What Your Tailor?
TRADE MARK REGISTERED 1906

THE style, fit and quality of a man's clothes often mark his standing in the business and social world, and this can only be achieved by having your clothes made for you.

You owe it to yourself, your business and your friends to dress well. That means more than the selection of goods, either made up or in bulk. If your clothes are not made right, fine fabrics will not avail.

Ed. V. Price & Co., whom we represent, make clothes expressly for you that are rightly built over your form after we have carefully measured you for them.

The care and skill they bestow in the making means clothes that wear and hold shape as long as they are used, and this is the beginning and end of good clothes making.

Come in now while the line of Fall woollens is complete—don't put it off for even a day.

FRANK HICKS DIES AT COLUMBUS HOME

A stroke of apoplexy suffered four years ago, from which he never fully recovered, caused the death Sunday, July 6th, of C. F. Hicks, aged 75, at his home in Columbus.

Mr. Hicks was engaged in the retail shoe business in Newcomerstown for about 25 years, and is well known by our older citizens. He was born and reared in New York state, coming to Newcomerstown soon after marriage. He was an expert tanner and worked at his trade at the old Little tannery, later engaging in the retail shoe business, which he continued until he sold out his interests to his partner J. Peck, and removed to Columbus about 27 years ago.

Mr. Hicks made a remarkable success as a traveling salesman, and invested heavily in shoe manufactories. At the time of his death he was a director in the H. C. Godman Shoe Co. and the G. Edwin Smith Shoe Co.

He is survived by his widow, one son, John D. Hicks of Columbus, and four daughters, Belle, Esta, Mary and Nora, all married except the latter.

COLLISION.

Last Friday morning early an east bound freight was run into by another section of the same train which was following closely at Leighninger's siding, between Isleta and West Lafayette, during the very heavy fog which prevailed that morning. The engine, caboose and cars were considerably broken up and a stock drover named J. H. Walker, whose home was at Plain City, O., was instantly killed. He was riding in the caboose and was asleep when the collision occurred.

UNDERTAKER LYDICK SELLS HIS BUSINESS

24 Sept 1924

The Lydick undertaking business, conducted during the past eight years by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lydick, was purchased last week by H. J. Ulrich of Gadenhutton and W. R. Hinds of this city.

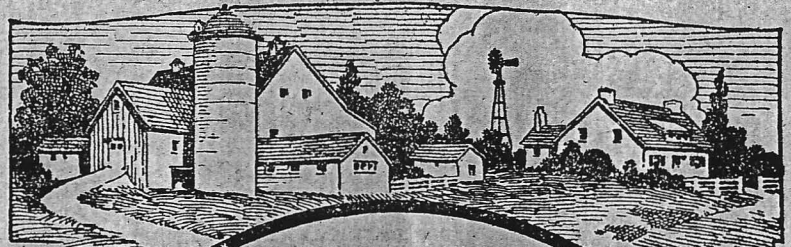

The name Lydick has been associated with the undertaking business in Newcomerstown for over twenty five years, first conducted by the father, Dent L. Lydick, who was succeeded by his son, Homer J. Lydick.

The purchasers are well and favorably known and expect to employ the latest approved methods in conducting the business.

Mr. Ulrich has been operating a successful undertaking business at Gadenhutton for about nine years and is an experienced undertaker. Mr. Hinds was formerly engaged with his father, John Hinds, in the funeral home business, but has been associated with Mr. Ulrich for some time and has been taking a course in embalming and funeral directing which he expects to finish in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydick expect to move to Cleveland where they will engage in business. Mrs. Lydick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mercer, Sr., will also go to Cleveland to make their home. Their removal will be deeply regretted by their large circle of friends.

Who's Your Tailor?

OR have you been buying the storebox clothing? The kind that curves in at the shoulders; the front rolls and wrinkles in fact gets entirely out of shape. The merchant who tells you that ready-to-wear clothing is just as good as clothes made expressly for you, is trying to deceive you. For while the quality may be identical, there can never be the service and wear that are attributes of clothes made over you; on you; for you, and never found in storebox clothing. Our clothes are made for those who are to wear them only after we know all of their physical peculiarities (and no two men are alike). Then we deliver the garments with the promise of permanent satisfaction or new garments for you. The result is correct and perfect-fitting clothes, costing you practically no more than the storebox kind. You have resolved time after time that you would not purchase any more ready-made clothing. Keep that resolution by buying your next suit from us. Come in and talk the matter over with us.

We do dyeing and cleaning of all kinds; repairing, pressing.

Grand Jury Findings.

The grand jury in session at New Phil'a last week reported the following indictments: Joseph Stin-or, stealing of hides; Homer Rain-borger, teacher, assault and battery, striking pupil with poker; Chas. F.
Mayer, grand larceny, stealing cow

Gnadenhutzen; B. Shaw, assault and battery upon T. S. Murphy at Newport; Wm. Baylon, cutting with intent to wound—Dan'l Eppm

Improves His Factory.

Mr. W. A. Myers, manufacturer of soft drinks, healthful beverages, etc., has added another room to his factory building on West Canal st.
and recently installed a new piece of machinery known as the Gillett shot bottle washer. Mr. Myers is one of our most progressive business men; is strictly reliable in all his dealings, and has been remarkably successful.

Broke His Arm.

