser, Sept. 2, 1859, Book D, p. 265.

These two families moved to Oklahoma and Texas and lost contact with the other branches of the family. The Osburns had two sons, William Crary and Isaac Battell. After Gabriel Osburn died, Hester Ann Ruby married a Civil War veteran by the name of Newton and adopted a girl, Anne. Hester Ann was living in Paris, Texas, in 1905, and died at Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, on Easter morning, 1911. Nothing further is known of the Osburn family.

The Reeser family lived in Jack County, Texas, and Florence Reeser who married Theodore J. Hadley moved to Oklahoma. No trace has been found of the descendants of the other children. James Prather Ruby had some correspondence with the other children and from his letters, the following facts have been gleaned. Laura (Reeser) Love lived in Cloud Chief, Indian Territory, on Oct. 29, 1906. She had three children. It was said the family was going to New Mexico to homestead. It spoke of a homestead in Gray County, Kansas, adjoining Beaver County, Oklahoma. Emma (Ruby) Peffley, before her death, supplies the following addresses: William Reeser, Logan, Oklahoma; Frances (Reeser) Walker, Arapaho, Oklahoma; Laura (Reeser) Love, Logan, Oklahoma; and James Reeser, Bakley, Oklahoma. Letters to these towns brought no response.

J. P. RUBY STORY

Written by James P. Ruby, Smith Center, Kansas, July 15, 1910. He is the son of Isaac and Mary Smith Ruby.

The name appears in a book of registry kept in London, England, and was among the Huguenots driven from France in the 16th century. The name was found by S. G. Ruby, son of William Ruby (who married Elizabeth Smith as his third wife - DDM), at that time U.S. Consul to Belfast, Ireland, under President Harrison's administration. Now living in Los Angeles, California.

We only know of two relatives coming to this country, John and Edward, they being family names, as were Isaac, Henry and Benjamin.

My great-grandfather, John Ruby, was the son of the first John and was married to Miss Elizabeth Love in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. His son was also John and lived in Pennsylvania, where he married Elizabeth Beatty and where my father, Isaac Ruby, was born Sept. 12, 1802. (Note the errors in the wives' names. MRW) Soon after they moved to Old Town, Maryland, near Baltimore, and was among the first Methodists in that region. Later grandfather moved to Harrison County, Ohio, and raised a family of ten children, Grandmother having preceeded him to that better land.

My father married Mary Smith Nov. 26, 1825. She was German Methodist and was a first cousin of Bishop Hartsell of Africa. They lived in Harrison County, Ohio, where five children were born. In 1835, they moved to Holmes County, Ohio, where five other children were born. All lived to raise large families. Mother died April 9, 1880. Father died Sept. 22, 1894. He was successful with growing up with the country and built a good house. They lived in Indiana from 1851 to 1859, when they moved to Winterset, Iowa, where later they found a resting place in the Silent City, where also rest the remains of many of our relatives: Father's brother, William and sister Hester Leinard; Mother's brother, James Smith and sister, Barbara Hogle and Elizabeth Ruby; my own brother William and sister Barbara and part of their families; others are scattered far and wide. Oh, what a gathering of the faithful that will be when all get to that far better land.

The Rubys were a long-lived, medium sized, rugged set of people, with large families. Some blondes, some dark blondes, some were quite dark, but rarely ever black eyes or brunette. They always lived in rural districts, and often on the frontier. Hence, a very poor chance for school, as, in winter, terms were only three or four months, and, part of the time, three miles away, and I could not go all the time.

A subscription school was started in summer by a lady who boarded around, but in this I did not get much. So the most I had is from reading and observation. I have always read the Central Christian Advocate for fifty years. I have been a staunch Prohibitionist ever since my mother taught me the Ten Commandments. I learned the wagon maker's trade at the age of 21.

In 1852 I married a Scotch schoolmaster's daughter, Amy Wood, and started west with no means except a determination to succeed in the battle of life, and we did fairly well. We lived in Winterset, Iowa four years and gathered a little start, then went to Eight Mile Grove, Cass County, Nebraska, among the Indians, and remained for 37 years, when failing health caused me to seek a milder climate. In 1893 my wife died and her remains rest at Fairview Cemetery, Smith Center, Kansas. She was a faithful companion and tender mother. Of her it was truthfully said, "She gave her life for others." And so I am left to finish the weary journey alone. This I will soon do, if it is God's will, as I am now in my 80th year. If I had one little talent it was in song. I led the S.S. and church singing for over 25 years. I also held all offices in the S.S. and church. God only knows how much or little I have been able to accomplish - and now to my living friend is this dedicated in memoriam. JAMES P. RUBY (Born Harrison County, Ohio, March 8, 1831 - Died November 27, 1921, Carrol, Idaho, aged 90 years - Emma Ruby Peffley.)

BETTY DOUGLASS STORY

Residents of Guernsey County, Cambridge Twp.

