FOREWORD

Through this book we wish to commemorate recent events of the Newcomerstown High School, which was pioneered 58 years ago, just as this year commemorates the first high school pioneered 300 years ago.

DEDICATION

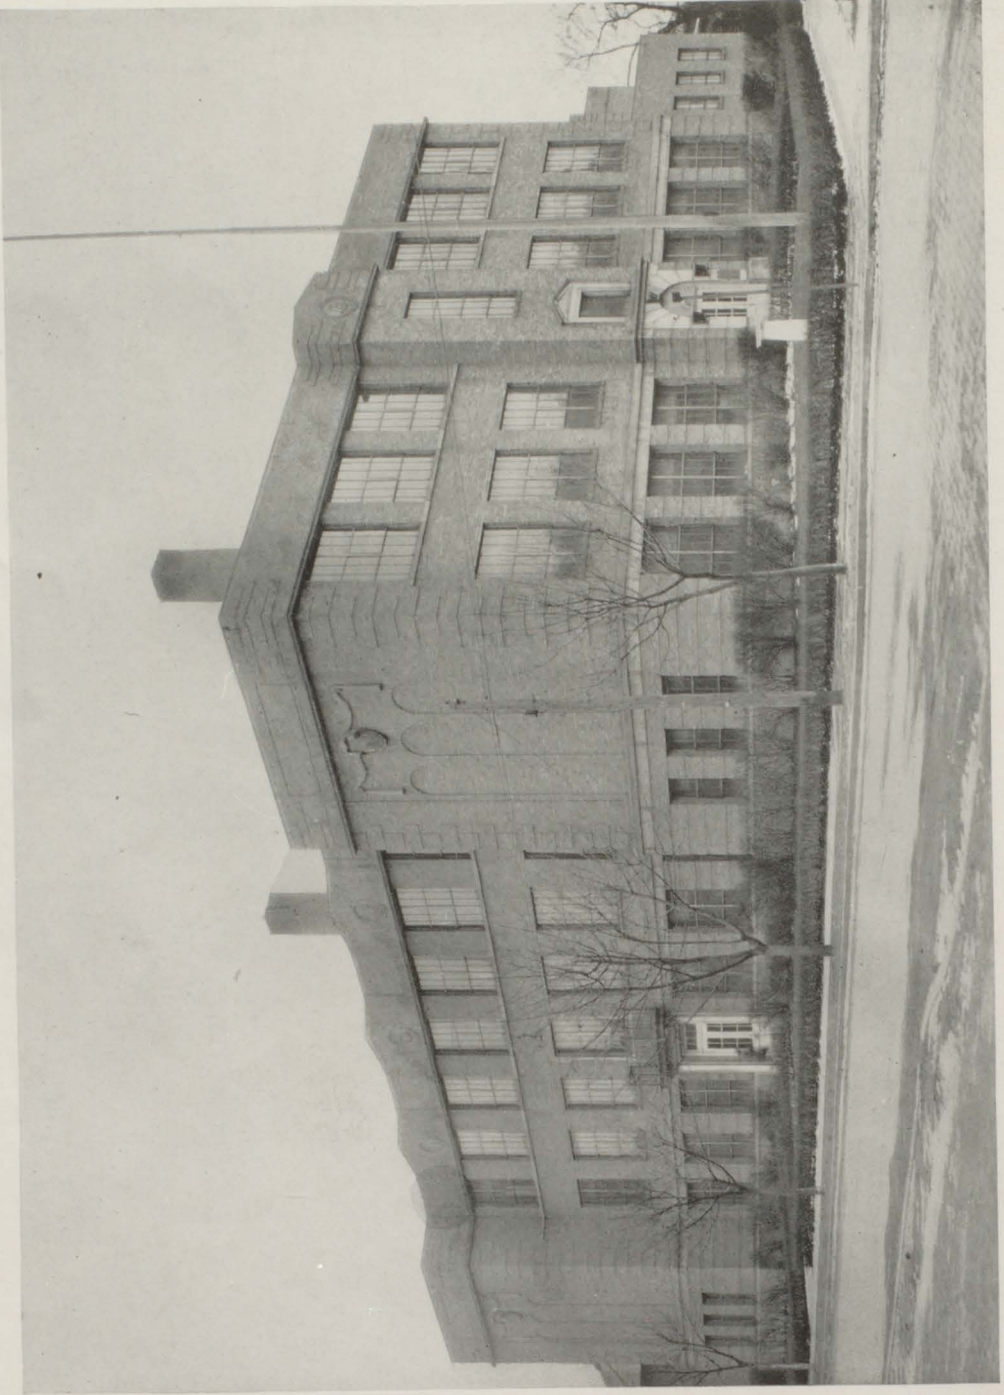

To Miss Christina Macmillan, who has so willingly given her services toward making this yearbook a success, we dedicate this issue of the Newcosean.

