Newcomerstown Public Library
Attn: Genealogy Reference
123 East Main St.
Newcomerstown, Ohio 43832

I recently was in your library to research a piece of information from doing research on family genealogy. I had found that a branch of my family had settled in Newcomerstown Ohio on Marlatt's Run Road. I was interested in seeing this road and taking some pictures. The librarian was very helpful. A complete stranger in the library was kind enough to draw a map to allow me to find the Marlatt's Run Road. I did take some pictures and I am including that in the data I am sending. Many generous people helped me find the road. It is not marked, and I also took a picture of our GPS device which displayed the road name as Marlatt Run Road.

Marlatt/Marlett/Marlet/MarLett/Marlette/ Mallott/ Merlet and so on, are different spellings of the descendants of Josias Marle' of Roucy, Champagne County, France. My father spelled our name MarLett. I am a descendent of Josias Marle', as are the Marlatts of Newcomerstown. My research has been an endeavor of family, history, geography, and time. The information I am including is for others researching our family. Not all my facts are proven, so it is up to the individual to research and prove their own line. I am passing on information to aid others in following their branch.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Our Town

Marlatt's Run

BY GORDON DeMARCO

My friend, Harold Umstott, has again furnished some information that will be of interest to those who lived or once lived in the Marlatt's Run area. Marlatt's Run is not only an area southwest of Newcomerstown; it is a small stream that runs southwest of town and empties into Wills Creek just south of North Bend.

North Bend is the name given to the great horseshoe bend that Wills Creek makes east of Plainfield. In fact, Marlatt's Run follows Township roads 106, 188 and 819. If you wish to travel to and through Marlatt's Run, go south on River Street. Turn right after crossing the River Street Bridge. Take another right before going up Smith's Hill, and you are into the area of Marlatt's Run.

Part of Harold's letter reads, "Walter Angle's mother, Gertrude Welker Angle was born in a log cabin along Wills Creek in North Bend. My grandmother, Harriet Furney Umstott, was the attending midwife when Walter was born (1964).

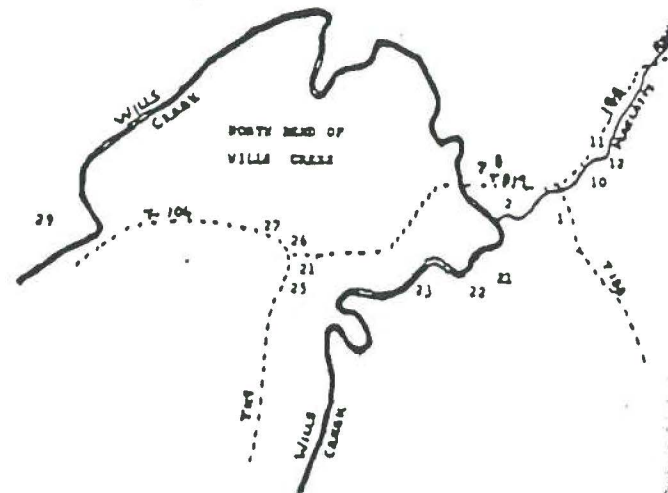

"There were several Marlatt homes in the early days. From one of the first cabin sites a three-year-old boy wandered away and was never found. Never a clue was found. I recall that there was a survey for a railroad to be run down Marlatt's Run from Newcomerstown to Zaner'sville. That caused a lot of excitement. The surveyors were boarded at the Umstott home.

"Right now, I'm working on a list of burials in the old Miskimen cemetery in North Bend. There is a strong likelihood that this cemetery will be moved because of the strip mining. Someday I hope to write a short history of the families in our family. There is a wealth of detail on the Huguenots driven from France and their struggle to make a new home in the United States. Three of my ancestors (uncles) were killed by Indians, one aunt was taken and lived out her life as an Indian squaw. One cousin's family was massacred by the Indians."