Thomas Ruby, father of James Ruby, was born in 1806, and was united in marriage to Nancy Cooper, who was born in Maryland in 1810. After the marriage they remained in Allegheny County, where Mr. Ruby was engaged in farming, and where they lived until his death in 1873; she died four years previously. The family consisted of nine children, of whom seven are living: Elizabeth, Patience, Kesiah, John, James, Nathan and Mary Ann. James was born in 1815, and January 26, 1836, was united in marriage with Julia Ann Dennis, daughter of John and Catherine Dennis, of this county. She was born March 27, 1818. They moved to Maryland, where they lived four years, and in 1840 returned to Ohio and settled in Westland township, this county, thence removing to Belmont County, remaining there four years. Four more years were spent in Westland, four in Adams, when in 1860 they took up their residence in Cambridge, where they now live with a family of five children, viz: John T., married Sarah Torrence; Mary A., wife of Stephen Hill; James, deceased; William, married Martha McNary; Carl E., who married Eliza Parlett; George A., married Mary Moore; Sarah died in infancy.

ELOISE MORRIS STORY

John Love and Elizabeth Jane Walker Johnston

Compiled by Lorraine Johnston Nolan

To set the scene for this short history of the Johnston-Walker family, the following account, written by Wesley Denver Johnston in 1920 for a family reunion, seems a good way to begin:

"About 150 years ago when our forefathers were recovering from the effects of the ravages of the Revolutionary War, there was born a boy of that sturdy Puritan stock whose birth has since proved to be one of profound significance to all present who can trace their lineage to it. The family name of his parents was Johnson and the lad was called William for the want of a better name. This boy's parents were farmers and he was apprenticed to the same occupation.

As time wore on he became a successful tiller of the soil and was so engaged when the War of 1812 was declared. He, like Israel Putnam, left his plow, took up the sword against the common foe and fought by the side of his comrades until this foe was vanquished. Returning to his farm after peace was established, he married the lady of his choice and in the course of time there were born four sons and as many daughters.

James, the eldest son and child of this family was noted as being one of the greatest mathematicians of his day--a talent which has been demonstrated in later generations. The second boy, William, was our immediate ancestor. The others were Aaron and Benjamin. The girls of this family were Arie, Sara, Mary and Susanna. The boy Benjamin of this family was a farmer and followed this occupation until being converted when he began to preach. Never in the history of this state has there been a man so fearless and one who proclaimed the Word with such great effect. William, our great-grandfather, married Sara Ruby and to this union were born twelve children, five of whom died in infancy. Those reaching maturity were Louisa, Wesley, Wells, Adolphus, William, Sara Anne and Albina.

At this point we must pause in the narration of events dealing with our immediate family and pay a tribute to one of this family, William by name, or as we like to call him, "Uncle Billy". He began his career as a farmer boy and then took up wagon-making in which he became an expert. In fact we are told that he was very proficient in all kinds of wood-working. Later in his life the political bee stung him and he was forced to go to the Ohio Legislature for a cure. Returning to his home at Uhrichsville, Ohio, he was elected mayor, which office he filled with honesty and dignity. Happy indeed are we today to know that this one of our ancestry is here in our presence even if he is 89 years young. Let us give him a toast:

(Here's to your fruitful life, Uncle Billy,
 May you tarry some years with us still,
 E'en though your active days are waning
 And the sun of your life creeps o'r the hill.)

Wesley, our grandfather, was born in 1823 at Moorefield, Ohio, Harrison County. He was a farmer and later took up the occupation of blacksmithing which he followed for the greater part of his life. About 1848 he married his cousin, Betty Ruby, and to this union were born seven children: Sis, Naomi, John, William, McCormick, Arpha and Seldon, the latter having the misfortune of being drowned when a small boy. All the other children of this family grew to manhood and womanhood and are living today.

Aunt Sis is the wife of Frank Smith, a farmer, and lives near Deersville, Ohio. Naomi is the wife of Theordore Garner and lives on a farm near Canton, Ohio. William is a merchant of Deersville, McCormick a farmer of near Magnolia, Ohio, and Alpha of Canal Dover, Ohio.

Of this family, John is our father and is present today. His early life was spent as a farmer boy in which occupation he has labored more or less all of his life. Some twenty years of this time he spent the major part as a blacksmith in Nottingham Township, Harrison County., Ohio. He was united in marriage May 27th, 1879 to Elizabeth Walker, daughter of Nelson Walker of near Deersville, Ohio. To this union were born twelve children, two of whom died in infancy and Lyle at the age of twenty-four years. This leaves nine children living who are all here today: Blanch, the oldest, the wife of J. C. Pritchard; Earl, Professor of Biology and Chemistry in Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass.; Denver, Supt. of Schools, Weirton, WV; Ada, wife of Roy Cunningham of near Canton, Ohio; Carl of Dennison, Ohio; Alva, Representative of the Western and Southern Life Ins. Co. of this city; Charles and Walter of the same city, and Merle, the wife of Delmar Cree of near Canton, Ohio. Modesty forbids us saying anything more about this immediate family."