Senior Class Prophecy

Cleveland, Ohio, May 17, 1950

Carl Daugherty, owner of the controlling interest in the Ohio Gas and Electric Company, has called the class of '35 together. They are now in the banquet hall of the Hotel Sovereign in Cleveland. Gene Matthews, by the way, is the manager of this hotel. As we open the doors Mr. Daugherty is speaking.

"As you know I have called you, the class of '35, together at this time not only for a reunion but also for the marriage of Evelyn Barcroft and myself. As you all appear ill at ease I will introduce you, one at a time. As I call your name, will you please stand."

"First is Betty Lauer, my private secretary; Opal Fisher, a waitress in the Peerless Confectionery; Billy Miller, whose profession is made easy to tell by his beautiful set of cauliflowered ears; Mary K. Rodenstine and Lavonne Kees, models in Vernon Powell's fashion show; Nelva Myers, who is married to John Foust, pastor of the Lutheran Church in Newcomerstown; Harriet Opphile, librarian in Ohio State Library; Mary Pappas, bookkeeper in Derr's Veneral Store at Plainfield; Retha Richmond and Ruth Bradshaw, campaign managers for Grover Moore, Republican nominee for President; Marjorie Schlupp, head nurse in the dental department at Lima; Ruth Schiarb, whose picture you have often seen on bill boards advertising Kissproof lipstick; Mary Simoni, who is teaching school in the northern part of Siberia; Katherine Trendly, who took the position left vacant when Miss Conn abdicated; Thelma Wiandt, a snake charmer in a circus side show; Ruth Widder, manager of Newcomerstown's new theatrical emporium; Willard Beal, who plays first base for the Giants; Paul Caruthers, recently promoted to the rank of General in our army; Willard Bond, owner of Bond's File Shop; Carl Boltz, janitor at N. H. S.; David Davis, owner of a chain of drug stores; Bernard Hartman, who helps his father-in-law in the slaughter house; Yulah Miller, the red-headed siren of the screen; Edward McCall, who took the place of the late Stepin Fetchit; Edna Alexander, a nurse in the Coshocton Hospital; Paul Taylor, who is married to Jean Richmond; Howard Norman, Ben Tidrick, and John Taylor, a trio salvaged from the Boy's Glee Club of '35 and managed by Ralph Reed; Virgil Peoples, world's champion flagpole sitter; Robert Wolfe, a doctor in Newcomerstown; Hilda Chapman, Janet Lacey and Rachel Neighbor, violinists in the Boston Symphony Orchestra; Mae Draper, comedian of the stage and screen; Ruth Early and Helen Hill, stewardesses on the airlines of Casteel, Parsons, and Company; Edna Hothem, instructor in a cheerleader's school; Donald Courtwright, a son of the soil; Marvin Derr, a mechanic who acquired his experience at the wrong end of a crank; Robert Elliott, a salesman for the Gist Ford Motor Sales Company; Delbert Gadd, warden at Sing Sing; Paul Hammersley and Frederick Hootman, guards at the same prison; Lawrence Dayton, Superintendent of Bond's File Shop; Lloyd Maloy, history teacher at N. H. S.; Paul Murphy, a simple country lad; Helen Booth and Laura Gadd, owners of a beauty parlor in Newcomerstown; Carl Groff, manufacturer of Groff's educated hot dogs; Woodrow Coutts, former all-American quarterback at O. S. U.; John Schlupp, who followed in his father's profession as a lawyer; Virgil Hogue, who retired as soon as he graduated and hasn't changed yet; James Hillegas, man about town; Max Corbett, author of the book "What My Farm Would Look Like If the Seeds Would Come Up"; Betty Meyer, Superintendent of the Massillon Insane Asylum; Gene Hackenbracht, who turned his father's farm into a night club and after the finance company foreclosed on the mortgage they reopened it and made him master of ceremonies; Mary Burdette, who holds down the job of professional housewife; Ruth Silverthorne and Mabel Craigo, well known evangelists; and Richard McMillen, who plays the guitar in a hill-billy band.

And now that you all know each other we will proceed with the banquet.

—By Ben Tidrick

LOYALTY

We're loyal to you N. H. S.
We're orange and black, N. H. S.
We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land
For we know you have sand.
N. H. S. Rah! Rah!

So keep that in mind N. H. S.
The rest are behind N. H. S.
Our Flag is our fame protector
On classes, that we may do great things
For our own N. H. S.