This is but a part of the wealth of information that Harold sent. I have made a map from one he sent showing the locations of some of the early inhabitants of Marlatt's Run. Perhaps you have some information on these hardy folks, and then, some may be relatives.

The numbers on the map shown are the key to who lived in this particular area or what it was used for. Please use the following key for determination of numbers and their meaning on the map:

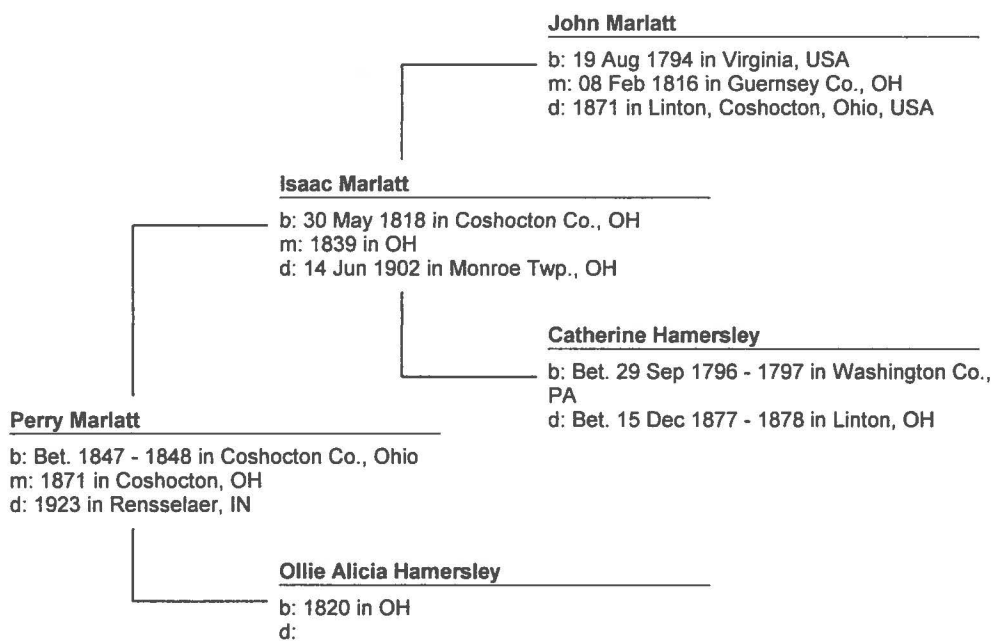

- 1) Samuel Umstott home, built 1865-70 and occupied by Umstott's until 1946.
- 2) Joseph Furney water-powered sawmill on Marlatt's Run. Built about 1840.
- 5) Birthplace of Gertrude Jane Welker Angle.
- 7) Old Pioneer Cemetery now abandoned and stones place in a pile.
- 10) Marlatt home, later occupied by John and Nellie Umstott.
- 11) Another water-powered sawmill. Possibly operated by the Marlatts and Hammersleys.
- 12) Early Marlatt home.
- 13) Home of John Keats family.
- 21) Early Marlatt home.
- 25) William Miskimen cemetery. Stones removed sometime after 1912.
- 26) James Miskimen settlement site. I have a 1906 copy of a photo that shows the house that was built in 1870, but this was preceded by a brick house and a log cabin.
- 27) The North Bend schoolhouse.
- 29) Site of old Plainfield. Jacobsport lay along the creek near this site. Present day Plainfield lies north and west of this old site.

was $10 per hundred. The pork was sold at Baltimore for six cents. This occurred before pork was packed at Cincinnati.

He was one of the earliest justices of his township. While serving in this capacity he tried a case once with rather unusual surroundings. Wills creek was not yet bridged, and the only means of crossing was by canoe. On the day set for the trial the stream was greatly swollen, and the witnesses were on the other side and could not be prevailed on to cross. The squire determined the case should go on, and proceeded with it then and there; he on one side of the stream, the witnesses on the other, a roaring flood between.