The story of our particular branch of Johnstons (originally Johnson) in the United States begins with our Irish immigrant ancestor, William H. Johnson (b.1750-d.1829) who, according to census records, reaches these shores as an orphaned child. His parents died during the voyage from Ireland and were buried at sea. From an account in "Biographical Record of Harrison and Carroll Counties", he married, early in life, a Pennsylvania girl, Elizabeth Laughlin (b.? - d. 10 Jan 1816) and settled in Westmoreland County, MD,(Hanna's Historical Collections of Harrison County, publ. 1900, says "Westmoreland County, PA.", which seems more accurate.) Of their children, William (b. 1796-1862) is our ancestor. The Biographical Record continues: "Others in the family were John, Richard, Alexander, Robert, James, Samuel, Ann, Catherine, Mary and Elizabeth. In 1802 son John came to Ohio where he entered a large tract of land in Green and Short Creek Townships, Harrison Co. In 1814 William, his wife and the rest of the children came to Harrison Co., and settled on land which had been entered a short time previous. All of the family were members of Beech Spring Presbyterian Church, Harrison County, and William and Elizabeth are buried in Beech Spring Cemetery. In political sentiment Mr. Johnson was a Whig."

William Johnson (second generation) married Sarah Ruby on 3 Sep 1818, and to them were born Louisa, John Wesley (our ancestor), William, Dolph (Adolph), Wells, Sara Ann and Albina (Alvina).

More details become available as we come to John Wesley Johnson (29 May 1823-30 Nov 1889). From an account in Earl N. Johnston's files by an unknown writer (probably a cousin) we learn that John Wesley Johnson in 1853, married his cousin, Elizabeth Ruby (23 Oct 1831-7 Nov 1901). (This marriage date is incorrect. According to Denver Johnston's account, and also as listed in Hanna's Historical Collections of Harrison County, the date should be 30 Dec 1848.) Although this story may not be completely accurate, it is interesting because of its description and analysis of our Johnston family line. I quote:

"William Johnson came from New Jersey to Cadiz with his father. Learned blacksmithing from Jim McNutt. Went to Moorefield and blacksmithed. Married a Ruby, and had six children, four boys and two girls. Wesley oldest son. All four boys were blacksmiths, but William became a wagon-maker. Wesley married Elizabeth (Betty) Ruby who lived three miles east of Moorefield on a farm. Wesley farmed for John Ruby, Betty's father. Wells lived with Wesley and worked on the farm. John Ruby was a fine type of man--very kind in disposition and deeply religious. He lost his mind in later years and hung himself on a gear pin in the stable. Wesley came home about dark, unharnessed the horses and in the darkness hung the harness on the same pin where his father-in-law was hanging dead. Wells was present and when the terrible discovery was made he fainted. Wesley carried him into the house and returned with the lantern and carried Ruby in.

The Ruby family was a large family and all very musical. Some of the boys were music teachers. Betty, our grandmother, could sing any part, bass, tenor, alto or soprano and had a very fine voice. None of them had what we would call today a trained voice. The Johnsons were not musical--some of them couldn't carry a tune in a basket. It is probable then that if any of the later generation are musical they inherited it from the Rubys. The Johnsons were English and Scotch. The Rubys were Scotch-Irish. This brought a combination then of English, Scotch and Irish together.

It would be very hard and consume too much time to give even an abridged history of Wesley Johnson and his family. Wesley was a rolling stone. I have a record of twelve different places he lived and am not sure that is all. He lived at Moorefield, on the Math. Rowland farm on Brushy Fork, Nottingham Twp., on the Morris farm near Bealls School House, in Cassville, went west to Illinois, made one move while there, came back to Cassville, then to Irish Ridge, to Stringtown, near Deersville, and back to Cassville for the third time. He then bought the farm at Tariff. The farm that is now called the "old home place" by the J. L. Johnson family. About two years later he built the house at the old covered bridge at Tariff where he died about six years later at the age of 67. Undoubtedly had he taken one or two or even three good locations during his lifetime, he would have amassed a good-sized fortune. He always made money, but the old saying, "A rolling stone gathers no moss" is inevitable.

The two outstanding characteristics of the Johnsons from William down to the present generation are "blacksmithing and baldness". The blacksmithing seems to be playing out but the baldness seems still to be in evidence. Science says today that baldness is an inheritable characteristic--it is very probable the blacksmithing is not, for the acquired characteristics are thought not to be hereditary. All of Wesley's brothers were blacksmiths and baldheaded. Most of the blacksmiths were also farmers. There have not been many in the professions and not many politicians. It remains to be seen what the oncoming generations will do. You young men by the name of Johnson please note: The Johnson name in the Wesley Johnson line is disappearing.

A combination of characteristics to be proud of:

English--slow, sturdy, honest
 Scotch--quick, emotional, musical
 Irish--witty, good managers, good ditchers and mostly good liars."

Note: There is more to Eloise Morris' Johnson story but it does not pertain to the Rubys. (DJB)

OBSERVATION

Several have researched the John Ruby of the two brothers (John and Edward) who came to America in the 1700's, but to my knowledge no one has researched Edward's line. This is Edward's history with as much information about his line as possible. I am not sure how Thomas Ruby's line ties in but it is very likely linked somehow. We just haven't found it yet. I suspect that Thomas is the brother of Lewis and son of Edward mentioned below. If anyone knows the connection, please let the author know. It would be too late for this book but a sequel may be printed later with new information if enough information is found to warrant another book.