On Thursday of last week, while Mr. James Orin of near Isleta was leading a bull by a rope, the fractious animal started on a brisk run throwing Mr. Orin against a tree and breaking his arm. Dr. R. A.
Goudy of this place rendered surgical aid. Mr. Orin's friends are glad that the accident did not prove more serious. 3 APR 1903

J. D. Longshore has been appoint-warm kitchen, but should be cooled and transferred to the refrigerator promptly. Fresh foods and vegetables should be washed and placed in a covered container or hydrator in the refrigerator. Frozen fruits and vegetables must be kept in the freezing compartment until ready for use. Such foods must not be allowed to thaw and then be refrozen. Plan summer meals to avoid leftovers. Foods which have been to the table should be in covered containers when returned to refrigeration. Such storage practices will prevent spoilage from bacterial growth and avert much summertime distress, in addition to preserving valuable vitamin content in foods. Mrs. Lewis warns that the old enemy, the common house fly, must be excluded from the kitchen if we are to enjoy summertime meals in health and safety

Queen Anne Period Model

The cabinet work of The Cheney is exquisite—the work of the finest furniture craftsman in the country. The Queen Anne model illustrated below is 49 inches high, 26 inches wide. Metal parts finished in rich gold, equipped with two reproducers for playing all records. Automatic stop; efficient, silent electric motor.

FUNDAMENTALLY different from ordinary phonographs, The Cheney makes an addition to the home that is of ever increasing pleasure and value. For the longer you own a Cheney the sweeter its tones become, just as an old violin surpasses a new, untried one.

The very acoustic principles of the violin which give it its purity and serenity of tone have been incorporated in The Cheney. Thus, The Cheney becomes more prized the longer you own it, and unlike any other phonograph:

“The Longer You Play It The Sweeter It Grows”

To really appreciate Cheney Tones you should hear them. A piano record, one of the most difficult tests of a phonograph, sounds like a piano on The Cheney. Orchestral records have not only all of the vim and zest of the music but the very color and timbre of tones that you would hear if you listened to the orchestra itself.

Vocal records have color, quality, and richness ordinarily lost in a reproduction. Best of all, The Cheney places all the music of the world in your home—it plays all records.

Hear it if you would really appreciate what Cheney inventions have contributed to tone reproduction. Basic patents protect Cheney improvements—they have no imitations.

Regular Models, priced $85 to $365.
Console Art Models, $325 to $600.

FIFTY-ONE YEARS AGO FROM THE "VISITOR"

The News is indebted to Geo. A. Beers for access to the files of "The Newcomerstown Visitor" the first issue of which was published June 7, 1871, by Johns, Beach & Beers. It was largely through the efforts of one of the owners, Dr. A. M. Beers, deceased, that the paper was established.

The first and succeeding issues of the Visitor carry a large number of advertisements for that day, but most of the paper is devoted to editorials, local news and selected short stories, all prepared in excellent style.

Following were the village officers fifty-one years ago: C. F. Davis mayor, H. G. Little clerk, F. M. Swan marshal. Councilmen—Hon. G. B. Smith, Hon. A. J. Wilkin, I. B. Vogenitz, Wm. Marlatt, Wm. Neighbor, C. F. Hicks.

The churches were represented as follows: Lutheran church, U. J. Knisely pastor; Methodist Episcopal church, S. A. Thompson pastor; Methodist Protestant church, H. B. Knight pastor.

The advertising directory contains the following names: W. R. Shields & Co., druggists; Smith & Dickin-son, general merchandise; D. Mulvane & Son general store; Wilkin, Ayers & Dryden, general store, lumber, undertaking; W. S. Kline & Co., agriculture implements; W. B. Sultzer, clothing; Wm. McFadden, merchant tailor; Henry Moore, blacksmith; H. W. Huff, saddlery; Geo. W. Mulvane & Co., tannery; Robert Bicker, furniture and undertaking; Jas. Pilling, woolen factory; Neighbor & Burris, livery stable; Lang & Lacy, boots and shoes, D. B. Moore, hotel; J. Cole, hotel; J. H. Thompson, notions; W. B. Baxter, bakery; J. H. Frees, photographer; E. M. Yingling, stamps and seals.

JUNE 21, 1922

Following are a few notes from the "Visitor" published at Newcomerstown fifty-one years ago:

Married, Miss Jennie Anderson and Edward Switzer of Port Washington.

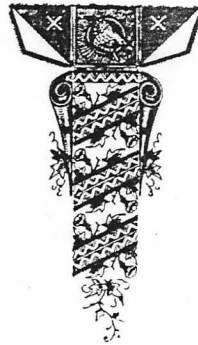

Isaac Miskimen died May 29 at home of David Wolgamoot in Guernsey county.

Vogenitz cornet band plays concert in front of "Visitor" office.

Wool brings 50 to 55 cents a pound, corn 55c bu., wheat $1.30 bu., hay $10 ton.

The I. Crater building under construction. Stone work by Thos. Hartshorn, brick work by Joseph Gardner, wood work by H. J. Fox & Sons.

HOW WE'VE GROWN.

Newcomerstown as it Was in 1872.
Nearly 30 Years Ago.

From the Newcomerstown INDEPENDENT, published by Johns & Beers, a copy of which was left at this office by Mrs. Hannah Wilgus in competition for our street-fair prizes, we glean a few items which will interest many of our readers. The paper is dated March 20, 1872, and contains a well-written article on the business enterprises of the town, its superb location, and future prospects. The town had its public-spirited citizens then, as it now has. Citizens who were ever ready to speak a good word for the town, advance its interests and push it to the front.