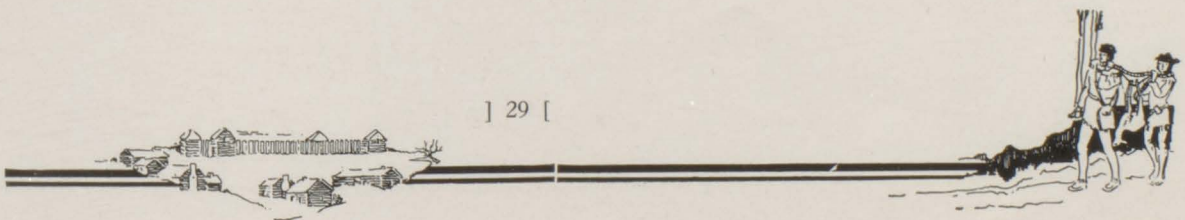

Fling out that dear old flag of orange and black
Lead on, ye Seniors and ye Juniors, ahead,
Like classes of thrift and courage
Placing reliance, shouting defiance
N. H. S.

Amid the broad green fields that nourish our land
For honest labor and for courage we stand
And unto thee we pledge our heart and hand
Dear old Newcomers High School Grand.

Football Review

Coach Carl F. Schroeder had a light but fast team this year and the squad of 1934 was the best material and strongest team that N. H. S. has produced since 1929.

Through the untiring efforts of the coach and the fighting spirit of the boys, much was accomplished. The plays he gave them were very effective in outsmarting the skill of their opponents.

Sacrificing luxuries and good times were the hardest part of the season's work, but the boys knew Coach Schroeder was giving them beneficial advice and they observed these things. Due to the respect for the coach, the boys avoided breaking training rules, thus the season was the most successful one that he has directed here.

The football squad appreciates all that has been done for the progress of the team and hope the future team much success.

Coach Schroeder has been the first Newcomerstown coach to produce All-County material. Gadd, McCall, and Dansby were honored with All-County positions. Coker and W. Coutts received Honorable Mention.

The Seniors hope the coach much success in his future coaching career.

FOOTBALL GAMES

The Newcomerstown Trojans lost the season's opener at Dover. The score was 26-0 but does not indicate the playing of the Trojans. Dover outweighed them but didn't outplay them. Jones' punting was the feature of that game.

With renewed strength the Trojans beat Caldwell a week later 18-6. Neff sparkled with two long runs which resulted in two touchdowns. Coutts scored also on a line plunge. The blocking and tackling that the Trojans performed kept Caldwell from threatening to score more than once.

The Trojans treked to Mt. Vernon only to return with a 13-0 defeat. The Yellow Jackets were more powerful but the Trojans reached the ten yard line twice. Scoring power was all that was lacking.

The Trojans were masters of the field when they faced the green and white team from Millersburg. Timely passing and dynamic plunging were the features of the game. Buster Coker shocked the fans with a 32 yd. spurt around his own right end. Coutts and Coker accounted for the two touchdowns and McCall added the extra points from placement. Score 14-0.

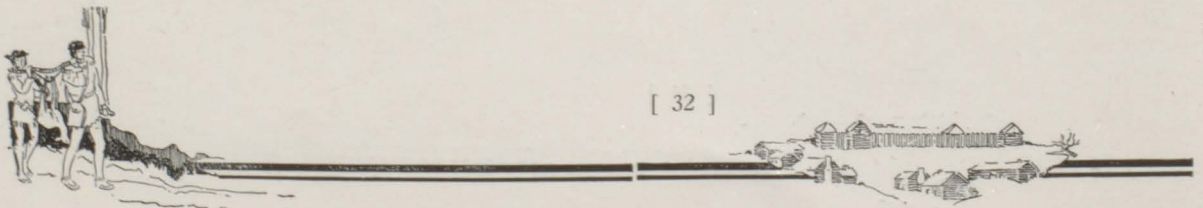

The team went to Dennison and fought them off their feet the first half until they got to the Dennison one yard line where they fumbled. From then on the tide turned and Dennison won 24-0.

Homecoming Day!! The Trojans faced an undefeated team when they played Carrolton. Neff, a peetfoot half back, intercepted a pass and ran for 65 yards and a touchdown, Gadd's kick from placement failed. Not once did the Trojans allow Carrolton to threaten their goal line, the game was played in a sea of mud. Score 6-0.

Inspired by the former victory, the Trojans defeated Uhrichsville 7-6. Uhrichsville scored a touchdown in the first quarter but the try for point failed. The Trojans began their march in the third quarter to the 53 yard line. From there Coker broke through tackle for 47 yards and a touchdown. McCall's kick from placement won the game. This was the first game won on foreign soil since 1929.

The Trojans won their next game from New Concord. Jones recovered a blocked punt for a Safety in the first quarter for the half to end 2-0. The Schroedermen started the third quarter with determination. Derr blocked a punt and McCall picked it out of the air and raced 40 yds. for a touchdown. He converted the extra point. Gadd recovered a fumble for a touchdown and Neff made one of his sensational runs which ended with a touchdown. McCall's try for point was good. Score 22-0.