RUBY FAMILY RECORD

Introduction

All the above information has been about John Ruby and possibly a son, Thomas. The line followed in the next pages is on Edward, the other brother who came to America. One source stated the Rubys came to Ohio from Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

In Harrison County records Edward Ruby gave permission for his son, Lewis, to marry Sarah Johnson in 1818. One of the witnesses was Sarah Ruby. I am deducting that Sarah was the mother. Other witnesses were William Johnson and Benjamin Ruby. Benjamin could have been a brother of Lewis or Edward. William Johnson was probably Sarah's father (The one mentioned in the Eloise Morris story as married to Elizabeth Laughlin.). Also Lewis' sister was probably Metildee because Edward also gave consent for her marriage to Philip Fulton on 27 Sep 1825 in Harrison County, Ohio. (I did not research Metildee's line.) Also taken from a book on the Johnson history was the record of Sarah Ruby marrying William Johnson 3 Sep 1818 in Harrison County, Ohio.

Edward's children:

1. Lewis (verified)
2. Metildee (verified)
3. Benjamin (speculation)
4. Sarah (speculation)
5. Thomas (speculation)

Lewis is the only child of the above that was researched. Lewis was born about 1800. In the 1820 census of Harrison County in Nottingham Twp. Lewis Ruby (Rube) is listed as having one female under the age of 10 besides himself and his wife. In the 1830 census we find Lewis in Tuscarawas County, Washington Twp., Ohio. Now he has two boys under the age of 5, one girl under 5, one girl in 5-10 age bracket and one girl in the 10-15 age bracket. In the 1840 census Sarah is in Moorefield Twp. in Harrison County, Ohio as head of the household. Apparently Lewis died between 1830-1840. Sarah is listed with two sons, one in 10-15 age bracket and one in 15-20 age bracket. She has a daughter in 5-10 age group, one in 10-15, one in 15-20, and one in 20-30. By the 1850 census all the names in the household are given with much more information. Sarah is listed as age 57 and was born in Pennsylvania. She is head of the household. Still at home are Edward - age 23, Sarah, age 20, and Marinda - age 16. They are living in Athens Twp., Harrison County, Ohio. Taken from "Historical Collections of Harrison County" is the record that Lewis Ruby married Sarah Johnson 16 Jul 1818. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Cornelius Springer. Lewis and Sarah's children were:

1. girl as listed in 1820 census
2. Edward b.1825
3. William Johnson b.1826
4. Sarah as listed in the 1850 census
5. Marinda as listed in the 1850 census
6. girl as listed in the 1840 census

From the IGI a record was obtained that Maranda (Marinda) Ruby married Jacob Keesor 12 1852 in Belmont County, Ohio. Also in IGI the record was found that Sarah Ruby married Jacob Keesor 21 Aug 1853 in Belmont County, Ohio. Possibly Marinda died and Jacob Keesor married her sister.

Lewis Ruby's parents moved to Harrison County, Ohio near Cadiz. He named his first son, after his father, Edward. The second son was born in 1826 and was named William Johnson Ruby after Lewis' wife's family name, Johnson.

Edward and William Johnson Ruby's families will be outlined in the following pages.

Part I - Edward Ruby (7 Dec 1825 - 12 Sep 1911)

Edward Ruby was born in Harrison County, Ohio. He went to Coshocton County, Ohio to live in Linton Township, near Linton Mills, Ohio where he resided until the time of his death. He married Mary Jane Dingus 17 Feb 1858 in Noble County, Ohio and to this union there were five children born. Edward was a farmer but also made baskets to sell to help make enough money to support his family. He cut hickory saplings and soaked them to weave later. This makes them pliable enough to bend and weave the strips into the baskets. Edward died at the age of 85 years and was buried in the Plainfield Cemetery in Plainfield, Ohio.

Edward married Mary Jane Dingus who was born in 1834 probably in Noble County, Ohio. She died 14 Dec 1893 and was buried at Plainfield, Ohio also. (Edward and "Jane" lived in log cabin near Linton Mills, Ohio--Ira Baker, their grandson recalls.)

Edward and Jane's five children were:

- A. Emma (1858-1915)
- B. Rachel A. (1862-1932)
- C. Sarah E. (1865-1925)
- D. Levi (1873--death date unknown)
- E. John (1880-1958)

Each of the above children's history will be given a chapter in the following pages.

Chapter A

A. Emma Ruby was born 6 May 1858 (one source had 1868) and died 24 May 1915. She was buried at Plainfield Cemetery in Coshocton County, Ohio. She was married to Samuel Loos in Coshocton County on 8 Nov 1902. Samuel was born 6 Mar 1869 and died 9 Aug 1942. He was also buried at Plainfield. To this union one child was born.