At that time Newcomerstown had but one railroad, the Pan Handle. Its population was about 1000. It contained one bank, the "Tuscarawas Valley Bank," two hotels, one wholesale and retail hardware store, one boot and shoe store, five dry goods stores, four groceries, two drug stores, two provisions stores, three boot and shoe shops, one cigar factory, one saddle and harness shop, one millinery store, two dressmakers, one broom factory, two tanneries, three blacksmith shops, two wagon and carriage factories, two stove and hollow-ware stores, three tin shops, two merchant tailor stores, two cooper shops, one barber shop, two planing mills, one flouring mill, three cabinet shops and undertakers, one dentist, one photograph gallery, one jewelry store, one bakery, two silversmiths, one gunsmith, one pottery, one woolen factory, one saw mill, one livery, one cornet band, three lawyers, five physicians, three ministers, three churches, one college, one graded union school, three secret societies, one newspaper and job office, and other branches of industry. The canal traffic was an important factor at that time. The town possessed then, as it does now, "many peculiar advantages of which the passing traveler and capitalist would do well to take notice."

NEWCOMERSTOWN VISITOR FROM 1871

Excerpts from the July 5, 1871, Volume 2, Number 28, edition of The Newcomerstown Visitor reveal interesting life in the village almost a hundred and fifty years ago. The newspaper which was Newcomerstown's very first newspaper was owned by Johns, Beech, and Beers at that time, and was published in a building that was once located where Dick's Place is now, at the corner of Bridge & Canal Street.

Some of the excerpts and business advertising are as follows (as printed):

- Attention is Called- To the notice of dissolution of the firm Johns, Beech, and Beers. Mr Beers retiring.
- Accident- Lorin, the youngest son of Mrs. Oliver A. Vogenitz fractured a collar bone yesterday. It seems that the little fellow was swinging on a banister in the house, and in some manner fell and produced the injury mentioned.
- Planing Mill—Wilkin, Ayers, & Dryden, Chestnut Street, sash, doors, blinds, lath, and shingles. Scroll work and turning done to order. Coffins of all kinds kept on hand. Funerals attended with hearse when solicited.
- New Meat Market—Northwest corner of Bridge & Canal Street, under Visitor Office. Williams & Vickers.
- Leather—Boots and shoes. Cash paid for hides, skins, and sheep pelts. G.R. Little's near the lower Canal Street bridge. Southwest corner of Canal & River Street.
- Gone—Our foreman, Captain Ed Lepper, the champion pressman and great American bear fighter has left us. The captain is a tip-top workman, a genial fellow, but he would go a fishin' on the Fourth of July.
- Woolen factory—James Pilling informs the citizens of Newcomerstown and vicinity that he is now prepared to do a full line of carding and spinning. Woolen goods of all kinds on sale. Factory is one mile east of town.

Watch for future editions of the Newcomerstown News featuring more excerpts from The Newcomerstown Visitor 1871 editions.

Concerning the editor:—Mr. Johns, while publishing the Eye, also acted in the capacity of Notary Public and Conveyancer, and invited parties interested to call at the printing office. A few years later in the eighties, he disposed of his printing office and formed a partnership in the drug business with Dr. C. W. Wilkin, and later conducted the drug business himself, occupying a portion of Dr. Beer's office building which then stood on the northeast corner of Main and Bridge streets. Without going further into details, it may be added that Mr. Johns is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Johns, and daughter, Mrs. W. C. Schott, both of whom reside in New Philadelphia, also Mrs. Winifred Johns Miskimen of Newcomerstown.

The Ritz Theatre

The management of the Ritz Theatre takes great pleasure in presenting to the people of Newcomerstown and surrounding towns this modern up-to-date theatre building complete in every respect.

With the public in mind every effort was exercised to make this playhouse as comfortable and convenient as possible.

They will endeavor to maintain an environment of high standard, safe and healthful, with courteous attendants to give the Ritz Theatre a tone of welcome such as you could not experience elsewhere.

We take this opportunity to publicly express our appreciation for the support and co-operation this community has given, enabling us to build this magnificent theatre building, and also every workman associated in its erection. They did their best in making the Ritz a beautiful theatre. The managers were extremely happy in their associations with them and their work.

Every employee of this organization has but one goal—service is the word. If that service is at any time lacking we want you to complain. Our theatres are your theatres. We want you to feel that way about it. Our picture programs are built for your enjoyment, not ours. We want you to be pleased and it is our hobby to have every patron who passes our threshold pleased. So, complain whenever you think it necessary.

Twin City Theatre Co.

The local views that are shown on the screen at this theatre were taken with our own moving picture camera. A number of interesting scenes of this community are in store for you and will be exhibited at this theatre in the near future. You will be able, no doubt, to see yourself as others see you—in moving pictures, so be on the lookout for our camera man and register smiles.

THE RITZ A COMMUNITY ASSET

The Ritz Theatre is more to this community than just a well built playhouse. It is the expression of faith that this community will continue to grow and become more prosperous. It is a place where the entire family can go to enjoy wholesome entertainment in pictures and music with ideal surroundings.

The Ritz Theatre was built for you. It offers every health and comfort safeguard possible, surpassing even the home in point of personal safety.

The Ritz Theatre will be an indispensable factor in the social and business life of this community, providing—a conversational topic which all members of the family approach on even terms; by the children as a favored pastime place; by parents for help in proper direction of youthful development, and by the property owners of this community materially increasing the desirability and property values.

By giving you the best in entertainment, the owners of the Ritz will be rewarded by your patronage which enables them to build finer and better theatres and obtain better entertainment by which in return you are rewarded.

The Ritz—built for you!

The Ritz a Modern Theatre

Beauty, safety and substantial comfort—these were the governing principals in the building of the new Ritz Theatre by the Twin City Theatre Company. How well these important factors have been incorporated into this playhouse is attested by the fact that the Ritz stands as the finest theatre in Tuscarawas or surrounding counties.

The Ritz theatre is located on Bridge street near the corner of Canal and Bridge sts., and on the old Ohio Canal bed that was abandoned several years ago.