Thomas Johnson, one of the earliest settlers of the township, was among the most prominent men of the county in his day. He was born in the parish of Glentubert, Monaghan county, Ireland, on the 16th of March, 1783. Early in youth he manifested a great desire to go to America, and urged his father to emigrate. He, being a very quiet, unobtrusive man, with quite a family of young children, could not think of bringing them to the wilds of America. Thomas remained with his father till he was twenty-four years of age and had brothers grown up. He then told his father he was determined to go to the new world, and urged his suit with so much ardor that his parents could no longer withhold their consent. He left Ireland in 1806, and landed in New York with but one sovereign in his pocket. He there met with Joseph T. Baldwin, of Newark, New Jersey, who offered to employ him. He remained with Mr. Baldwin for three years. In 1808 he married Sarah Parker. About this time his parents, his three brothers, Richard, William and Robert, and his only sister, Margaret, joined him in Newark. Thomas then determined that Newark was not the place for his father's family to settle, and in 1809 they came to Coshocton county, and located in Linton township. Thomas bought from Esaias Baker the northeast quarter of section 10, where now stands the village of Plainfield. Richard settled on the southwest quarter of the same section. Robert entered the northeast quarter of section 17, and William the northwest quarter of section 15, adjoining.

Thomas and Richard both served in the war of 1812, the latter dying a year or two after his return. Thomas was perhaps the first justice of the peace in the township. His first docket, still preserved, in the possession of his son, J. R. Johnson, bears date April 7, 1814. The first entry, of that date, records a suit brought by John Lawrence against Jacob Mapal, to recover ten dollars. The entry shows that bail was given by the defendant for the full amount and the costs. In 1818, he was commissioned associate judge of Coshocton county, a position which he held till the time of his death. He was probably the first foreigner naturalized in Coshocton county, his certificate being dated December 16, 1814. Mr. Johnson possessed business qualifications of a high order. His name is connected with many enterprises of his township and county, both public and private. He died August 20, 1840, after a protracted sickness. His widow survived him almost twenty-two years, dying at the old homestead, March 29, 1862. His father also survived him eighteen days, dying September 7, 1840, in the eighty-first year of his age.

Five residents of the township had served in the revolutionary war, namely, John McCune, William Williams, Fought Shafter, Amos Stackhouse and Israel Buker. The following carried arms in the war of 1812: Richard Fowler, William R. Clark, Laken Wells, Francis Smith, Richard Johnson, Thomas Johnson, John Glenn, James Laurie, James R. Williams, William Hudson, Robert Platt, John Portmess, George Magness, Duga Patterson, Robert Harbison, Sr., Rezin Baker, James McCune, Basil Baker, Samuel Banks, Eli O. H. Shyhock, Peter Rambo, Abraham Marlatt. There may have been others whose names can not now be ascertained. R. W. McClain and Robert Harbison were soldiers in the Mexican war.

Dr. Thomas Heslip was among the first physicians. Drs. Collins, Hawkins and Heslip Williams also practiced the healing art here quite early.

The first windmill in use was made by John Vernon and owned first by Basil Baker, afterward by Edward Wiggins. It was a rude affair, having wooden cogs. Before the introduction of MCCAMMANT ———, Lafayette township; carpenter; postoffice, West Lafayette; born October 25, 1824, in Brooke county, West Virginia; son of James McCammant, native of Washington county, Pennsylvania; raised on a farm, but also learned the gunsmith's trade, and worked at that and farming, until 1852, when he learned the carpenter trade, and conducted both trades and run the farm until recently, but gives his entire time at present to carpentering. He left West Virginia, in 1837, and went to Perry county, remaining until 1839; then, for a short time, lived in Muskingum county, and settled in Lafayette township, in 1840. He was married, April 8, 1847, to Miss Rachel A. Shafer, daughter of Peter Shafer, of Albany county, New York. They have eight children, viz: Mary, William W., married to Melissa Shroyer; Sarah E., married to Samuel Garselin; Emily J., Josephine, Ida, James and George Edgar.