1. Alice Jane Loos

- 1.*ALICE was born 12 Apr 1903 at Plainfield, Ohio. She married Raymond E. Fitzpatrick. Raymond was born 17 Feb 1903 at Tyndal, Ohio. 1.*JOHN "JW" RUBY was born 22 Sep 1902 in Plainfield, Ohio. He married Hazel Robinson 16 Aug 1926 in Coshocton County (Marriage book had 26 rather than 16.). She was born 22 Mar 1909 in Coshocton, Ohio the daughter of James E. and Clemma Lowery Robinson. No children were born to this union. JW died 14 Aug 1972 at the West Virginia University Medical Center. He was buried at East Oak Grove Cemetery in Morgantown, West Virginia. After his death Hazel married J. Burl McQuain. The following was taken from JW's obituary in the Daily Jeffersonian on 22 Sep 1972:

"John Wesley Ruby was described by a business associate as a one-man conglomerate. A native of Plainfield, Ohio. Ruby moved here (Morgantown) in 1940 and started or saved about two dozen businesses. At the time of his death, he had interests in 18 enterprises... He began his career as a buffer with Sterling Faucet Co. of Newcomerstown, Ohio, becoming a superintendent whithin a few years. When Sterling Faucet moved to Morgantown he went along and became vice president and general manager. He soon owned the company, now a subsidiary of Rockwell Mfg. Co. of Pittsburgh, on whose board of trustees Ruby sat." Below is an article taken from the Newcomerstown News on 11 May 1988. Hazel Ruby McQuain's picture appeared beside the article.

"FORMER RESIDENT'S DONATION PART OF HOSPITAL Morgantown-- The legacy of a former Newcomerstown resident and the philanthropic works of his wife are embodied in a new $87 million hospital at West Virginia University here.

The Ruby Memorial Hospital is named in honor of Hazel Ruby McQuain and the late J.W. Ruby. Mrs. McQuain donated $8 million for enhancements to the hospital construction project.

A publication for the West Virginia University Hospital said "Ruby, a millionaire industrialist and a one-man conglomerate, was a 21 year old farm boy when he went to work in the plating department of Sterling Specialty Co., in Newcomerstown, Ohio in 1924. He came to Morgantown prior to World War II when Sterling Faucet purchased an idle mill complex in Morgantown. Ruby was put in charge of the plant.

Following the war, Ruby became owner of the plant and his business interests began expanding. By the time he sold Sterling Faucet in 1968, the business employed 2,000 people.

Ruby also was involved in agriculture, mining, road paving, poultry processing, feed mills and race horses. He owned the Hotel Morgan, the Travel-Air flying school and charter service, a summer riding camp, a formaldehyde factory, a rendering plant, a meat packing house, a trucking company, the Arthurdale Inn and a grocery and general store.

He died in 1972, at the age of 69, following a long illness.

Mrs. McQuain married Ruby in 1926. She worked seven days a week during the early years of her marriage when Ruby was beginning his business ventures. She later turned her interest toward community service.

She has been the recipient of numerous local, state and national honors for her volunteer efforts and philanthropy on behalf of the people of her community and state.

Most recently she served as a member of the WVU Advisory board, member and secretary of the WVU Foundation Board and is a charter member of the Friend of WVUH (West Virginia University Hospitals).

She was voted Most Loyal West Virginian by the WVU student body in 1983, was the recipient of the Vandalia Award and the Golden Key Award and was honored by the West Virginia Society of Washington, D.C., naming her its Daughter of the Year in 1986. She was given the Salvation Army's prestigious Others Award, the first ever presented in Morgantown. She was also instrumental in starting the Hospice program in Morgantown and endowed the Edmund B. Flink Chair of Internal Medicine.

Dedication of the Ruby Memorial Hospital was held Saturday, April 23 (1988), and several Newcomerstown area residents attended the ceremony, including: Mr. and Mrs. Gene Riffle, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Little, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Little, Dr. and Mrs. Ed Booth, formerly of Newcomerstown, and now of Zanesville, also, as did Ione Hothem, also formerly of Newcomerstown.

Over 2,000 people attended the dedication with eight speakers helping in the ceremony.

One of those speakers was Mrs. McQuain, who said the dedication was the realization of a dream she and her late husband had."

Below is an account that Hazel Ruby McQuain gave of her late husband's accomplishments. JW first worked in a coal mine and then in a store at Newcomerstown, Ohio. Later he was plant superintendent of Sterling, a factory in Newcomerstown. This was prior to a fire. Sterling then moved to Morgantown, West Virginia in 1939 or 1940. At that time they had 14 employees and he was still the superintendent. He purchased Sterling Faucet Co. from Biggo in 1943 or 1944. He started Pittsburg Valve Co. in Preston County, West Virginia in 1946. He later started Sterling Manufacturing Co. (screw machines). In the 1950's he started Sterling Tubular. He also acquired the Tyler Texas Plant in the 1950's. He organized Sterling Farms and Sterling Processing in the 1950's. JW orginated R&C Development Co. and Hazel Realty Co. in the 1950's also. During this time he acquired interest in Ray Lewis and Son Plumbing Supply Co. In the early 1960's he organized Sterling Faucet in Canada. Also in the early 1960's he acquired MOW for the industrial park for Morgantown, West Virginia. In the 1960's he started a Riding School and Camp. Mr. Ruby also started his large Standardlined Racing Stable with the breeding operation in the 1960's. He acquired Bingham Inc., Industrial Supply Co. (Cleveland, Ohio) in the 1960's. In the late 1960's he initiated Ruby Enterprises. He also organized Travel Air Aviation (Allegheny Commuter) in the 1960's. JW acquired Mountaintop Vacationland and started Alpine Lake in the 1970's. Mr. Ruby was president and chief operating officer of all companies that he acquired. He was also president and director of Farmers and Merchants Bank. He was on the Mountaineer Council of Boy Scouts of America. He was director of the United Fund of Morgantown the first time it reached its goal. He director of the Morgantown Chamber of Commerce several years. He was named consevationalist of the year for West Virginia. He was named West Virginia Industrialist of the Year in 1965 and 1966. In 1968 he was Rockwell manager where he had about 2800 employees in Monongalia and Preston Counties and another 1200 employees in Texas and Canada. He owned and operated Sterling Services (stones), Hotel Morgan Corp. and was the largest breeder of quarter horses in Eastern United States. He attend major horse shows during each summer. On the the farm he raised as many at 400,000 turkeys and 60,000 chickens. He also raised hi-lean hogs. He had a feed mill, rendering plant and packing plant to complete the production of the farm operation.