The building is of steel and brick construction, with a frontage of fifty feet and one hundred and seventy feet in length. The front of the building is constructed of brown matt face brick in mingled shades, presenting an impressive picture to the passerby. Over the entrance there is a marquise extending over the sidewalk to the street. Underneath, electric lights blaze away at night. At each side of the entrance are store rooms. The second floor of the building is occupied by living apartments which are the last word in convenience.

Upon entering the vestibule of the theatre the spectator is immediately impressed with the fact that the ticket office, lighting fixtures, ornamental plastering, theatrical frames and the most minute details, all comprise a harmonious effect.

Leaving the vestibule, one enters the lobby, oramented in the same style as the vestibule and from which the main auditorium is reached. On the right as you enter the foyer is a door leading to the projection room and manager's office. At the extreme right of the foyer is the men's smoking room. On this side directly above is the manager's office. This room is so situated as to enable him to have immediate access to any part of the building through a buzzer system, and so give him an opportunity to get in touch with any situation that might arise without disturbing the audience. All lights in the theatre are controlled from this office, particularly the exit lights and all side wall lights being on an independent wiring system.

On the left is the ladies' retiring room with toilets in connection which are of the latest type of modern construction, equipped in a thoroughly sanitary fashion. Drinking fountains will be found in the foyer, with cold running water.

An innovation in the Ritz theatre is the Cry Room and Children's Play Room, where mothers with small children and infants may go and view the picture through sound-proof glass and feel assured that the crying infants will in no way disturb the patrons. The children can be amused with the numerous toys provided in the room adjoining. The in wicker and the same decorations are carried out as throughout the theatre. This room is equipped in case a patron may need immediate relaxation or medical attention.

High over your heads as you enter the foyer is the projection room, a room of solid concrete and steel. Lined up in this room with their lens pointing through a space provided in the wall is a bottery of two projection machines and a color spot light. The walls are a maze of switches that at a touch, flood the theatre with different colors of light as desired. The operator by pressing a button automatically opens the front curtain as well as the second on the stage, the auditorium lights go out and the moving picture starts. There are also rewind tables for inspecting the film and rewinding. A fireproof film cabinet to store reels when not in use is one of the important features of this room. There are fireproof doors and automatic fire-proof shutters which isolate it from the remainder of the building. There are toilets, wash room, and room for advertising matter adjoining.

The auditorium is properly ranged in such a manner that every one of the six hundred seats have a perfect view of the screen. There are four convenient aisles and sufficient exists that the theatre when filled can be emptied within two minutes. The moving picture screen is of the finest obtainable. The front or main curtain is of velvet in taupe color. The second is of steel gray matching the stage settings. The stage is fully equipped with foot-lights, stage plugs and border lights capable of giving any desired lighting effects.

The magnificent organ is a Hilgren-Lane, three manual type, with pipes and other musical instruments built in the lofts at right and left of the auditorium. The console is located at the right of the orchestra pit and has an electrically operated air machine housed in the rear of the building.

The heating arrangement is the last word in construction. The auditorium is heated with hot air being illuminated with chandeliers of the newest type, operated on a two-circuit system giving soft indirect light of various colors. Over every exit door there are provided separate emergency lights independent of the main house system.

One of the most important features of this theatre building, and filling a long needed improvement to our community is that of rest rooms which we will maintain for the public. These rest rooms are of standard construction, and, we take great pleasure in presenting this convenience to you, trusting that the public will not abuse this privilege. The ladies' rest room is on the left of the theatre building with convenient outside entrance. The men's rest room is located on the right with outside entrance.

WHY WE KNOW

You who patronize this theatre, we believe will be interested to know that the pictures you will see in the future are selected from approximately 900 feature attractions offered the management for showing. However, considerable less than half of this number will be exhibited here during the year—and so, you may well ask, "How do you know what pictures to buy?" It is a question frequently asked by patrons. The answer is not a complex one, but we believe it will interest you.

It is a part of our obligation to familiarize ourselves with all the motion pictures manufactured and to select those which we feel are of a quality and variety deserving the attention of this community. First, we base our selection on the type of pictures the majority of you like, from carefully kept records of the past, showing the number of tickets sold on every picture exhibited at the Grand Theatre. Our records show what percentage of our patrons like western, society dramas, comedies and son on down the list. The average patron, upon seeing a picture usually comments on its entertainment value—whether it was good or bad.

Second, some two thousand theatre owners of the United States and Canada have perfected a system by which each submits to a trade publication a report of his experience with each picture exhibited. Each tells what his patrons thought of the picture and whether many or few came to see it. Thus the first few who show the picture inform the others of its entertainment value through this publication.

Taking this information with that which we already have at hand relative to the need of that type of picture, we then determine just what reception that particular picture will receive if exhibited at this theatre.

And, through our chain of moving picture theatres, our buying power is to your advantage. We try to get

THE ADVERTISERS

The management is deeply grateful for the splendid co-operation of local business men who so largely responsible for the success of this souvenir program—and NOT the mail order house, which takes your order, or the peddler or agent who is in town today and gone tomorrow taking with him your good honest money for some inferior article.

Your merchant, dear reader, is NOT here today and gone tomorrow. NOT grabbing all business to be had and out again. NOT by extravagant talk and over-statements forcing inferior merchandise on you. dodging taxes, civic responsibilities and all duties of citizenship. NOT a parasite. NOT an insidious home-town destructionist.

Such only is the peddler, the canvasser, the house-to-house self-styled traveling representative, who comes at any hour of the day, tracks up your porch, gives you an interesting talk, assists you in signing your name on the dotted line, or takes your money and once around the corner is gone forever.