MCCCLAIN GEORGE, Linton township; farmer; born in Lafayette township, November 27, 1837; son of Isaac and Elizabeth (Stringer) McClain, and grandson of Thomas McClain, one of the earliest pioneers of Lafayette township. In 1872 Mr. McClain moved from Lafayette to Linton township. He was married in 1870 to Louisa Summers, daughter of John L. and Margaret (Michael) Summers, now of Muskingum county. His children are Ada, Maggie, Edward, Lewis and Clarinda, deceased.

MCCCLAIN H. F., Plainfield, Linton township; grocer and saloon; postoffice, Plainfield. Mr. McClain was born April 23, 1853, in Coshocton county, Ohio. He was raised on the farm, and followed that occupation until twenty-two years of age. He was married July 18, 1875, to Miss Lydia Hootman, of this county. They became the parents of two children—Sophronia E. and Freddie. In 1875 Mr. McClain removed to Plainfield, Ohio, and started a general grocery and saloon. He has successfully followed the business ever since.

MCCCLAIN RICHARD, deceased, Lafayette township; was born in Linton township, in November, 1823, and was married in 1845, to Miss Catherine Elson, of this township. They have had ten children, as follows: Jennie; Seth, deceased; Ella, Arthur, Lizzie, Lyde, Noah; Laura, deceased; Charles and Jesse. Mr. McClain was a man of note in this township, having held numerous township offices, and was county treasurer two terms. In a newspaper account of his life, it is said that his youth and manhood were passed at a time when men were honest, and integrity and uprightness of character were prized jewels among men. He possessed these in an uncommon degree, as evidenced by the high appreciation of his neighbors and friends throughout the county. His courage and patriotism were co-equal, and he defended his country with the same devotion to duty that actuated him in his eventful and successful life. When a young man, he enlisted in the Third Ohio infantry, and with other comrades from this place, served in the war with Mexico, in 1846-48. At the breaking out of the rebellion, in 1861, the firing on Fort Sumter aroused him, and he was the first in this county to organize a company, which served three months as part of the Sixteenth Ohio, with distinction. Upon his return, he immediately assisted in recruiting and organizing the Fifty-first Ohio, one of the best regiments in the service. He was elected major at the organization, and was afterward promoted to lieutenant colonel, and then to colonel, after the promotion of Colonel Stanley Matthews. He participated with his comrades in the battle of Stone River, and others of the campaign. At Chickamauga he was captured, and after one year spent in Libby prison, was exchanged and returned to the command of his regiment, serving until the close of the war. Upon his return home, he was nominated and elected treasurer on the Democratic ticket, though he had been an uncompromising Republican. When his term expired he was re-elected by being the candidate of both parties, which was sufficient recommendation of the faithful discharge of his duties. He was one of the most efficient officers the county ever had. Colonel McClain died of malarial fever, March 31, 1880.

MCCCLAIN THOMAS, Monroe township; was born February 15, 1826, in Lafayette township, Coshocton county; son of John and Elizabeth (Maple) McClain, and grandson of Thomas and Massa (Marts) McClain, who were natives of Ireland, and of Jacob (Sagatha) Maple, who were natives of Germany. Mr. McClain was born and brought up on a farm, and educated in district schools. He lived in his native place till the age of thirty-four, when he removed to Tuscarawas county, where he followed farming and stock dealing for four years; then came to Monroe township, Coshocton county, where he is now the owner of a neat little farm of about 100 acres. He was married to Miss Ruhama Marlatte, April 18, 1847, daughter of Abraham and Susan (Hamersly) Marlatte, and granddaughter of Michael and Catharine Hamersly, who were natives of England. Their children were John, Jeremiah, and Thomas, deceased; Seth is married to Almeda Severns, a farmer in Jefferson township, this county; Anderson, Christopher, Jacob, Mary J., Martha E., and George H. Pendleton are at home. Benton C., Andrew B., and Margaret have also deceased.