Note: One tourist observed that Mrs. Ruby kept a picture of JW and herself when they had very little of the material blessings and asked why she kept that displayed. Mrs. Ruby quickly replied, "Lest we forget."

LEST WE FORGET

I am indebted to many people. I have compiled this genealogy from many sources such as Bible records, news clips, much correspondence and many trips. These pages were compiled with the help of many Ruby relatives. This volume is possible through the cooperation of many persons who answered telephone calls and letters so that all may enjoy and preserve their memories of our ancestors. The following is the list of names of those who helped directly: (listed alphabetically)

RUBY TWINS

It has been stated that the Rubys are prolific. It would seem so as one looks at the large families and the unusual number of twins in this family. They are listed below:

1. Zoie and Roie Ruby - born 4 Mar 1895
Daughters of John Wesley Ruby, son of William Johnson Ruby.
2. Reah Marjery and Leah Margaret Ruby - born 22 Mar 1911
Daughters of Glenn Clifford Ruby, son of John Wesley Ruby, son of William Johnson Ruby.
3. Richard and Robert Bradford - born 31 Jan 1933
Sons of Thelma Ruby Bradford, daughter of John Ruby, son of Isaac N. Ruby, son of William Johnson Ruby.
4. Jack and Gene Baker - born 26 Jul 1933
Sons of John Ira Baker, son of Rachel Ruby Baker, daughter of Edward Ruby.
5. Johnson Darrell and Janet Carroll Ruby - born 27 June 1936
Children of Johnson E. Ruby, son of Thomas Ruby, son of William Johnson Ruby.
6. Gail and Dale Ruby - born 9 and 10 Aug 1937
Sons of Johnson E. Ruby, son of Thomas Ruby, son of William Johnson Ruby.
7. Jacquelyn and James Cochran - born 24 Sep 1940
Children of Harry Cochran, son of Rebecca Ruby Cochran, daughter of William Johnson Ruby.
8. Dennis and Deana Durben - born 10 Sep 1946
Children of Vernon Durben, son of Mary Baker Durben, daughter of Rachel Ruby Baker, daughter of Edward Ruby.
9. Kim and Kevin Maxwell - born 7 Nov 1950
Sons of Janice Dawson Maxwell, daughter of Clarence Dawson, son of Margaret Osborn Dawson, daughter of Mary Ruby Osborn, daughter of William Johnson Ruby.
10. Rodney Lee and Susan Kay Cramblett - born 10 Jan 1955
Children of Alice Bradford Cramblett, daughter of Thelma Belle Ruby Bradford, daughter of John Westlie Ruby, son of Isaac Newton Ruby, son of William Johnson Ruby.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

As one sits and converses with the "older generation" one can find many interesting and sometimes amusing items of remembrances. At different times the compiler of this book has listened to the reminiscences of John Ira Baker, "Pap", who is now 92 years young. He has a sharp memory about his younger years. The following paragraphs are a few of the situations that he has related.

Pap remembers going to a little log cabin at the edge of Linton Mills when he was a little boy. This was where Grandmother and Grandfather Ruby lived. He remembers they had a lemon tree in a wash tub that was kept out on the porch in the summer but was moved inside in the winter. To a little boy this was quite a novelty because this fruit normally grew in a far away land. He recalls being allowed to drink lemonade at their house in the summer and winter. He especially enjoyed sitting on the long front porch and drinking the cool lemonade for refreshment on a hot summer day. He would be playing hard in the hot sun then go in and ask Grandma for a cool drink of lemonade.

He recalls being at Grandma and Grandpa's one day with his sister, Mary. He said he knew Grandma didn't see well. He and Mary watched while Grandma "cleaned up" the table, but she missed a bit of food stuck to the table. Trying to be helpful he started to tell her she missed a spot but his sister "shut him up really fast". We're not sure what all that entailed but Pap just grinned afterward.

Grandpa Ruby dug coal near Linton Mills part of the time. He would put it in a big "bushel" basket. Then he would put it in the wagon or on the sled to haul home. This would heat the little log cabin during the winter months and was used to cook the meals the year round.

There was a spring at the edge of Linton Mills. Many people came there to get their water. This water was especially good for it had lime in it which softened the water. The lime in it came from the mineral rock over which the water flowed before it came from the ground.