The fighting Trojans drew the curtains on their gridiron warfare when they lost to a much heavier Navarre eleven, 12-0.

Basketball Review

Basketball season began with three letter men back, namely Captain Ed McCall, Paul Hammersley, and John Fletcher. The coach worked hard to produce a good team on the available material. The season was overshadowed with defeats but the individual playing of some showed much improvement. Every game showed a marked improvement in the style of the team as well as that of individuals. The boys won their sectional game at the Class "A" Tournament and were entitled to meet another team at the District Semi-Finals, but they lost the second game.

VARSITY BASKETBALL GAMES

Dec. 7—The Trojans won their opener by a score of 14-11 over West Lafayette. It was hard fought throughout. Fletcher led the scoring.

Dec. 8—The squad trekked to Dennison and lost 19-16. The Trojans led until the last few minutes of play and then slumped. Derr and Fletcher were high scorers.

Dec. 14—The Schroedermen swamped Senecaville 35-24. Leading 17-16 at half-time the Trojans started a scoring spree which was never headed. McCall and Knezevich were high scorers with 11 and 9 points respectively.

Dec. 15—The Trojans held Caldwell to one field goal to end the half 19-5. Attacking the second half with renewed strength they drubbed Caldwell 35-19. McCall and Fletcher were high scorers with 16 and 11 points respectively.

Dec. 21—The Trojans were not familiar with playing against a zone defense and as a result the Cambridge Brownies beat them 42-15.

Jan. 4—Getting off to a poor start the Trojans rallied in the last half to hold Carrolton 31 all. In the overtime period the Trojans went scoreless. Score 37-31. Fletcher and Derr were high scorers.

Jan. 5—Byesville having height advantage downed the Trojans 24-19. McCall held scoring honors for the Trojans.

Jan. 11—Millersburg defeated the Trojans 25-21 in a hard fought game. They were not impressive the second half and the Trojans cut their lead but were unable to out-point them. Derr was high scorer.

January 12—Sugarcreek downed the Trojans 50-36. Having a 41-4 advantage at half-time they were held to 9 points while the Trojans amassed 32 in the second half.

January 18—Fouls played a disastrous part for the Trojans and Dennison won 34-25. McCall and Derr were high scorers with 10-8 points respectively.

January 19—Surprising the highly touted Tigers of Strasburg with a hard fought game, the Trojans did not experience the humiliation that was expected. The Tigers were at their best to win 25-13.

January 26—Emerging from a long losing streak, the Trojans took an early lead over New Concord and were never headed. Score 36-30.

February 1—Treking to Pleasant City the Trojans lost 22-19. The Trojans didn't find the basket until it was almost too late. Scoring honors went to McCall with 11 points.

February 8—The Trojans were downed by the Quakers of New Philadelphia 33-25. The game was close throughout but the Quakers found the hoop a little more than did the Trojans. Fletcher held scoring honors with 14 points.

February 15—The Trojans journeyed to Uhrichsville only to return with a 41-25 defeat. The rangy Gold and Black team was able to keep the ball most of the time.

Tournament—The Trojans defeated Barnesville at the Sectional Tournament 47-28. McCall and Knezevich were high scorers with 18 and 12 points respectively.

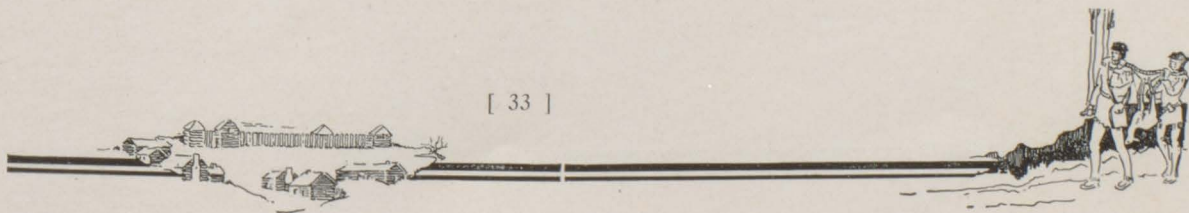

The Schroedermen fell behind in the last half of the Toronto game in the District Finals and were defeated 50-30.