Compare that type with Newcomerstown merchants and business men, who are here 365 days a year—to serve you at your convenience; to back-up the merchandise they sell to you, to share taxes and civic responsibilities, to help make community life more prosperous, to rejoice in your joys and sympathize with you when trouble comes—to be neighborly and stand by you when in need of credit.

Stand back of your merchant, we

The Future Policy of the Grand Theatre

It is the intention of the Twin City Theatre Company to continue running the Grand Theatre only on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, and at any other time the occasion demands.

A serial, drama, comedy and other worthy subjects will be shown on Wednesday evening, while western and quick action pictures with comedies, news weeklies and interesting pictures will make up the program for Saturday evenings. It will pay you to note the attractions offered each week at that theatre, as the managers have several very interesting pictures booked for showing in the near future.

Description and Conveniences of the New Ritz Theatre

The box office is open from 6 to 9:30 in the evening. Show starts at 6:30 except Saturdays and holidays at 6:00. Convenient telephones for the use of patrons are located on second floor for those expecting or sending calls and for physicians who wish to be summoned. Complaints of incivility or inattention on the part of any attendant will assist in arriving at a high standard of efficient service to our patrons, if reported at once to the management. Ladies' rest room is on the left of the foyer near the rear exit. Men's room is on the extreme right of foyer. Children's play room is directly above ladies' room. This department will be open from the time the doors open until the end of evening show. The cry room is adjoining and mothers with crying or restless infants will appreciate this feature of the theatre.

The Ritz Theatre is under the direct supervision of Mr. G. M. Jordan, and it is aimed to make service throughout courteous and efficient.

PUBLIC SERVICE is commonly considered a thankless undertaking, but I do not find it so. On the contrary, the reaction of this community to our efforts in its behalf has been a source of constant gratification to us since the day we began operations as an institution of entertainment just one year ago and I want to personally thank every friend of the Ritz Theatre, each one of you—man, woman and child, who has attended this theatre, and by your patronage, friendship and helpful criticisms has helped us in our effort to give our city a theatre that you so kindly say—is worth while. Please remember, that the Ritz Theatre is your theatre —“built for you”—for your enjoyment and entertainment. We succeed or fail in proportion to the pleasure and enjoyment each of you, our friends and patrons, receive from the theatre.

Presenting only the best productions and stars have always been our policy and has won a multitude of friends with this approved style of entertainment. We greatly desire to hold that friendship which we prize above all else—we mean to continue presenting even better entertainment that may be enjoyed by every man, woman and child in the community this theatre serves.

This birthday week brings three exceptionally entertaining pictures, with special short subject features and varied added stage attractions which will only be in the way of a promise of what we hope to make a bigger and better year to follow, both for you and the theatre.

Sincerely,
G. M. JORDAN

BUYING IT IN NEWCOMERSTOWN

—BY A SHOPPER

Since the advertisers in this booklet are responsible for the success of its publication to whom the manager of the Ritz Theatre is grateful we have been asked to tell you folks about them.

The advertisers will appreciate you saying a word or two about them to your next door neighbor.

We are in and out of all stores in Newcomerstown and probably know more than the out-of-town shopper, about Newcomerstown's merchants and businessmen, therefore, we felt qualified in discussing these things.

We enjoy shopping in Newcomerstown, because, this is home and we know the merchants and have confidence in them. Confidence is a wonderful thing in buying, especially when you've bought a camera when you wanted a kodak—your home-town merchant will gladly make the exchange.

The First National Bank must be taken more serious, but the courteous and watchful banker who guards depositors' earnings, remarked that pictures are drawn and bank accounts are over drawn. We know they weren't personal, because our bank account couldn't be overdrawn as we have nearly a full book of checks that haven't been used.

*****

The Baltimore Clothing Co. are always wishing someone success and happiness. That's their hobby—pleasing the people and selling clothing, shoes and furnishings.

*****

Have you visited "Davy," the janitor who every night cleans out the cash register at the Davis Drug Store? The new fountain Davy has is a pippin. But isn't as nice as the sodas and sundaes he sells.

*****

The Newcomerstown Produce Co. distribute Caldwell Ice Cream, and once you try it you will agree that the "taste tells."

*****

Maurer's Tea Room, which has been gaining popularity among the younger folks, is also popular with the older generation, because of the friendly service they offer.

*****

Clothing stores may come and trade battles may go, but the Murphy-Rogers "Value First Store" goes on forever, selling clothing, shoes and furnishings.

*****

Doesn't matter when one steps into Murphy's Meat Market on River St. there's always a crowd of shoppers buying Ben's quality meats.

*****

And last but not least, but usually first to the last is Insurance. And "Scotty," the hustler, sees that no one is without it. If you haven't insurance you're hiding.

SYNOPSIS

The author has attempted only to give incidents in home life in the country, drawing therefrom some moral lessons of practical worth.

No attempt has been made to portray recklessness in adventure, but rather cheerfulness in labor.

No sensational love scenes, but the pleasant scenes of a loving home and a peaceful neighborhood.

SCENE I. Country farm house. Time, morning. Mr. Happyway, stepping from the door, contemplates the glory of the morning.

SCENE II. Interior house. Annie, knocking at Johnnie's chamber door, sings the "Morning Call."

SCENE III. Diningroom. Family at breakfast.

SCENE IV. Sittingroom. Time, evening. The family, servants and neighbors gathered for a social evening.

1922

The first business deal of Haver Electric Supply was the sale of an electric farm light plant on December 1, 1922 to a farmer who lived three miles south of Newcomerstown.

Moved to South McKinley Avenue in 1930 where the business of selling farm light plants and pumps continued.