Linton Mills was once a thriving little community, especially at the turn of the century. At one time it had two stores, one at each end of the town. It also had a dance hall, a bowling alley and a Moose Lodge hall. Now there are only a few foundations among the trees and weeds.

There was a high bridge across the stream at Linton. Pap remembers several of the older, braver boys would climb to the top. The others would dare them to walk across the top. Many took the dare and made the trip across. Once when Pap, being younger than the rest, decided to try it. He got to the top but it looked so far down so he just crawled across the top. "It was still very far down to the water," he said.

Pap remembers the family moved from Linton Mills, where he was born, to Guernsey when he was about 12 years old. He recalls taking corn to Beatenhead's to get ground into meal. They grew cane on the farm and would take the harvested cane to Linton to have it pressed into molasses. He continued to do this even after he married and had a family. He would help his dad take the cane to the mill. It had two big metal rollers with a pole through it. The horse was hitched to the wheel. He would go round and round making the rollers press out the juice. It ran into a vat. After it was "so full", a fire was built under it. It would boil all day until it was thickened to the right consistency of molasses. The kids would come by in the evenings to get the skimmings. They really liked this treat because it "tasted like candy."

Ira said he recalled the two big paddle wheels - one for the flour mill and the other for the saw mill. There was also a cider mill where the farmers would line up early in the morning at harvest time. They would wait in line with their wagon loads of apples to be pressed into cider.

Ira told about his first job when he worked as lineman on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He wasn't really old enough to work so he wasn't allowed to work all day Saturday - just half a day. Of course he had already worked all week. The paymaster would call out each man's name and the man would go forward to get his money for the week. Ira remembers it was a great feeling to have some money in his pocket. (Note: He still likes the feeling at age 92.)

There was one school house at Linton Mills but it became too old and dilapidated, so the community built a new one. The old one wasn't being used so the Moose Lodge moved into one part of it. They put in a pool table. One evening when Ira and his cousin, Seth Roberts, were "hanging around", the air became full of threats and fists began to fly. There was a big man named Jim Carnes who often loitered there. Regan and Roy Welker, brothers, decided to take on the big man in a fight. When it looked as if he would get the better of the two, one of them took out a knife and stabbed him in the back. At this time Seth Roberts got them off "Big Jim" and helped him home. For several weeks everyone thought he would die. Finally he recovered. Many urged him to press charges against the two attackers, but he wouldn't. He said if he did they would come back and finish the job.

Ira had a lot of respect for his cousin, Seth. He noted that Seth never liked his name so he had it legally changed to Jack Roberts. Jack worked on the police force for many years in Akron. He was often remembered by many who would tell how Jack would find drunks roaming about the streets late at night. Rather than put them in jail he would take them to their home and warn them to stay in the house. He told them if he found them out again that night, he would personally put them in jail and they would have to pay a fine.

Ira tells a story about Lou Gephart, his half sister's husband. Lou was superintendent of Hart Crawford Paper Mill in Coshocton. The family called it the "military secret" that Lou chewed tobacco at work. He never chewed at home. Ira recalls that Lou liked to listen to the radio. When their religious friends came to visit he would run upstairs with it and hide it. The friends felt listening to the radio was sinful. (Note: Oh, how times have changed!)

Pap said his half sister, Minnie Baker Gephart, was a hard worker. Even though her husband, Lou, had a good job. she would take in washings for several people around Coshocton. She did this in addition to caring for her children and keeping house.

Ira related a story of how his dad helped dig up a body and rebury it. There was a family cemetery on the farm of Jerry and Tom Baker. They had buried their mother there when she had died. Some of the Welkers, neighbors, made the comment that the Bakers were too poor to bury their family in a regular cemetery so used their land and it wouldn't cost anything. John Baker, Jerry and Tom's brother, decided he would just show the Welkers that he could afford it. He asked his nephew, Jonathan Baker (Ira's dad), to help him dig up her grave and take her body to a regular cemetery. After they dug her up, John opened the coffin. Jonathan told that she had mold all over her. They took her down to the Plainfield Cemetery and buried. (Note: The Bakers are a proud people, even though most do not have much of this world's goods.)

Pap told the story several times as we watched the Civil War videos that his Grandpa Ruby didn't serve in the Civil War because he paid another man to go in his place.

Pap used to try to bring in extra money by trapping muskrat and beaver. He would have several of the children to help him stretch the pelts on a special board to dry. One of his daughters, Virginia, bought a board in 1991 like the one they would used to stretch the pelts.

A story that Pap told on Ground Hog's Day in 1992 was about his dad, Jonathan Baker, Rachel's husband. When Jonathan was a little boy he caught a small ground hog in the summer. He kept it until winter. When winter came he dug a hole in the garden and put him in the hole to stay for the winter. He didn't know if the ground hog ever came out in the spring.

Rachel and Jonathan had a neighbor at Linton Mills called Ida Shryock. Pap remembers that she had a "water tumor". It became so large that it was going to burst. Two doctors came one day to examine and treat it. They put a needle into the stomach to pull out the fluid. Then they took out the tumor, performing the surgery in her home. One doctor became sick during the operation and had to go outside to vomit. He stood on his head afterward and then was ready to go back to help with the surgery. The woman came through the operation and recovered.