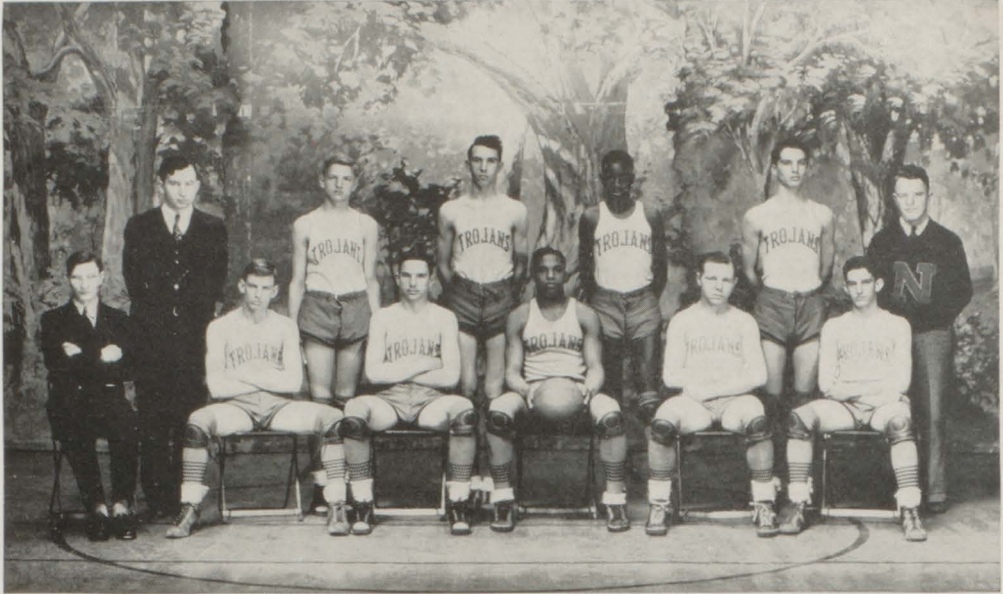

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Beginning late in the season with no outstanding players, Coach Wayne House labored with the Junior High boys until he was able to obtain a smooth working quintet. It was only through the untiring efforts of Coach House and the cooperation of those who participated in the sport, that Mr. House was able to produce a good team.

All in all, Coach House enjoyed a fair season his first year. His boys lost to Welty, Cambridge, and broke even with Dennison Junior High. To overshadow their defeats, the boys reached the acme of their season by beating a highly touted Freeport team and then entered the Junior High Tournament and eliminated a superior Dover Freshman quintet.

We are wishing Mr. House all the success possible as he labors to produce good players for the future teams of N. H. S.

Early in its development the Hi-Y movement adopted as its purpose "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." Though varying in technique and organization from highly organized large clubs to extremely simple small groups, this purpose is adhered to by all the clubs in the movement.

The slogan of the Hi-Y Club is usually associated with the purpose. This slogan is frequently stated as the Four C's: Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Athletics.

In the Young Women's Christian Association, teen-age girls who form a division are called Girl Reserves. This club has completed its second year of work in N. H. S. and feel the task has been well accomplished.

The blue triangle within the circle is the Girl Reserve symbol. The three sides of the triangle represent the body, mind, and spirit. The Girl Reserve code embodies those ideals of love, service and right living which help a girl's life to be lovely and worth while.

The meaning of Girl Reserve lies in a bigger thing, which takes root in a girl's heart and grows into what is called "the Girl Reserve spirit" which makes her "look up and love and laugh and lift."

The Home Economics Club was organized in 1933, by student of the Home Economics Department. It was reorganized in 1934, and in 1935 was opened to girls of the upper classes having two years of Home Economics.

Literature Club

First row:—Grace Lyons, Rachel Neighbor, Kathrine Troendly, Miss Brenda Conn, Miss Alwilda Fenton, Mary Simoni, Ruth Early, Jeane Richmond.

Second row:—Robert Elliott, Lloyd Maloy, Hilda Chapman, Helen Schumacher, Helen Hill, Billie Miller, Vernon Dreher.

President: Rachel Neighbor

Vice-President: Ruth Early

Sec.-Treas.: Helen Schumacher

Sponsors: Miss Brenda Conn and Miss Alwilda Fenton

The Literature Club was organized by Miss Conn and Miss Fenton for the purpose of studying contemporary authors. This club consists of Juniors and Seniors who keep a 93% average in English throughout the year.

We hope this organization will continue in the coming years and will prove as beneficial to its new members as it has proved to be to its charter members.

Bibleoteka Club

First row:—Gladys Neal, Miss Christina Macmillan, Lillian Gombar, Ruth Silverthorne.

Second row:—Katherine Troendly, Helen Schumacher, Hilda Chapman, Harriet Opphile, Rachel Neighbor, Dorothy Shaeffer.

President: Lillian Gombar

Vice-President: Gladys Neal

Sec.-Treas.: Ruth Silverthorne

Faculty Advisor: Miss Christina Macmillan

The Bibleoteka Club was reorganized in September. The purpose of the organization is to give its members an opportunity to study the care of a library and help the students in their selection of reading materials.

N. H. S. Library received the loan of 192 fiction books from the State Library and 200 books from the New Philadelphia Public Library for the school term.

Once each month the librarians enjoy a luncheon in the Library.

Senior Booster Club

First row:—Jeane Richmond, Nelva Myers, Edna Hothem, Mary Simoni, Marjorie Schlupp, Ruth Early.