INTERESTING SKETCH

Of Fronteer Life In Ohio---Also War Reminiscences.

A WOMAN 108 YEARS OLD

Born in Guernsey County. Now Living at Newark. Hale and Hearty.
Relates Life-Story.

The following facts of interest to our readers were brought out in a newspaper reporter's recent interview with Mrs. Emeline Alberts, a lady of extreme age residing at Newark O. She said:

"My name is Emeline Alberts. I am a daughter of Abraham and Susan Marlatt and was born Mar. 22, 1801, on Marlatts Run, Guernsey county, a few miles southwest of Newcomerstown. I am the oldest of six children—Jacob, Abraham, Andrew, Mary and Ruth; all dead but myself.

"I was married in 1819 to John Alberts, who died about 38 years ago. One child was born to us, George, who lives here. I came to Licking county with my husband long before the war. When the war broke out I cooked in the camps for the soldiers, and knew a great many of them, and was well acquainted with General Sherman, and have cooked his meals many times during his stay here.

"I had an uncle, Thos. Fuller, who fought in the battles of Concord, Lexington and Bunker Hill, in the Revolution, and have talked with him about the hardships endured by the Continental soldiers. He also told me of those memorable words of old Gen'l Israel Putnam, when he said, 'Boys, don't fire until you see the whites of the eyes of the red-coats.' Since talking with you that all comes back so clear that it seems but yesterday.

"After the close of the Revolution uncle Thomas fought in the war of 1812, and took part in the battle of New Orleans and fought under General Andrew Jackson.—Three days after he returned from the war he was drowned while crossing Limestone Falls creek near Newcomerstown, in a birch canoe. His body was never recovered.

"I remember distinctly the building of the canal through this section, and every one of my uncles worked in digging the ditch. We were induced to come to Newark by reason of the glowing accounts we had of the town by others, and we drove here in a covered wagon. It certainly was wild in those days Newark was practically a fort, the country a forest and the woods filled with Indians.

"The redskins would skulk about and at times were very warlike.—The pioneers of those days would build forts, and several families would get inside the stockade and provide themselves with eatables and ammunition and fight for days at a time. I have been in more than one fort fight against the Indians, and I don't want any more of it in mine.

"My father was a farmer, and while we were living on the old home place in Guernsey county, I can tell you it was bloodcurdling at night to hear the bears and wolves and 'painters' crawl around the cabin doors, and wail, the most pitiful sounds one can imagine. Nothing like it can be imagined, by those who have never heard it. Big game was plentiful in those days, and we always had bear meat, venison and other wild game on hand to eat constantly. It certainly does my heart good to get my pipe and smoke it, and reflect back over the old times. Yes, I smoke and have all my life. My hearing is as good as the average person, and I can understand every word you say. My eyesight is splendid. I seldom, if ever, use glasses, and could really get along without ever using them.

"I do all my own housework, cook my meals, and eat heartily. I bet you that few people eat more on an average than I do."

Mr. Noah Lehman of this city informs us that his wife, Mrs. Lucinda Davis and Mrs. Ellen Shaffer of Newcomerstown, and Mrs. Hester Torner and Mrs. Susan Loos of Coshocton county are all nieces of Mrs. Alberts, whose life-sketch is given in this article.

MARY E. WEST.

Mrs. Mary E. West (nee Lyons), wife of Thomas West, died on Wednesday of last week, Apr. 28, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Johnson of this city, at the age of 79 years, 8 mos. and 28 days. She was married to Mr. West, Aug. 29, 1850, and nine children were born to them, four of whom, together with the husband, survive—Rev. Wesley West, Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Mrs. Elma Williamson and Mrs. Lea Johnson. There are also 10 grand and 6 great grand children. All of her life was spent in Tuscarawas county, 40 years of which she lived at Canal Dover. She possessed a genial disposition, was a devoted wife, a loving mother, a true friend and an obliging neighbor. The funeral services were conducted last Friday forenoon at the residence of Mrs. Johnson, by Rev. O. C. Kramer.