A line of appliances was added in 1938, making a move to larger headquarters imperative. Haver Electric Supply moved to its present location on April 1, 1940.

Central Hotel Leased; Begin Repair Work

Establishment of a new dairy and confectionery store in the Central Hotel building and the leasing of the hotel to Lester Ellwood of Cambridge were announced this week.

Lloyd Ley, who has operated the hotel for the last 12 years, said that he had given Mr. Ellwood a long term lease on the building. Mr. Ellwood has had experience in the restaurant business in Columbus and Cambridge.

Work on remodeling the northeast room of the building, where the dairy bar will be installed, was started this week by John Rothenstein. Mr. Ellwood, who will take possession Sept. 1, also intends to remodel the hotel lobby and the rooms.

Mr. Ley said that he expects to have the building shingled within the near future.

Along with the hotel, the new manager also will take over the Postal Telegraph service which had been operated by Mr. Ley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ley and their two children will move into the Ley property on River street. They intend to have it remodeled.

SYNOPSIS

The author has attempted only to give incidents in home life in the country, drawing therefrom some moral lessons of practical worth.

No attempt has been made to portray recklessness in adventure, but rather cheerfulness in labor.

No sensational love scenes, but the pleasant scenes of a loving home and a peaceful neighborhood.

SCENE I. Country farm house. Time, morning. Mr. Happyway, stepping from the door, contemplates the glory of the morning.

SCENE II. Interior house. Annie, knocking at Johnnie's chamber door, sings the "Morning Call."

SCENE III. Diningroom. Family at breakfast.

SCENE IV. Sittingroom. Time, evening. The family, servants and neighbors gathered for a social evening.

Regarding Your Overcoat

S ELECTING AN OVERCOAT is a matter in which a man must suit himself. One thing we know, however, you can find just the Overcoat you want among our big selection of FIT FORMS, as well as our conservative models. Just the coat you are looking for, at exceptionally MODERATE prices, for it makes no difference whether you select a fit-form coat or a conservative model, it will be 100 cents to the dollar value, and as perfectly cut and carefully tailored. Don't delay buying your Winter Overcoat. Owing to the big shortage of materials and the limited supply of tailors, they are sure to be higher before the season is over. COME IN and let us show you our moderately priced Overcoats, at $18.50, $21, $25, $30, $45 and $50.

Women's Winter Coats = =

T HIS GREAT WINTER COAT EVENT comes after weeks yes, months of patient and careful planning and preparation to secure for you the very best values obtainable in the large New York markets, and, no doubt, you have heard people talking about it because of their smart style and low price. We do not base our sales on large profit, but rather pride ourselves on the large volume of business, especially from people of our larger surrounding cities, who find it very profitable to trade at our store at a great saving. They don't hesitate to tell us about it. Try our Coat Department and you'll save from 20 to 25 per cent. on the dollar. They are fashioned of Silvertone, Fur Fabrics, Silk Plush, Boliva, Polo Cloth, Tinseltone, priced at $18.50, $25.00, $29.50, $35.00, $35.50 and up to $55.00

Ask to See Our New Line of Dresses at $16.95 to $47.50

WARNER BROS. NON-RUST CORSETS are in a class by themselves. The several different hygienic styles feature this popular make and enable you to secure the exact corset service you require—$1.25 to $3.00.

Beyond all Question--The Greatest Theatrical Amusement Ever Created on Stage or Screen

NCT News

26 NOV 1919

A gigantic and swift moving thrill drama and pulsating love story that words are futile to describe.

Most Amazing
Theatrical Offering of the Age

A gripping story, every phase of which grows more intense until the final climax comes amidst the most gorgeous scenes ever staged and solves the mystery and intrigue of the greatest romance ever penned.

Three Months
In Chicago
An ALL-STAR Cast
Impressive Romantic

Its equal for powerful situations and sheer dramatic thrills and surprises has rarely been reached on the screen.

The Greatest
Photoplay on Earth.
Be sure to see it

It is the most startling arraignment in the history of drama since the beginning of time. It cost more than any ten plays you ever saw. There are 125,000 people in it--costing upward of $1,000,000, and was two years in the making. The plot annihilates time and space. Five stories in different eras of the worlds development merge into a mighty climax that keeps alive the hope of redemption in the heart of man and reveals the evolution of a thousand centuries.

A GREAT AND SPECTACULAR PHOTO PLAY
The greatest yet produced. grips the interest from the first to the last moment, it leaves much to carry away.
IT'S WONDERFUL, POWERFUL, IMPRESSIVE & ROMANTIC.
DON'T MISS IT!

Who's Your Tailor?

OR have you been buying the storebox clothing? The kind that curves in at the shoulders; the front rolls and wrinkles in fact gets entirely out of shape. The merchant who tells you that ready-to-wear clothing is just as good as clothes made expressly for you, is trying to deceive you. For while the quality may be identical, there can never be the service and wear that are attributes of clothes made over you; on you; for you, and never found in storebox clothing. Our clothes are made for those who are to wear them only after we know all of their physical peculiarities (and no two men are alike). Then we deliver the garments with the promise of permanent satisfaction or new garments for you. The result is correct and perfect-fitting clothes, costing you practically no more than the storebox kind. You have resolved time after time that you would not purchase any more ready-made clothing. Keep that resolution by buying your next suit from us. Come in and talk the matter over with us.

We do dyeing and cleaning of all kinds; repairing, pressing.

The first business deal of Haver Electric Supply was the sale of an electric farm light plant on December 1, 1922 to a farmer who lived three miles south of Newcomerstown.

Moved to South McKinley Avenue in 1930 where the business of selling farm light plants and pumps continued.