Pap relates that Levi Ruby was 12 years old when he had "brain fever". He was never able to learn more after this and was left with the brain of a twelve year old. After his parents died their farm was to be used as board and keep for Levi. Jonathan and Rachel stayed on the farm and kept Levi. Levi formed the habit of running away. He would go to the neighbors and ask for food even though he had just eaten. Pap remembers that the neighbors would send word to Jonathan to come to get Levi. After this happened several times Jonathan knew had to do something so Levi wouldn't bother the neighbors. He got a dog collar and put around Levi's ankle during the day. He attached a dog chain to the collar and to a piece of furniture in the house. This way Levi would be kept safe at home but still had plenty of chance for exercise and freedom. (Note: Today this would be considered cruel but back in the early 1900's the people used the resources available and were content with such. No one felt they were being cruel to Levi.)

When Pap was a little boy and lived at Linton he and his family went to church at Plainfield. He said there was an Indian by the name of "something" Bench who lived near them. Mr. Bench would often walk to and from church with the family.

Pap said years ago in the 1920's he made an easy $50.00. A gas line man came to him and asked if he would break up rocks in area above Wills Creek Mill so that the gas company could drive piling to run a gas line. Pap told the man he would so he asked Lou Casteel, his cousin's husband, to help him for $5.00. Lou agreed. It took them all night but "that was good pay for a night's work".

Pap told about when he lived at Guernsey, as a young man, and was working at the paper mill at Coshocton. A man, Merle _____, from Guernsey asked him to bring him a bottle of whiskey from Coshocton. He gave Ira the money for it. Ira bought it after work and boarded the train to come home. He had put it in a pocket in the front of his coat because no intoxicating drinks were permitted on the train. The patrol of the train happened to be in the car where Ira was sitting. A man next to Ira had a fifth and gave him a drink. The patrol came back and said Ira would have to go on to Cambridge with him since he broke the rules of the train. At Guernsey the patrol stood beside the seat so Ira could not get off the train. He was fined $8.00 at Cambridge. As soon as he paid he ran to the train that was starting back to Guernsey. There were only two trains that ran each day so he had to catch it or stay all night at Cambridge. With the fine being paid he had no money to pay for a room in Cambridge.

Pap told about when his sister, Mary, died that her husband and little son went to live with his parents so they could help raise the child, Vernon Durben. This left a houseful of furniture so Ira took advantage of the opportunity to buy it. He had just been married so he bought it all so that he and Lorraine could "go to housekeeping".

Ira told about how he remembered when the mailman would deliver mail in a cart drawn by one horse. On cold days he would have his feet wrapped in cloths with blankets over them too. It was difficult to stay out all day and go to all the houses in the country side.

Pap said a song they used to sing when he was young was-

Don't talk about your greenbacks
Or your twenty dollar bills.
If you want to see some pretty girls
Just come to Linton Mills.

One evening Pap told his grown children about this old proverb that he remembers from his childhood -

See a swarm of bees in June,
It's worth a silver spoon.
See a swarm of bees in July,
It's not worth a fly.

Pap often repeated this old saying -

Man works from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done.

TOUCHES OF TIME
(Reunion accounts)

These are copied from accounts written for reunions. These originals are in the possession of Myrinda Ruby Hayes. The reunions evidently started in 1921 because in the 1931 account of the reunions it is stated that it was the tenth annual reunion. The reunions were held at the Cambridge City Park in the beginning. Later they were held alternately at the Cambridge Park and the Plainfield Park.

The reunions were originally started for the descendants of William Johnson and Elizabeth Ann Tucker Ruby. Edward and Mary Jane Dingus Ruby's descendants were later invited to attend.

The accounts are as follows:

Ruby Reunion - 1961

Sixty-four descendants of William Johnson and Edward Ruby met Sunday Aug. 20 at Plainfield Roadside Park. At noon a basket dinner was served and was followed by a program in the afternoon. A brief history of the Ruby family was given by Benjamin House.

Anna Morgan of New Concord was the oldest present. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gray of Akron came the longest distance. Beth Ellen Stahl of Coshocton was the youngest. Gifts were given to each.

It was noted the next reunion would be at Cambridge City Park the last Sunday of June for all Ruby descendants and friends. A collection was taken by Edward James and Catherine Milligan for a total of $12.35. A brief talk was given by Anna Morgan. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in conversation and taking pictures.

A historical background was given as follows:

For a historical background of the Ruby families, this seems to be the most authentic of any we have been able to find. They fled from persecution from France to England. Then they came to the New England states. Later they came to many parts of our great country including Ohio. Thomas Ruby came to America in 1770 A.D. and settled near Baltimore, Maryland. His son, John Ruby was born in 1777. When old enough he married a lady named Constance. To this union were born two sons, John and Edward. John No. 2 grew to manhood and married Elizabeth Love in Bradford County (Westmoreland County) Pennsylvania in 1823 A.D. Later they moved into Harrison County, Ohio. Lewis Ruby's parents moved to Harrison County, Ohio near Cadiz. Lewis Ruby married Sarah Johnson in 1818. We do not know the correct number of children born to this union. William Johnson was born in 1826. Edward (There was nothing else written beside his name.).