Second row:—Ruth Widder, Mary Kathryn Rodenstine, Betty Lauer, Lavonne Kees, Harriet Opphile, Ruth Silverthorne, Betty Meyer.

Third row:—Helen Booth, Laura Gadd, Ruth Bradshaw, Mable Craigo, Miss Lucille Moore.

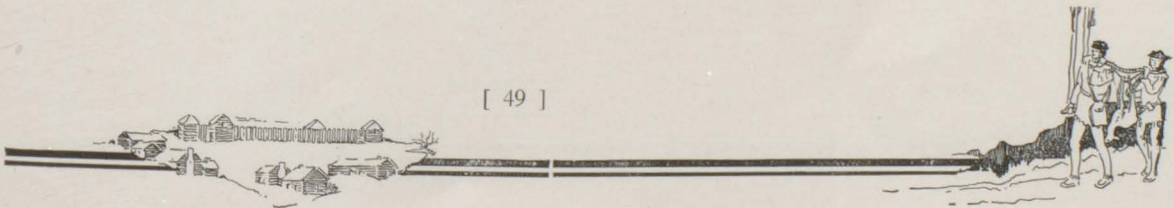

President: Ruth Early

Vice-President: Mary Kathryn Rodenstine

Sec.-Treas.: Ruth Widder

Sponsor: Miss Lucille Moore

The Booster Club of 1935 was organized in the fall of the school term. The purpose of the club was to raise money for the Athletic fund. Nineteen girls have diligently worked to make the club a success. Miss Moore, who was chosen club sponsor, has been faithful in her work. The members have all enjoyed the club and are sorry that graduation brings their work to a close.

Junior Booster Club

First row:—Henrietta Hill, Lois Richmond, Evelyn Angle, Isabel Early, Alma Thompson, Theresa Gombar, Gladys Neal, Francis Milligan.

Second row:—Dorothy Shaeffer, Miss Alwilda Fenton, Jeane Rogers.

Third row:—Grace Lyons, Betty King, Corle McAllister, Thelma Craigo, Virginia Langell.

President: Alma Thompson

Vice-President: Isabel Earley

Sec.-Treas.: Henrietta Hill

Sponsor: Miss Alwilda Fenton

You can imagine what a racket was raised when the Junior girls heard that there was to be no Booster Clubs this Year. But after much persuasion our purpose was achieved. The girls have been doing their best to make this club a success. The money they made was raised by candy sales, bake sales, and by the sale of jello.

Sophomore Booster Club

First row:—Dale Hudson, Elizabeth Knowles, Vida Loader, Betty Lewis,
Second row:—Ruth Patterson, Dorothy Starker, Hazel Gadd, Miss Brenda Conn,
Rita Maxwell, Geraldine Lewis, Mildred McCollum.
Third row:—Carol Palmer, Ruth Kohler.

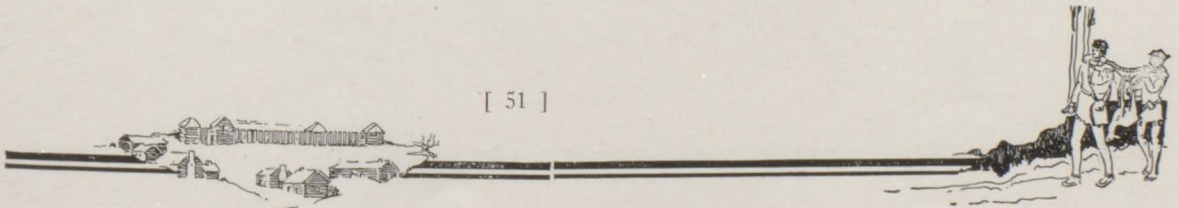

President: Rita Maxwell

Vice-President: Sara Gross

Sec.-Treas.: Elizabeth Knowles

Sponsor: Miss Brenda Conn

The Sophomore Booster Club was organized October 9, 1934 with fourteen members. It has the honor of having the most money in the treasury raised by candy sales, bake sales and dues, which are ten cents a month. Each one has cooperated well in making this a successful year.

Public Speaking Play

The Path Across the Hill, a 3 act comedy drama, was well presented by members of the Public Speaking class to an enthusiastic audience, Friday night, March 28.

The cast consisted of: Grandpa, Lloyd Maloy; Post, John Taylor; Walter, Joe Dillehay; Dr. Reed, David Davis; Salamander, Ed McCall; Grandma, Virginia Langell; Ruth, Ruth Early; Flo, Isabel Early; Lutie, Henrietta Hill; Zuza, Bessie Cunningham; Business Manager, Lois Richmond; Property Manager, Betty Meyer; Director, Miss Dorothea K. Swigert.

Preceding and following the play music was furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of Mrs. E. G. Clifton.

Between the acts of the play the Girls' Sextette and the Boys' Octette sang.