DIED THIS MORNING.

Mr. James W. Robinson, after three years illness, died at his home in this city, this Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock, of heart disease, at the age of 67 years. He was married to Margaret Graham 46 years ago last November. Six children were born to them, two of whom are dead, Mrs. Jas. Stewart and Mrs. A. J. Wilkin. He is survived by his wife and four children—Mrs. E. Sells, Mrs. E. C. Rose, James R. and Beers Robinson, all of this city. Funeral services will be conducted at the Presbyterian church, (of which the deceased was a member.) on Friday, the 7th, at 10 a. m., by Rev. B. R. King, pastor.

POSTMASTER DENT

Suffers a Second and Fatal Stroke of Paralysis.

Postmaster R. F. Dent of this city, who was stricken with paralysis four years ago the coming December, received another stroke on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst., which proved fatal a few hours later. The time of the funeral had not been set when we went to press at nine o'clock this (Wednesday) morning.

Mr. Dent was appointed Postmaster 7 years ago last July, under President McKinley's administration, and reappointed three years ago. During his illness the duties of the office largely devolved upon his faithful wife, who was assisted by her son Bert and others. Mr. Dent rendered what assistance he could, and was always cheerful, patient and kind. He was a staunch Republican and for many years a member of the county central committee. He was also a member of the Odd Fellow and Pathfinders orders, and was presented an honorary 25-year medal by the former society a few years ago. Mr. Dent had many friends here and throughout the county, and was one of our most prominent and highly respected citizens.

Robert Franklin Dent was the son of George H. and Maria Dent and was born Jan. 7, 1851, being therefore 54 years, 9 months and 3 days old on the date of his death. On Dec. 31, 1872, he was united in marriage to Mary Nugent, daughter of Wesley Nugent, and to them was born one child, Byron E. Dent. Mr. Dent is survived by his wife and son of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Byron Roberts of Topeka, Kans.

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Dent, who has ministered so attentively and tenderly to her invalid husband the past few years, and assumed the duties of the office, that have been a constant strain on her nerves and caused her many an anxious moment. It is hoped she may bear up stoutly and live out her allotted time, blessing and being blessed.

Death of Pearl Marlatt.

Word was received here last Thursday morning announcing the death of Miss Pearl Marlatt which occurred at the City Hospital in Clarksburg, W. Va., at 6 o'clock a. m., Oct. 5, 1905. The young lady was the daughter of David Marlatt of Marlatt's Run, and was about 22 years of age. Four years ago she left this city for Clarksburg where she has been engaged as a dress maker. Some time ago she was afflicted with appendicitis which steadily grew worse until finally an operation became necessary. At the City Hospital where she was taken the most skillful means were employed to prolong her life, without avail. Her father, accompanied by Undertaker Smith of West Lafayette went to Clarksburg for the remains, arriving here Friday at midnight. Funeral services were conducted Saturday at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. C. W. Harshman, at the home of the deceased's sister, Mrs. Ross Miller, where a large concourse of friends gathered to pay their last tribute of respect. The floral offerings were numerous and of pretty design; among them being a floral piece from the nurses at the hospital, and a wreath with "Pearl" inwoven in flowers from her family. The remains were taken to the Schweitzer cemetery, south of town, where they were interred by the side of her mother who died about 10 years ago. A particularly sad feature of the young lady's death is that she was to have been married in a few weeks. Among those present at the funeral were her father David Marlatt, and all her brothers and sisters, Emmet Marlatt and the Mesdames Ross Miller and Wm. Mullet of this city, Mrs. Jacob Smith of the Plains, and Isaac Marlatt of Columbus.

THE UNFORESEEN.