A line of appliances was added in 1938, making a move to larger headquarters imperative. Haver Electric Supply moved to its present location on April 1, 1940.

high smoke stacks. They not only made the bricks but erected the stacks. Some of the huge stacks at the smelters in Colorado were erected by this company.

J.D. Longshore operated a piano and organ factory for a time in a building where the Reeves Bank now stands.

In 1901 and 1902, a company was organized here to erect a sheet mill to be erected west of Newcomerstown and adjacent to the Pennsylvania Railroad. This was done and the plant operated for a few years but competition from larger plants became so keen that this little plant was forced to close.

About 1900, a gentleman named White arrived here from New York. He announced that he intended to build a city called White City just east of Newcomerstown.

He opened an office with several imported draftsmen and a surveying crew. Then to proceeded to take options on about 600 acres of good level farming land. Soon the surveyors were at work, and in no time the draftsmen had it all projected on paper; several parks, hundreds of building lots, and the lot along the railroad reserved for manufacturing. With this all done, Mr. White went to New York to secure the necessary financial aid, which sorry to say, was not forthcoming. The bubble burst, the farmers went on plowing their fields and that was the end of White City.

The James B. Clow Company had a plant at New Philadelphia, Ohio, manufacturing cast iron pipe. This plant burned and the company decided to build at Newcomerstown, after public spirited citizens subscribed sufficient funds to buy a location.

This plant started in 1895 and manufactured cast iron pipe in sizes varying from four inches to 48 inches. Later a gas steam radiator department was added.

In 1911, the pipe foundry was moved to Coshocton. The only reason assigned at that time was that Coshocton offered more money than Newcomerstown could afford. Later the radiator department was also moved, so today nothing but a few memories and a bunch of empty foundry buildings remain. (Today there are a number of industries sharing the building.)

The Kurz-Kasch Company, a branch of a Dayton firm located here a few years ago, providing employment for many. They manufactured molded plastic pieces.

Groovfold Fabricators started their plant here in 1963. They are located in what was once the Ford Garage.

The Globe Specialties, a commercial sewing company, started operations here several years ago.

The Simonds Saw and Steel Company now owns and operates the Heller Bros. Company, which the company had purchased the Rex File Company, a locally owned concern. Simonds acquired the plant in 1955 and changed the name to Heller Tool Co.

During the Heller Brothers' ownership, the plant was enlarged.

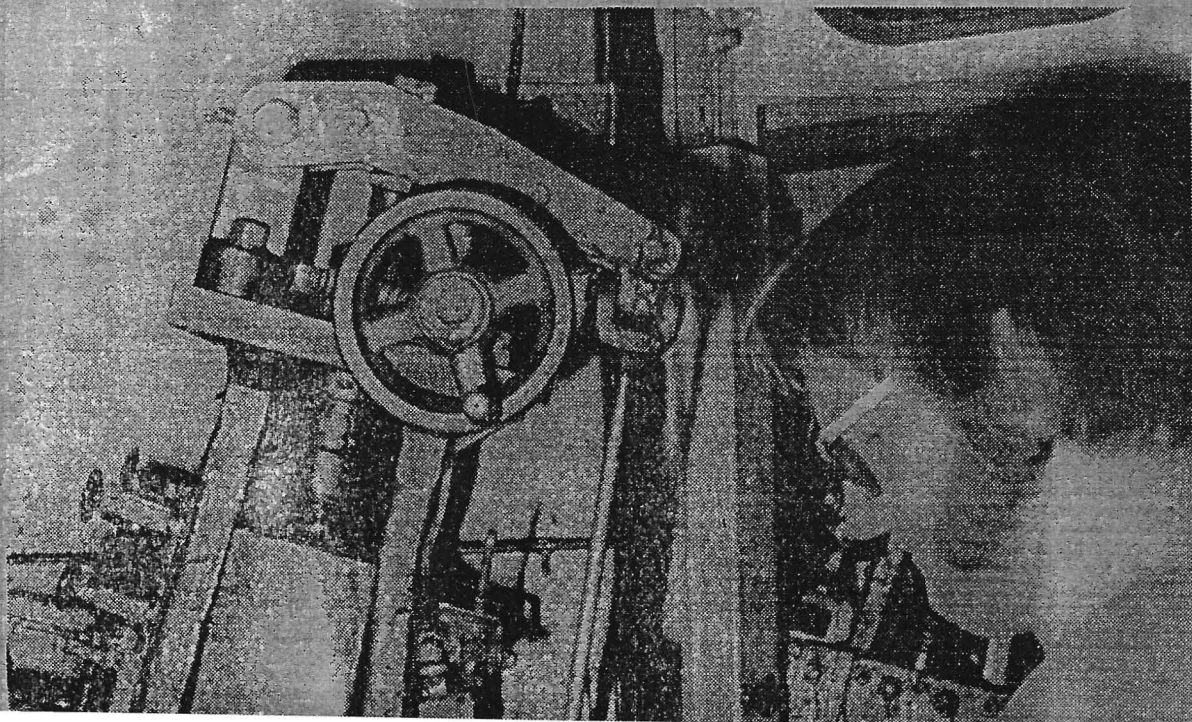

Heller Brothers Co. was founded in 1836 by Elias Heller in New Jersey. The firm came to Newcomerstown in 1917, taking over the old Rex File Co., which had been destroyed by fire.

The Seiberling Rubber Co., located its Plastic Division in Newcomerstown in 1954. It has been marked by steady growth. In 1959, an additional 20,000 square feet of floor space was added. In 1963 the plant was expanded again by the same amount. Employment and production have continued to rise steadily.