Those in the Sextette were: Hilda Chapman, Sara Gross, Helen Schumacher, Katherine Troendly, Evelyn Taylor, and Rachel Neighbor. They sang "Amaryllis" and "A Song of Home".

The Octette consisted of Joe Dillehay, Chris Yanai, Horace Jackson, Nick Knezevich, Vernon Dreher, Paul Taylor, Ed McCall, and Howard Norman. They sang "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride" and "Those Pals of Ours".

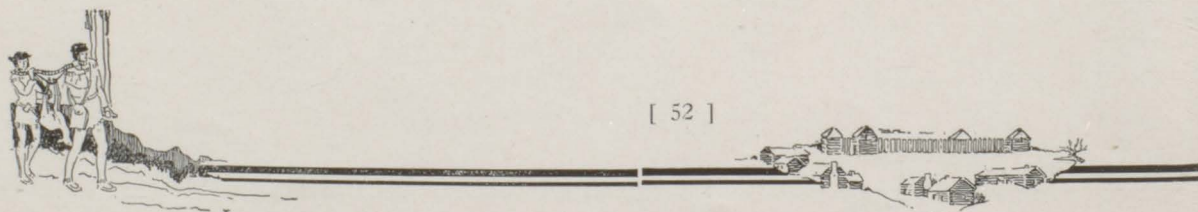

The Sextette and Octette were directed by Mrs. Clarence Baxter and accompanied by Dorothea Starker.

Exhibit

The annual Home Economics and Industrial Arts Exhibit was held at the High School Auditorium May 8, 1935 under the supervision of Miss Dorothea Swigert, and Mr. Clarence Reese. Approximately 70 girls modeled dresses they had made in the sewing classes. Furniture made in the Manual Training classes was artistically displayed.

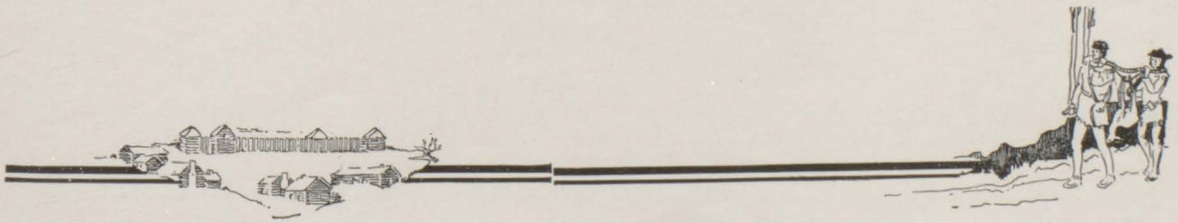

Class Play

Dying to Live, a farce in three acts, was the class play presented by the Juniors and Seniors Friday, May 10, under the direction of Miss Swigert and Miss Macmillan. The cast was as follows: Samson Winlock, Harold Anderson; Olivia Winlock, Evelyn Treasure; Sylvia Winlock, Lavonne Kees; Chick Breen, Harry Bowers; Melva Jones, Retha Richmond; Naomi Estelle, Virginia Langell; Estelle Gay, Nelva Myers; Mina Roystan, Betty Meyers; Mrs. Dillon Dilwottle, Dorothy Schaeffer; Montrose Langdon, Eugene Hackenbracht; Savoldi Yutaka, John Taylor. The business staff consisted of: Clarence Ort, Business Manager; Gene Matthews, Stage Manager; David Davis, Property Manager; Harriet Opphile, Ticket Manager.

EARL & BOB

Mr. Schroeder (in Science class): Royce, what can you tell me about nitrates?

Royce Moore: Well-er-um-oh, yes! They're a lot cheaper than day rates.

LeRoy Miller: How old is your little baby brother?

Fred Greathouse: He's a this-year's model.

A teacher tells of an excuse which the mother of one of her pupils sent in the other day. The excuse read: "Please excuse Charles. He got wet in the a. m. and was took sick in the p. m."

Russell Coutts: I'm going to be an aviator. I've been air-minded for years.

Herschel Derr: I guess I'd better be a garage man. I've been tow-headed all my life.

Nick Knezevich: The horn on your car must be broken.

Harry Bower: No, it's just indifferent.

Nick K.: Indifferent! What do you mean?

Harry B.: It just doesn't give a hoot.

Passenger: Why are we so late?

Porter: Well, sah, de train in front is behind, and we aws behind befoe besides.

Jim Parsons was telling Ralph Reed about a fish he had almost caught. "About the size of a whale, wasn't it?" asked Ralph. "I was baitin' with whales," answered Jim.

"Your doctor's out her with a flat tire."

"Diagnose the case as flatulency of the perimeter and charge him accordingly," ordered the garage man.

A school inspector happened to notice that a terrestrial globe in one of the classrooms was very dusty.