Young Man Cut Off In the Promise and Bloom of Life.

How oft are we reminded of the fact that "man proposes, but God disposes." In the affairs of life we plan to do this, that and the other thing, and all runs smoothly for a while. Nothing but sunshine, prosperity and success crown our lives, and we rejoice in the providences which have been so much in our favor. Life is full of hope, charm and expectancy. The young man has secured a good position, he has married a fine young lady, their home is blessed with a dear little daughter, and all is peace, sunshine, and prosperity. The youthful, energetic, aspiring husband had struggled hard, was faithful to duty, and was promoted from fireman to engineer, but on the very day of his promotion he was firing his engine for the last time; he was getting ready to pull the throttle and to assume higher responsibilities; but he must finish the day as fireman before entering upon his new duties. On this day (Wednesday, Oct. 4,) so bright, so auspicious to him, John C. Roseborough was standing on the tender of a Pittsburg & Lake Erie Ry. engine that had just left McKees Rocks, Pa., shoveling coal, when his head struck a coal tipple, so seriously injuring him that he died a few moments later without recovering consciousness.

Mr. Roseborough was born in Newcomerstown, Jan'y 11, 1880, and was married to Miss Phoebe Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Robinson of Bernice, May 13, 1902. His parents are dead, and he is survived by wife, daughter, one brother and four sisters. The sisters are—Mrs. John Browning of Uhrichsville, Mrs. Calvin McCutcheon of Ronneys Point, W. Va., and the Misses Linna and Pearl Roseborough of this city. The brother is Curtis Roseborough, who resides at McKees Rocks, Pa., and is an engineer on the same road on which his brother was killed. Curtis was married last winter to Miss Stiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stiles of Canal Dover. Since the sad accident that has occurred to his brother, Mr. Roseborough thinks he will quit engineering and accept a clerical position that has been offered him by the railroad company.

MRS. SIFFERT DIES.

Mrs T. C. Siffert, whose illness was mentioned in these columns last week, died in a hospital at Canton last Saturday. From the first it was feared that her chances of recovery were very few. Dr. Siffert, assisted by several of his friends in the medical profession, gave his wife constant attention, exerting every effort in the power of human skill to sustain life and promote recovery, but to no avail. During the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Siffert in Newcomerstown, the lady's kindly womanly qualities drew around her a large circle of friends who were deeply pained to learn of her death, and whose hearts ache in sympathy for the bereaved husband. A number of friends from this city attended the funeral services which were held at Canton, Tuesday. CALLED HOME.

Stella A. Martin was born July 10, 1891, and died May 2, 1911, at East Liverpool, O., aged 19 yrs. 9 mos. and 22 days. She joined the Church of Christ at Bethel, May 16, 1906, and remained a faithful member until death. She was a daughter of W. R. Martin near Post Boy. She was gentle, lovable and a favorite among her associates. In Oct. 1892, her mother died, but a few years later her father married Mrs. Lena Ullman, who proved to be a loving mother to his four lonely children. One of the saddest features in the death of this promising young lady was the fact that she was to have been married June 14th to Mr. Harry Blake, an exemplary young man of Derwent, O.—But such was not to be, for God, in His infinite love, saw fit to call her home. She had been employed at East Liverpool several months and was suddenly taken ill of measles. Her parents hastened to her bedside, did all they could for her, but all to no avail. Services were held in East Liverpool, May 3rd, at the home of her uncle, where a host of friends paid their last respects.—The remains were then brought to her home near People's church, where services were again held, on May 4th, 2 p. m., conducted by Elder W. A. Allison of the Bethel charge, who spoke encouraging words to the living. The house was crowded to overflowing. Next morning the body was taken to their old home in Monroe co., where another service was conducted at Creighton Ridge chapel by Rev. Fogle, and interment made beside her mother. She leaves father, step-mother, 3 sisters, 2 step-sisters and a half-brother, besides many friends to mourn her early demise. Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep. *