Weather-Seal, Inc., with home offices in Barberton, started production in its plant on West Street in February of this year (1964). The new plant is the most completely automated laminating plant in the country. It was designed to laminate plywood for the Eting Building Products Division of Weather-Seal, which produces a complete line of cabinets.

The Alchrome Products Company manufactures bath room and lavatory fixtures. This plant was started in 1946 by Herbert Smith, the present owner.

The Hillside Egg Farm, operated by Kenneth and Gwendolyn Johns, is something new for Newcomerstown. Operated on their farm approximately three and a half miles south of this town, they have a completely modern place with 6,000 hens, and one rooster. Daily production is now between 4,500 and 5,000 eggs per day, all sold to a large chain of stores in Ohio. It takes about five tons of food per week for the old birds.

Seilon Bolsters Growth Efforts

One of the most important aspects of Newcomerstown's progress and industry picture is Seilon Inc., a firm which came to the area with the aid of the Community Improvement Corp. and has already justified the effort by undergoing major expansions.

Formerly Seiberling Tire Division of Barberton, Seilon is a new name for a 44-year-old company, well-known in the tire industry, but now a power in the thermo-plastics industry.

Edward Lamb, of Toledo president and board chairman of Seilon, said in 1965, when the company accepted a deed from the CIC for expansion land:

"We have decided to place emphasis on our most promising plastics operations since the sale of our Seiberling Tire Division. We like what we see in Newcomerstown and plan to go all out in our expansion in this community."

Lamb, son of a Lake Erie fisherman, is considered one of the richest men in the United States. He wrote his autobiography, "No Lamb for Slaughter," a few years ago in which he explains his formula for making a million dollars. Today, his financial interests include controlling interest in 26 companies and minority interests in 20 more.

Backing up words with deeds, Vice President P.N. Wher Jr. later announced the construction of an additional office building and laboratory. This was in addition to the $2 million expansion program in the company's plastics division.

Seilon, as a diversified manufacturer, has production facilities in Batesville, Ark., where it produces shoe products and retread rubber. A subsidiary, the Hagerstown Rubber Co., manufactures heel, sole and other shoe products at Hagerstown, Md.

Seilon's subsidiary, Thomas Machinery Division, manufactures mechanized sugar cane and agricultural equipment at its plant in Thibodaux, La., and the division recently acquired control of an industrial equipment company, Production Welding, Ltd., at Kingston, Jamaica.

Seilon's plastics division here is a principal producer of extruded and laminated rigid plastics. It also manufactures a complete line of vinyl floor and automotive mats.

For the last 15 years, thermo-plastics have made tremendous strides in almost every field of building, industry and business. Most dramatic, possibly, have been thermo-plastic materials for building and associated fields. Known as the "wonder child" because of its relative newness, thermo-plastics can do things, at comparable costs, which no other material can do.

Seilon is recognized as the producer of the industry's most complete line of thermo-plastic sheet materials. Products include various types of rigid vinyls, styrene, polypropylene, polyurethane and a number of tailor-made plastics for special manufacturing demands.

These materials are used for anti-corrosive duct work and chemical-handling equipment, advertising signs, luggage, rigid vinyl house siding, athletic equipment, credit cards and a host of other applications.

The history of Seilon plant in Newcomerstown is one of rapid growth. The original plant opened in 1954, and sales were so large that an increase of 100 percent in plant space was made in 1958. In 1963, another 20,000 square feet were added. The 1965 addition included several thousand square feet devoted to research and development laboratories.

Lamb, in explaining the Seilon operation, said. "Our past operation at Seiberling Tire Co., in an outmoded plant in Barberton, ran 80 per cent production in tire products. High cost of operation and lack of diversification forced annual losses in production and sales, leading to the division's sale to the Firestone Rubber Co.

"Under the new company structure, our plastic division has been greatly expanded, and leadership, particularly in the rigid thermo-plastic sheet materials, is now a fact. Much of this has been accomplished through research and development procedures and techniques.

"Today, this division manufactures 30 different types of sheetings for use by the nation's leading plastic fabricators. Chances are your deck of plastic playing cards or the credit card you are carrying in your pocket originated right here at Seilon in Newcomerstown."

With up-to-the minute facilities producing modern materials for the world of tomorrow as well as today, the future of Seilon looks bright indeed.

Industries Vital To Community

Appreciation of Newcomerstown's industries was expressed this April when the Chamber of Commerce saluted them at the annual banquet. Gov. James Rhodes spoke and added his congratulations to the community for its efforts in bringing new plants to Newcomerstown and, therefore, to Ohio.

The Chamber has worked hard to get new industries, recognizing the fact that the community's well being depends upon these plants.

The Chamber organized a Community Improvement Corp., authorized by the Ohio legislature. Cecil Haver has headed the Chamber's industrial committee and Vernon Lee has served as legal counsel in this function.

The CIC, it is believed, was the first in Ohio to use its powers to bring a new factory to the community. It is also the first to obtain tax exemption from the Internal Revenue Service.

CIC OFFICERS are William Grant, president; C. E. Ashelman, vice president; Roy D. Fletcher, secretary-treasurer; John Atkinson and Robert Zimmerman, directors.

Following is a list of Newcomerstown industries:

- Alchrome Products Co.
- Buss Wilburt Vaults.
- Coshocton Dairy Cooperative, Inc.
- Faith Ellen Candies.
- Foundation Equipment Corp.
- Globe Specialties, Inc.
- Goshen Brick and Clay Corp.
- Groovfold, Inc.
- Heller Tool Co.
- Kurz-Kasch, Inc.
- Off Display Cones
- Seiberling Rubber Co.
- Weather-Seal, Inc.