"Why, there's dust here an inch thick!" he said, drawing his finger across the surface.

"It's thicker than that, sir," calmly replied the teacher.

"What do you mean?" exclaimed the inspector, glaringly.

"Well, you've-er-got your finger on the Sahara desert," was the reply.

Jean Rogers: I met your sister on the street today; she looks shorter.

Virginia Langell: Yes, she got married and is settling down.

Bob Rehard: I cut my dog's tail off.

Clarence Ort: Did it effect his carriage?

Bob Rehard: No, but it stopped his wagon (waggin').

Betty Meyer: Waiter, there is sand in my bread.

Waiter: That's to keep the butter from sliding off.

Ann Davis: They say that women were here before looking glasses.

Jimmy Hillegas: Yes, and she has been here before them ever since.

Bob Knowles: How is your brother that lies?

Junior Reger: He would be a bare-face liar if he didn't have whiskers.

Lloyd Maloy: I used to be the leading man in the circus.

John Taylor: What did you do?

Lloyd Maloy: I led the dogs.

Ruth Early: I'll bet you can't guess what I saw on the rear of a street car today.

Helen Hill: What?

Ruth Early: The conductor.

Richard McMillen: The old people of Newcomerstown aren't what they used to be.

Billy Miller: No, they used to be children.

James Carr: Why does a dog curl his tail?

Bob Opphile: To let the fleas loop the loop.

Mr. Hinds: How do you measure electricity?

Max Corbett: Wat?

Mr. Hinds: Correct.

Paul Carruthers: I dreamed I kissed the prettiest girl in the world.

Marjorie Schlupp: How was I dressed?

For Sale: One good cow; gives lots of milk also lawn mowers and rakes.

Ed McCall (to John Fletcher): Why didn't you pass it to me; I was open. You're the dumbest boob on the squad.

Coach Schroeder: Boys, boys, you forget I am here.

Mr. May (talking to Freshman): I suppose you got your laziness from your father.

Freshman: No, he still has it.

Vernon Dreher: What's puppy love?

Ben Tidrick: The beginning of a dog's life.

Paul Alexander: Do you have animal crackers?

Manager (to clerk): Show the boy some dog biscuit.

Harry Bower: May I have the last dance with you?

Grace Zimmer: Don't be silly; you've had it.

Mrs. Reese (in the middle of the night): Wake up, Clarence, I hear a mouse squeaking.

Mr. Reese: What do you want me to do, get up and oil it?

John Schlupp: If you stood in my shoes what would you do?

Vida Loader: I would get a shine.

Did You Know

Paul Revere had the most famous night mare.

People eat breakfast food before going to bed so they will dream "serial" stories.

A motorist dreamed he was riding around with his muffler off and woke up with a cold.

Dreaming of falling is the result of a pillow "slip".

Dreaming of money shows lack of "cents".

Dreaming of airplanes means that you are "soar" headed.

A man had a night mare and woke up a little hoarse.

The day dreamer just idles through his daze.

If Virgil Peoples could write, would Ralph Reed?

If Marie Cunningham could rent, would Rachel Lease,

If Velma Hinds was lost, would Ruby Hunt?

If Edna Hothem weighed a ton, would Vida Loader?

If Corle McAllister could fish, would Evelyn Angle?

If Johnnie Mae Driver were a flag, would Mae Draper?

If Leonard Gist is late, is Ruth Early?

If Frances Milligan had whiskers, would Dorothy Shaeffer?

If Rachel Neighbor is silky, is Janet Lacey?

If Lorin Casteel is blacksmith, is Billy Miller?

If Jean Richmond is seamstress, is Paul Taylor?

If Harold rode on a trolley, would Audrey Anderson?

If Hugh Ortt was a bee, would Stanley Schworm?

If Jean Rogers is secretary, is Evelyn Treasure(r)?

If Vivian Lee had a ring, would Robert Palmer?

If James is Parson(s), is Lorraine Pope?

If Willard Beal is trousers, is Woodrow Coutts?

If Marvin Deer courted wrong, would Donald Courtwright?

If Mabel Craigo wished to sing, would Betty Lauer?

If Charles Norman is a spend-thrift, is Wayne (a) Mizer?

A very thin man met a very fat man in the hotel corridor. "From the looks of you," said the fat man, "there must have been a famine." "Yes, said the thin man. "by the looks of you, you must have caused it."

Constantly Searching

FOR centuries astronomers have looked into the skies searching for new worlds, constellations and stars. Aside from their interesting research work, they have learned much that is of practical scientific value.

Similarly, in the field of student publications, the Indianapolis Engraving Company searches constantly for new ideas, plans and methods that will assist year-book staffs to publish successfully books characteristic of their school and community. The results of these efforts are gratifying.

The Annual Planning and Designing Department welcomes your inquiries for further information.
